If the scrubber is used to collect fly ash as well as SO<sub>2</sub> or if the fly ash is mixed with the sludge, the volume of the sludge-ash combination would, of course, be larger depending on the ash content of the coal.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION PBX TECHNICAL STANDARDS SUBCOMMITTEE

Meeting

SEPTEMBER 4, 1975.

In accordance with Public Law 92-463, announcement is made of a public meeting of the Glossary Task Group of the FCC PBX Technical Standards Subcommittee to be held October 2, 1975 in Washington, D.C. The meeting will commence at 9 a.m., and will be held in Room A205, 1229 20th Street NW.

Purpose: The purpose of this Subcommittee is to prepare recommended standards and procedures to permit the interconnection of customer-provided and maintained PBX equipment to the switched telecommunications network without the need for carrier-provided connecting arrangements.

Activities: As at prior meetings, the Subcommittee members and observers present their suggestions and recommendations regarding the various technical criteria and standards that should be considered with respect to the interconnection of PBX equipment to the public network.

Agenda: The agenda for the October 2 meeting of the Glossary Task Group is as follows:

- (1) Review latest computer printout of glossary to remove redundant definitions and to clarify ambiguous text.
- (2) Review plans for completion of work.

Public Participation: The public is invited to attend this meeting. Any member of the public wishing to file a written statement with the Subcommittee may do so before or after the meeting.

For more information, contact the Common Carrier Bureau on (202) 632-6917.

SHIP STATION LICENSEES Frequency Authorization

In the matter of use of frequencies in the band 156-162 MHz by ship station licensees authorized frequencies in the band 2000-2850 kHz.

1. In Docket No. 18307 the Commission adopted § 83.351(c) (3) of the rules requiring new ship stations, and after January 1, 1977, all ship stations, employing frequencies in the band 2000-2850 kHz to be equipped to transmit on VHF frequencies in the band 156-162 MHz.

2. Many licensees authorized by their present licenses to operate in the 2 MHz band are equipping their stations to operate on VHF frequencies before January 1, 1977. Since the Commission is desirous that these licensees have and use VHF equipment, the Commission feels that these licensees should be allowed to operate their newly installed VHF equipment under the authority of their existing licenses.

3. Accordingly, ship station licensees authorized to operate on frequencies in the band 2000-2850 kHz are hereby authorized to install and operate type accepted maritime VHF radio equipment in accordance with the applicable oper-

ALGONQUIN GAS TRANSMISSION CO. Order Granting Interventions

SEPTEMBER 3, 1975.

On April 8, 1975, the Algonquin Gas Transmission Company (Algonquin) tendered for filing proposed changes in its FPC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1. Notice of Algonquin's filing was issued by the Commission on April 15, 1975, with protests and petitions to intervene due on or before April 28, 1975. Untimely protests and petitions to intervene were filed by Rhode Island Consumer's Council, Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation, and the Rhode Island Public Utilities Commission. Having reviewed the above petitions to intervene, we believe that the petitioners have sufficient interest in the proceedings to warrant interventions.

The Commission finds: It is desirable and in the public interest to allow the above-named petitioners to intervene.

The Commission Orders: (A) The above-named petitioners are hereby permitted to intervene in these proceedings subject to the rules and regulations of the Commission; Provided, however, that participation of such intervenors shall be limited to matters affecting asserted rights and interests as specifically set forth in the petition to intervene; and Provided, further, that the admission of such intervenors shall not be construed as recognition by the Commission that they might be aggrieved because of any order or orders of the Commission entered in this proceeding.

(B) The interventions granted herein shall not be the basis for delaying or deferring any procedural schedules heretofore established for the orderly and expeditious disposition of this proceeding.

(C) The Secretary shall cause prompt publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

BOSTON EDISON CO. Notice of Tariff Change

SEPTEMBER 3, 1975.

Take notice that Boston Edison Company (Edison) of Boston, Massachusetts on August 27, 1975, tendered for filing Third Revised Exhibit B to its contracts with the following four total requirements wholesale customers:

	FPC Rate Schedule No.
Town of Concord.....	47
Town of Norwood.....	48
Town of Reading.....	49
Town of Wellesley.....	51

The rate schedule is proposed to be effective for deliveries of power and energy on and after September 27, 1975.

KENNETH F. PLUMB,
Secretary.

[FR Doc.75-24033 Filed 9-9-75;8:45 am]

The proposed rate schedule will increase revenues from the total requirements sales by $3,186,092, based on sales for the 1975 test year. The filing also proposes modifications in rate design and in the fuel cost adjustment clause.

Edison states that it has filed the proposed change in rate in order to recover the capital costs of its new Mystic 7 generating unit, to arrest the serious deterioration in its financial status and so that its rate for all requirements resale service will properly compensate it for the costs of rendering that service.

A copy of the filing has been mailed to each of Edison's customers affected by the proposed change and to the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before September 16, 1975. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

Secretary.

[Project No. 2409]

CALAVERAS COUNTY WATER DISTRICT Notice of Amended Application for Major License

SEPTEMBER 3, 1975.

Public notice is hereby given that an amended application was filed on March 31, 1975, under the Federal Power Act (16 U.S.C. §§ 791a-825r) by Calaveras County Water District (Correspondence to: General Manager, Calaveras County Water District, P.O. Box 846, San Andreas, California 95249, and Robert L. McCarty, Esq., Special Counsel, McCarty and Noone, 1225 Connecticut Avenue, Washington, D.C. 20036) for a major license for Project No. 2409 on the Stanislaus River, North Fork of the Stanislaus River and the following tributaries: Highland Creek, Silver Creek, Beaver Creek, Griswold Creek, Angels Creek and Mill Creek. The proposed project would be located in the Counties of Calaveras, Alpine and Tuolumne, in the vicinity of Sonora, City of Angels and San Andreas, California, and would affect lands of the United States within Stanislaus National Forest.

The proposed North Fork Stanislaus River Development would include three major dams and reservoirs with a gross storage capacity of 318,000 acre-feet, three small forebay and diversion dams, three power plants with a total installed capacity of 320,000 kW, associated tunnels, penstocks, and the necessary control works. The scheme for development, beginning at the uppermost reservoirs, includes the following facilities:

(a) Utica-Union Dam and Reservoir—A rockfill dam with concrete face 195 feet high and 1,650 feet long on North Fork Stanislaus River about 1.3 miles below the existing Utica Dam and the junction with Silver Creek, which would replace the existing Pacific Gas and Electric Company Utica and Union Reservoirs (licensed as FPC Project No. 2019) with a single reservoir having a total storage capacity of 66,000 acre-feet at normal maximum water surface elevation 6,860 feet (m.s.l.), and an ungated concrete ogee spillway with a crest elevation of 6,800 feet located in a saddle about one-half mile from the left abutment of the dam. The existing reservoir storage would be increased 51,000 acre-feet.

(b) Spicer Meadow Dam and Reservoir—A rockfill dam 160 feet high and 800 feet long with a concrete face on Highland Creek at the site of the existing Pacific Gas and Electric Company Spicer Meadow dam (licensed as FPC Project No. 2019), which would create a reservoir having a total storage capacity of 52,000 acre-feet with normal maximum water surface elevation 6,520 feet (m.s.l.). An ungated side channel spillway would be located on the right abutment. The existing reservoir storage would be increased 48,000 acre-feet.

(c) High Spicer Meadow Dam and Reservoir—An alternative for ultimate development would consist of the construction of a rock fill dam about 250 feet high and 2,600 feet long creating about 169,000 acre-feet of storage capacity at elevation 6,600 acre-feet (m.s.l.). This alternative, however, would encroach upon the Gabbot Meadow area, to be reviewed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Forest Service, to determine its suitability for consideration by Congress for designation as a Wilderness Area. Because of this possible conflict the proposed Spicer Meadow Reservoir is lower in elevation and designed not to inundate the Gabbot Meadow Area.

(d) Ganns Development—This development would include: (1) a rockfill dam with a concrete face 145 feet high and 800 feet long on the North Fork Stanislaus River approximately ¾ mile below its confluence with Highland Creek, which would form a reservoir of 5,600 acre-feet storage capacity with normal maximum water surface elevation 5,600 feet (m.s.l.), and an ungated side channel spillway which would be located in the right abutment; (2) a tunnel approximately six miles long which would be constructed to convey water from Ganns Reservoir to a penstock about 4,000 feet in length leading to Ganns Power Plant; (3) an underground surge chamber which would be constructed in the granite formation at the entrance to the penstock; and (4) Ganns Power Plant which would have an installation of one 50,000 kW generating unit operating under a maximum static head of 1,418 feet.

(e) Boards Development—This development would include: (1) a rockfill dam 430 feet high and 1,700 feet long with a concrete face located on North Fork Stanislaus River approximately 2 miles below Boards Crossing Bridge, which would form a 200,000 acre-feet reservoir at maximum water surface elevation 4,174 feet (m.s.l.) having an ungated cascade type spillway in the right abutment; (2) a tunnel 8 miles in length which would convey the releases from the reservoir to a steel penstock at the end of the tunnel; and (3) a penstock about 3,000 feet long leading to Boards Power Plant, which would supply water for the installation of two impulse turbines operating under a maximum static head of 2,204 feet and driving generators with an installed capacity of 97,500 kW each.

(f) Upper Beaver Creek Diversion—A concrete diversion dam with overflow spillway crest elevation 4688.5 feet (m.s.l.) on Beaver Creek near Boards Reservoir, which would divert water through a 2,500-foot tunnel into a natural watercourse to Boards Reservoir.

(g) Collierville Development—This development would include: (1) a concrete gravity dam 60 feet high and 600 feet long with a central overflow spillway located on North Fork Stanislaus River about 2 miles below the existing Pacific Gas and Electric Company Utica Project Diversion works; the spillway crest would be at elevation 1,960 feet (m.s.l.). (The reservoir would serve as an afterbay for the Boards Power Plant and a forebay for diversion to Collierville Tunnel); (2) a tunnel 23,000 feet (4.35 miles) in length which would convey the flow to the head of the 1,400-foot penstock leading to the Collierville Power Plant located at Clarks Flat below the confluence of the North and Middle Forks Stanislaus River; and (3) Collierville Power Plant, which would have an initial installation of one 75,000 kW unit operating under a static head range between 872 and 887 feet; all water passing through the plant would be returned to the headwaters of the New Melones Reservoir.

(h) Griswold Creek Diversion—A low concrete gravity diversion dam on Griswold Creek which would divert the flow through a 1,600-foot tunnel discharging into the Collierville Forebay Reservoir, and which would have an overflow spillway section with crest elevation 1,985 feet (m.s.l.) and a gated spillway section.

The transmission system required in association with the proposed project would include two major segments. A 69 kV insulated cable suitable for direct burial would be required between a switchyard adjacent to the Ganns Power Plant and an existing Pacific Gas and Electric Company line along State Highway 4. The underground line would be approximately one mile in length. The existing line along State Highway 4 would require upgrading to 69 kV.

An overhead 230 kV transmission line would be required between the Boards and Collierville Power Plants. The new line would be approximately eight miles in length and would extend from the switchyards adjacent to the power plants to a switching station located approximately 1½ miles west of Clarks Flat, where the output from the two plants would be combined for further transmission. The existing line from this point would require upgrading to the Belote substation.

Recreational Facilities are proposed at the following five areas: Spicer Meadow Reservoir (2 sites); Utica-Union Reservoir (3 sites); North Fork Stanislaus River below Utica-Union Reservoir (1 site); Ganns Forebay (4 sites); and Boards Reservoir—Beaver Creek Diversion Dam (6 sites). Proposed recreational facilities would be developed at each of the five areas initially upon completion of the North Fork Project features described above. Recreational developments would include camping, picnicking, sanitary, parking, boat launching, and administrative facilities, trails, and water systems. In addition, future development at Ganns Forebay would include picnicking, parking, and restroom facilities, drinking water, and a trail. Applicant estimates initial construction costs (current prices) at $1,608,600 and further costs at approximately $20,000. Applicant proposes to fund 50% of the facilities with a maximum funding of $1,000,000.

The power from the proposed project would be integrated into the Northern California area power systems served principally by Pacific Gas and Electric Company, Sacramento Municipal Utility District, Northern California Power Agency, City and County of San Francisco, the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation Central Valley Project, the Modesto and Turlock Irrigation Districts, and the California Department of Water Resources.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before November 17, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 C.F.R. § 1.8 or § 1.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules. The application is on file with the Commission and is available for public inspection.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by Sections 308 and 309 of the Federal Power Act (16 U.S.C. § 825g, § 825h) and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, specifically Section 1.32(b) (18 C.F.R. § 1.32(b)), as amended by Order No. 518, a hearing may be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no issue of substance is raised by any request to be heard, protest or petition filed subsequent to this notice within the time required herein and if the applicant or initial pleader requests that the shortened procedure of Section 1.32(b) be used. If an issue of substance is so raised or applicant or initial pleader fails to request the shortened procedure, further notice of hearing will be given.

Under the shortened procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for applicant or initial pleader to appear or be represented at the hearing before the Commission.

Secretary.

COLUMBIA GAS TRANSMISSION CORP. Notice of Application

SEPTEMBER 3, 1975.

Take notice that on August 14, 1975, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation, 1700 MacCorkle Avenue SE., Charleston, West Virginia 25314, filed in Docket No. CP76-56 an application pursuant to Section 7 (b) and (c) of the Natural Gas Act for permission and approval to abandon its transportation of synthetic gas for The Wiser Oil Company (Wiser) and for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing transportation of gas under a revised service agreement with the City of Lancaster, Ohio (Lancaster), which would increase the annual volume of gas to be accepted, exchanged and delivered to Lancaster, all as more fully set forth in the application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant states that Wiser desires to terminate its agreement with Columbia LNG Corporation (Columbia LNG) to purchase up to 30,911 Mcf of synthetic gas and to cancel the service agreement in effect with Applicant for the transportation of the gas from Columbia LNG's Green Springs Reforming Plant to Wiser. Applicant requests that the Commission grant permission and approval to abandon the service set forth in the service agreement with Wiser dated January 18, 1974, for the exchange, delivery and acceptance of 30,911 Mcf of gas annually under Rate Schedule SGES.

Applicant further states that by letter agreement dated July 16, 1975, Lancaster has accepted all of Wiser's obligations for delivery, acceptance and exchange of liquefied natural gas; and therefore, Applicant requests a certificate of public convenience and necessity be granted to it authorizing the increase in annual volumes of gas to be delivered, accepted and exchanged for Lancaster from 163,077 Mcf to 193,988 Mcf of gas under Rate Schedule SGES.

Applicant requests that service under the revised service agreement authorized effective September 1, 1975.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before September 22, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate and permission and approval for the proposed abandonment are required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

NATURAL GAS PIPELINE COMPANY OF AMERICA

Notice of Petition To Amend

SEPTEMBER 3, 1975.

Take notice that on August 26, 1975, Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America (Petitioner), 122 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60603, filed in Docket No. CP74-134 a petition to amend the order of the Commission of May 29, 1973, issued in said docket pursuant to Section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act, to include authorization to exchange natural gas with Northern Natural Gas Company (Northern) at two additional points pursuant to a gas exchange agreement between itself and Northern dated June 29, 1973, as amended December 16, 1974, all as more fully set forth in the petition to amend on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Petitioner states that it would cause the delivery of natural gas to Northern at proposed exchange points in Hansford County, Texas, and in Beaver County, Oklahoma. The gas delivered would be purchased from Lone Star Producing Company and from Joseph I. O'Neill, Jr., et al., for delivery to Northern at the Texas and Oklahoma delivery points respectively. Northern would redeliver equivalent volumes of gas to Peitioner at an existing point of interconnection in Wheeler County, Texas.

The proposed exchange would be a gas-for-gas exchange with no monetary compensation. Further, it is stated that Northern is already connected to each of the gas wells in question and no further facilities would be required.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said petition to amend should on or before September 23, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules.

NATURAL GAS PIPELINE COMPANY OF AMERICA

Notice of Application

SEPTEMBER 3, 1975.

Take notice that on August 22, 1975, Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America (Applicant), 122 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60603, filed in Docket No. CP76-61 an application pursuant to Section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the transportation and delivery of up to 4,200,000 Mcf of natural gas for Northern Natural Gas Company (Northern), all as more fully set forth in the application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant states that pursuant to an agreement between Northern and Northern Illinois Gas Company (NI Gas), Northern and NI Gas have agreed to reschedule deliveries of natural gas from December 1, 1975, to October 31, 1976. This is stated to be subject to an application in Docket No. CP76-40 by Northern.<sup>1</sup> Applicant proposes to deliver to Northern at an existing delivery point in Mills County, Iowa, such volumes of natural gas as Northern might direct, up to 70,000 Mcf per day, from December 1, 1975, to March 31, 1976, up to a maximum of 4,200,000 Mcf by which volumes Applicant would reduce its deliveries to NI Gas. It is stated that Northern would deliver to Applicant for redelivery to NI Gas for the account of Northern up to 90,000 Mcf of gas per day in April 1976, up to 145,000 Mcf of natural gas per day in May 1976, and up to 200,000 Mcf of gas per day thereafter until November 1, 1976.

Applicant states that no facilities would have to be constructed to render the proposed transportation service. All deliveries and redeliveries to and from Northern are proposed to take place at the existing interconnection in Mills County, Iowa.

Northern would pay Applicant 11.5 cents per Mcf of gas transported. This is said to be the full cost to Applicant for the transportation service.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before September 26, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

NIAGARA MOHAWK POWER CORP.

Notice of Tariff Filing

SEPTEMBER 3, 1975.

Take notice that Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation, on August 22, 1975, tendered for filing as a rate schedule, a transmission agreement between Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation (Niagara) and Consolidated Edison Company of New York, Inc. (Edison), dated February 14, 1975. The service to be rendered by Niagara provides for the transmission of power and energy between Niagara's transmission connection to the Power Authority of the State of New York (PASNY) Fitzpatrick-Edic No. 1, 345 Kv transmission line and Niagara's transmission connection with Edison's Pleasant Valley 345 Kv station.

Transmission capacity to be made available to Edison will be that amount required to transmit James A. Fitzpatrick Nuclear Power Plant (Fitzpatrick) unsupported firm power made available to Edison by PASNY in accordance with the Fitzpatrick contracts and agreements in effect between PASNY and Edison.

Copies of the filing were served upon the following:

Consolidated Edison Company of New York, Inc., 4 Irving Place, New York, New York 10003.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capital Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before September 15, 1975. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

NIAGARA MOHAWK POWER CORP.

Notice of Tariff Filing

SEPTEMBER 3, 1975.

Take notice that Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation, on August 22, 1975, tendered for filing as a rate schedule, a transmission agreement between Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation and Long Island Lighting Company, dated February 14, 1975.

The service to be rendered by Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation (Niagara) provides for the transmission of power and energy between (a) Niagara's transmission connection to the Power Authority of the State of New York (PASNY) Fitzpatrick-Edic No. 1 345 Kv transmission line and (b) Niagara's transmission connections with the Pleasant Valley 345 Kv substation.

Transmission capacity to be made available to Long Island Lighting Company (Lilco) will be that which is scheduled as unsupported firm power for Lilco by PASNY in accordance with the James A. Fitzpatrick Nuclear Power Plant (Fitzpatrick) contracts and agreements in effect between PASNY and Lilco.

Copies of the filing were served upon the following:

Long Island Lighting Company, 175 East Old Country Road, Hicksville, New York 11801.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capital Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before September 15, 1975. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

NORTHWEST PIPELINE CORP.

Petition To Amend

SEPTEMBER 3, 1975.

Take notice that on August 20, 1975, Northwest Pipeline Corporation (Petitioner), P.O. Box 1526, Salt Lake City, Utah 84110, filed in Docket No. CP74-46

1975-76 Heating season

Total	150,000	1,567,500	1,200,000	12,540,000

Petitioner proposes herein to commence operation of the LNG facility upon receipt of the authorization requested herein. It is stated that approximately two weeks will be necessary to check all of the systems involved and then the liquefaction facilities must be cooled down to design temperatures. The storage tank for LNG is expected to be completed and operational by late November 1975.

Petitioner states that it anticipates that the LNG facility will not be ready for full operation prior to November 30, 1975, and therefore will not be capable of liquefying sufficient gas for the seasonal withdrawal capacity of 1,200,000 Mcf. Petitioner would liquefy during the 1975-1976 heating season such volumes of gas as the customers that are participating in the proposed LNG storage service would be able to tender to it from their daily entitlements. If the volume requested to a petition to amend the order of the Commission of March 19, 1974, issued in said docket pursuant to Section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act (1) to authorize the operation of its liquefied natural gas (LNG) facility at Plymouth, Washington, (2) to authorize the vaporization and delivery on a best efforts basis of LNG for the period commencing December 1, 1975, and continuing through March 31, 1976, and on a firm basis thereafter; (3) to accept the responses by Petitioner to the conditions set forth in the order of March 19, 1974; and (4) to the form of service as proposed by Petitioner, all as more fully set forth in the petition to amend on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Petitioner states that its LNG facility is in the final stages of construction and will be ready for initial operation in late October or early November 1975. Petitioner further states that authorization by the Commission for operation of the facility was held in abeyance in the order of March 19, 1974, and now requests that the Commission amend said order to authorize operation for the vaporization and delivery on a best efforts basis of up to 150,000 Mcf of gas for the account of customers which would receive service under Petitioner's proposed Rate Schedule LS-1 for the period commencing December 1, 1975, and continuing through March 31, 1976, as set forth below:

volumes of LNG withdrawn throughout the withdrawal season, which would result in fuller utilization of the facility. Rate Schedule LS-1 is proposed to become effective on December 1, 1975, when the LNG facilities are placed into service.

It is stated that under the proposed Rate Schedule LS-1 each customer would make available each day for 200 days during the injection period beginning April 1, 1/200 of the customer's respective storage capacity volume for liquefaction and storage by Petitioner for the customer's account. The volumes tendered for storage on each day would be purchased by each customer under Petitioner's Rate Schedules ODL-1 or DS-1, as applicable, out of the customers entitlement under Rate Schedules ODL-1 or DS-1 on such day. Petitioner would retain possession and title to all volumes of LNG in its storage facility.

Petitioner proposes to charge for the liquefaction and LNG storage service with a four-part rate:

Charge	Amount
Demand	Per month per therm of storage demand volume
Capacity	Per month per therm of storage capacity volume
Liquefaction	Per therm of gas liquefied and stored for buyer's account during the month
Vaporization	Per therm of gas vaporized and delivered to buyer during the month

It is stated that the four-part rate provides that Petitioner's fixed cost of liquefaction and LNG storage will be recovered through the demand and capacity charges and the liquefaction and vaporization charges are designed to recover the variable cost of liquefaction and vaporization respectively.

Petitioner states that the LNG plant has been designed and constructed and will be operated and maintained in compliance with applicable government and industry codes.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said petition to amend should on or before September 24, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules.

PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT CO.*Notice of Modification of Rate Schedule

SEPTEMBER 3, 1975.

Take notice that Pacific Power & Light Company (Pacific) on August 28, 1975, tendered for filing, in accordance with Section 35.13 of the Commission's Regulations, a new rate schedule for power and energy sales to City of Powell, Wyoming (City). This rate schedule supersedes Pacific's existing rate schedule designated FPC No. 90.

The proposed rate schedule provides for a change in structure of the rate charged City by Pacific. Pacific states that this proposed change in rate structure is to conform to the high voltage rate charged to larger customers in the State of Wyoming. Pacific states that to be consistent with this rate structure results in an approximate 15 percent increase in the cost of electric service to City. In addition, since City has elected to use Pacific's transmission facilities a use-of-facilities charge has been included by Pacific.

Pacific requests waiver of the Commission's notice requirements to permit the new rate schedule to become effective June 1, 1975, which it claims is the date of commencement of service.

A copy of this filing was supplied to the Wyoming Public Utility Commission.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before September 18, 1975. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

TRANSCONTINENTAL GAS PIPE LINE CORP.*Notice of Application

SEPTEMBER 3, 1975.

Take notice that on August 22, 1975, Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Applicant), P.O. Box 1396, Houston, Texas 77001, filed in Docket No. CP76-62 an application pursuant to Section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the transportation of natural gas on an interruptible basis for Washington Gas Light Company (WGL), all as more fully set forth in the application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant states that pursuant to a gas transportation agreement between itself and WGL, it has agreed to transport gas for WGL from an existing point of interconnection with Florida Gas Transmission Company in Vermilion Parish, Louisiana, to an existing point of interconnection with WGL in Fairfax County, Virginia. Applicant states that the gas to be transported would be sold to WGL by a production subsidiary of WGL, Crab Run Gas Company.

The application indicated that 3,000 Mcf of gas per day are now available for transportation by Applicant. Applicant proposes to charge 22.0 cents per Mcf at 14.7 psia for its service and to purchase 3.8 percent of the gas received for compressor fuel and make-up for line loss.

Applicant states that the proposed interruptible transportation service is directly related to the curtailments in sales and deliveries that Applicant is now required to make and is a step to alleviate those curtailments being imposed on WGL. The transportation agreement is said to provide that WGL shall not request transportation on any day of a quantity of gas which when added to the quantity of gas WGL is scheduled to receive on such day under Applicant's Rate Schedule CD-2, would exceed WGL's contract demand under said rate schedule.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before September 25, 1975, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a petition to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

TRANSCONTINENTAL GAS PIPE LINE CORP.*Notice of Tariff Filing

SEPTEMBER 3, 1975.

Take notice that Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transco) on August 15, 1975, tendered for filing seven revised tariff sheets, included in Schedule 1 of the filing, to its FPC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1 and Original Volume No. 2.

Transco states that such filing is made in accordance with the provisions of Sections 5 and 6 of Article III of its "Agreement as to Rates" (Agreement) in the above dockets tracking (1) to recoup a net increase in advance payment amounts not previously reflected in rates of $21,761,540 and (2) to recoup under Transco's Rate Schedule S-2, changes in rates by Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation under the latter's Rate Schedule X-28. The proposed effective date of the filing is October 1, 1975, subject to Commission approval of the Agreement.

Transco states that the revised tariff sheets included in the filing reflect an increase of $.65266 in the S-2 Demand Charge, an increase of 5.189410¢ in the S-2 Demand Charge Adjustment, and an increase of 0.4¢ in the commodity rate or delivery charge of the Company's CD, G, OG, E, PS, S-2, X-11, X-20, X-42, X-52 and X-56 rate schedules.

The Company states that copies of the filing have been mailed to each of its jurisdictional customers and interested State Commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a petition to intervene or protest with the Federal Power Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 1.8 and 1.10 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 1.8, 1.10). All such petitions or protests should be filed on or before September 19, 1975. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a petition to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

NOTICES

[Docket No. RP75-109]

UNITED GAS PIPE LINE CO.*Order Denying Application for Rehearing

SEPTEMBER 3, 1975.

On May 30, 1975, United Gas Pipe Line Company (United) tendered for filing proposed changes in its FPC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1 and Original Volume No. 2, which would result in an increase in jurisdictional revenues of $38,870,504 annually, based on the 12-month period ended March 31, 1975, as adjusted for known and measurable changes through December 31, 1975.

By order issued July 7, 1975, we accepted the proposed changes for filing, suspended their effectiveness for five months and permitted them to become effective December 15, 1975. Our acceptance for filing was, however, expressly conditioned upon United's filing of revised tariff sheets reflecting the elimination from its cost of service of (a) interest payments to banks which have provided capital to certain producers for exploration and development; and (b) $2,300,000 representing carrying charges expected to be incurred within the adjusted test period associated with an entity United is organizing to make advance payments.

On August 6, 1975, United filed an application for rehearing of those portions of the Commission's July 7, 1975 order which found the inclusion of these costs in United's filing to be improper and which required United, prior to the effective date of the proposed rate increase, to file revised tariff sheets reflecting their elimination.

In support of its request for rehearing of our exclusion of costs associated with interest on producer loans United contends: (1) that the Commission is without authority to summarily reject a rate filing without affording the applicant a hearing; (2) that previous Commission orders requiring the exclusion of costs associated with interest on producer loans are inapposite to United's arrangements which are factually distinguishable; and (3) that the Commission's requirement of exclusion on the basis that the payments do not comport with outstanding advance payment orders is erroneous since the payments were not made as advance payments but as an alternative to advance payments.

United's allegation that we are without authority to find, absent a hearing, that the inclusion of costs associated with its interest payments is improper, is not supported. In the instant case, we have looked upon the allegations in the pleadings before us in their most favorable light, but have rejected the relief sought as inconsistent, as a matter of law and policy, with the purpose, scope and operation of our regulations. Accordingly, no suspension and evidentiary hearing is required; rather, summary rejection is in order.<sup>1</sup>

United's application for rehearing points out factual differences in the interest payment arrangements it has made with producers and the arrangements existing among other pipelines whose interest expenses have been found to be improper and therefore excluded.<sup>2</sup> For example, United contends that, unlike these other pipelines, it is paying actual interest expenses rather than imputed interest costs. United states further that, unlike these other pipelines, it has contracted for actual commitments of gas flowing as a result of the exploration and development aided by its payment of interest expenses.

United's factual distinctions do not require that we reach a different result than we have in previous cases involving interest on producer loans. Our rationale for the exclusion of costs was not premised upon those pipelines' costs being "imputed" but was premised on our conclusion that the arrangements did not serve to provide producers with capital for exploration and development that they would otherwise be unable to acquire. Similarly, United's payment to third party lenders of actual interest expenses does not serve the purpose of capital formation for the producers since the producers are demonstrably able to acquire such funds. We are of the opinion therefore that our previous orders on the issue of the inclusion of costs associated with interest on producer loans are relevant and should guide our present disposition.

United argues, thirdly, that the Commission's exclusion of these costs because they "are not within the purview of our advance payment regulations" is improper since the interest payments were not intended by United to fall under the advance payment program, but were designed as an alternative to advance payments. Our advance payment orders were issued only after the Commission concluded that the added expense to be borne ultimately by the ratepayer was necessary to encourage exploration and development for gas in the interstate market by providing capital funds to producers. To insure that the ratepayers would have sufficient protections, concurrent with the increased expenses they would have to bear, certain requirements and conditions were made part of our advance payment orders. The advance payment program was the vehicle chosen by us to provide the mechanism to aid producers in capital formation with only the necessary attendant rate increase to the ratepayers. United's arrangements, admittedly outside the realm of the advance payment program, would result in increased rates which may be unnecessary and which do not insure the same protections afforded by the requirements and conditions as our advance payment orders. We have concluded, and we reaffirm our finding that these payments are inconsistent with the mechanism we have established to aid producers in their exploration and development endeavors. As such we believe it more appropriate to consider the propriety of rate treatment for proposals such as United's in the context of any future rulemaking extending the advance payment program.

With respect to our exclusion of costs of the carrying charges associated with an entity to be established by United to make advance payments, we stated "United has failed to properly identify such entity and to indicate at what date it will be created. No mention whatsoever has been made of the eligibility of such entity to receive capital advances under the advance payments program as it presently exists. Moreover we believe that the establishment of such entity may well require Section 7 certification by this Commission. Under these circumstances, we cannot now sanction payment by United's customers of the carrying charges in question."

In support of its contention that the Commission improperly required United to reflect the elimination of costs associated with the carrying charges of advance payments made by an entity to be established, United argues (1) that the entity will make advance payments and not receive them and (2) because the entity will not engage in the sale of gas it would not be a "natural gas company" under the terms of the Natural Gas Act and will not require Section 7 certification.

Accepting United's distinction that the entity will be designed to make advance payments rather than to receive them, our conclusion that the inclusion of these costs is improper is still the same. We are not at all convinced that Section 7 certification will not be necessary. United states that the new entity "will assign the right to purchase the producers' gas to United in return for United's commitment to reimburse the entity for carrying and related charges on the advance." (United's Application for Rehearing, at p. 9). Because this entity has yet to be established and the arrangements for the sale and/or assignment to buy the producers' gas are yet to be finalized we cannot presently make the determination that Section 7 certification will not be necessary.

We are, moreover, as we stated in our July 7, 1975 order, concerned that United has not properly identified the entity nor indicated at what date it will be created. Because our Regulations clearly provide that only changes which are known and measurable in the test period as adjusted may be included in the cost of service, we are compelled by United's failure to identify this entity and inform us of the date of its creation to require the elimination from United's cost of service of the carrying charges.

For the reasons discussed above, we are of the opinion that United's application for rehearing of those parts of our July 7, 1975 order disapproving the inclusion in cost of service of costs associated with interest on producer loans and carrying charges of a yet-to-be-established entity and requiring revised tariff sheets reflecting the elimination of these costs should be denied.

The Commission finds: Good cause does not exist to grant United's application for rehearing of our order of July 7, 1975 in Docket No. RP75-109.

The Commission orders: (A) United's application for rehearing of our order issued July 7, 1975 in Docket No. RP75-109 is hereby denied.

(B) The Secretary shall cause prompt publication of this order to be made in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

SEPTEMBER 4, 1975.

On April 10, 1975, Autry C. Stephens, (Operator) et al. (Stephens) filed a petition for special relief pursuant to Section 2.76<sup>1</sup> of the Commission's General Policy and Interpretations for sales of natural gas to El Paso Natural Gas Company (El Paso) made under its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1 from Christmas "A" No. 1 Well and Devonian-Christmas No. 2 Well in Jalmat Field, Lea County, New Mexico.

Stephens is currently selling natural gas to El Paso at a rate of 24.0 cents per Mcf at 14.65 psia pursuant to a contract dated February 27, 1950, in which Stephens is a successor in interest to Shell Oil Company. It avers that this rate is insufficient to compensate it for the additional funds which it has expended and which it will expend in the future on remedial work essential to the recovery of the remaining reserves. Stephens claims that these outlays are necessary to remedy the decline in gas production due to sand cave-ins, decreasing reservoir pressure, and increasing water production. Accordingly, Stephens and El Paso entered into an amendatory agreement dated December 31, 1974, which provides for an increase in rate to 36 cents per Mcf at 14.65 psia.<sup>2</sup>

Notice of the petition was issued on May 1, 1975, and appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 8, 1975, at 40 FR 20135. No petitions to intervene were filed.

Staff has analyzed the cost data submitted by Stephens and has made an extensive field audit of Stephens' books and records. Based thereon Staff has determined that the remaining recoverable net working interest reserves are 220,898 Mcf and has concluded that the costs incurred and the future costs assigned fall within a zone of reasonableness. After a careful review of the merits of Stephens' petition, we believe that it is in the public interest to grant the requested relief.<sup>3</sup>

The Commission finds:

The petition for special relief filed by Stephens meets the criteria set forth in Section 2.76 of the Commission's General Policy and Interpretations.

The Commission orders:

(A) For the above-stated reasons, the petition for special relief of Stephens is hereby granted. Stephens is authorized to collect 36 cents per Mcf at 14.65 psia for all gas produced from the subject wells effective on the date a Notice of Independent Producer Rate Change Filing pursuant to the requirements of Section 154.94 of the Commission's Regulations is filed with the Commission.

(B) Stephens' December 31, 1974 contract amendment with El Paso is hereby accepted for filing as Supplement No. 18 to Autry C. Stephens, (Operator) et al., FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1 effective May 10, 1975.

By the Commission.

A. F. ROBERTS, JR.

Order Granting Petition for Special Relief

SEPTEMBER 4, 1975.

On April 3, 1975, A. F. Roberts (Roberts) filed a petition for special relief

pursuant to Section 2.76<sup>1</sup> of the Commission's General Policy and Interpretations for a sale of natural gas to El Paso Natural Gas Company (El Paso) made under its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3 from the Shannon Estate "V" No. 1 Well located in the Todd N.W. (San Andreas) Field, Crockett County, Texas. Roberts is currently selling natural gas to El Paso at a rate of 18.5 cents per Mcf at 14.65 psia pursuant to a contract dated February 16, 1967, in which Roberts is a successor in interest to Signal Oil & Gas Company. It avers that this rate is inadequate inasmuch as the installation of a two stage compression facility is required if the remaining reserves are to be recovered. As a result, on March 21, 1975, Roberts and El Paso negotiated an amendatory agreement providing for a rate of 36 cents per Mcf plus 1.0 cent annual escalation.<sup>2</sup>

Notice of the petition was issued on April 17, 1975, and appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 24, 1975 at 40 FR 18037. No petitions to intervene were filed.

Staff has reviewed the cost data submitted by Roberts and has made an extensive field audit of Roberts' books and records. Based thereon Staff estimates that 24,813 Mcf of reserves remain to be produced over a period of 2.33 years and concludes that the proposed rate is justified. After a careful review of the costs to be incurred and the reserves to be recovered, we conclude that it is in the public interest to grant Roberts' petition.<sup>3</sup>

The Commission finds:

The petition for special relief filed by Roberts meets the criteria set forth in Section 2.76 of the Commission's General Policy and Interpretations.

The Commission orders:

(A) For the above-stated reasons, the petition for special relief of Roberts is hereby granted. Roberts is authorized to collect 36 cents per Mcf at 14.65 psia, for all gas produced from the subject wells effective as of the date of issuance of this order.

(B) Roberts' March 21, 1975 contract amendment with El Paso and the related rate increase filing are hereby accepted as Supplement Nos. 5 and 6, respectively, to A. F. Roberts, Jr., et al., EPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3.

[Docket No. RP75-42-2]

EL PASO NATURAL GAS CO. (COMMUNITY PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY AND CITY OF LORDSBURG, NEW MEXICO)

Order Granting Interim Relief From Curtailment

SEPTEMBER 4, 1975.

On July 3, 1975, Community Public Service Company (Community), filed a Motion to amend its petition for emergency relief from curtailment imposed by El Paso Natural Gas Company (El Paso) 1, which had previously been filed on March 27, 1975, in the instant docket. The initial petition for relief had been jointly filed by Community and the City of Lordsburg, New Mexico and requested relief in the form of gas deliveries for use in a gas turbine at Community's Lordsburg electric generating plant while each of its two oil-fired generating units at that plant were down for repairs. By our order herein dated April 25, 1975,<sup>1</sup> we granted Community temporary emergency relief pendente lite for the first of two six-week periods. Later, when Community indicated it would have difficulty completing repairs during those periods it filed a motion to amend the April 25 order in which it requested relief for its Lordsburg plant from the date of a Commission order thereon until September 15, 1975. By an order issued June 17, 1975, herein<sup>2</sup> we provided Community with temporary relief from curtailment from that point in time until September 15, 1975. The relief was in the form of granting Community gas receipts of 3900 Mcf per day for use in its Lordsburg gas turbine unit.

Subsequently, Community filed its July 3 motion to amend its petition for emergency relief and therein requested that it be provided with interim relief pendente lite for gas used for ignition fuel and flame stabilization purposes. This request was made because El Paso has proposed to place such usage in Priority 5 in the tariff sheets it has filed with the Commission in response to Opinion Nos. 697 and 697-A and upon which we have not yet acted. Community based its request on the possibility that those tariff sheets might become effective before September 15 and thus subject it to the curtailment of its ignition fuel and flame stabilization volumes. The requested relief volume for those purposes is 1,350 Mcf per day. Community also requested 1,400 Mcf per day for two periods if up to three days when each of the units are returned to service after repairs.

The motion of Community to amend its petition was addressed to the Presiding Administrative Law Judge and on July 25, 1975, such motion was granted as requested. However, the ruling on the motion to amend the petition does not alleviate the problem insofar as the possible need for such volumes during the pendency of the interim relief. The Commission's orders granting interim relief pendente lite are unaffected by the Presiding Judge's order and do not provide for the possible need for additional volumes for flame stabilization and ignition fuel. We will grant herein the additional relief to Community to provide the requested volume for ignition fuel and flame stabilization in the event that the tendered El Paso tariff sheets become effective prior to September 15, 1975. In addition, we will permit Community to take 1,400 Mcf per day for two periods of up to three days when each of the oil fired units is returned to service.

We are granting this pendente lite relief for ignition fuel and flame stabilization volumes to enable Community's gas takes to be completely protected from curtailment so as not to jeopardize any portion of its operations during the overhaul and repair period of its oil-fired units. However, we will permit such exemption from ignition fuel and flame stabilization curtailment only during the period ending September 15, 1975, and only if curtailment should result because of the acceptance of El Paso's tendered tariff sheets which place the above types of gas usage in priority 5. In this way, Community will not be granted a preference over electric utilities beyond the period when necessary overhauls are completed. Also, we are granting the 1400 Mcf/d exemption for up to three days following overhaul of each oil fired unit to avoid problems in the start up of the oil fired units after maintenance is completed.

The Commission finds:
(1) It is in the public interest to permit Community to take 1350 Mcf per day of gas pendente lite for ignition fuel and flame stabilization purposes from the date of this order until September 15, 1975, if the tendered tariff sheets of El Paso, embodying implementation of its permanent plan, are accepted by the Commission.

(2) It is in the public interest to permit Community to take 1400 Mcf per day pendente lite of gas for up to three days following overhaul of each oil-fired unit at its Lordsburg plant.

The Commission orders:

(A) Community is authorized to take through its distributor, Lordsburg, up to 1350 Mcf per day of gas, pendente lite, for ignition fuel and flame stabilization purposes from the date of this order until September 15, 1975. This exemption from curtailment of those volumes will only be effective if the tendered tariff sheet of El Paso relating to its permanent curtailment plan, are accepted by the Commission.

(B) Community is authorized to take through its distributor, Lordsburg, up to 1400 Mcf per day of gas, pendente lite, for up to three days following overhaul of each oil-fired unit at its Lordsburg plant.

By the Commission.

Notice of Change in Rates Pursuant to Demand Charge Credit Adjustment

AUGUST 20, 1975.

Take notice that Northwest Pipeline Corporation, on August 15, 1975, tendered for filing proposed changes in its FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1 resulting from curtailment due to gas supply deficiency, through a surcharge for the subsequent six-month period. As of June 30, 1975, Northwest has a debit balance of $4,068,881 in FPC Account No. 142, representing its unrecovered Demand Charge Credits.

The notice of change in rates is being filed pursuant to the Commission's order issued March 20, 1974, at Docket No. RP74-72 and Article 13.4 of Northwest's FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1. The change in rates will result in an increase of .19¢ per therm for Rate Schedules ODL-1, DS-1, PU-1 and PL-4.

Northwest is concurrently filing a notice of change in rates applicable to Article 16, Purchased Gas Cost Adjustment Provision ("PGAC") contained in its Original Volume No. 1 Tariff. Both the Demand Charge Credit Adjustment and PGAC Adjustment are reflected on the tendered Ninth Revised Sheet No. 10, which is proposed to become effective on October 1, 1975.

Copies of this filing have been served upon Northwest's jurisdictional customers and affected state commissions.

NOTICE OF COMMITTEE MEETINGS

Pursuant to the provisions of section 10 of Public Law 92-463, effective January 5, 1973, notice is hereby given that meetings of the Federal Prevailing Rate Advisory Committee will be held on:

Thursday, October 2, 1975; Thursday, October 9, 1975; Thursday, October 16, 1975; Thursday, October 23, 1975; Thursday, October 30, 1975.

The meetings will convene at 10 a.m. and will be held in Room 5A06A, Civil Service Commission Building, 1900 E Street, NW., Washington, D.C.

The Committee's primary responsibility is to study the prevailing rate system and from time to time advise the Civil Service Commission thereon.

At these scheduled meetings, the committee will consider proposed plans for implementation of Public Law 92-392, which law establishes pay systems for Federal prevailing rate employees.

The meetings will be closed to the public on the basis of a determination under section 10(d) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Public Law 92-463) and 5 U.S.C., section 552(b) (2), that the closing is necessary in order to provide the members with the opportunity to advance proposals and counter-proposals in meaningful debate on issues related solely to the Federal Wage System with the view toward ultimately formulating advisory policy recommendations for the consideration of the Civil Service Commission.

However, members of the public who wish to do so, are invited to submit material in writing to the Chairman concerning matters felt to be deserving of the committee's attention. Additional information concerning these meetings may be obtained by contacting the Chairman, Federal Prevailing Rate Advisory Committee, Room 5451, 1900 E Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20415.

REGULATORY REPORTS REVIEW

Notice of Receipt of Report Proposals

The following requests for clearance of reports intended for use in collecting information from the public were received by the Regulatory Reports Review Staff, GAO, on September 3, 1975. See 44 U.S.C. 3512 (c) and (d). The purpose of publishing this list in the Federal Register is to inform the public of such receipt.

The list includes the title of each request received; the name of the agency sponsoring the proposed collection of information; the agency form number, if applicable; and the frequency with which the information is proposed to be collected.

Written comments on the proposed FEA forms are invited from all interested persons, organizations, public interest groups, and affected businesses. Because of the limited amount of time GAO has to review the proposed forms, comments (in triplicate) must be received on or before September 29, 1975, and should be addressed to Mr. Carl F. Bogar, Assistant Director, Office of Special Programs, United States General Accounting Office, Room 5216, 425 I Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20548.

Further information may be obtained from Patsy J. Stuart of the Regulatory Reports Review Staff, 202-376-5425.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON REACTOR
SAFEGUARDS

Notice of Meeting

In accordance with the purposes of Sections 29 and 182b. of the Atomic Energy Act (42 U.S.C. 2039, 2232b.), the ACRS Subcommittee on the Wolf Creek Nuclear Power Plant will hold a meeting on September 26, 1975 at the Holiday Inn, 18th and Industrial Boulevard, Emporia, KS 66801. The purpose of this meeting is to explore the site-related aspects of this application of the Standardized Nuclear Power Plant System (SNUPPS).

The agenda for the subject meeting shall be as follows:

Friday, September 26, 1975, 8:30 a.m. The Subcommittee will meet in closed Executive Session, with any of its consultants who may be present, to explore their preliminary opinions, based upon their independent review of safety reports submitted by the Applicant and the NRC Staff, regarding matters which should be covered during the following open meeting in order to formulate a Subcommittee report and recommendation to the full Committee.

9:00 a.m. until the conclusion of business. The Subcommittee will meet in open session to hear presentations by representatives of the Kansas Gas and Electric Company and the NRC Staff and will hold discussions with these groups regarding the site-related aspects of the application for a construction permit as well as other matters relating to the standard design.

At the conclusion of the open session, the Subcommittee will caucus in a brief, closed session to determine whether the matters identified in the initial closed session have been adequately covered and whether the project is ready for review by the full Committee. During this session, Subcommittee members and consultants will discuss their final opinions and recommendations on these matters. Upon conclusion of this caucus, the Subcommittee will meet again in brief open session to announce its determination.

In addition to these closed deliberative sessions, it may be necessary for the Subcommittee to hold one or more closed sessions for the purpose of exploring with the NRC Staff and the Applicant matters involving proprietary information, particularly with regard to specific features of the plant design and plans related to plant security.

I have determined, in accordance with subsection 10(d) of Pub. L. 92-463, that it is necessary to conduct the above closed sessions to protect the free interchange of internal views in the final stages of the Subcommittee's deliberative process (5 U.S.C. 552(b) (5)) and to protect confidential proprietary or plant security information (5 U.S.C. 552(b) (4)). Separation of factual material from individuals' advice and opinions while closed Executive Sessions are in progress is considered impractical.

Practical considerations may dictate alterations in the above agenda or schedule. The Chairman is empowered to conduct the meeting in a manner that, in his judgment, will facilitate the orderly conduct of business, including provisions to carry over an incomplete open session from one day to the next.

With respect to public participation in the open portion of the meeting, the following requirements shall apply:

(a) Persons wishing to submit written statements regarding the agenda items may do so by mailing a readily reproducible copy thereof, postmarked no later than September 19, 1975, to Mr. John C. McKinley, Office of the Executive Secretary, Advisory Committee on Reactor Safeguards, Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20555 or by filing at the ACRS Office a readily reproducible copy two working days prior to the meeting. Written statements should be limited to safety related areas which are within the purview of the Committee. Background information concerning items to be considered at this meeting can be found in the Preliminary Safety Analysis Report and related documents on file and available for public inspection at the Nuclear Regulatory Commission's Public Document Room 1717 H Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20555 and at the Coffey County Courthouse, Burlington, KS 66839. Copies of the minutes of the meeting will be made available for inspection at the NRC Public Document Room, 1717 H St., NW., Washington, D.C. 20555 after December 26, 1975. Copies may be obtained upon payment of appropriate charges.

(b) Those persons wishing to make oral statements regarding agenda items at the meeting should make a request to do so prior to the meeting, identifying the topics and desired presentation time so that appropriate arrangements can be made. The Committee will receive oral statements in safety related areas within the Committee's purview at an appropriate time chosen by the Chairman of the Subcommittee.

(c) Further information regarding topics to be discussed, whether the meeting has been cancelled or rescheduled, the Chairman's ruling on requests for the opportunity to present oral statements and the time allotted therefor can be obtained by a prepaid telephone call on September 24, 1975 to the Office of the Executive Secretary of the Committee (telephone 202/634-1371, Attention: Mr. M. W. Libarkin) between 8:15 a.m. and 5 p.m., e.d.t.

(d) Questions may be propounded only by members of the Subcommittee and its consultants.

(e) The use of still, motion picture, and television cameras, the physical installation and presence of which will not interfere with the conduct of the meeting, will be permitted both before and after the meeting and during any recess. The use of such equipment will not, however, be allowed while the meeting is in session.

(f) Persons with agreements or orders permitting access to proprietary information, other than plant security information, may attend portions of ACRS meetings where this material is being discussed upon confirmation that such agreements are effective and relate to the material being discussed.

The Executive Secretary of the ACRS should be informed of such an agreement at least three working days prior to the meeting so that the agreement can be confirmed and a determination can be made regarding the applicability of the agreement to the material that will be discussed during the meeting. Minimum information provided should include information regarding the date of the agreement, the scope of material included in the agreement, the project or projects involved, and the names and titles of the persons signing the agreement. Additional information may be requested to identify the specific agreement involved. A copy of the executed agreement should be provided to the Designated Federal Employee for the meeting, Mr. John C. McKinley of the ACRS Office, prior to the beginning of the meeting.

(g) A copy of the transcript of the open portion of the meeting will be available for inspection on or after October 6, 1975 at the NRC Public Document Room, 1717 H St., Washington, D.C. 20555, and at the Coffey County Courthouse, Burlington, KS 66839. Copies of the minutes of the meeting will be made available for inspection at the NRC Public Document Room, 1717 H St., NW., Washington, D.C. 20555 after December 26, 1975. Copies may be obtained upon payment of appropriate charges.

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION SECURITY AGENCY STUDY

Announcement and Request for Comment

The Nuclear Regulatory Commission is proceeding with a survey of nuclear safeguards as required by the Congress in the Energy Reorganization Act of 1974. Specifically, Section 204(b)(2)(C) requires the Commission to assess "the need for, and the feasibility of, establishing a security agency within the office of Nuclear Material Safety and Safeguards" for the performance of the safeguards functions . . . . A report with recommendations on this matter "shall be prepared within one year of the effective date of this Act and promptly be transmitted to the Congress." In accordance with this mandate, the Commission has established the Security Agency Study to examine: (1) alternative methods of monitoring and enforcement necessary to ensure compliance with applicable rules, regulations and license conditions related to safeguards matters; (2) appropriate Federal and NRC roles in this regard; and (3) organizational structure within NRC in the event a Security Agency is established.

The report will assume that the mission of a Security Agency would be to deter or prevent theft and illicit use of strategic special nuclear materials and malicious actions at NRC licensed facilities that could result in release of radioactive materials into the environment. Primary emphasis will be placed on whether the establishment of a Security Agency is appropriate in light of current needs and alternatives available and whether the need for it will be affected by the possible introduction of large scale plutonium recycle into the nuclear industry.

The analyses performed in conjunction with the study will be based on the supposition of a number of hypothetical threats involving covert and overt actions and combinations thereof. These threats span a range which is considered sufficient for reaching conclusions regarding the need for, and feasibility of, creating an NRC Security Agency. A continuing task is to determine that the threats actually do serve their intended purpose of emphasizing possible contrasts between Federal involvement and the absence thereof.

The report will place major emphasis on security force alternatives. It will analyze the possible roles of on-site guard forces and of "reaction forces", i.e., State, local, or Federal personnel providing additional assistance to deter or react to an actual or attempted theft or sabotage. This analysis will consider the roles of such forces under various conditions, including the magnitude of the threat; the number of persons involved in the act or attempted act; and the number and vulnerability of the facilities involved.

A series of related issues will also be examined, including the degree of need for expanded NRC involvement in material control and accounting; the role of NRC in recovery of stolen special nuclear materials; the division of responsibilities among NRC, other Federal agencies, State and local law enforcement agencies, and industry to various aspects of the safeguards mission; the extent to which the establishment of a Security Agency within NRC might introduce civil liberties questions not present under existing safeguards arrangements; and responsibility for costs of guard forces.

Individuals, organizations, or Federal, State and local Government agencies are encouraged to participate in consideration of the need for, and feasibility of, establishing a Security Agency within the Nuclear Regulatory Commission through written comments and suggestions, to be submitted no later than October 24, 1975. Such comments should be addressed to Mr. S. H. Smiley, Deputy Director for Policy and Planning, Office of Nuclear Material Safety and Safeguards, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20555.

The text of the "Security Agency Study Scope" statement follows:

SCOPE

"The NRC Security Agency Study is being performed as required by the Energy Reorganization Act of 1974. Specifically, Section 204(b)(2)(C) of that Act requires the NRC to assess "the need for, and the feasibility of, establishing a security agency within the office of Nuclear Material Safety and Safeguards" for the performance of the safeguards functions . . . . The report will therefore focus on the question of whether a Security Agency should be established and, if so, what its enforcement functions should be. Such functions might include some not now exercised by the NRC, such as performance of on-site guard functions and in-transit security. If the need for, and feasibility of, a Security Agency are established, the study will consider the nature and character of such an agency within the Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

"The report will assume that the mission of a Security Agency would be to deter or prevent theft and illicit use of strategic special nuclear materials* and malicious actions at NRC licensed facilities that could result in release of radioactive materials into the environment. The report will not address questions concerning protection of research reactors and of special nuclear materials used in research, as the requirement for such protection does not affect analysis of the need for a Security Agency. Since certain DOD and ERDA security needs are similar to those associated with NRC licensed facilities, the study will consider the relationship between an NRC Security Agency and organizations responsible for security of special nuclear materials under the aegis of DOD or ERDA.

"The study will place primary emphasis on whether the establishment of a Security Agency within NRC is appropriate in light of current needs and alternatives available. It is important to recognize, however, that decisions made in the near future in the commercial sector may well influence the degree of need for a Security Agency. For that reason, the study will address the question of how that need might change with the introduction of large-scale plutonium recycle within the nuclear industry.

"The largest portion of the Security Agency study will be concerned with security force alternatives. In conducting this analysis, a distinction will be made between guard forces and reaction forces. The purpose of guards (either at fixed sites or during transit) is to detect unauthorized activity, to sound alarms, to close gates and to exercise a certain level of force. To the extent that guards are not able to contain a situation, their objective is to delay persons intent upon theft or sabotage. Such delay allows reaction forces to arrive on the scene. Reaction forces might be State or local police, or Federal personnel. If the latter, they might be associated with an NRC Security Agency or they might be special military personnel. The study will analyze the relative roles of guard forces and reaction forces under various assumptions concerning magnitude of threat and numbers and characteristics of facilities.

"A second important distinction to be made in the examination of security force alternatives is one which rests on the fact that sabotage or theft might be accomplished more quickly in some facilities than in others. This means that reaction forces would have less time to respond to alarms in some cases than in others. For example, if guards can take actions to delay for a period of hours any attempt at theft or sabotage, then reaction forces can be stationed at substantial distances from the facility. On the other hand, if guards were insufficient to contain an attack even for a brief time, it would be necessary to have reaction forces stationed within or adjacent to the facility. The study effort includes analyses for the purpose of specifying vulnerability categories and determining numbers of facilities within various categories.

"For both fixed site and in-transit protection, four security force concepts will be examined. The first concept envisions private guards and State or local reaction forces; the second would encompass private guards and Federal reaction forces; the third, Federal guards and Federal reaction forces; and the fourth, Federal guards and local reaction forces. Within each major option there are possible variations. Private guards might be employees of the facility operator, or of guard agencies which have contracted either with the facility operator or the Federal Government. Federal guards might be direct employees of the Government. Another variation within a given concept would be the extent to which guards would be armed and skilled in the use of such arms. There would be a direct correlation between guard capabilities and the number of facilities in the most vulnerable category, i.e., the category which allows for the briefest time for reaction forces to respond to an alarm.

"The analyses of alternative security force concepts are based on the supposition of a series of hypothetical threats involving covert and overt actions and combinations thereof. These threats span a range which is considered sufficient for reaching conclusions regarding the need for, and feasibility of, creating an NRC Security Agency; that is, conclusions would not be altered should it be assumed that there were plausible threats which lay beyond the range of those used as the basis for this study. A continuing task is to determine that the threats actually do serve their intended purpose of emphasizing possible contrasts between Federal involvement and the absence thereof.

"While security forces are central to the physical protection of special nuclear materials, and consequently to the study, any consideration of a safeguards regime must include other vital elements. A series of these will be addressed, and will include:

1. The need for expanded NRC involvement in verifying material control and accounting procedures; e.g., the need for continuous NRC inspection of such procedures.
2. The role of NRC in recovery of stolen special nuclear materials.
3. Coordination and liaison on intelligence matters and contingency plans between NRC and other agencies.
4. The extent to which the establishment of a Security Agency within NRC would introduce civil liberties questions not present under existing safeguards arrangements.

5. The responsibility for bearing costs of guard forces; e.g., how costs should be apportioned among industry and government.

6. The use of deadly force for purposes other than self-defense in responding to attempts to gain unauthorized possession of special nuclear materials or to sabotage nuclear facilities."

Dated at Washington, D.C., this 8th day of September 1975.

For the Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

Secretary of the Commission.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Rel. No. 34-11620]

EXEMPTIONS FOR CERTAIN FOREIGN SECURITIES

List of Issuers Which Have Submitted Information

Foreign issuers with more than $1,000,000 in assets and a class of equity securities held by 500 or more shareholders, of which 300 or more shareholders reside in the United States, are subject to the registration, reporting, proxy, and insider trading provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.<sup>1</sup>

Rule 12g3-2(b) (17 CFR 240.12g3-2(b)) provides an exemption from registration under Section 12(g) of the Act for a foreign issuer which submits on a current basis material specified in the Rule to the Commission. Such required material includes that information about which investors ought reasonably to be informed with respect to the issuer and its subsidiaries and which the issuer (1) has made public pursuant to the law of the country of its domicile or in which it is incorporated or organized, (2) has filed with a stock exchange on which its securities are traded and which was made public by such exchange and/or (3) has distributed to its security holders.

When it adopted Rule 12g3-2 and other rules relating to foreign securities (see Securities Exchange Act Release No. 8066, April 28, 1967), the Commission indicated that from time to time it would issue lists containing those foreign issuers which have obtained exemptions from the registration provisions of Section 12(g) of the Act by providing the information specified in Rule 12g3-2(b). The purpose of the present release is to call to the attention of brokers, dealers and investors that some form of current information concerning the foreign issuers included on the enclosed list is available in the public files of the Commission. The list below includes those foreign issuers which, as of July 31, 1975, are current in furnishing information under Rule 12g3-2(b). There is a total of 146 foreign issuers on the list.

The Commission also wishes to call to the attention of brokers, dealers, and investors the fact that current information concerning certain foreign issuers may not be available in the United States. The Commission continues to expect that brokers and dealers will consider this fact in connection with their obligations under the federal securities laws to have a reasonable basis for recommending these securities to their customers. The Commission will continue to review activity in the markets for foreign securities to see whether the present rules are achieving their purpose and whether further rules or rule revisions are necessary in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

Any questions regarding Rule 12g3-2 or the list included herein should be directed to the Office of International Corporate Finance, Division of Corporation Finance.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] GEORGE A. FITZSIMMONS,
Secretary.

Notice of Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-72: investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance as prescribed in Section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on July 8, 1975 in response to a worker petition received on July 3, 1975 which was filed by the International Union Allied Industrial Workers, AFL-CIO, on behalf of workers formerly producing motorcycles and snowmobiles at Harley-Davidson's three Milwaukee, Wisconsin plants.

The notice of investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (40 FR 30334) on July 18, 1975. No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The information upon which the determination was made was obtained principally from officials of Harley-Davidson, its customers, industry analysts, and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974 must be met:

(1) that a significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm or an appropriate subdivision of the firm have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated,

(2) that sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely, and

(3) that increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such workers' firm or an appropriate subdivision thereof contributed importantly to such total or partial separation, or threat thereof, and to such decline in sales or production.

For purposes of paragraph (3), the term "contributed importantly" means a cause which his important but not necessary more important than any other cause.

Significant Total or Partial Separations. A significant number or proportion of the workers at the three plants of Harley-Davidson in Milwaukee, Wisconsin became totally or partially separated between March and June 1975. Employment declined 14 percent from March 1, 1975 to June 30, 1975.

Sales or Production, or Both, Have Decreased Absolutely. Sales at the Harley-Davidson plants decreased 7.3 percent in fiscal year 1975 compared to fiscal year 1974.

Increased Imports Contributed Importantly. Imports of articles like or directly competitive with those produced at Harley-Davidson increased from

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Office of the Secretary

GENERAL ELECTRIC CO.

Investigation Regarding Certification of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

On August 25, 1975, the Department of Labor received a petition filed under Section 221(a) of the Trade Act of 1974 ("the Act") by the International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers, on behalf of the workers and former workers of Television Component Products Operation of General Electric Company, Syracuse, New York (TA-W-127).

Accordingly, the Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Bureau of International Labor Affairs, has instituted an investigation as provided in Section 221(a) of the Act and 29 CFR 90.12.

The purpose of the investigation is to determine whether absolute or relative increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with monochrome and color picture tubes produced by General Electric Company, or an appropriate subdivision thereof have contributed importantly to an absolute decline in sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision and to the actual or threatened total or partial separation of a significant number or proportion of the workers of such firm or subdivision. The investigation will further relate, as appropriate, to the determination of the date on which total or partial separations began or threatened to begin and the subdivision of the firm involved. A group meeting the eligibility requirements of Section 222 of the Act will be certified as eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2, of the Act in accordance with the provisions of Subpart B of 29 CFR Part 90.

Pursuant to 29 CFR 90.13, the petitioner or any other person showing a substantial interest in the subject matter of the investigation may request a public hearing, provided such request is filed in writing with the Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than 10 days after this notice is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The petition filed in this case is available for inspection at the Office of the Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Bureau of International Labor Affairs, U.S. Department of Labor, 3rd St. and Constitution Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 25th day of August 1975.

Trade Adjustment Assistance.

NOTICES

393,000 units in 1973 to 552,000 units in 1974. Imports increased 20 percent in the first half of 1975 compared to the first half of 1974. The ratio of imports to domestic consumption and production increased from 90.5 percent and 824.5 percent, respectively, in the first half of 1974 to 92.4 percent and 1059.7 percent, respectively in the first half of 1975.

The evidence developed by the Department's investigation indicates that the company terminated snowmobile production in December 1974 because of reduced domestic demand. When snowmobile production was terminated on December 19, 1974, all snowmobile workers were absorbed by Harley's motorcycle production facilities in Milwaukee. Permanent separations of workers engaged in motorcycle production began in March, 1975 and were attributable to increases of competitive imports.

Conclusion. After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I conclude that increases of imports like or directly competitive with snowmobiles produced by Harley-Davidson did not contribute importantly to the termination of snowmobile production or to the separation of such workers. Further I conclude that increases of imports like or directly competitive with motorcycles produced at the three Milwaukee, Wisconsin plants contributed importantly to the total or partial separation of the workers of those plants. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

"All hourly, piecework, and salaried workers engaged in employment related to the production of motorcycles at the three Milwaukee, Wisconsin plants of Harley-Davidson who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after March 1, 1975, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 2nd day of September 1975.

Associate Deputy Under Secretary for International Labor Affairs.

Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-73; investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in Section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on July 8, 1975 in response to a worker petition received on July 3, 1975 which was filed on behalf of workers formerly producing aluminum electrolytic capacitors at the Ion Capacitor Corporation, Columbia City, Indiana.

The notice of investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (40 FR 30334), July 18, 1975. No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The information upon which the determination was made was obtained principally from officials of Ion Capacitor Corporation, its customers, Electronic Industries Association, industry analysts, U.S. Department of Commerce, U.S. International Trade Commission and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974 must be met:

(1) that a significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm or an appropriate subdivision of the firm have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated.

(2) that sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely, and

(3) that increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such workers' firm or an appropriate subdivision thereof contributed importantly to such total or partial separation, or threat thereof, and to such decline in sales or production.

For purposes of paragraph (3), the term "contributed importantly" means a cause which is important but not necessarily more important than any other cause.

Significant Total or Partial Separations. A significant number of workers at Ion Capacitor Corporation became totally or partially separated in the last quarter of 1974 and in the first six months of 1975. Total plant employment declined 49 percent in January-April 1975 from that in January-April 1974. All employment was terminated at the plant by June 1975.

Sales or Production, or Both, Have Decreased Absolutely. The number of capacitors sold by Ion decreased 69 percent in January through May 1975 from the same period in 1974. The number of units produced in February-April 1975 was 76 percent below production in the same period in 1974. All production ceased in June 1975.

Increased Imports Contributed Importantly. Imports of aluminum electrolytic capacitors increased absolutely from 157 million units in 1971 to 446 million units in 1974. From 1973 to 1974 the import/consumption ratio increased from 63 to 74 percent, and the import/production ratio increased from 162 to 259 percent.

The evidence developed in the Department's investigation indicates that the separation of workers and the decline in sales and production at Ion Capacitor Corporation in 1974 were caused by price competition from imports. In late 1973 and early 1974 aluminum prices rose dramatically. In order to stay price competitive with imports, ION started using less expensive, lower quality aluminum material in its production of capacitors. This switch, however, lowered the quality of ION's products and caused several customers to shift their purchases to lower priced, higher quality imports in 1974.

Conclusion. After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I conclude that increases of imports like or directly competitive with aluminum electrolytic capacitors produced by ION Capacitor Corporation contributed importantly to the total or partial separation of the workers of that plant. Section 223(b) (2) of the Trade Act of 1974 provides that a certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance may not apply to any worker last separated from the firm or subdivision more than six months before April 3, 1975, the effective date of the new program. In accordance with the provision of the Act I make the following certification:

"All hourly, and salaried worker engaged in employment relate to the production of aluminum electrolytic capacitors at the Ion Capacitor Corporation, Columbia City, Indiana, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after October 3, 1974, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Notice of Negative Determination Regarding Certification of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-68; investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in Section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on July 3, 1975 in response to a worker petition received on July 2, 1975 which was filed by the International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers, AFL-CIO, on behalf of workers formerly producing wire harnesses for automobiles and components thereof at the Warren, Ohio plant of the Packard Electric Division of General Motors Corporation.

The notice of investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (40 FR 29577) on July 14, 1975. No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The information upon which the determination was made was obtained principally from officials of General Motors Corporation, its customers, industry analysts, and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974 must be met:

(1) that a significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm or an appropriate subdivision of the firm have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated.

(2) that sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely, and

(3) that increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such workers' firm or an appropriate subdivision thereof contributed importantly to such total or partial separation, or threat thereof, and to such decline in sales or production.

For purposes of paragraph (3), the term "contributed importantly" means a cause which is important but not necessarily more important than any other cause.

Significant Total or Partial Separations. A significant number or proportion of the workers at the Warren, Ohio plant of Packard Electric became totally or partially separated in the first quarter of 1975. Hourly employment declined 38 percent from the fourth quarter of 1974 to the first quarter of 1975.

Sales or Production, or Both, Have Decreased Absolutely. Production at the Warren, Ohio plant declined 33 percent from 1973 to 1974. Production declined 3 percent in the first half of 1975 compared to the first half of 1974.

Increased Imports Contributed Importantly. Imports of articles like or directly competitive with those produced at the Warren, Ohio plant increased from 381 thousand units in 1970 to 7,147 thousand units in 1974. Imports increased 66 percent in the first quarter of 1975 compared to the first quarter of 1974. The ratios of imports to domestic consumption and production increased from 0.7 percent and 0.6 percent, respectively in 1970 to 6.4 percent and 5.3 percent, respectively in 1974.

The evidence developed in the Department's investigation indicates that the separation of workers engaged in the production of wire harnesses for automobiles at the Warren, Ohio plant of Packard Electric was attributable to the general economic recession in the United States. Packard Electric sells wire harnesses primarily to General Motors Corp. General Motors' reduced purchases of wire harnesses was due to decreased demand for automobiles in the United States.

Conclusion. After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I conclude that increases of imports like or directly competitive with wire harnesses for automobiles produced at the Warren, Ohio, plant of the Packard Electric Division of General Motors Corp. did not contribute importantly to the total or partial separation of the workers or to the absolute decline in sales or production of that plant.

SKF INDUSTRIES INC.

Notice of Negative Determination Regarding Certification of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-69; investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in Section 222 of the Act.

The investigation was initiated on July 3, 1975 in response to a worker petition received on July 2, 1975 which was filed by the United Steelworkers of America (AFL-CIO) on behalf of workers producing bearings at the Philadelphia Division of SKF Industries, Incorporated, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The notice of investigation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (40 FR 29578) on July 14, 1975. No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The information upon which the determination was made was obtained principally from officials of SKF Industries, its customers, the U.S. International Trade Commission, U.S. Department of Commerce, and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974 must be met:

(1) that a significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm or an appropriate subdivision of the firm have become totally or partially separated,

(2) that sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely, and

(3) that increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such workers' firm or an appropriate subdivision thereof contributed importantly to such total or partial separation, or threat thereof, and to such decline in sales or production.

For purposes of paragraph (3), the term "contributed importantly" means a cause which is important but not necessarily more important than any other cause.

Significant Total or Partial Separations. Average monthly employment of hourly workers at the Philadelphia Division of SKF was 1 percent higher in 1974 than it was in 1973. For the first six months of 1975 it was two percent less than it was for the same period in 1974.

Sales or Production or Both, Have Decreased Absolutely. Dollar value of sales for the first six months of 1975 was 18 percent above its levels for the same period in 1974.

Dollar value of production for the first six months of 1975 was 32 percent higher than it was in the same period of 1974.

Increased Imports Contributed Importantly. Imports of ball bearings and roller bearings other than taper which consists of cylindrical, spherical and needle increased in both relative and absolute quantities from 1970 to 1974.

However, both the import to production and import to consumption ratios of ball bearings declined slightly in 1974 from their 1973 levels. The import to production ratio fell from 19.2 percent to 18.6 percent from 1973 to 1974 while the import to consumption ratio fell from 17.1 percent to 17.0 percent. These ratios rose slightly in the first five months of 1975 from the same period a year earlier.

The import to production and import to consumption ratio of roller bearings other than taper have declined during the first five months of 1975 from the same period in 1974. The import to production ratio fell from 11 percent to 8.6 percent, while the import to consumption ratio fell from 11.1 percent to 8.6 percent.

Evidence developed during the course of the investigation indicates that the reason for the plant's reduction in sales was the sharp decline in demand for bearings which first occurred in May 1975. Several customers of SKF indicated that they have increased their relative domestic purchases of bearings but because of economic conditions they have reduced their total orders.

Conclusion. After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I conclude that increases of imports like or directly competitive with bearings produced at the Philadelphia Division of SKF Industries, Incorporated did not contribute importantly to the total or partial separation of the workers or to the absolute decline in sales or production of the Division.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 2nd day of September 1975.

Elimination of Gateway Letter Notices

SEPTEMBER 5, 1975.

The following letter-notices of proposals to eliminate gateways for the purpose of reducing highway congestion, alleviating air and noise pollution, minimizing safety hazards, and conserving fuel have been filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission under the Commission's Gateway Elimination Rules (49 CFR Part 1065), and notice thereof to all interested persons is hereby given as provided in such rules.

An original and two copies of protests against the proposed elimination of any gateway herein described may be filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission on or before September 22, 1975. A copy must also be served upon applicant or its representative. Protests against the elimination of a gateway will not operate to stay commencement of the proposed operation.

Successively filed letter-notices of the same carrier under these rules will be numbered consecutively for convenience

MOTOR CARRIER ALTERNATE ROUTE DEVIATION NOTICES

SEPTEMBER 5, 1975.

The following letter-notices of proposals (except as otherwise specifically noted, each applicant states that there will be no significant effect on the quality of the human environment resulting from approval of its application), to operate over deviation routes for operating convenience only have been filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission under the Commission's Revised Deviation Rules-Motor Carriers of Property, 1969 (49 CFR 1042.4(c)(11)) and notice thereof to all interested persons is hereby given as provided in such rules (49 CFR 1042.4(c)(11)).

Protests against the use of any proposed deviation route herein described may be filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission in the manner and form provided in such rules (49 CFR 1042.4(c)(12)) at any time, but will not operate to stay commencement of the proposed operations unless filed within 30 days from the date of publication.

Successively filed letter-notices of the same carrier under the Commission's Revised Deviation Rules-Motor Carriers of Property, 1969, will be numbered consecutively for convenience in identification and protests, if any, should refer to such letter-notices by number.

MOTOR CARRIERS OF PROPERTY

No. MC 80430 (Deviation No. 16), GATEWAY TRANSPORTATION CO., INC., 455 Park Plaza Drive, La Crosse, Wis. 54601, filed August 22, 1975. [Notice No. 71]

MOTOR CARRIER APPLICATIONS AND CERTAIN OTHER PROCEEDINGS

SEPTEMBER 5, 1975.

The following publications include motor carrier, water carrier, broker, freight forwarder and rail proceedings indexed as follows: (1) grants of authority requiring republication prior to certification; (2) notices of filing of petitions for modification of existing authorities; (3) new operating right's applications directly related to and processed on a consolidated record with finance applications filed under Sections 5(2) and 212(b); (4) notices of filing of Sections 5(2) and 210a(b) finance applications; and (5) notices of filing of Section 212(b) transfer applications.

Each applicant (except as otherwise specifically noted) states that there will be no significant effect on the quality of the human environment resulting from approval of its application in compliance with the requirements of 49 CFR § 1100.250.

Protests to the granting of the requested authority must be filed with the Commission within 30 days after the date of this FEDERAL REGISTER notice (unless otherwise specified). Failure seasonably to file a protest will be construed as a waiver of opposition and participation in the proceeding. A protest should comply with section 247(d) or section 240 (c) as appropriate of the Commission's General Rules of Practice which requires that it set forth specifically the grounds upon which it is made, contain a detailed statement of protestant's interest in the proceeding (including a copy of the specific portions of its authority which protestant believes to be in conflict with that sought in the application, and a detailed description of the method—whether by joinder, interline, or other means—by which protestant would use such authority to provide all or part of the service proposed), and shall specify with particularity the facts, matters, and things relied upon, but shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. Protests not in reasonable compliance with the requirements of the rules may be rejected. The original and one (1) copy of the protest (except for petitions and Finance Dockets under Rule 40 requiring the original and six (6) copies of the protest) shall be filed with the Commission, and a copy shall be served concurrently upon applicant's or petitioner's representative, or applicant or petitioner if no representative is named. If the protest includes a request for oral hearing, such requests shall meet the requirements of section 247(d) (4) or section 240(c) (4) of the special rules, and shall include the certification required therein.

No. MC 126305 (Sub-No. 64) (Republication), filed October 2, 1974, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of November 1, 1974, and republished this issue. Applicant: BOYD BROTHERS TRANSPORTATION CO., INC., R.D. 1, Clayton, Ala. 36016. Applicant's representative: George A. Olsen, 60 Tonnele Avenue, Jersey City, N.J. 07306. An Order of the Commission, Operating Rights Board, dated August 6, 1975, and served August 25, 1975, finds, that present and future public convenience and necessity require operation by applicant, in interstate or foreign commerce, as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, (1) of beaded and pulverized glass, from the facilities of Potters Industries, Inc., at Brownwood, Tex., to points in Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Texas, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming; and (2) of materials and supplies used in the manufacture and sale of beaded and pulverized glass, (except in bulk, in tank vehicles), from the destination points named in (1) above, to the origin point in (1) above; that applicant is fit, willing, and able properly to perform such service and to conform to the requirements of the Interstate Commerce Act and the Commission's rules and regulations thereunder. The purpose of this republication is to indicate that Arizona has been added as a destination in the territorial description in (1) above. Because it is possible that other parties who have relied upon the notice of the application as published, may have an interest in and would be prejudiced by the lack of proper notice of the authority described above, issuance of a certificate in this proceeding will be withheld for a period of 30 days from the date of this publication of the authority actually granted, during which period any proper party in interest may file an appropriate petition for intervention or other relief in this proceeding setting forth in detail the precise manner in which it has been so prejudiced.

No. MC 129631 (Sub-No. 42) (Republication), filed May 21, 1974, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of May 2, 1974, and republished this issue. Applicant: PACK TRANSPORT, INC., 3975 S. 300 West, Salt Lake City, Utah 84107. Applicant's representative: Max D. Eliason, P.O. Box 2602, Salt Lake City, Utah 84110. An Order of the Commission, Review Board Number 1, dated August 19, 1975, and served August 25, 1975, finds, that the present and future public convenience and necessity require operation by applicant, in interstate or foreign commerce, as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, of (1) gypsum products, from points in Clark County, Nev., to points in Utah and Idaho, and (2) aluminum, iron, and steel articles between Ogden, Utah, on the one hand, and, on the other, points in North Dakota and Minnesota; that applicant is fit, willing, and able properly to perform such service and to conform to the requirements of the Interstate Commerce Act and the Commission's rules and regulations thereunder. The purpose of this republication is to indicate that Minnesota has been added as a terminal point in (2) above. Because it is possible that other parties who have relied upon the notice of the application as published, may have an interest in and would be prejudiced by the lack of proper notice of the authority described above, issuance of a certificate in this proceeding will be withheld for a period of 30 days from the date of this publication of the authority actually granted, during which period any proper party in interest may file an appropriate petition for intervention or other relief in this proceeding setting forth in detail the precise manner in which it has been so prejudiced.

No. MC 12133 (Sub-No. 1) (Notice of filing of petition to modify license), filed August 26, 1975. Petitioner: ALL STATE BUS CORPORATION, Brooklyn, N.Y. Petitioner's representative: S. Harrison Kahn, Suite 733, Investment Building, Washington, D.C. 20005. Petitioner holds a license issued October 8, 1969, to engage in operations as a broker at New York, N.Y., to sell or offer to sell the transportation of Passengers and their baggage, in special and charter operations, between points in the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii.

By the instant petition, petitioner seeks to add Los Angeles and San Francisco, Calif. as points at which it is authorized to engage in the above described operations. Any interested person or persons desiring to participate may file an original and six copies of his written representations, views or arguments in support of or against the petition within 30 days from the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

No. MC 96986 (Sub-No. 4) (Notice of filing of petition to remove restriction), filed August 22, 1975. Petitioner: FELDMAN'S EXPRESS, INC., 25 Proctor Street, Roxbury, Mass. 02119. Petitioner's representative: Frederick T. O'Sullivan (same address as petitioner). Petitioner holds a motor common carrier certificate in No. MC 96986 (Sub-No. 4), issued December 24, 1974, authorizing transportation, over irregular routes, of Frozen meats, from Boston, Mass., to points in Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont, and to Albany, N.Y., restricted to the transportation of shipments having an immediately prior movement by water, and with service to Albany restricted to the transportation of shipments destined to Albany, and subject to the condition that the certificate will expire at the end of 3 years from the date of issuance unless, not less than 2 years nor more than 2½ years from the date of issuance, carrier files a petition for the extension of the certificate and demonstrates that it is in full compliance with the requirements of the Interstate Commerce Act and the rules and regulations thereunder so that a determination may be made whether the certificate should be extended permanently.

By the instant petition, petitioner seeks to delete the restriction in the above authority pertaining to shipments having an immediately prior movement by water. Any interested person or persons desiring to participate may file an original and six copies of his written representations, views or arguments in support of or against the petition within 30 days from the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

No. MC 115818 (Sub-No. 13) (Notice of filing of petition to modify territorial description), filed August 18, 1975. Petitioner: WESTBURY TRANSPORT, INC., 397 E. 54th St., Elmwood Park, N.J. 07407. Petitioner's representative: John L. Alfano, 550 Mamaroneck Avenue, Harrison, N.Y. 10528. Petitioner holds a motor contract carrier permit in No. MC 115818 (Sub-No. 13), issued May 17, 1974 authorizing transportation, over irregular routes, of (1) Such merchandise as is dealt in by retail department stores (except commodities in bulk), from New York, N.Y., to points in New Jersey, New York, and Connecticut; and (2) Returned shipments of the commodities described in (1) above, from points in New Jersey, New York, and Connecticut, to New York, N.Y., under a continuing contract, or contracts with Allied Stores of New York, Inc., of Jamaica, N.Y.

By the instant petition, petitioner seeks to add Paterson, N.J. as an additional origin point in (1) above, and as an additional destination point in (2) above. Any interested person or persons desiring to participate may file an original and six copies of his written representations, views or arguments in support of or against the petition within 30 days from the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

No. MC 126817 and (Sub-No. 2) (Notice of filing of petition to modify territorial description), filed August 22, 1975. Petitioner: A. L. A. DELIVERY CORP., 545 West 22nd Street, New York, N.Y. 10011. Petitioner's representative: George A. Olsen, 69 Tonnele Avenue, Jersey City, N.J. 07306. Petitioner holds motor contract carrier permits in No. MC 126817 and (Sub-No. 2), issued October 3, 1967 and August 29, 1972, respectively, authorizing transportation, over irregular routes, MC 126817, of Toilet preparations, from Deer Park, N.Y., to New York, N.Y., under a continuing contract, or contracts, with Germaine Montell Cosmetics Corporation, of Deer Park, N.Y., and Tuvache Rare Perfumes, Inc., of Deer Park, N.Y.; and in MC 126817 (Sub-No. 2), of (1) Infants', children's and boys' shirts, sweaters, pajamas, pants, and swimwear, from New Hyde Park, N.Y., to New York, N.Y.; and (2) Samples, and refused, rejected, and returned shipments of the above-described commodities, from New York, N.Y., to New Hyde Park, N.Y., under a continuing contract, or contracts, with Donmoor, Inc., of New York, N.Y.

By the instant petition, petitioner seeks to modify the territorial description in the above described authorities so as to read, in MC 126817, Toilet preparations, from Deer Park, N.Y., to points in the New York, N.Y. Commercial Zone, as defined in Commercial Zones and Terminal Areas, 53 M.C.C. 451, within which local operations may be conducted pursuant to the partial exemption of section 203(b) (8) of the Interstate Commerce Act, (the "exempt" zone), and those in New Jersey within 5 miles of New York, and all of any municipality in New Jersey within 5 miles of New York, N.Y., under a continuing contract, or contracts, with Germaine Montell Cosmetics Corporation, of Deer Park, N.Y., and Tuvache Rare Perfumes, Inc., of Deer Park, N.Y.; and in MC 126817, (1) Infants', children's, and boys' shirts, sweaters, pajamas, pants, and swimwear, from New Hyde Park, N.Y., to points in the New York, N.Y., Commercial Zone, as defined in Commercial Zones and Terminal Areas, 53 M.C.C. 451, within which local operations may be conducted pursuant to the partial exemption of section 203(b) (8) of the Interstate Commerce Act, (the "exempt" zone) and those in New Jersey within 5 miles of New York, and all of any municipality in New Jersey within 5 miles of New York, N.Y.; and (2) Samples, and refused, rejected, and returned shipments of the above-described commodities, from points in the New York, N.Y., Commercial Zone, as defined in Commercial Zones and Terminal Areas, 53 M.C.C. 451, within which local operations may be conducted pursuant to the partial exemption of section 203(b) (8) of the Interstate Commerce Act, (the "exempt" zone) and those in New Jersey within 5 miles of New York, and all of any municipality in New Jersey any part of which is within 5 miles of New York, N.Y.; and (2) Samples, and refused, rejected, and returned shipments of the above-described commodities, from points in the New York, N.Y., Commercial Zone, as defined in Commercial Zones and Terminal Areas, 53 M.C.C. 451, within which local operations may be conducted pursuant to the partial exemption of section 203(b) (8) of the Interstate Commerce Act, (the "exempt" zone) and those in New Jersey within 5 miles of New York, and all of any municipality in New Jersey any part of which is within 5 miles of New York, N.Y., to New Hyde Park, N.Y. under a continuing contract, or contracts, with Donmoor, Inc., of New York, N.Y. Any interested person or persons desiring to participate may file an original and six copies of his written representations, views or arguments in support of or against the petition within 30 days from the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

INCENTIVE PER DIEM CHARGES—1968

At a General Session of the Interstate Commerce Commission held at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 4th day of September, 1975.

Upon consideration of the record in the above-captioned proceeding, including the report of March 31, 1975 at 349 I.C.C. 303; the petitions for reconsideration filed by Robert W. Blanchette, Richard C. Bond, and John H. McArthur, trustees of the Property of the Penn Central Transportation Company on May 2, 1975; by the Southern Railway Company on May 8, 1975; and by the Canadian National Railway Company and CP Rail on May 8, 1975; the replies filed by the Chicago and North Western Transportation Company on May 27, 1975; and by the Union Pacific Railroad Company on May 28, 1975; and the petition for interpretation and clarification filed by the Maine Central Railroad Company on May 8, 1975;

It appearing, That the Southern Railway objects to the 1964-68 test period average, the good cause standard for modification of this average, and the voluntary surrender of unspent incentive per diem funds to Rail Box without retention of the ownership of cars; but any arbitrariness in the test period average was remedied by the good cause standard for modification, that guidelines for using this standard were mentioned in the Commission's report at 349 I.C.C. at 314-15, and the carrier is not required to surrender funds to Rail Box but when it chooses to it does not retain ownership since the purpose of Rail Box is to set up a fleet of free-running boxcars in which "the participating railroad . . . takes no title or interest in the pool cars . . ." American Rail Box Car Co.—Pooling 347 I.C.C. 862, 869.

It further appearing, That the Canadian Railroads object to the surrender of incentive funds to Rail Box because the Canadian Railroads are not allowed to participate in Rail Box and Rail Box cars are barred from use in Canada, and thus there will be inefficient utilization of cars and some of the amounts paid by Canadian Railroads to American carriers could be surrendered to Rail Box which will be of no benefit to the Canadian Railroads; but since the objectives of the incentive per diem program are "to increase the supply of plain boxcars in the U.S." 339 I.C.C. 627, 630 and to "seek national solutions to the national 6-month shortage" 337 I.C.C. 217, 226 the Commission must look to the overall benefits of its modifications, the Canadian Railroads should raise their objections in the Rail Box proceeding, and their concern about the use of their funds is premature since they are net incentive creditors.

It further appearing, That the Penn Central requests that this proceeding to be held open indefinitely, that carriers with net incentive balances file copies of their report to the Commission and to all parties of record for the year 1974, and that these carriers thereafter will file quarterly report to the Commission with copies to all parties of record; but, that it has been repeatedly stated by the Commission that this proceeding is open-ended, that the Commission currently receives annual accounting of incentive funds, that there would be little benefit from quarterly reporting, and to supply the data to all the parties would be burdensome;

And it further appearing, That the Maine Central in its petition for interpretation and clarification asks that a carrier be allowed to draw down incentive funds for boxcars leased since the incentive per diem order became effective on June 1, 1970; that based on the Commission's decision in 343 I.C.C. 49, 57, incentive funds can be used not merely for the portion of the year after the effective date of the order but for the entire calendar year of the order; that leases the equivalent of a purchase have been interpreted as being the same as purchases and thus incentive funds can be used for leases the equivalent of a purchase from January 1, 1970; that non-equity leases were not allowed until the Commission's order of March 31, 1975, and thus incentive funds can be applied on non-equity leases from January 1, 1975;

Wherefore and good cause appearing therefore:

It is ordered, That the Maine Central's petition be, and it is hereby, granted, in effect, by the above interpretation.

It is further ordered, That the petitions for reconsideration be, and they are hereby, denied.

It is further ordered, That the reference to the Rail Box decision in section 1036.4 of Title 49, Code of Federal Regulations at 349 I.C.C. 303, 333 be, and it is hereby changed from "Finance Docket No. 27589, American Rail Box Car Company and Trailer Train Company, et al.—For Approval of the Pooling of Car Service with Respect to Box Cars" to the short title of "American Rail Box Car Co.—Pooling, 347 I.C.C. 862."

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order shall be delivered to the Director, Office of the Federal Register, for publication therein.

And it is further ordered, That the order entered in this proceeding on March 31, 1975, which order was stayed by order of May 12, 1975 pending disposition of the petitions be, and it is hereby, reinstated and modified to become effective October 1, 1975, without other change in the requirements of said order, except as indicated above.

By the Commission.

ACTION
SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
PRIVACY ACT OF 1974
Notice of Systems of Records

Correction

The following notices, issued by ACTION and the Small Business Administration, appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of August 27, 1975 (40 FR 39805 and 39105, respectively). Some of the pages were inadvertently printed out of order, so that some Small Business Administration text appeared in the ACTION document, and some ACTION text appeared in the Small Business Administration document. Therefore, both documents are being reprinted in their entirety for the convenience of the reader as set forth below.

ACTION

Notice of Systems of Records

Notice is hereby given that in accord with 5 U.S.C. 55a(e) (4) and (11), Sec. 3 of the Privacy Act of 1974 (Pub. L. 93-579, hereinafter referred to as the "Act") ACTION proposes to adopt notice of systems of records as set forth below.

Any person interested in this notice may submit written views, comments or other data to ACTION/GC, Room 607, 806 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20525, on or before September 26, 1975. All written comments received from the public through said date will be considered before publication of a final notice. Comments received will be available for public inspection at the above address between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday (except holidays).

This notice does not include specific identification of certain systems of records in the custody of the Agency due to the fact that other Federal agencies have assumed responsibility for publishing government-wide notices with respect thereto. Primarily this includes publication of systems records pertaining to Federal employee personnel records by the United States Civil Service Commission.

Special note should be taken of the Preliminary Statement to the systems of records containing an indication of general routine uses, general exemptions from disclosure, general regulations as to notification, access and contest, and other material applicable to ACTION record systems generally. The Agency desired to avoid unnecessary repetition and duplication in the publication of each system of records which might make it difficult for the public to review and locate a system in which a record might be available. The publication of general routine uses and exemptions does not serve as an indication that each system will be normally used or usable for such purposes or subject to such exemptions, but that the use of any system for such routine use shall be permitted upon request of a designated routine user. Included in the preliminary statement of routine uses are certain indications of special exemptions with respect to volunteer personnel files and medical/psychiatric records as to which special procedures are required to comply with the Agency's special responsibility to volunteers and to personnel as to whom it maintains medical/psychiatric information.

This notice is issued in Washington, D.C. on August 20, 1975.

MICHAEL P. BALZANO, Jr.
 Director, ACTION.

The Agency proposes to adopt the following notice of systems of records:

NOTICE OF SYSTEMS OF RECORDS

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

OPERATING UNITS—Identification of the operating units within the Agency to which a particular system of records pertains appears as "ACTION" followed by a designated abbreviation. The abbreviations and their meanings are as follows:

OD—Office of the Director
 DO—Office of Domestic and Anti-Poverty Operations
 IO—Office of International Operations
 OPP—Office of Policy and Planning
 CA—Office of Congressional Affairs
 GC—Office of General Counsel
 EO—Office of Equal Opportunity
 AF—Office of Administration and Finance
 ORC—Office of Recruitment and Communications

OFFICIAL PERSONNEL FILES—Official personnel files of Federal employees in the General Schedule in the custody of the Agency are considered the property of the Civil Service Commission. Access to such files shall be in accordance with such notices published by the Commission. Access to such files in the custody of the Agency will be granted to individuals to whom such files pertain upon request to the Director, Office of Personnel Management, 806 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20525.

Files of employees in the Foreign Service Reserve which are not specifically covered by the Civil Service Commission publication are inter-filed with all other personnel files and treated in the same manner. The Commission publication of notice for official personnel files is therefore adopted by reference for Foreign Service personnel files in the custody of the Agency provided however that access, contests and appeals as to any record shall be heard as provided in accord with ACTION Regulations under the Privacy Act.

Various offices in the Agency maintain files which contain miscellaneous copies of personnel material effecting ACTION employees. This would include copies of standard personnel forms, evaluation, etc. These files are kept only for immediate office reference use and are considered by the Agency to be part of the personnel file system. The Agency's internal regulations provide that such information is a part of the general personnel files and can only be disclosed through the Director of the Office of Personnel Management in order that he may insure that any material to be disclosed is relevant, material, current, and fair to the individual employee. It is also the policy of the Agency to limit the use of such files and to encourage the destruction of as many as possible.

STATEMENT OF GENERAL ROUTINE USES—The following routine uses are incorporated by this reference into each system of records set forth herein, unless such incorporation is specifically limited in the system description.

1. In the event that a record in a system of records maintained by the Agency indicates any violation or potential violation of the law whether civil, criminal, or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by statute, or by regulation, rule or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant record in this system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether Federal, state, local or foreign charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation, or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulation, or order issued pursuant thereto; such referral shall also include and be deemed to authorize, (1) any and all appropriate and necessary uses of such records in a court of law or before an administrative board or hearing, and (2) such other interagency referrals as may be necessary to carry out the receiving agencies assigned law enforcement duties.

2. In the event the Agency receives a request from a Federal, state or local instrumentality under the jurisdiction of the United States for a record to be used for a civil or criminal law enforcement activity, authorized by law, such record shall be disclosed to such agency or instrumentality provided ACTION receives a written request from the head of such agency or instrumentality specifying the particular portion of the record desired and the law enforcement activity for which the record is sought.

3. A record may be disclosed as a routine use to designated officers and employees of other agencies and departments of the Federal government having an interest in the individual for employment purposes including the hiring or retention of any employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of license, grant or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter involved, provided however, that other than information furnished for the issuance of authorized security clearances, information divulged hereunder as to full-time volunteers under Title I of the Domestic Volunteer Service Act of 1973 (42 U.S.C. 4951) or the Peace Corps Act (22 U.S.C. 2501) shall be limited to the provision of dates of service and a standard description of service as heretofore provided by the Agency.

4. A record may be disclosed as a routine use in the course of presenting evidence to a court, magistrate or administrative tribunal of appropriate jurisdiction and such disclosure shall include disclosures to opposing counsel in the course of settlement negotiations.

5. A record may be disclosed as a routine use to a member of Congress submitting a request involving an individual who is a constituent of such member who has requested assistance from the member with respect to the subject matter of the record.

6. Information from certain systems of records especially those relating to applicants for Federal employment or volunteer service may be disclosed as a routine use to designated officers and employees of other agencies of the Federal government for the purpose of obtaining information as to suitability, qualifications and loyalty to the United States government.

7. Information from records systems may be disclosed to any source from which information is requested in the course of an investigation to the extent necessary to identify the individual, inform the source of the nature and purpose of the investigation, and to identify the type of information requested.

8. Information in any system may be used as a data source, for management information, for the production of summary descriptive statistics and analytical studies in support of the function for which the records are collected and maintained, or for related personnel management functions or manpower studies. Information may also be disclosed to respond to general requests for statistical information (without personal identification of individuals) under the Freedom of Information Act or the Privacy Act or to locate specific individuals for personnel research or other personnel management functions.

EXEMPTION OF DISCLOSURE—NATIONAL DEFENSE AND FOREIGN POLICY MATTERS.—Certain systems of records covered by the Act and maintained by the Agency may from time to time contain materials subject to specific exemptions authorized by 5 U.S.C. 552a (k) (1) relating to national defense and foreign policy materials. Such materials, as an example, might consist of classified cables or other documents properly classified under Executive Order. The Agency maintains the right to exempt such materials from disclosure wherever they might appear in such systems of records, but only to the extent necessary to protect such material as required by Executive Order and various statutes in the interest of national defense and foreign policy.

PARTIAL EXEMPTION OF MEDICAL/PSYCHIATRIC INFORMATION.—Certain systems of records maintained by the Agency contain medical/psychiatric information, the disclosure of which might harm an individual if disclosed directly to him. As to such records, if in the sole judgment of appropriate officials of the Agency such disclosure could have an adverse effect upon an individual under the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552a (f) (3), disclosure may be limited to a physician chosen by the requesting individual or his authorized representative.

LOCATION OF REGIONAL OFFICES.—The Agency maintains ten Regional Offices in which certain systems, or parts of systems are maintained. The Agency also maintains State offices under the jurisdiction of the Regional Offices. The Regional Offices, their addresses, and the States within their respective jurisdictions are listed below. In the event of any doubt as to whether a record is maintained in a Regional Office, a query may be directed to the Director, Administrative Services, ACTION, Washington, D.C. 20525, who shall furnish all assistance necessary to locate a specific record.

ACTION Region I. John W. McCormack Federal Bldg., Room 1440, Boston, Massachusetts 02109 (Massachusetts, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, and Connecticut).

ACTION Region II. 28 Federal Plaza, 16th Floor, Suite 1611, New York, New York 10007 (New York, New Jersey, Puerto Rico and Virgin Islands).

ACTION Region III. 320 Walnut Street, Suite 600, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19108 (Pennsylvania, Maryland, District of Columbia, Delaware and Virginia).

ACTION Region IV. 730 Peachtree Street, N.E., Room 895, Atlanta, Georgia 30308 (Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee).

ACTION Region V. 1 North Wacker Drive, 3rd Floor, Rm. 322, Chicago, Illinois 60606 (Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio and Wisconsin).

ACTION Region VI. Corrigan Tower Building, Suite 1800, 212 No. St. Paul Street, Dallas, Texas 75201 (Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas).

ACTION Region VII. II Gateway Center, Suite 330, 4th and State, Kansas City, Kansas 66101 (Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska).

ACTION Region VIII. 514 Prudential Plaza, 1050 17th Street, Denver, Colorado 80401 (Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota and Utah).

ACTION Region IX. 100 McAllister Street, Room 2400, San Francisco, California 94102 (Arizona, California, Hawaii and Nevada).

ACTION Region X. 1801 Second Avenue, Seattle, Washington 98101 (Alaska, Idaho, Oregon and Washington).

NOTIFICATION.—Individuals may inquire as to whether any system contains information pertaining to them by addressing the System Manager in writing. Such request should include the name and address of the individual, his or her social security number, and any relevant data concerning the information sought. Where possible, the place of assignment or employment, etc. In case of any doubt as to which system contains a record, interested individuals may contact the Director, Administrative Services, ACTION, Washington, D.C., 20525, who has overall supervision of records systems and who will provide assistance in locating and/or identifying appropriate systems.

ACCESS AND CONTEST.—In response to a written request by an individual, the appropriate System Manager shall arrange for access to the requested record or advise the requester if no such record exists. If an individual wishes to contest the content of any record, he or she may do so by addressing a written request to the Director, Administrative Services, ACTION, 806 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC 20525. The Director shall provide all necessary information regarding such contest and appeal.

SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

PRIVACY ACT OF 1974

Notice of Systems of Records

The Privacy Act of 1974 (Pub. L. 93-579), found in 5 U.S.C. 552a, provides certain safeguards for an individual against invasion of personal privacy. As part of the Act all agencies are required to publish in the FEDERAL REGISTER at least annually a notice of the existence and character of each system of records maintained by the agency from which personal information is retrieved by the name of the individual or by some identifying particular assigned to that individual.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(e) (4) and (11) the Small Business Administration is submitting the following notices of systems of records maintained by the Agency. Although the Act requires only publication for comment of the proposed "routine uses" of the particular systems of records, public comments on all parts of the notice are invited. Persons interested in submitting written comments, data, reviews or arguments concerning the notice may address their comments to Privacy Act Task Force Chairman, Room 1028, Small Business Administration, 1441 L Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20416, on or before September 27, 1975. All written comments received through this date will be considered prior to publication of the final notice.

Dated: August 2, 1975.

THOMAS S. KLEPPE,

Administrator,

Small Business Administration.

The following notice of systems of records proposed for adoption by the Small Business Administration makes reference to addresses of Agency offices and record centers where Agency records are maintained. Appendix A lists addresses for the Central Office, the 10 regional offices, the 64 district offices, and the 18 branch offices located throughout the United States. Each of the systems contained in the notice may be found at some or all of these offices.

Appendix B lists addresses of national centers not maintained by the Small Business Administration where Agency records are also located. The Small Business Administration is, likewise, responsible for all of its records maintained in these centers and the notice refers to these centers where appropriate.

Categories of records in the system: This system of records contains investigations and reports on all of the above individuals on whom the Agency has derogatory information. Records of a non-derogatory nature are maintained on the principal SBIC directors and stockholders. These records integrate FBI and IRS reports and include personal history statements, background character checks, field investigations, arrest and conviction records, parole and probation data, Securities and Exchange Commission violations, recommendations and evaluations, and related correspondence.

Authority for maintenance of the system: 15 U.S.C. 634(b)(6), 15 U.S.C. 645(a), 18 U.S.C. 1001.

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses:

In the event that a system of records maintained by this Agency to carry out its function indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute, or by regulation, rule, or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether Federal, State, local or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigation or prosecution of such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute or rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.

A record from this system of records may be disclosed, as a routine use, in the course of presenting evidence to a court, magistrate or administrative tribunal, including disclosures to opposing counsel in the course of such proceeding or in settlement negotiations.

These records may be used to provide data to the General Accounting Office for periodic reviews of this Agency.

These records may routinely be disclosed to other Federal agencies, in response to their requests, in connection with conducting background checks. Disclosure will be made only to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agencies' function.

Storage: These records are maintained in rotary diebold power files, file folders and card indexes.

Retrievability: These records are indexed by applicant and recipient name.

Safeguards: Personnel screening. Information is released only to authorized persons.

Retention and disposal: At the end of each calendar year, investigation records are screened to remove those records on which no derogatory information has been received for five years or more. These inactive records are then sent to an FRC which maintains them for twenty years and then destroys them. Derogatory records on SBIC principals are retained for two years and then transferred to an FRC which destroys them after ten years, whereas nonderogatory records are retained for one year and then destroyed. Investigation cards containing a condensed report and applicant representative cards are retained indefinitely. Correspondence records are retained for as long as they are essential and destroyed annually when nonessential.

System manager(s) and address: Privacy Act Officer. See Appendix A for address.

Notification procedure: An individual may inquire as to whether the system contains a record pertaining to him or her by addressing a request in person or in writing to the Privacy Act Officer for Central Office records. The address of this office is contained in Appendix A.

Record access procedures: In response to a request by an individual to determine whether the system contains a record pertaining to him or her, the Privacy Act Officer will set forth the procedures for gaining access to these records. If there is no record of the individual, he or she will be so advised.

Title 3—The President

PROCLAMATION 4387

Fire Prevention Week, 1975

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

The United States can ill-afford to continue to see its resources devoured by ruinous fires. The personal suffering and loss of life, and the destruction of our national wealth and production capabilities, are a needless drain on our Nation. We need to eliminate it.

A recent Bureau of Census survey of household fires indicates that annually one in every sixteen households has a fire which does or could have disastrous results. Most of these fires are avoidable—caused by needless and careless acts. Our national goal should be to achieve an annual reduction in fire deaths, injuries and property losses, cutting those losses in half within a generation. Every American can and must help to prevent these fires.

The business community has a special responsibility to provide fire-safe products. Builders, architects and engineers have a responsibility to provide fire-safe places in which to work and live. Local governments have a responsibility to enact and enforce adequate codes and encourage good fire prevention practices. And fire departments have important responsibilities in providing strong fire prevention programs in their communities, as well as to fight fires and save lives when all else fails.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GERALD R. FORD, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate the week beginning October 5, 1975, as Fire Prevention Week. I call upon each individual and family to participate in the programs of Fire Survival and Exit Drills In The Home to assure safe evacuation in emergencies; and for businesses to conduct year-round fire prevention to include emphasis of on-and-off-the-job applications of fire safety practices.

I also call upon the National Fire Protection Association, members of the Joint Council of National Fire Service Organizations, and other fire safety organizations to join with the National Fire Prevention and Control Administration in providing leadership and materials for a national fire prevention effort.

Local community and fire department organizations are asked to provide the direction and support necessary to assure that each home and business is invited to participate in Fire Prevention Week activities; and Federal agencies are asked to provide an example for the Nation by communicating fire-safe practices to all employees, and by cooperating in State and local activities.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this ninth day of September, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred seventy-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundredth.

THE PRESIDENT

PROCLAMATION 4388

Columbus Day, 1975

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

On October 13, we honor the great Italian navigator whose historic westward voyage blazed the way for the settlers from many lands who followed to build a new world.

Our admiration for the achievement of Christopher Columbus has not dimmed over the span of nearly five centuries. Sailing in the service of the Spanish Crown, whose vision and support made his journey possible, Columbus pursued his dream in the face of enormous challenges with an unshakable courage and faith that set an example for future generations of Americans.

We can all take great pride, as we look forward to our Bicentennial celebrations, in honoring the memory of the epic accomplishments of Christopher Columbus which led to the development of the Americas and the founding of this great Nation.

In tribute to the achievement of Columbus, the Congress of the United States, by joint resolution approved April 30, 1934 (48 Stat. 657, 36 U.S.C. 146), as modified by the Act of June 28, 1968 (82 Stat. 250, 5 U.S.C. 6103(a) and note), requested the President to proclaim the second Monday in October of each year as Columbus Day.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GERALD R. FORD, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Monday, October 13, 1975, as Columbus Day; and I invite the people of this Nation to observe that day in schools, churches and other suitable places with appropriate ceremonies in honor of the great explorer.

I also direct that the flag of the United States be displayed on all public buildings on the appointed day in memory of Christopher Columbus.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this tenth day of September, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred seventy-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundredth.

PROCLAMATION 4389

Veterans Day, 1975

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

Of all of the important days to be celebrated during America's Bicentennial, none is more worthy of special observance than Veterans Day. Had not the patriotic men and women, to whom we pay deserved and grateful tribute on Veterans Day, heard and answered freedom's call during the past 200 years, there would be no American Bicentennial of freedom.

From Lexington and Concord in 1775 to the present, these courageous, selfless patriots served and sacrificed and died so that their fellow-citizens could live under a government that still is in the full tide of successful experiment and still is the world's best hope.

It is both fitting and proper that a legal holiday, designated by the Congress (5 U.S.C. 6103(a)), be set aside to honor our veterans.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GERALD R. FORD, President of the United States of America, do hereby invite and urge you, my fellow-Americans, to observe Monday, October 27, 1975, as Veterans Day. I commend public ceremonies as well as private contemplation as a meaningful expression of gratitude to our veterans for the priceless heritage of freedom which they have bequeathed to us.

I suggest that disabled veterans in Veterans Administration hospitals throughout the country will welcome and appreciate a Veterans Day visit. And I ask that you help to evidence America's special concern for our returned Vietnam era veterans by making Veterans Day, 1975, the beginning of a renewed personal effort to assist these deserving Americans in achieving the fullest and fastest possible readjustment to civilian life.

Finally, I call upon the appropriate officials of Government to arrange for the display of the flag of the United States on this day. I request officials of Federal, State and local governments to support its observance and I urge schools, churches, unions and civic and patriotic organizations to participate in appropriate public ceremonies throughout the country.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this tenth day of September, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred seventy-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundredth.

rules and regulations

This section of the FEDERAL REGISTER contains regulatory documents having general applicability and legal effect most of which are keyed to and codified in the Code of Federal Regulations, which is published under 50 titles pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 1510. The Code of Federal Regulations is sold by the Superintendent of Documents. Prices of new books are listed in the first FEDERAL REGISTER issue of each month.

Title 7—Agriculture
SUBTITLE A—OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE
PART 25—ADVISORY COMMITTEE
MANAGEMENT
PART 25A—OTHER COMMITTEE
MANAGEMENT

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Secretary of Agriculture (37 FR 28471) to maintain Department-wide policies and procedures for the management of committees, the following is announced.

On March 3, 1975, notice was given in the FEDERAL REGISTER (40 FR 8824) of a proposal to add new Parts 25 and 25A to Title 7, Code of Federal Regulations. As a result of comments received, Part 25 now sets forth guidelines and procedures to be followed by Departmental agencies for the establishment, operation, duration and public accessibility to advisory committees under its jurisdiction. Part 25A provides guidelines and procedures for the establishment, operation and duration of all other committees, except advisory committees, under the jurisdiction of the Department.

As a result of the comments received, the following changes were made:

1. Additional wording has been included in § 25.11(b) (6) allowing officials other than agency committee management officers to sign charters for regional, State, and local committees.
2. Deleted the portion of § 25.12(a) pertaining to committees which terminated on January 5, 1975.
3. Deleted § 25.12(b) (2) (A) which also pertained to the committees which expired on January 5, 1975.
4. Included additional wording in § 25.15(d) to further clarify the meaning of financial interest of proposed members.
5. Strengthened the position on use of minorities and women as committee members by additional wording in § 25.15 (e).
6. Removed the clearance requirement in § 25.16(a) for those proposed members not appointed by the Secretary.
7. Incorporated the material contained in § 25.18 in § 25.17 which was retitled.
8. Renumbered § 25.19-21 to § 25.18-20.
9. Section 25.20(n) has been amended to allow each agency to dispose of its committee records in accordance with their disposal schedule.
10. Section 25.24 has been amended to reflect the separate requirements for the comprehensive review and the annual report.
11. The requirement that agencies submit the Committee Control Record for other committees (§ 25.42(a)) has been deleted.

Accordingly, with these changes and additions, the regulations are set forth below.

Authority: 5 U.S.C. 301; Sec. 8, Stat. 773, 5 U.S.C. App. I.

Subpart A—Purpose and Policy

§ 25.1 Purpose.

The regulations in this Part provide guidelines and procedures for the establishment, operation, duration and accessibility to the public of advisory committees under the jurisdiction of the Department of Agriculture.

§ 25.2 Policy.

In addition to complying with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Pub. L. 92-463; 86 Stat. 770, 5 U.S.C. App. I) and Office of Management and Budget Circular A-63, Revised, requirements with respect thereto, it shall be the policy of this Department to maintain control over the establishment and use of all advisory committees. The provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, 5 U.S.C. App. I, and all regulations issued by the Office of Management and Budget, the Department, and applicable Department agency shall apply to all advisory committees, unless otherwise provided by law. The number of such committees shall be held at the absolute minimum required for effective program operation and compliance with various provisions of law.

§ 25.3 Definitions.

As used herein, terms are defined as follows:

(a) Advisory Committee. Any committee, subcommittee, board, commission, council, conference, panel, task force, or similar group, subgroup, or body which is not composed wholly of full-time officers or employees of the Federal Government and which is established or utilized in the interest of obtaining advice or recommendations for one or more agencies or officers of the Federal Government.

(1) Non-statutory Advisory Committee. Any advisory committee established or utilized by the President or a Government official, including an advisory committee authorized, but not established, by a Federal Statute.

(2) Statutory Advisory Committee. Any advisory committee established by an Act of Congress. (If the statute directs the Secretary to establish an advisory committee, it is a statutory committee since the Secretary has no discretion in its establishment.)

Subpart B—Responsibilities

§ 25.7 Department.

(a) The Assistant Secretary for Administration is the Advisory Committee Management Officer of the Department. He is responsible for:

- (1) Exercising control and supervision over the establishment, procedures, and accomplishments of advisory committees;
- (2) Assigning responsibility for the assembling and maintenance of the reports, records, and other papers of advisory committees; and
- (3) Carrying out, on behalf of the Department, the provisions of section 552 of Title 5, United States Code, with respect to such reports, records, and other papers. To carry out these responsibilities and to evaluate advisory committee activities, the Advisory Committee Management Officer shall hold periodic review meetings, but not less than one per year. The review meetings shall include the Deputy Under Secretary. Agency personnel shall attend as requested.

(b) The Office of Management and Finance provides staff assistance for the Advisory Committee Management Officer by:

- (1) Maintaining systematic information on the nature, functions and operations of each Department advisory committee, including a complete set of charters and the annual reports for advisory committees;

(2) Filing advisory committee charters with appropriate House and Senate committees, the Library of Congress, and the Office of Management and Budget;

(3) Maintaining committee control records for advisory committees (see Subpart E of this part).

(4) Complying with advisory committee management reporting requirements;

(5) Providing advice and guidance on the establishment, renewal, utilization, management, and reporting of all advisory committees throughout the Department; and

(6) Scheduling periodic review meetings of advisory committee procedures and providing adequate notification to those who will attend.

§ 25.8 Agencies.

The head of each agency engaged in advisory committee activity shall be responsible for providing an orderly procedure for:

(a) Establishing or terminating advisory committees and providing guidelines for the selection of members;

(b) Adhering to the law and regulations governing the use of advisory committees;

(c) Designating for each advisory committee a central location for the assembling and maintenance of the reports, records, and other papers of the advisory committee for public inspection and copying;

(d) Conducting periodic reviews of advisory committee activities (see Subpart E of this part);

(e) Maintaining an adequate advisory committee control system. This includes maintaining records of all advisory committees sponsored by the agency; and

(f) Submitting Committee Control Records (Form AD-241) for all advisory committees (see Subpart E of this part).

Subpart C—Establishment and Renewal of Advisory Committees

§ 25.11 Establishment of Advisory Committees.

(a) Policy on Establishment. The following policy shall govern the establishment of any advisory committee.

(1) No advisory committee shall be established within the Department unless:

(i) It has been specifically authorized by statute or Presidential directive, or determined as a matter of formal record by the Secretary or appropriate Assistant Secretary or Director of Agricultural Economics to be in the public interest.

(ii) It has been established in accord with these regulations.

(iii) Prior consultation with the Office of Management and Budget has been accomplished.

(iv) Timely notice of the intent to establish the advisory committee is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(v) It has been determined that the functions of the advisory committee are not being and could not be performed by an existing agency or advisory committee.

(vi) The purpose of the advisory committee has been clearly defined.

(2) An annual report for each advisory committee shall be prepared by the agency providing support services. This report shall describe the committee's membership, functions, and actions.

(3) Unless provided otherwise by statute or Presidential directive, advisory committees shall be utilized solely for advisory functions. Decisions regarding actions or policies relating to matters dealt with by an advisory committee shall be made solely by an official of the Government.

(b) Procedure for Establishment.—(1) Obtaining Approval. An agency desiring to establish an advisory committee that is not specifically established by statute or by the President shall first consult with and obtain the approval of the appropriate Assistant Secretary or Director of Agricultural Economics.

(i) If the Assistant Secretary or Director approves, that agency shall prepare a letter for the signature of the Advisory Committee Management Officer, to the Director, Office of Management and Budget, containing the following:

(A) The nature and purpose of the proposed advisory committee and the reasons why it is needed.

(B) An explanation of why the functions could not be performed by the agency or by an existing advisory committee.

(C) A description of the agency's plan to attain balanced membership on the proposed advisory committee.

(D) A statement that notice of the action will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(E) A statement that establishment is in the public interest in connection with the work of the Department.

(F) A request for Office of Management and Budget concurrence in the Department's decision to establish the advisory committee.

(ii) A draft copy of the charter for the proposed advisory committee will be submitted with the letter.

(iii) This letter shall be submitted to the Office of Management and Budget. The Office of Management and Budget is responsible for obtaining Departmental clearances and signature of the letter, and forwarding it to the Office of Management and Budget.

(iv) The Office of Management and Budget shall notify the Assistant Secretary or Director and the agency by memorandum as to whether the Office of Management and Budget concurs in the decision to establish the advisory committee.

(2) Preparation of Federal Register Notice. (i) If the Office of Management and Budget concurs, the agency providing support services shall then prepare, for publication in the Federal Register, a notice advising the public of the Department's intent to establish the advisory committee. The notice shall state the name and purpose of the advisory committee, a statement that it is in the public interest to establish the advisory committee in connection with the duties of the Department, and the name and address of the agency official to whom the public may submit comments. The Advisory Committee Management Officer shall sign notices for national advisory committees. Notices for regional, state, and local advisory committees shall be signed by an official of the agency providing support services. All notices shall receive clearance by the Office of Management and Budget prior to signature.

(ii) In the case of advisory committees specifically established by statute or by the President, neither approval by the Office of Management and Budget nor Federal Register notice of intent to establish said advisory committee is required.

(3) Preparation of Establishment Document. The agency providing support services shall prepare an establishment document as follows:

(i) For a national advisory committee (one operating on a national basis), the establishment document shall be in the form of a numbered Secretary's Memorandum. The document shall include:

(A) Name, clearly defined purpose, and functions of the advisory committee.

(B) Statement of reasons why the advisory committee is necessary, and statutory authorization, if any.

(C) Titles and/or names of the chairman, vice-chairman and executive secretary and a statement designating the Department employee to attend the meeting if the chairman or vice-chairman are not Department employees. National advisory committees shall be chaired by an official from the Office of the Secretary with an agency official as vice-chairman, unless another arrangement is approved by the Advisory Committee Management Officer (see § 25.19(b)).

(D) Statement that the advisory committee will terminate in two years, unless otherwise provided by statute.

(E) Statement that establishment of the advisory committee is in the public interest in connection with duties imposed on the Department by law.

(F) Statement concerning the plan to achieve balanced membership on the advisory committee (§ 25.15).

The document shall be routed to the Office of Management and Budget through the Office of the General Counsel.

(G) Names or titles of committee members or a statement as to who will appoint them.

(ii) Regional, State, and local advisory committees shall be established by the appropriate Assistant Secretary or Director of Agricultural Economics. The establishment document shall be in the form of an unnumbered Secretary's Memorandum. The document shall include:

(A) Name, clearly defined purpose, and functions of the advisory committee.

(B) Statement of reasons why the advisory committee is needed and statutory authorization, if any.

(C) Titles and/or names of the chairman, vice-chairman and executive secretary and a statement designating the Department employee to attend the meeting if the chairman or vice-chairman are not Department employees (§ 25.19).

(D) Statement that the advisory committee will terminate in two years, unless provided otherwise by statute.

(E) Statement that establishment of the advisory committee is in the public interest in connection with duties imposed on the Department by law.

(F) Statement concerning the plan to achieve balanced membership on the advisory committee (§ 25.15).

(G) Names or titles of committee members or a statement as to who will appoint them.

(4) Preparation of charter. Before an advisory committee meets or takes any action, the agency providing support services for the advisory committee shall prepare a charter. The original and four copies of this charter shall be submitted to the Office of Management and Budget no sooner than 15 days following publication of the notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER provided above. The charter shall contain:

(i) The advisory committee's official designation.

(ii) The advisory committee's objectives and the scope of its activity.

(iii) The period of time necessary for the advisory committee to carry out its purposes.

(iv) The agency or official to whom the advisory committee reports.

(v) The agency responsible for providing the necessary support for the advisory committee.

(vi) A description of the duties for which the advisory committee is responsible and, if such duties are not solely advisory, a specification of the authority for such functions.

(vii) The estimated annual operating costs in dollars and man-years.

(viii) The estimated number and frequency of advisory committee meetings.

(ix) The advisory committee's termination date, if less than two years from the date of the advisory committee's establishment.

(x) Space for the "date of filing" to be filled in by the Office of Management and Budget.

(5) Establishment document as charter. The establishment document shall serve as the charter if it contains the required information. If it does not, a separate document entitled "Charter of the Advisory Committee" shall be prepared and submitted to the Office of Management and Budget.

(6) Signing of charter. The Advisory Committee Management Officer shall sign charters for national advisory committees when the charter is not included in the establishment document. Charters for regional, State, and local committees shall be signed by the agency committee management officer or other agency official having responsibility for the committee when the charter is not included in the establishment document.

(7) Filing of charter. The Office of Management and Budget shall file the charters with the appropriate House and Senate Committees, the Library of Congress, and the Office of Management and Budget, and notify the agency providing support services when this has been done.

(c) Termination of approval to establish Advisory Committee. If an advisory committee is not established within one year from the date on which Office of Management and Budget concurred in its establishment, the approval to establish said committee shall be considered terminated unless the Advisory Committee Management Officer grants an extension. In no case shall the approval extend beyond two years from the date on which the Office of Management and Budget concurred in the establishment of the advisory committee. The policy governs both the establishment and the renewal of advisory committee.

§ 25.12 Duration and renewal of Advisory Committees.

(a) Unless otherwise provided for by law, each advisory committee shall terminate not later than two years after its establishment or renewal unless it is renewed prior to that time by appropriate action. Unless provided otherwise by the establishing authority, the duration of a subgroup shall be the same as that of the parent committee.

(b) No advisory committee shall be renewed unless it is clearly demonstrated that the committee provides advice necessary to the operation of the Department which can be obtained in no other way.

(c) Non-statutory Advisory Committees. Not more than 60 days before the scheduled date of termination, the agency providing support services and desiring to renew a non-statutory advisory committee shall consult with and obtain the approval of the appropriate Assistant Secretary or Director of Agricultural Economics.

(i) If the Assistant Secretary or Director approves, the agency providing support services shall prepare a letter for the signature of the Advisory Committee Management Officer, to the Director Office of Management and Budget. The policy and procedure provided for in § 25.11 (a), (b), and (c) for establishing an advisory committee apply to renewal of an advisory committee, except that the renewal document shall be signed before the Federal Register notice is published.

(ii) Any request to the Office of Management and Budget for approval to renew an advisory committee submitted less than 30 days before the expiration date or after the expiration date of the advisory committee shall be treated for all purposes as a request to establish a new advisory committee.

(2) Statutory Advisory Committees. Statutory advisory committees shall terminate in accordance with § 25.12.

(i) The charter for a statutory advisory committee whose termination as provided for by law is in excess of two years shall be filed when the committee is established and upon the expiration of each successive two-year period, if any, following the date of enactment of the statute establishing the advisory committee.

(ii) No advisory committee required to file a new charter shall take any action, other than preparation and filing of such charter, between the date the new charter is required and the date it is filed.

Subpart D—Membership and Meeting Procedure

§ 25.15 General Procedure.

(a) The membership of an advisory committee shall be "fairly balanced in terms of the points of view represented and the functions to be performed by the advisory committee" (sec. 5(b)(2) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, 5 U.S.C. App. I). In addition, committee members shall be appointed with a view toward safeguarding against any special interest inappropriately influencing the advisory committee.

(b) Members shall not serve on more than one advisory committee at any one time unless prior approval is obtained from the Advisory Committee Management Officer. Requests for multiple membership shall be submitted in writing through the Office of Management and Budget. Appointment of new members in the event of vacancies shall be for the unexpired period of the committee. Committee appointments expire when the committee is terminated in accordance with § 25.12. The appointing authority may, however, terminate an appointment at an earlier time.

(c) In the event the advisory committee is extended for another two-year period, the membership shall be reconstituted. Appointment of new members shall provide for rotation to the extent feasible and practicable, but reappointments may be made to assure effectiveness and continuity of operations consistent with the above constraints.

(d) It shall be the responsibility of the agency providing support services to insure that no person selected as a member of an advisory committee is engaged in employment or has a financial interest which is deemed likely to affect the integrity of his service on the committee.

(e) There shall be no discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, or sex in the selection of members. Minorities and women will be represented on committees in reasonable proportion to the degree they are affected by the work of the committee.

§ 25.16 Clearance of Advisory Committee Members.

(a) Policy. A background clearance is required for all proposed advisory committee members to be appointed by the Secretary except those who are Federal employees.

(b) Procedures. (1) The agency which provides support services shall submit for each prospective appointee a biographical sheet showing, at a minimum, the person's name, date and place of birth, company affiliation, title of position, name of parent company if appropriate, business address, residence address, a brief statement of his current business or profession, and past achievements. Clearance procedures will not be instituted if biographical data is insufficient to permit a complete background review.

(2) An original and three copies of the above information shall be sent to the Deputy Under Secretary.

(3) The procedures described above shall be utilized for both existing and prospective members when an advisory committee is renewed. Therefore, names and biographical data of members should be submitted for clearance when a request for renewal is forwarded.

(4) No direct contact shall be made with prospective appointees by agency officials until clearance is obtained.

§ 25.17 Appointment of members.

(a) Authority. National and/or statutory advisory committee members shall be appointed by the Secretary. Regional, State, and local advisory committee members shall be appointed by the agency official responsible for the committee, unless determined otherwise by the Department's Committee Management Officer.

(b) Invitation to Serve on National Advisory Committees. Letters of invitation shall be prepared for the signature of the Secretary by the agency providing support services and shall include:

- (1) Purpose of the advisory committee.
- (2) Name of the chairman.
- (3) Frequency of meetings, if known.
- (4) Location of meetings, if known.
- (5) Travel and per diem allowances, if applicable.
- (6) Expiration date of appointment.

The agency shall provide appropriate followup where letters of invitation have been issued and no response is received within 21 days of the date the invitation was mailed.

(c) Certificates of Appointment. For national advisory committees, a Certificate of Appointment, signed by the Secretary, shall be presented to each member. The responsible agency shall have the certificates engrossed with the name of the appointee and the committee. Form AD-73 (Request for Art and Graphic Services), together with the certificates and the information to be engrossed, shall be submitted to the Art and Graphics Division, Office of Communication. The certificates may be requisitioned from the Records and Distribution Division, Office of Operations. The agency shall arrange for presentation of the certificates either by mail at the time of appointment or at the next meeting of the committee.

§ 25.18 Pay guidelines.

Unless otherwise specifically provided by law, members of advisory committees shall receive no compensation but may receive travel and per diem allowances in accordance with Departmental regulations. If a statute provides for compensation to members of an advisory committee but does not specify a rate of compensation, the agency which provides support services shall review the significance, scope and technical complexity of the matters with which the advisory committee is concerned and the qualifications required of its members and shall recommend to the Advisory Committee Management Officer the rate of pay for the members. This recommendation shall be forwarded, in duplicate, through the Office of Management and Finance. If approved, the original shall be endorsed by the Advisory Committee Management Officer and returned to the agency. The rate of pay may not be higher than the daily equivalent of the maximum rate for GS-15.

§ 25.19 Meetings.

Advisory committee meetings shall be subject to the following provisions:

(a) No meeting shall be held except at the call of, or with the advance approval of, a designated Department official and with an agenda approved by such official. The agenda shall list the matters to be considered at the meeting and shall indicate whether any part of the meeting will concern matters within the exemptions of the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552(b)).

(b) Committees shall meet under the chairmanship of, or in the presence of, a Department official who shall have the authority and be required to adjourn any meeting whenever he considers adjournment to be in the public interest. No committee shall conduct a meeting in the absence of the Department official designated in the establishment document to chair or attend the meeting.

(c) The Department shall maintain an open-door policy with respect to meetings. Meetings will be open to the public except when a determination is made in writing by the Secretary that the meeting is concerned with matters which are within the exemptions of 5 U.S.C. 552(b), and that the public interest requires such activities to be withheld from disclosure.

(d) If an advisory committee seeks to have all or part of a meeting closed on the basis of an exemption contained in 5 U.S.C. 552(b), the agency providing support services shall prepare a determination for the Secretary's signature, stating that it is essential to close the meeting and the specific reasons for closing all or part of the meeting. Such determination shall be accompanied by any additional explanation of the facts and reasons why the meeting should be closed as are pertinent. This determination, in duplicate, and accompanying explanation shall be forwarded to the Advisory Committee Management Officer, through the Office of the General Counsel and the Office of Management and Finance, at least 45 days before the scheduled meeting.

(e) Only the Secretary has the authority to close a meeting or a part of a meeting.

(f) Requests to close meetings shall be prepared on a case-by-case basis.

(g) The closing of a meeting or any portion of a meeting may be reviewed by the Advisory Committee Management Officer after the meeting is held. If it is determined that a meeting or any portion of a meeting was closed inappropriately, corrective action may be taken.

(h) Timely notice of all meetings, both open and closed, shall be published in the Federal Register. The agency providing support services shall be responsible for preparation of the notice and submitting it to the Federal Register in sufficient time to allow for publication at least 15 days in advance of the meeting. Shorter notice may be provided in emergency situations and the reasons for such emergency exceptions shall be made part of the meeting notice. The agency providing support services should normally start processing meeting notices no later than 30 days before the meeting is scheduled to allow for clearance within the Department and handling time at the Federal Register. The notice shall contain:

- (1) The name of the advisory committee.
- (2) The time and purpose of the meeting, including a summary of the agenda or the person from whom it may be obtained.
- (3) The extent to which the public will be permitted to attend or participate in the meeting.
- (4) Statement that the meeting is open and the place where the meeting will be held or, if the meeting is to be closed, an explanation of why it is closed.
- (5) The name of the person to whom written comments may be made.

(i) In addition, a press release containing all the above information shall be prepared announcing all committee meetings at least 15 days in advance of the meetings. For national committee meetings, the agency providing support services shall provide this release to the Office of Communication at least 20 days prior to the meeting date. The Office of Communication shall make the release available to the appropriate media. Releases announcing regional, State, and local advisory committee meetings shall be furnished by the agency providing support services to the local media.

(j) The Director, Office of Management and Budget, may waive the requirement of notice of meeting if he determines otherwise for reasons of national security. If such a determination is desired, the agency providing support services shall prepare a letter to the Director for the Secretary's signature. This request, stating the reasons, shall be submitted to the Advisory Committee Management Officer, through the Office of the General Counsel and the Office of Management and Finance, no later than 45 days prior to the meeting. If the Director determines that public notice would be inconsistent with national security, the meeting shall be closed to the public.

(k) The agency that provides support services to the committee is responsible for complying with the following rules regarding open or partially-open meetings:

(1) The meeting shall be held at a reasonable time and at a place that is reasonably accessible to members of the public.

(2) The size of the meeting room shall be large enough to accommodate the committee members, its staff, and those members of the public who could reasonably be expected to attend.

(3) Any member of the public shall be permitted to file a written statement with the committee before or at a reasonable time following the meeting.

(4) Interested persons may be permitted by the committee chairman to speak at the meeting in accordance with procedures established by the committee.

(1) Detailed minutes shall be kept of all meetings. The chairman or the designated Department employee shall certify to the accuracy of the minutes, which shall include at least the following items:

- (1) The time and place of the meeting.
- (2) A list of committee members, committee staff, and Department employees present.
- (3) A complete summary of all matters discussed and conclusions reached.
- (4) Copies of all reports received, issued, or approved by the advisory committee.
- (5) A description of the extent to which the meeting was open to the public.
- (6) A description of public participation, including a list of members of the public who presented oral or written statements and an estimate of the number who attended the meeting.
- (7) The records, reports, transcripts, working papers, etc., of all open committee meetings shall be available for public inspection and copying. If a portion of a meeting was closed, the minutes of the open portion shall be available to the public.
- (8) Committee records shall be maintained by the agency providing support services for the life of the committee and disposed of in accordance with that agency's records disposal schedule.
- (9) If transcripts are made of a meeting, they shall be available within a reasonable period of time following the meeting.
- (10) Advice or recommendations of the committee shall be given only with respect to matters covered in the record of the committee's proceedings.
- (11) When the meeting ends, a press release shall be issued and/or a briefing held for the news media. The Department shall provide such appropriate additional information as may be requested. The responsibility for the release or briefing rests with the chairman of the advisory committee (or the designated Department representative) working with the agency information person assigned to the meeting and with the Department's Office of Communication.

(2) The time and purpose of the meeting, including a summary of the agenda or the person from whom it may be obtained.

(3) The extent to which the public will be permitted to attend or participate in the meeting.

(4) Statement that the meeting is open and the place where the meeting will be held or, if the meeting is to be closed, an explanation of why it is closed.

(5) The name of the person to whom written comments may be made.

(i) In addition, a press release containing all the above information shall be prepared announcing all committee meetings at least 15 days in advance of the meetings. For national committee meetings, the agency providing support services shall provide this release to the Office of Communication at least 20 days prior to the meeting date. The Office of Communication shall make the release available to the appropriate media. Releases announcing regional, State, and local advisory committee meetings shall be furnished by the agency providing support services to the local media.

(j) The Director, Office of Management and Budget, may waive the requirement of notice of meeting if he determines otherwise for reasons of national security. If such a determination is desired, the agency providing support services shall prepare a letter to the Director for the Secretary's signature. This request, stating the reasons, shall be submitted to the Advisory Committee Management Officer, through the Office of the General Counsel and the Office of Management and Finance, no later than 45 days prior to the meeting. If the Director determines that public notice would be inconsistent with national security, the meeting shall be closed to the public.

(k) The agency that provides support services to the committee is responsible for complying with the following rules regarding open or partially-open meetings:

(1) The meeting shall be held at a reasonable time and at a place that is reasonably accessible to members of the public.

(2) The size of the meeting room shall be large enough to accommodate the committee members, its staff, and those members of the public who could reasonably be expected to attend.

(3) Any member of the public shall be permitted to file a written statement with the committee before or at a reasonable time following the meeting.

(4) Interested persons may be permitted by the committee chairman to speak at the meeting in accordance with procedures established by the committee.

(1) Detailed minutes shall be kept of all meetings. The chairman or the designated Department employee shall certify to the accuracy of the minutes, which shall include at least the following items:

- (1) The time and place of the meeting.
- (2) A list of committee members, committee staff, and Department employees present.
- (3) A complete summary of all matters discussed and conclusions reached.
- (4) Copies of all reports received, issued, or approved by the advisory committee.
- (5) A description of the extent to which the meeting was open to the public.
- (6) A description of public participation, including a list of members of the public who presented oral or written statements and an estimate of the number who attended the meeting.
- (7) The records, reports, transcripts, working papers, etc., of all open committee meetings shall be available for public inspection and copying. If a portion of a meeting was closed, the minutes of the open portion shall be available to the public.
- (8) Committee records shall be maintained by the agency providing support services for the life of the committee and disposed of in accordance with that agency's records disposal schedule.
- (9) If transcripts are made of a meeting, they shall be available within a reasonable period of time following the meeting.
- (10) Advice or recommendations of the committee shall be given only with respect to matters covered in the record of the committee's proceedings.
- (11) When the meeting ends, a press release shall be issued and/or a briefing held for the news media. The Department shall provide such appropriate additional information as may be requested. The responsibility for the release or briefing rests with the chairman of the advisory committee (or the designated Department representative) working with the agency information person assigned to the meeting and with the Department's Office of Communication.

(2) The time and purpose of the meeting, including a summary of the agenda or the person from whom it may be obtained.

(3) The extent to which the public will be permitted to attend or participate in the meeting.

(4) Statement that the meeting is open and the place where the meeting will be held or, if the meeting is to be closed, an explanation of why it is closed.

(5) The name of the person to whom written comments may be made.

directives, may not be disclosed to members of advisory committees. However, material otherwise restricted "FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY" may, in some circumstances, be made available when essential to the transaction of committee business. When making material available to committee members, it must be clearly understood that all material presented for review at an open committee meeting is to be available for public inspection and copying. Therefore, good judgment must be exercised to assure:

- (a) That presentation of the information is essential.
- (b) That risk of consequences adverse to the public interest has been carefully weighed.

Subpart E—Reporting and Records

§ 25.24 Annual Reporting and Comprehensive Review.

(a) The Department shall submit an annual report to the General Services Administration by February 1 for preparation of the annual report required by the Federal Advisory Committee Act. The reporting period is the calendar year. The General Services Administration will provide exact instructions, but at least the following information must be included:

- (1) Exact name of advisory committee.
- (2) The date of and authority for its establishment.
- (3) Whether the committee is ad hoc (less than 12 months), continuing, or Presidential.
- (4) The termination date or the date it is to make a report.
- (5) Brief statement of function.
- (6) Actual dates of all meetings.
- (7) Title(s) and date(s) of report(s) submitted, if any.
- (8) Summary of the total number of advisory committee meetings and the number of closed or partially closed meetings, including a recapitulation of the exemptions of the Freedom of Information Act used as basis for closed meeting.
- (9) If an advisory committee has had closed or partially closed meetings, a summary of its activities and such related matters, which are informative to the public and consistent with 5 U.S.C. 552(b) should be included in its annual report.
- (10) Names and occupations of current members.
- (11) Total number of committee members, number of female members, and number of members by ethnic composition.
- (12) Estimated total aggregate annual cost to the Government to fund, service, supply and maintain the committee.

(b) If meetings of an advisory committee have been entirely or partially closed, the agency that provides support services to the committee shall prepare, for Federal Register publication, a notice of the availability of the annual report for that committee no later than 60 days after the report's completion. The notice shall include instructions which allow the public access to the report.

(c) A comprehensive review shall be conducted by the agencies and the results forwarded to the Office of Management and Finance by November 15 of each year. The review shall cover the most recent 12-month period of the committee's work. The report shall contain:

- (1) Recommendations of advisory committees to be continued.
- (2) Justification should be included for each committee to be continued, making reference to:

- (A) The number of meetings held.
- (B) The number of reports or recommendations submitted.
- (C) An evaluation of the substance of the reports or recommendations relative to agency programs.
- (D) An evaluation of the agency utilization of such reports and recommendations.
- (E) Whether information or recommendations could have been obtained from other sources within the agency or an existing advisory committee and the degree of duplication, if any.
- (F) Estimated annual cost.

(3) A list of advisory committees whose responsibilities should be revised.

(4) A list of advisory committees to be merged with other advisory committees.

(5) Recommendations of advisory committees to be terminated.

§ 25.25 Reports Issued by Advisory Committees.

The agency that provides support services will forward eight copies of any report issued by an advisory committee, at the time it is issued, to:

- Library of Congress Exchange and Gift Division, Federal Advisory Committee Desk, Washington, D.C. 20540

This requirement excludes minutes of meetings, material exempt under 5 U.S.C. 552(b), and the annual report prepared for submission to the General Services Administration (§ 25.24). If appropriate, background papers prepared for use of the committee may also be provided to the Library of Congress.

§ 25.26 Committee Control System.

(a) Responsibility. (1) Each agency head shall designate an official to be responsible for the maintenance of central control records of all advisory committees which the agency sponsors or for which it provides support services. Such information shall be kept current at all times and agencies shall be prepared to furnish such information upon request.

(2) Each agency sponsoring an advisory committee shall provide the support services for that committee. The Secretary shall designate the agency which will provide support services for advisory committees established or authorized by statute.

(b) Submission of Committee control record (AD-241). (1) To provide current and uniform information on all advisory committees in the Department and of interest to the Department, a Department-wide uniform Committee Control Record (AD-241) shall be used for:

(i) Department records maintained in the Office of Management and Finance.

(ii) Agency committee control records. Each agency, through the official responsible for committee management, shall submit an original and one copy of a complete Form AD-241, Committee Control Record, to the Office of Management and Finance for each advisory committee for which it provides support services.

(2) As committees are established or renewed, agencies shall submit a Form AD-241 to the Office of Management and Finance. When changes are made on established committees in individual memberships, addresses, or expiration dates, agencies shall submit a Form AD-241 to the Office of Management and Finance with only blocks 1, 2, and 4 completed and showing and identifying in block 14 the specific change(s) made. Agencies shall submit this form within 15 days after a change occurs. Form AD-241 for statutory advisory committees should be submitted when the advisory committee is established and at the same two-year intervals as its charter is filed.

(c) In addition to the Committee Control Record (AD-241), agencies shall maintain:

- (1) Copies of committee charters.
- (2) Minutes of committee proceedings.
- (3) Copies of press releases and committee reports.

(4) Copies of Secretarial determinations under 5 U.S.C. 552(b) that committee activities will be closed to the public.

(5) Any other working papers properly a part of advisory committee or subcommittee records.

§ 25.27 Financial records.

(a) Each agency, through the official responsible for committee management, shall maintain up-to-date records which disclose the disposition of funds made available to its advisory committees. These records shall be available for inspection and audit by officials of the Department and the Comptroller General or his representatives.

(b) When it appears that committee expenses will exceed estimates by ten percent or more, prior approval of payment of such additional expenses must be obtained from the Advisory Committee Management Officer. An original and two copies of a memorandum should be routed through the Office of Management and Finance justifying increased expenses and requesting approval of payment. If approved, the original shall be endorsed by the Advisory Committee Management Officer and returned to the requesting agency.

Subpart F—Exceptions

§ 25.30 Exceptions.

The requirements of this Part shall not apply to:

(a) Any local civic group whose primary function is that rendering a public service with respect to a Federal program.

(b) Any State or local committee or similar group established to advise State and local officials or agencies.

Subpart C—Establishment of Committees

- Sec. 25a.42 Establishment of Committees.

Subpart D—Reporting and Records

- Sec. 25a.45 Committee Control System.
- 25a.46 Financial Records.

Subpart E—Liaison Membership

- Sec. 25a.49 Policy.
- 25a.50 Procedure.

AUTHORITY: 5 U.S.C. 301.

Subpart A—Purpose and Policy

§ 25a.33 Purpose.

The regulations in this Part provide guidelines and procedures for the establishment, operation, and duration of all committees, except advisory committees, under the jurisdiction of the Department, and also cover Department liaison members on other committees.

§ 25a.34 Policy.

It shall be the policy of the Department to maintain control over the establishment and use of all committees. The number of such committees shall be held at the absolute minimum required for effective program operation and compliance with various provisions of law.

§ 25a.35 Definitions.

As used herein, terms are defined as follows:

(a) Committee—any committee, subcommittee, board, commission, or body other than an advisory committee (as defined in § 25.3 of this chapter).

(b) Interagency Committee—any committee made up wholly of full-time Government officers or employees of more than one department or agency, which is expected to be in existence for more than twelve months.

(c) Departmental Committee—any committee composed exclusively of representatives of two or more agencies of the Department.

(d) Agency Committee—any committee composed exclusively of members from a single agency of the Department.

(e) Liaison Membership—Departmental representation by the Secretary or his designated representative on committees, councils, boards, and similar bodies established by law, Executive Order, or by Presidential direction and not sponsored by the Department. Such membership may relate to international, government, or nongovernment activities, but excludes association with professional, fraternal, civil or similar types of nongovernment groups.

Subpart B—Responsibilities

§ 25a.38 Department.

(a) The Assistant Secretary for Administration is the Committee Management Officer of the Department. He is responsible for:

(1) Exercising control and supervision over the establishment, procedures, and accomplishments of all committees under the jurisdiction of the Department.

(2) Assigning responsibility for the assembling and maintenance of the reports, records, and other papers of committees during their existence.

(b) The Office of Management and Finance provides staff assistance for the Committee Management Officer by:

(1) Maintaining systematic information on the nature, functions and operations of each Department committee.

(2) Providing advice and guidance on the establishment, renewal, utilization, management, and reporting of all types of committees throughout the Department.

§ 25a.39 Agencies.

The head of each agency engaged in committee activity shall be responsible for providing an orderly procedure for:

(a) Establishing or terminating committees and providing guidelines for the selection of members.

(b) Adhering to law and regulations governing the use of committees.

(c) Designating for each committee a central location for the assembling and maintenance of the reports, records, and other papers of the committee.

(d) Periodic review of committee activities.

(e) Maintenance of an adequate committee control system. This includes maintaining records of:

(1) All interagency committees which the agency has established or chairs.

(2) All Departmental committees which the agency has established or chairs.

(3) All agency committees.

(4) All liaison memberships held by officials or employees of an agency as designees of the Secretary for committees not established or sponsored by the Department.

Subpart C—Establishment of Committees

§ 25a.42 Establishment of Committees.

(a) Committees Not Under Federal Advisory Committee Act. Committees may be established which have public members but do not perform an advisory function (e.g., Honor Awards Committee). Agencies desiring to establish such a committee shall consult with the Committee Management Officer and prepare a Secretary's Memorandum. Members are required to receive clearance (§ 25.16 of this chapter). No charter is required. The committee shall terminate not later than two years after its establishment.

(b) Interagency Committees. Interagency committees shall be established only after exchange of letters between the participating agencies. A Secretary's Memorandum shall be drafted to formalize or publicize committee activities of major importance. No charter is required.

(c) Departmental Committees. Other Departmental committees may be authorized by the sponsoring agency in accordance with agency regulations.

(d) Agency Committees. Agency regulations shall provide for the establishment, conduct, and termination of agency committees.

Subpart D—Reporting and Records

§ 25a.45 Committee Control System.

(a) Responsibility. Each agency head shall designate an official to be responsible for the maintenance of central control records of all departmental agency and interagency committees which the agency sponsors or provides support services for including liaison memberships. Such records shall be kept current at all times and shall include:

- (1) Minutes of committee proceedings.
- (2) Copies of press releases and committee reports.

(3) Any other working papers properly a part of committee or subcommittee records. Agencies shall be prepared to furnish information on these committees upon request. Each agency sponsoring a committee shall provide the support services for that committee.

§ 25a.46 Financial Records.

(a) Each agency, through the official responsible for committee management, shall maintain up-to-date records which disclose the disposition of funds made available to interagency committees which it sponsors, establishes, or chairs. These records shall be available for inspection and audit by officials of the Department and the Comptroller General or his representatives.

(b) When it appears that committee expenses will exceed estimates by 10 percent or more, prior approval of payment of such additional expenses shall be obtained from the Committee Management Officer. Route an original and two copies of a memorandum to the Office of Management and Finance justifying increased expenses and requesting approval of payment. If approved, the original shall be endorsed by the Committee Management Officer and returned to the requesting agency.

Subpart E—Liaison Membership

§ 25a.49 Policy.

(a) The Secretary may, in his discretion, designate a representative and alternate representative to bodies on which the Department maintains liaison membership. Only such authorized representatives or alternates as the Secretary designates may attend meetings of such bodies for the Department. The delegation of authority to represent the Department provided to the Secretary's representative and alternate may not be redelegated.

(b) When it is impossible for either the representative or alternate to attend the regular meetings of these bodies, the Office of the Secretary should be notified in sufficient time to make necessary arrangements.

§ 25a.50 Procedure.

(a) When the Secretary's representative and alternate on a Government-wide council, commission, or similar body are officials of the Office of the Secretary, the representative and alternate shall notify the Committee Management Officer of their designation. The Office of Management and Finance shall provide the Committee Management Officer with all necessary staff assistance.

(b) When the Secretary's representative and alternate are agency officials, the representative's agency shall carry out the following procedure:

(1) Prepare a letter for the Secretary's signature informing the Chairman, Executive Director, or similar appropriate official of the body in question of the designation of the Department's representative and alternate.

(2) Route the above materials to the Office of Management and Finance for appropriate review and clearance.

(3) Maintain a current listing of all such liaison memberships held by agency officials. If an agency official can no longer maintain such a liaison membership, immediately inform the Office of Management and Finance so that action to appoint a new representative may be taken.

Effective Date. These regulations shall become effective October 14, 1975.

CHAPTER IX—AGRICULTURAL MARKETING SERVICE (MARKETING AGREEMENTS AND ORDERS; FRUITS, VEGETABLES, NUTS), DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

[Valencia Orange Reg. 515]

PART 908—VALENCIA ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

Limitation of Handling

This regulation fixes the quantity of California-Arizona Valencia oranges that may be shipped to fresh market during the weekly regulation period Sept. 12-18, 1975. It is issued pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and Marketing Order No. 908. The quantity of Valencia oranges so fixed was arrived at after consideration of the total available supply of Valencia oranges, the quantity of Valencia oranges currently available for market, the fresh market demand for Valencia oranges, Valencia orange prices, and the relationship of season average returns to the parity price for Valencia oranges.

§ 908.815 Valencia Orange Regulation 515.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 908, as amended (7 CFR Part 908), regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Valencia oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) The need for this section to limit the respective quantities of Valencia oranges that may be marketed from District 1, District 2, and District 3 during the ensuing week stems from the production and marketing situation confronting the Valencia orange industry.

(i) The committee has submitted its recommendation with respect to the quantities of Valencia oranges that should be marketed during the next succeeding week. Such recommendation, designed to provide equity of marketing opportunity to handlers in all districts, resulted from consideration of the factors enumerated in the order. The committee further reports that the fresh market demand for Valencia oranges continues to improve. Prices f.o.b. averaged $3.76 per carton on a reported sales volume of 650,000 cartons last week, compared with an average f.o.b. price of $3.70 per carton and sales of 650,000 cartons a week earlier. Track and rolling supplies at 349 cars were up 106 cars from last week.

(ii) Having considered the recommendation and information submitted by the committee, and other available information, the Secretary finds that the respective quantities of Valencia oranges which may be handled should be fixed as hereinafter set forth.

(3) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rulemaking procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Valencia oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Valencia oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on September 9, 1975.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period September 12, 1975, through September 18, 1975, are hereby fixed as follows:

- (i) District 1: 233,000 cartons;
- (ii) District 2: 517,000 cartons;
- (iii) District 3: Unlimited movement."

(2) As used in this section, "handled", "District 1", "District 2", "District 3", and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order.

Dated: September 10, 1975.

CHAPTER XVII—FARMERS HOME ADMINISTRATION, AGRICULTURE

SUBCHAPTER A—GENERAL REGULATIONS

[FmHA Instruction 410.1]

PART 1801—RECEIVING AND PROCESSING APPLICATIONS

Subpart A—Receiving and Processing Applications

VETERANS' PREFERENCE

Section 1801.5(a) of Subpart A of Part 1801, Title 7, Code of Federal Regulations (36 FR 15737, 38 FR 4772, 40 FR 10953) is amended to provide for a closing date for service establishing entitlement to veterans' preference during the Vietnam era.

It is unnecessary to publish notice of proposed rulemaking in the FEDERAL REGISTER because the change being made by this amendment is to conform the Farmers Home Administration regulations to the Presidential Proclamation 4373, May 7, 1975, "Fixing Terminal Date Respecting Service in the Armed Forces Entitling Persons to Certain Veteran Benefits". The President proclaimed May 7, 1975, the last day on which a person must have entered the active military, naval, or air service of the United States in order for such service to qualify as service during the Vietnam era.

As amended, § 1801.5(a) reads as follows:

§ 1801.5 Persons entitled to veterans' preference.

(a) Farmer loans. Veterans' preference will be extended to any person applying for a farm ownership, soil and water, recreation, or operating loans who has been discharged or released from the active forces of the United States Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard under conditions other than dishonorable, who served on active duty in such forces: (1) During the period of April 6, 1917, through March 31, 1921; (2) during the period of December 7, 1941, through December 31, 1946; (3) during the period of June 27, 1950, through January 31, 1955; or (4) for a period of more than 180 days, any part of which occurred after January 31, 1955, but on or before May 7, 1975. Discharges under conditions other than dishonorable include "clemency discharges".

Effective date. This amendment is effective on September 11, 1975.

SUBCHAPTER B—LOANS AND GRANTS PRIMARILY FOR REAL ESTATE PURPOSES

[FmHA Instruction 444.1]

PART 1822—RURAL HOUSING LOANS AND GRANTS

Subpart A—Section 502 Rural Housing Loan Policies, Procedures, and Authorizations

DEFINITION OF A RURAL AREA

On pages 28094-28095 of the FEDERAL REGISTER dated July 3, 1975, there was published a proposed amendment to Subpart A of Part 1822, Title 7 Code of Federal Regulations. The purpose of the amendment is to further improve the operation and administration of the section 502 rural housing loan program. This amendment expands and clarifies the definition of a rural area and redefines and redesignates the definition of a place.

Interested persons were invited to submit written comments, suggestions or objections regarding the proposed amendment.

All comments submitted with respect to the proposed amendment were given due consideration. As a result of the comments received, certain proposed changes published in the FEDERAL REGISTER Notice of proposed rulemaking of July 3, 1975, are being adopted. Additional changes for clarity are also being made to the section published on that date.

1. In § 1822.3, paragraph (c) (3) (ii) with reference to "bedroom communities" is deleted.

2. Paragraph (c) (4) (ii) is clarified by inserting after the word "disposal" a phrase which reads as follows: "... however, consolidated schools and/or combined facilities do not necessarily indicate being 'associated with'." Paragraph (d) is also revised.

Accordingly, with these changes the proposed amendments are adopted as set forth below:

§ 1822.3 Definitions.

(c) Rural area. (1) Open country which is not part of or associated with an urban area; or

(2) Any town, village, city, or place, including the immediately adjacent densely settled area, which:

(i) Is not part of or associated with an urban area; and

(ii) Has a population not in excess of 10,000 if it is rural in character; or

(iii) Has a population in excess of 10,000 but not in excess of 20,000; and

(A) Is not contained within a standard metropolitan statistical area; and

(B) Has a serious lack of mortgage credit as determined by the Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

(3) A determination that open country, place, town, village, or city is not part of or associated with an urban area must include a finding that any densely populated section of the area in question is separated from the densely settled section of any adjacent urban area by open spaces (which are undeveloped, agricultural, or sparsely settled) other than minor open spaces due to physical barriers, commercial and industrial developments, public parks and similar open spaces, and areas reserved for recreational purposes; and

(4) The determination in paragraph (c) (3) of this section should also consider such factors as:

(i) The existence of known plans for development of a substantial portion of the intervening land within the near future (e.g., 3 to 5 years) between the area in question and an urban area;

(ii) The area in question has a separate school system and separate utilities such as water and sewer and solid waste disposal; however, consolidated schools and/or combined facilities do not necessarily indicate being "associated with."

(iii) Other relevant factors.

(5) Two or more towns, villages, cities, and places may have contiguous boundaries and each be considered separately if they are not otherwise associated with each other as determined after considering the factors in paragraph (c) (4) of this section and if any densely populated areas are separated by open spaces as described in paragraph (c) (3) of this section.

(6) "Place" consists of an area containing a concentration of inhabitants within a determinable unincorporated area.

(7) "Urban area" means either a town, village, city or place, or any associated combination thereof, which with the immediately adjacent densely settled area has a population in excess of the limits prescribed in paragraph (c) (2) (ii) and (iii) of this section.

(8) Population counts will be based on the latest official figures.

(9) The State Director, through appropriate State regulations, shall identify by list and maps "rural areas" for the purposes of this regulation. Provided, however, That no list or map of areas in excess of 10,000 but not in excess of 20,000 that are to be characterized as "rural areas" will be identified in said State regulation without the prior authorization of the National Office.

(d) Town. A "town" means a municipality similar to a city but not a New England-type town which resembles a township or county in most states.

Veterans' Preference

Section 1842.31(d) (5) of Part 1842, Title 7, Code of Federal Regulations (39 FR 34263) is amended to revise subdivision (ii) and to add a new subdivision (iii) to conform the veterans' preference provisions with § 1801.5(a) of this chapter; to redesignate former subdivision (iii) to subdivision (iv) and to revise the redesignation to provide for a closing date for service establishing entitlement to veterans' preference during the Vietnam era.

It is unnecessary to publish notice of proposed rulemaking in the FEDERAL REGISTER because the changes being made by this amendment are to conform the Farmers Home Administration regulations to the Presidential Proclamation 4373, May 7, 1975, "Fixing Terminal Date Respecting Service in the Armed Forces Entitling Persons to Certain Veteran Benefits". The President proclaimed May 7, 1975, the last day on which a person must have entered the active military, naval, or air service of the United States in order for such service to qualify as service during the Vietnam era.

As revised and added, § 1842.31(d) (5) (ii), (iii) and (iv) read as follows:

§ 1842.31 Application and loan processing.

(d) Preliminary determination by FmHA. . . .

(5) . . .

PART 1843—FARMER LOANS

Veterans' Preference

Section 1843.41(a) of Part 1843, Title 7, Code of Federal Regulations (38 FR 29051) is amended to revise subparagraph (2) and to add a new subparagraph (3) to conform the veterans' preference provisions with § 1801.5(a) of this chapter; to redesignate former subparagraph (3) to subparagraph (4) and to revise this redesignation to provide a closing date for service establishing entitlement to veterans' preference during the Vietnam era.

It is unnecessary to publish notice of proposed rulemaking in the FEDERAL REGISTER because the changes being made by this amendment are to conform the Farmers Home Administration regulations to the Presidential Proclamation 4373, May 7, 1975, "Fixing Terminal Date Respecting Service in the Armed Forces Entitling Persons to Certain Veteran Benefits". ##### Title 9—Animals and Animal Products

CHAPTER I—ANIMAL AND PLANT HEALTH INSPECTION SERVICE, DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

SUBCHAPTER C—INTERSTATE TRANSPORTATION OF ANIMALS (INCLUDING POULTRY) AND ANIMAL PRODUCTS

PART 73—SCABIES IN CATTLE

Permitted Dips

The purpose of this amendment is to add approved proprietary brands of (Prolate®) used at a concentration of 0.20 percent to 0.25 percent, to the list of dips permitted by the Department for use in the treatment of cattle affected with or exposed to scabies.

Statement of considerations. (Prolate®) is to be used at a concentration of 0.20 percent to 0.25 percent for official use against cattle scabies. Trials were carried out by the U.S. Department of Agriculture in 1973, 1974, and 1975. The results of these trials and trials carried out by Thuron Industries were the basis for the Environmental Protection Agency granting approval to a label for the product and its use against scabies mites in official programs. All these trials were carried out to demonstrate both the efficacy of (Prolate®) in the treatment against scabies mites and to demonstrate the stability of the product in the vat, as well as the vat managers ability to maintain it at the desired concentration. The Environmental Protection Agency action approving the new label and use pattern was taken July 16, 1975. It should be noted that (Prolate®) has been registered by the Environmental Protection Agency for some time and may also be used against grubs, lice, hornflies, cattle ticks, and southern cattle ticks.

(Prolate®) is an organophosphorous product which is biodegradable. The product has the added benefit of acting as a grubicide at the same time it is used as official treatment for scabies.

After careful evaluation of the product, consideration of the need, and its desirability as a permitted pesticide, it has been determined that (Prolate®) should be added to the list of permitted pesticides for use against scabies.

Accordingly, in § 73.10(a) a new paragraph (4) is added to read:

§ 73.10 Permitted dips: substances allowed.

(a) . . . .
(4) Approved proprietary brands of organophosphorous insecticides (Prolate®) used at a concentration of 0.20 percent to 0.25 percent.

(Sec. 4-7, 23 Stat. 32, as amended; secs. 1 and 2, 32 Stat. 791-792, as amended; secs. 1-4, 33 Stat. 1264, 1265, as amended; secs. 3 and 11, 76 Stat. 130, 132 (21 U.S.C. 111-113, 115, 117, 120, 121, 123-126, 134b, 134f); 37 FR 28464, 28477; 38 FR 19141.)

Effective date. The foregoing amendment shall become effective September 11, 1975.

The amendment relieves certain restrictions presently imposed but no longer deemed necessary to prevent the interstate spread of cattle scabies and must be made effective promptly to be of maximum benefit to persons subject to the restrictions which are relieved. It does not appear that public participation in this rulemaking proceeding would make additional relevant information available to the Department.

Accordingly, under the administrative procedures provisions in 5 U.S.C. 553, it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure with respect to the amendment are impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and good cause is found for making the amendment effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 123—DISASTER LOANS Physical, Economic Injury and Product Disaster Loan Interest Rates

This amendment reflects the change in physical, economic injury, and product disaster loan interest rates which became effective with the signing of Pub. L. 94-68 on August 5, 1975. Since this change is the result of a statutory enactment, notice and public procedure is not required. This amendment is effective as of August 5, 1975.

Part 123 is hereby amended by revising § 123.5(c) (1) as follows:

§ 123.5 Amount of loan and interest rates.

(c) . . . . .

(1) For disaster relief described under § 123.1 (a), (b), (1), and (3), the interest rate shall be as follows: On SBA's share of financial assistance, interest shall be 3 percent per annum for disasters occurring between January 1 and December 31, 1971; at 1 percent per annum for disasters occurring between January 1, 1972, and prior to April 20, 1973, except that loans made in connection with natural disasters declared only by the Secretary of Agriculture and which occurred during this period shall bear an interest rate of 3 percent per annum; at a rate not to exceed 5 percent per annum on loans made in connection with disasters occurring between April 20, 1973, and August 5, 1975, and at the same rate charged on the SBA share of loans made under section 7(b) (3) (5) (6) (7) and (8) of the Small Business Act, as amended, in connection with disasters occurring on or after August 5, 1975. In any loan made under this subsection, except for loans approved as the result of disasters occurring prior to July 1, 1973, deferment may be made in payments of principal or interest, or both, for a period not to exceed 3 years. In participation or guaranteed loans, the interest rate on the participating institution's share shall be at a rate considered as reasonable by SBA at the time of approval.

Title 14—Aeronautics and Space CHAPTER I—FEDERAL AVIATION ADMINISTRATION

[Docket No. 75-RM-1-AD Amdt. 39-2363]

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES Raven Model S-40A, S-50A, S-55A, S-60A, RX-6 Hot Air Balloons

There have been failures of the "O" ring seal on the valve stem; instances of the valve seat washer becoming loose which caused valve malfunction; and instances of the rollpin in the actuating handle falling out rendering the valve inoperable. Since this condition is likely to exist or develop in other valves of this type design, this airworthiness directive requires inspection, replacement and safetying of these items on Rego P/N 7553S series valves as used on Raven Models S-40A, S-50A, S-55A, S-60A and RX-6 Hot Air Balloons.

Since a situation exists that requires immediate adoption of this regulation, it is found that notice and public procedures hereon are impracticable and good cause exists for making this amendment effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (31 P.R. 13697), § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive.

RAVEN Model S-40A, S-50A, S-55A, S-60A, and RX-6 Hot Air Balloons:

Applies to Rego 7553S series blast valves installed on all models of the Raven hot air balloons certificated in all categories.

Compliance required as indicated below after the effective date of this AD unless already accomplished.

To prevent failures of the "O" ring on the valve stem; valve seat washer loosening; or valve actuating handle rollpin becoming dislodged, accomplish the following or an equivalent modification approved by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, FAA Rocky Mountain Region.

Within the next 25 hours time in service unless already accomplished within the last 25 hours time in service, accomplish Paragraph a, b, c, and d. Paragraph "a" and "c" are to be accomplished thereafter at each 100 hours time in service or at intervals not to exceed 12 calendar months from the last inspection, whichever comes first.

a. Remove the valve actuating lever rollpin P/N 7553S-8 from actuating lever. (Be careful to remove any burrs in the stem area around the rollpin hole before removing the valve stem P/N 7553S-1 from the bonnet

P/N 7553-5). Replace the "O" ring stem seal with a new Rego "O" ring P/N 1421-7. Lubricate the new "O" ring with Orange Solid Oil (Rego P/N 5555GS) or unmedicated Vaseline lubricant before reassembly. Other lubricants may cause shrinkage of the "O" ring.

b. Check the torque of the valve seat retaining screw to 8 to 10 in-lbs in the counter-clockwise (loosening) direction. If it turns, the screw must be removed, cleaned of lubricant and reinstalled using MIL-S 22473 high strength thread locking compound, or equivalent. Recheck torque after thread locking compound has cured.

c. Reinstall valve actuating lever on the valve body with rollpin, P/N 7553S-8. Install a number three machine screw and stop nut or a 3/32 inch stainless steel cotter pin or .040 inch diameter safety wire through the hole in the rollpin, holding the actuating handle to the valve body and secure.

d. Appropriate maintenance records must be kept in accordance with FAR 91.173.

This amendment becomes effective on September 17, 1975.

Issued in Aurora, Colorado on September 3, 1975.

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, AREA LOW ROUTES, CON- TROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Designation of Federal Airway

On July 14, 1975, a Notice of Proposed Rule Making (NPRM) was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (40 FR 29554) stating that the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) was considering an amendment to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations that would designate V-340 from Fort Wayne, Ind., direct to Richmond, Ind.

Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to participate in the proposed rule making through the submission of comments. No comments were received.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended, effective 0901 G.m.t., December 4, 1975, as hereinafter set forth.

Section 71.123 (40 FR 307) is amended to add the following: V-340 From Fort Wayne, Ind., to Richmond, Ind.

(Sec. 307(a), Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1348(a)); sec. 6(c), Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)))

Issued in Washington, D.C. on September 5, 1975.

PART 95—IFR ALTITUDES

Miscellaneous Changes

The purpose of this amendment to Part 95 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR Chapter I) is to make changes in the IFR altitudes at which all aircraft shall be flown over a specified route or any portion of a route. These altitudes, when used in conjunction with the current changeover points for the routes or portions of routes, also assure navigational coverage that is adequate and free of frequency interference.

Since situations exist which demand immediate action in the interest of safety, I find that compliance with the notice and procedure provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and that good cause exists for making this amendment effective within less than 30 days from publication.

In consideration of the foregoing and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 FR 5662), Subpart C of Part 95 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended as follows, effective October 9, 1975.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on September 3, 1975.

Chief, Aircraft Programs Division.

[Docket No. 14554, Amdts. 37-38, 121-122]
PART 37—TECHNICAL STANDARD ORDER AUTHORIZATIONS

PART 121—CERTIFICATION AND OPERATIONS: DOMESTIC, FLAG, AND SUPPLEMENTAL AIR CARRIERS AND COMMERCIAL OPERATORS OF LARGE AIRCRAFT

Ground Proximity Warning; Glide Slope Deviation Alerting System

The purpose of these amendments to Parts 37 and 121 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is to revise the Technical Standard Order (TSO) contained in § 37.201 to provide standards for ground proximity warning-glide slope deviation alerting equipment and to require, under § 121.360, the installation of equipment meeting those standards in large turbine-powered airplanes used in operations under Parts 121, 123, or 135.

On April 10, 1975, the Federal Aviation Administration issued a notice of proposed rulemaking (Notice 75-16; 40 FR 17156) relating to glide slope deviation monitoring equipment. Based on the comments received in response to Notice 75-16 and on further review by the FAA, it was determined that a need existed for the installation of such equipment, but that the amendment proposed in Notice 75-16 should contain specific technical standards for the equipment. Therefore, on July 18, 1975, a supplemental notice of proposed rulemaking was issued (Notice 75-16A; 40 FR 30839) which proposed complete and comprehensive technical standards for ground proximity warning-glide slope deviation alerting systems. Moreover, since it was determined that the installation of equipment meeting the new technical standards could not be accomplished by the date originally proposed, new compliance dates were proposed in Notice 75-16A. Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of these amendments, and due consideration has been given to all comments received in response to that notice. Except for minor editorial revisions and as specifically discussed hereinafter, these amendments and the reasons therefor are the same as those in Notice 75-16A.

Four commentators responded to Notice 75-16A and all were in basic agreement with the proposals contained therein. However, several substantive comments were received in response to Notice 75-16A, and the FAA's disposition of those comments is discussed below.

One commentator, an industry association, presented the views of two of its members as well as several comments for the association as a whole. One of these members requested that §§ 121.360 (f) and (g) be revised to provide a single date by which systems meeting the standards of the revised TSO must be installed. Another member requested that the single date be January 1, 1977, in order that the envelope for the glide slope deviation alerting mode (Mode 5) of the TSO could be refined. On the other hand, another commentator expressed regret that the December 1, 1975, compliance date originally proposed in Notice 75-16 was changed. However, as indicated in Notice 75-16A, the change in compliance dates as well as the two separate compliance dates are necessary to ensure that sufficient equipment meeting acceptable standards will be available for installation within the time provided. It should be noted that in establishing the compliance dates in this amendment, the FAA does not intend that operators unnecessarily delay installation of the systems that are required to be installed by the June 1, 1976, or January 1, 1977, compliance dates. These dates have been established to reflect a realistic time frame for equipment availability and installation no later than the required compliance dates. However, the FAA urges all operators to install the required ground proximity warning-glide slope deviation alerting system as soon as practicable.

With respect to the asserted need to refine the alerting envelope (Mode 5), a commentator also requested that the exceptions contained in proposed §§ 37.201 (a) (1) through (a) (4) (renumbered herein as §§ 37.201(a) (2) (i) through (a) (2) (iv)) be deleted. These exceptions act to prohibit the use of two alternate warning envelopes (Alternate Modes 1 and 4) that were developed by the Radio Technical Commission for Aeronautics for use in turbopropeller powered airplanes. In regard to these comments, the FAA does not agree that the presently available data and information warrant a revision of the alerting envelope specified in the TSO, the establishment of additional warning envelopes in the TSO, or a delay in the proposed compliance dates. The FAA recognizes, however, that increased experience with ground proximity warning-glide slope deviation alerting systems may result in a recognized need for adjustments in the warning and alerting envelopes specified in the TSO. The FAA will continue to review all available relevant data, and expedited action will be taken if found necessary.

The FAA also does not agree with the comment that the deactivation of the glide slope deviation alerting portion of the overall system during back course approaches should be specifically authorized in order to avoid "nuisance" alerts. The TSO, as revised, requires a deactivation capability for the glide slope deviation alerting portion of the overall system, and there exists no prohibition against the pilot deactivating that portion of the system to avoid back course "nuisance" alerts. However, the TSO also provides that after any deactivation of the glide slope deviation alerting portion of the system, that portion be automatically reactivated for the next approach.

It should be noted that proposed § 121.360 has been revised to provide for the use of all TSO-approved ground proximity warning-glide slope deviation alerting equipment. For consistency, similar revisions have been made herein to current §§ 121.360 (a) and (b). Since these revisions provide for an alternate means of compliance, and impose no additional burden on any person, additional notice and public proceedings on these revisions are unnecessary.

Finally, as indicated in Notice 75-16A, eight of the ten comments received in response to Notice 75-16 were in favor of a glide slope deviation monitoring system requirement. However, all comments received in response to Notice 75-16 were considered by the FAA in the issuance of Notice 75-16A, and due consideration has again been given to these comments in making these amendments.

(Secs. 313(a), 601, 603, 604, Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, 1423, 1924); sec. 6(c), Department of Transportation (49 U.S.C. 1655(c))

In consideration of the foregoing, Parts 37 and 121 of the Federal Aviation Regulations are amended effective October 13, 1975, as follows:

1. By revising the heading, paragraphs (a), (b), and (g), and the first sentence of paragraph (d) (1) of § 37.201 and adding a new § 37.201(h) to read as follows:

§ 37.201 Ground proximity warning-glide slope deviation alerting equipment: TSO-C92a.

(a) Applicability—(1) Minimum performance standards. This Technical Standard Order prescribes the minimum performance standards that ground proximity warning-glide slope deviation alerting equipment must meet in order to be identified with the applicable TSO marking. Equipment to be so identified must meet the minimum performance standards prescribed in Radio Technical Commission for Aeronautics (RTCA) Document No. DO-161, titled "Minimum Performance Standards, Airborne Ground Proximity Warning System" dated February 7, 1975 (DO-161) including Change Number 2, dated June 13, 1974, with the exceptions covered in paragraph (a) (2) of this section, and must meet the additional standards contained in paragraph (c) of this section.

(2) Exceptions. For purposes of this section—

(i) The note added to paragraph 2.1.1 by Change Number 2 is not applicable;

(ii) Alternate Mode 1 added as page 8 of Appendix A by Change Number 2 is not applicable;

(iii) The note at the end of paragraph 2.1.4 as added by Change Number 2 is not applicable;

(iv) Alternate Mode 4 added as page 9 of Appendix A by Change Number 2 is not applicable; and

(v) The word "five" contained in the second sentence of the second paragraph of paragraph 2.6.5 as added by Change Number 2 is revised to read "three".

(b) Environmental standards. RTCA Document No. DO-138, dated June 27, 1968, including Change Number 2, dated October 29, 1969, or RTCA Document No. DO-160, dated February 28, 1975, both titled "Environmental Conditions and Test Procedures for Airborne Electronic/Electrical Equipment and Instruments", must be used to determine the environmental conditions over which the equipment has been designed to operate.

(d) * * *

(1) The environmental categories over which it has been designed to operate as set forth in Appendix B of RTCA Document No. DO-138 or Appendix A of Document No. DO-160 must be permanently and legibly marked on the equipment * * *

(g) Availability of referenced documents. RTCA Document Nos. DO-138, dated June 27, 1968, including Change Number 2, dated October 29, 1969, DO-160, dated February 28, 1975, and DO-161, dated February 7, 1975, including Change Number 2, dated June 13, 1975, are incorporated herein in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552(a) (1) and § 37.23 and are available as indicated in § 37.23. Additionally, RTCA Document Nos. DO-138, DO-160, and DO-161 may be examined at any FAA Regional Office of the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch (or in the case of the Western Region, the Chief, Aircraft Engineering Division) and may be obtained from the RTCA Secretariat, Suite 655, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20006, at a cost of $16.00 per copy for Document No. DO-138, $20.00 per copy for Document No. DO-160, and $16.00 per copy for Document No. DO-161.

(h) Previously approved equipment. Ground proximity warning equipment approved prior to October 13, 1975, under TSO-C92 may continue to be manufactured under its original approval.

2. By revising the heading and paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 121.360 and by adding new paragraphs (f) and (g) to § 121.360 to read as follows:

§ 121.360 Ground proximity warning-glide slope deviation alerting system.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, after December 1, 1975, no person may operate a large turbine-powered airplane unless it is equipped with a ground proximity warning system that meets the performance and environmental standards of TSO-C92 or incorporates TSO-approved ground proximity warning equipment.

(b) Ground proximity warning systems approved for use under this Part and installed before June 5, 1975, may be used in lieu of equipment that meets the performance and environmental standards of TSO-C92 or is TSO-approved until January 1, 1977, except that the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section must be met.

(f) Except as provided in paragraph (g) of this section, after June 1, 1976, no person may operate a large turbine-powered airplane unless it is equipped with a ground proximity warning-glide slope deviation alerting system that meets the performance and environmental standards contained in TSO-C92a or incorporates TSO-approved ground proximity warning-glide slope deviation alerting equipment.

(g) Large turbine-powered airplanes being operated under the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section may be operated until January 1, 1977, without being equipped with the ground proximity warning-glide slope deviation alerting system required by paragraph (f) of this section.

PART 121—CERTIFICATION AND OPERATIONS: DOMESTIC, FLAG, AND SUPPLEMENTAL AIR CARRIERS AND COMMERCIAL OPERATORS OF LARGE AIRCRAFT

Crewmember Interphone Systems for Large Turbojet-Powered Airplanes

The purpose of this amendment to Part 121 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is to permit the operation of large turbojet-powered airplanes with a crewmember interphone system that incorporates either an aural or a visual alerting signal for use by crewmembers to alert flight attendants, and for use by flight attendants to alert flight crewmembers. This amendment revokes the requirement for a two-way communication system between ground personnel and a flight attendant in the passenger cabin of those airplanes, and clarifies certain other provisions contained in Part 121.

This amendment is based on a notice of proposed rulemaking (Notice No. 75-14) issued on March 6, 1975, and published in the Federal Register on March 13, 1975 (40 FR 11736).

Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this amendment and due consideration was given to all matters presented. Five comments were received in response to the notice. Generally, all comments received were favorable. Some commentators recommended certain changes which are discussed below. Several made suggestions that are not within the scope of the notice, and, accordingly, those comments are not discussed but will be retained by the FAA for future study.

Additionally, it should be noted, as stated in Notice 75-14, that this amendment is an amendment for which proposals were received for inclusion in the 1974-1975 Airworthiness Review Program (Notice 74-5; 39 FR 5785). As indicated in that notice and in Notice 74-5A (39 FR 18662), rulemaking procedures separate from the airworthiness review could result in removal of proposals from consideration during the Airworthiness Review Program. Accordingly, because of this amendment those proposals are not being given further consideration.

Section 121.303(d) (2) of the Federal Aviation Regulations provides that the interphone system (as well as other specified equipment) must be in operable condition for takeoff. Consequently, the requirement in § 121.319(a) (1), which provides that no person may operate an airplane unless the airplane is equipped with a crewmember interphone system that is operational at takeoff, is redundant and is revoked by this amendment.

As stated in the notice, the FAA believes the objective of FAR § 121.319(b) (5) (ii) and (iii) can be met with the use of either an aural or a visual alerting system which is capable of distinguishing between a normal and an emergency call, since there are other means available, such as the public address system, to relay calls in the event the alerting system does not operate. Moreover, the FAA has reviewed the requirement of FAR § 121.319(b) (5) (iv) for a two-way communication system between ground personnel and a flight attendant in the passenger cabin, and believes that recent experience has shown that the need for that requirement is not as great at the present time as before.

During FAA discussions with interested members of the aviation community, a question arose as to when a power source is not considered to be common to the public address and interphone systems for the purpose of complying with FAR §§ 121.318(a) (1) and 121.319(a) (2).

Sections 121.318(a) (1) and 121.319(a) (2) state that except for handsets, headsets, microphones, selector switches, and signaling devices, the public address and the crewmember interphone systems must be capable of operation independent of each other. With respect to these regulations, it should be noted that the power source is not considered to be common to the public address and interphone systems when the two systems are served by separate audio amplifiers through separate circuit breakers which receive power from at least a priority bus.

Comments received from the National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB) state that to allow a choice between aural and visual alerting signals degrades the present rule, since a visual signal alone might not be immediately seen and redundancy would be lost. Therefore, the NTSB continues to support both aural and visual signals as is presently required in § 121.319(b) (5) (ii). As stated in the preamble to the notice the FAA does not believe this redundancy is necessary since there are other means available, such as the public address system, to relay calls in the event the crewmember interphone alerting system does not operate.

The NTSB also states that during its investigation of an aircraft accident, it found that difficulties were experienced in transmitting the order to the cabin attendants and passengers to evacuate the aircraft. Accordingly, the NTSB concluded that during an emergency communication to all sections of the aircraft is vital and that a system should be required that is independent of the main aircraft power supply. Therefore, the NTSB recommended that the FAA require all air carrier aircraft to be equipped with both an aural and visual evacuation alarm system capable of being activated in the cockpit and at each flight attendant's station and powered so that interruption of the aircraft electrical systems will not interfere with use of the evacuation alarm. Furthermore, the NTSB expressed the view that a portable battery-powered megaphone required by § 121.309(f) is an inadequate, independent backup. While these comments are beyond the scope of the notice, which is limited to the alerting signal system that alerts the crewmembers to incoming calls, these comments are appreciated. In this connection, it should be noted that as a result of the NTSB's Special Study on Safety Aspects of Emergency Evacuations from Air Carrier Aircraft, it submitted to the FAA a number of safety recommendations (A-74-105 through 114). Safety recommendation A-74-111 recommended that the FAA amend § 121.318 to require, after a reasonable date, that the public address system be capable of operating on a power source independent of the main aircraft power supply. These safety recommendations are under consideration by the FAA and the NTSB comments in response to the notice will be considered in connection with those recommendations.

(Secs. 313(a), 601, 604, Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, 1424); sec. 6(c), Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c))

In view of the imminence of the present compliance date, I find that good cause exists for making this amendment effective on less than 30 days notice.

In consideration of the foregoing, § 121.319 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended, effective September 8, 1975, by revoking and reserving paragraph (a) (1); by revising paragraph (b) (5) (ii); and by amending paragraph (b) (5) (iv) to read as follows:

§ 121.319 Crewmember interphone system.

- (a) . . . .
- (1) [Reserved]
- (b) . . . .
- (5) . . . .

(ii) It must have an alerting system incorporating aural or visual signals for use by flight crewmembers to alert flight attendants and for use by flight attendants to alert flight crewmembers;

(iv) When the airplane is on the ground, it must provide a means of two-way communication between ground personnel and either of at least two flight crewmembers in the pilot compartment. The interphone system station for use by ground personnel must be so located that personnel using the system may avoid visible detection from within the airplane.

Title 17—Commodity and Securities Exchanges

CHAPTER II—SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-11632]

PART 201—RULES OF PRACTICE

Procedures for Adjudications Not Required To Be Determined on the Record After Notice and Opportunity for Hearing

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to Section 23 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Act"), as amended by the Securities Acts Amendments of 1975, Pub. L. No. 94-29 (June 4, 1975) (the "1975 Amendments"), hereby adopts Rule of Practice 27 (17 CFR 201.27).

In connection with the adoption of Rule 27, the Commission hereby amends Rule of Practice 1, Scope of the rules of practice, to read as follows:

§ 201.1 Scope of rules of practice.

These rules of practice are generally applicable to proceedings before the Commission under the statutes which it administers, particularly those which involve a hearing or opportunity for hearing before the Commission or its duly designated officer. Rule 201.27 applies to cases pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 of adjudication not required to be determined on the record after notice and opportunity for hearing. In connection with any particular matter, reference should also be made to any special requirements of procedure and practice that may be contained in the particular statute involved or the rules and forms adopted by the Commission thereunder, which special requirements are controlling. These rules do not apply to investigations, except where made specifically applicable by the Rules Relating to Investigations (Part 203 of this chapter).

Section 23(c) of the Act provides that the Commission, by rule, shall prescribe the procedure applicable to every case pursuant to the Act of adjudication not required to be determined on the record after notice and opportunity for hearing. The text of Rule 27 is as follows:

§ 201.27 Adjudications not required to be determined on the record after notice and opportunity for hearing.

In every case pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 of adjudication (as defined in section 551 of title 5, United States Code) not required to be determined on the record after notice and opportunity for hearing, the Commission shall (a) give prompt notice of any adverse action or final disposition to any person who has requested the Commission to make (or not to make) any such adjudication, and (b) furnish to any such person a statement of written reasons therefor. Additional procedures may be specified in rules relating to specific types of such adjudications; where any such rule provides for the publication of a Commission order, notice of the action or disposition shall be deemed to be given by such publication.

The Commission finds that the foregoing rules will not impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. The Commission finds further that the foregoing action relates solely to agency organization, procedure or practice and that notice and procedures under 5 U.S.C. 553 are not necessary. The foregoing rules are not substantive rules; therefore, publication prior to their effective date is not necessary. Accordingly the foregoing action becomes effective immediately.

(Sec. 23, 48 Stat. 901, as amended by sec. 18, 89 Stat. 155 (15 U.S.C. 78w, as amended by Pub. L. No. 94-29))

By the Commission.

Secretary.

Title 23—Highways

CHAPTER I—FEDERAL HIGHWAY ADMINISTRATION, NATIONAL HIGHWAY TRAFFIC SAFETY ADMINISTRATION

PART 658—NATIONAL MAXIMUM SPEED LIMIT; MAXIMUM VEHICLE SIZE AND WEIGHT

Notice of Determination of Nonconformity

The purpose of this amendment to 23 CFR Part 658, adding § 658.17, is to provide a procedure for notice to the State, and publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, of a determination by the Administrators of the Federal Highway Administration and the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration that a State has not submitted certifications relating to speed limit and size and weight enforcement which conform to §§ 658.7 and 658.9. The amendment provides that the notice of determination of nonconformity shall include a statement of the reasons for the determination and specify the time within which the State has an opportunity to show cause why the determination should not be made effective.

Because the amendment constitutes a rule of agency procedure and practice that does not impose additional requirements on any State, the relevant provision of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 553(b)) requiring notice of proposed rulemaking and opportunity for public participation is inapplicable.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 658 in Title 23, Code of Federal Regulations, is amended by the addition of § 658.17, as follows:

§ 658.17 Notice of determination of nonconformity.

(a) If the Administrators of the Federal Highway Administration and the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration determine that a State has not submitted certifications which conform to §§ 658.7 and 658.9, they shall send the Governor of the State by certified mail and publish in the FEDERAL REGISTER a notice of their determination of nonconformity 45 days prior to the effective date thereof.

(b) The notice of determination of nonconformity shall state the reasons for the determination and specify the time within which the State has an opportunity to show cause why the determination should not be made effective.

Title 32—National Defense

CHAPTER I—OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE

SUBCHAPTER M—MISCELLANEOUS

PART 197—EQUAL OPPORTUNITY IN OFF-BASE HOUSING

The Assistant Secretary of Defense (Manpower and Reserve Affairs) approved Part 197. This part sets forth Department of Defense fair housing policy; assigns responsibilities and prescribes enforcement and complaint procedures; and establishes reporting requirements.

- Sec.
- 197.1 Purpose.
- 197.2 Applicability and scope.
- 197.3 Definitions.
- 197.4 Objectives and policies.
- 197.5 Reports.
- 197.6 Check list for commanders.
- 197.7 Effective date and implementation.

AUTHORITY: Sec. 301, 80 Stat. 379; (5 U.S.C. 301, 10 U.S.C. 133).

§ 197.1 Purpose.

This part:

(a) Revises the policies covering "restrictive sanctions" and "relief for complainants"; updates the reporting requirements; includes sex discrimination under its provisions; and authorizes commanders to use verifiers under certain conditions.

(b) Supplements the "equal opportunity" provisions of 32 CFR Part 191 relating to equal opportunity in off-base housing and fair housing enforcement.

§ 197.2 Applicability and scope.

The provisions of this part apply to all DoD Components (Military Departments, Defense Agencies, Specified and Unified Commands and other DoD Components) which have under their jurisdiction:

(a) Military personnel authorized to live in the civilian community in the United States, or

(b) DoD personnel authorized to live in the civilian community in areas outside of the United States.

§ 197.3 Definitions.

Terms which apply to this part are:

(a) Agent. Real estate agency, manager, landlord or owner, as appropriate, of a housing facility doing business with DoD personnel or a Housing Referral Office.

(b) Area Outside the U.S. An area in which DoD personnel reside but which is not subject to U.S. laws or regulations.

(c) Commander. The military or civilian head of any installation, organization or agency of the DoD.

(d) Commuting Area. That area as defined in DoD Instruction 4165.45.

(e) Complainant. A military member, adult dependent acting for a military member, or a civilian employee of the DoD who submits a complaint of discrimination.

(f) Discrimination. The act of denying housing to DoD personnel because of race, color, religion, national origin, or sex.

(g) DoD Personnel. In the United States, military personnel and their dependents. Outside the United States, military personnel and their dependents, and non-appropriated and appropriated fund U.S. citizen civilian employees and their dependents, assigned to any DoD component.

(h) Listed Facility. A suitable facility listed with the housing referral office as available for DoD personnel which is not under restrictive sanctions and whose agent and/or owner has provided a non-discriminatory assurance.

(i) Relief for the Complainant. Action taken by a commander for the benefit of a complainant if a discrimination complaint is substantiated.

(j) Restrictive Sanctions. Action taken by a commander to preclude DoD personnel from entering into a new rental, lease or purchase arrangement with, or otherwise moving into, a housing facility, the agent of which has been found to have discriminated against DoD personnel. Restrictive sanctions are effective against the agent and the facility.

(k) Verifiers. Volunteers used by the commander during the course of a housing discrimination investigation to determine if, in fact, housing discrimination is being practiced by a facility or individual as alleged. Verifiers are not required to be prospective tenants.

§ 197.4 Objectives and policies.

The Department of Defense is fully committed to the goal of obtaining equal treatment for all DoD personnel as specified in (32 CFR Part 191). To carry out this policy with regard to off-base housing and fair housing enforcement, the Secretaries of the Military Departments and Heads of other DoD Components concerned will develop and issue implementing regulations consistent with the following:

(a) National Housing Policy. In the United States, Federal legislation prohibits discrimination in housing against any person because of race, color, religion, or national origin.

(1) Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 contains the fair housing provisions; outlines the responsibilities of the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development with regard to the Act; and requires all executive departments and agencies to administer housing and urban development programs and activities under their jurisdiction in a manner which will reflect "affirmatively" the furthering of the purposes of Title VIII.

(2) Title IX of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 makes it a crime to willfully intimidate or interfere with any person by force or threat because of his activities in support of fair housing.

(3) 42 U.S.C. 1982 states that all citizens shall have the same right as is enjoyed by white citizens to purchase, lease, sell and convey real and personal property.

(b) DoD Fair Housing Policy. The Department of Defense intends that Federal fair housing legislation be supported and that DoD personnel have equal opportunity for available housing regardless of race, color, religion, national origin or sex. This includes the objective of eliminating discrimination against DoD personnel in off-base housing. This is not achieved simply by finding a place to live in a particular part of town or in a particular facility for a person from a minority group. It is achieved only when a person who meets the ordinary standards of character and financial responsibility is able to obtain off-base housing in the same manner as any other person anywhere in the area surrounding his installation, without suffering refusal and humiliation because of his race, color, religion, national origin or sex.

(1) The accomplishment of the objective shall not be hampered in any case by requiring the submission of a formal complaint of discrimination. A suspected discriminatory act, with or without the filing of a formal complaint, is a valid basis for investigation and, if discrimination is substantiated, for imposition of restrictive sanctions.

(2) No member of the Armed Forces moving into or changing his place of residence in the commuting area of a military installation or activity in the United States and no DoD member moving into or changing his place of residence in the commuting area of a DoD installation or activity outside the United States, shall be authorized to enter into a rental, purchase or lease arrangement with an agent or a facility which is under restrictive sanctions. (See paragraph (b) (3) of this section.)

(3) Restrictive sanctions shall be imposed upon substantiation that discrimination was practiced by an agent in accordance with paragraph (d) (2) of this section. These sanctions are not applicable to DoD personnel who may be residing in a facility at the time the restriction is imposed or to the extension or renewal of a rental or lease agreement originally entered into prior to the imposition of the restrictive sanctions. Relocation of a tenant within a restricted facility is not authorized without the written approval of the commander.

(4) In paragraph (b) (3) of this section, the agent shall be informed in writing that restrictions have been imposed, the reasons therefore, and the actions which must be taken to remove the restriction after the 180 days minimum restriction expires. In order for restrictive sanctions to be removed, the agent must provide assurances of future non-discriminatory practices.

(5) After imposition of restrictive sanctions, the commander shall insure that DoD personnel comply with the restrictive sanctions imposed on the agent.

(6) If a discrimination complaint is substantiated, the commander shall take whatever action is deemed reasonable to assist the complainant in obtaining suitable housing. If, due to discrimination practices in the community, suitable housing cannot be obtained by the complainant in a reasonable amount of time, the complainant and the commander may use this fact as a reason to justify a request for, if otherwise eligible, priority in obtaining military housing or for compassionate reassignment.

(7) The fact that 42 U.S.C. 1982 and Pub. L. 90-284 may or may not provide a remedy in a given case of discrimination affecting DoD personnel does not relieve a commander of the responsibility to insure equal treatment and opportunity for such personnel or to impose restrictive sanctions against the agent when appropriate.

(8) Consistent with the policy of freedom of choice, commanders shall insure non-discrimination in referring personnel to off-base housing facilities.

(9) Continuing efforts (as described in DoD Directive 5100.60 (32 CFR Part 239(a)) and DoD Instructions 4165.51)<sup>1</sup> shall be made to identify and solicit non-discriminatory assurances from those rental facilities within the commuting area which are considered to be suitable for occupancy by DoD personnel.

(10) An information program to apprise DoD personnel of the DoD policy and program for equal opportunity in off-base housing shall be developed at each installation. For support of this program, use should be made of local community resources such as civil rights organizations, religious and civic groups, and others.

(c) DoD Personnel Seeking Off-Base Housing. DoD personnel shall:

(1) Be processed through the Housing Referral Office in the United States and, when available, in areas outside the United States.

(2) Be provided the following assistance in seeking temporary and permanent off-base housing:

(i) Counseling concerning the Equal Opportunity in Off-Base Housing Program, with particular stress placed on obligation of applicants to report any indication of discrimination against them in their search for housing.

(ii) Personal assistance by:

(a) Ascertaining the applicant's desires and requirements for housing and matching them as nearly as possible with current available listings.

(b) Offering to follow up by a telephone check of the selected listings to insure their availability. In taking this action, a record shall be made of the date, time and nature of the conversation confirming the unit, which record shall be retained for future reference. In no case will the race, color, religion, national origin, or sex of the applicant be divulged.

(c) Offering the services of a command representative (such as a unit sponsor or other person) to accompany and assist the applicant in his search for housing. The command representative will be responsible for taking the following action:

(1) If an agent of a housing facility refuses to accept or consider the applicant as a tenant; falsely indicates the unit sought has been rented to another applicant; or otherwise fails to furnish the unit under the same terms and conditions as are ordinarily applied to applicants for his facilities, the agent will be queried concerning the reasons why the unit is not available. After all reasonable steps have been taken to ascertain whether any valid nondiscriminatory reason can be shown for the agent's rejection of the applicant, and there appears to be no such reason, a reasonable effort will be made to persuade the agent to make the unit available to the applicant.

(2) Failing to persuade the agent to accept the applicant as a tenant, the incident will be reported to the appropriate command official for investigation. (Whether a complaint is or is not filed by the applicant, the procedures outlined in paragraphs (d) (1) and (2) of this section, as warranted by the circumstances, shall be followed.)

(d) Responsibilities of Commanders—
(1) Enforcement procedures in the United States. Every commander shall:

(i) Insure that an office and staff serving the command are available to advise DoD personnel concerning:

(a) The procedures set forth in this Instruction.

(b) The application of 42 U.S.C. 1982 and Pub. L. 90-284, "The Civil Rights Act of 1968," (62 Stat. 696) 42 U.S.C. 3601 et seq. in specific situations.

(c) The rights of individuals to pursue remedies through civilian channels, without recourse or in addition to the procedures prescribed herein, including the right to:

(1) Make a complaint directly to the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) or to the Department of Justice; and

(2) Bring a private civil action in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(ii) Periodically review the off-base housing procedures in his command to insure adequacy and compliance with this part. In order to assist the commander in accomplishing this review, a checklist is provided in this part (§ 197.6).

(2) Complaint procedures in the United States. Upon receipt of a housing discrimination complaint, an investigation will be initiated within three (3) working days after receipt of the complaint, using verifiers if deemed necessary. Verifiers will not be used for the sole purposes of ascertaining the sincerity of the practices of an agent unless a housing discrimination complaint has been filed against the agent. The investigation shall conform to the due-process procedures as set forth for Armed Forces Disciplinary Control Boards (Joint Regulation—AR 190-24, MCO 1620.2, AFR 125-11, COMDTINST 1620.1A, January 11, 1972).<sup>2</sup>

(i) If the complaint is not substantiated by the investigation, the complainant will be (a) so informed, (b) advised of his rights to pursue further actions through HUD, the Department of Justice, and/or State or Federal Court, and (c) offered whatever assistance is appropriate and can be provided legally by the Military Service in pursuing the courses of action in paragraph (d) (1) of this section.

(ii) If the complaint is substantiated by the investigation, restrictive sanctions will be imposed against the agent for a minimum of 180 days; the agent will be informed in writing of this action and advised on what action he must take to remove the restrictive sanctions after the 180 day minimum.

(a) The complainant will be informed in writing of the results of the investigation.

tion and action will be taken to assure relief for the complainant as outlined in paragraph (b) (6) of this section.

(b) The complainant shall also be informed of his rights to pursue further actions through HUD, the Justice Department and/or State or Federal Courts and he shall be offered whatever assistance can be provided legally by the Military Service in pursuing these courses of action.

(c) If the act of discrimination falls under existing laws, the commander shall forward a copy of the complaint directly to HUD using HUD Form 903, if the complainant concurs. A complaint must be received by HUD within 180 days after the occurrence of the alleged discriminatory act. A copy of the complaint shall be forwarded to the Department of Justice (Civil Rights Division), Washington, D.C. 20530.

(iii) Where more than one complaint alleging discrimination involves the same agent, documentation may be consolidated. In these cases, if appropriate, the consolidated documentation shall be forwarded to HUD and to the Department of Justice (Civil Rights Division), Washington, D.C. 20530.

(3) Complaint Procedures in Areas Outside the United States. The procedures outlined in paragraph (d) (2) of this section shall be used for processing complaints of housing discrimination in areas outside the United States with the exception of submitting complaints to HUD or the Department of Justice.

(4) Cooperation with governmental agencies investigating alleged housing discrimination complaints. Commanders shall cooperate to the fullest extent possible with other governmental agencies investigating housing discrimination complaints filed by a complainant.

§ 197.5 Reports.

(a) Reporting requirements. (1) A copy of each investigative report that substantiates a case of housing discrimination shall be submitted by the Military Services to the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Manpower and Reserve Affairs) not later than 45 days from the date the case is forwarded from the installation. Under normal circumstances, the installation will complete required investigation and processing of complaints within 20 days from the date that a housing complaint is filed by a complainant. The Military Services shall summarize and make appropriate comments to include the affirmative action taken in the case prior to submission of the report to the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Manpower and Reserve Affairs).

(2) A copy of investigative reports that do not substantiate allegations of housing discrimination shall be kept on file at the installation level for a period of 24 months. Requests for these cases to be forwarded to the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Manpower and Reserve Affairs) normally will be made only when other government or civilian agencies have expressed an interest.

(3) Each Military Service shall submit semi-annual reports to the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Manpower and Reserve Affairs) as follows:

(i) Total number of rental facilities surveyed during the reporting period.

(ii) Total number of rental facilities listed to date and number of rental facilities listed during the reporting period.

(iii) Total number of rental facilities under restrictive sanctions and number of rental facilities restricted during the reporting period.

(iv) Total number of discrimination complaints processed during the reporting period by each Military Service.

(v) The number of compassionate reassignment and priority housing requests received under the provisions of this Instruction and their disposition during the reporting period.

(vi) By installation in the United States, a list of housing facilities upon which restrictive sanctions have been imposed. This shall include, as available, the name and address of the facility and agent, the reason for the restriction and the status of negotiations with the agent.

(vii) A short narrative report summarizing service-wide significant Equal Opportunity in Off-Base Housing activities, problems and experiences and appropriate explanatory comments concerning the statistical portion of the report.

(viii) Reports (as of December 31 and June 30) shall be submitted to the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Manpower and Reserve Affairs) not later than the 25th of the month following the end of the reporting period.

(b) Report control symbol. (1) Reports of investigation required in paragraph (a) (1) and (2) of this section are exempt from RCS by Section III, D, 6., DoD Directive 5000.19, "Policies for the Management and Control of DoD Information Requirements," June 2, 1971.<sup>1</sup>

(2) The report required in paragraph (a) (3) of this section, is assigned Report Control Symbol DD-M(SA) 1146.

§ 197.6 Check list for commanders.

(a) Are newly assigned personnel informed as to the requirements of the equal opportunity in off-base housing program prior to obtaining housing off-base?

(b) Is there an effective equal opportunity in off-base housing information program?

(c) Are community resources being used to support the equal opportunity in off-base housing information program?

(d) Are housing discrimination complaints being expeditiously processed?

(e) Are complainants being informed, in writing, of the results of investigations?

(f) Are housing surveys being conducted periodically to obtain new listings?

(g) Are restrictive sanctions being imposed immediately for a minimum of 180 days on agents found to be practicing discrimination?

(h) Are the services of command representatives offered to accompany and assist applicants in their search for housing?

(i) Are Housing Referral Office and equal opportunity personnel sensitive to the problems of minority personnel?

(j) Are accurate equal opportunity in off-base housing reports being submitted in a timely manner?

§ 197.7 Effective date and implementation.

This part is effective immediately. Three copies of each Military Service and Defense Agency implementing document shall be forwarded to the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Manpower and Reserve Affairs) within 90 days.

CHAPTER 1—COAST GUARD, DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION [CGD 75 089]

PART 117—DRAWBRIDGE OPERATION REGULATIONS

Hood Canal, Washington

This amendment changes the regulation for the Hood Canal floating drawbridge by deleting all references to AM radio frequencies because the AM frequencies will not be authorized by the Federal Communications Commission after January 1, 1977; and because the AM frequencies are not utilized by any users of the drawbridge. Since this amendment clarifies the frequency to be used by the bridge owner and users of the bridge, and relieves the owner of the bridge of the obligation of maintaining obsolete equipment, notice and public procedure are unnecessary.

Accordingly, Part 117 of Title 33 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended by revising § 117.784(d) (1) to read as follows:

§ 117.784 Hood Canal, Wash.: Washington State Department of Highways bridge near Port Gamble.

(d) * * *

(1) Radio. The drawtender shall monitor and communicate with vessels on radiotelephone frequency 156.65 megahertz (Channel 13). If radio contact cannot be made on 156.65 megahertz, the drawtender shall monitor and communicate with vessels on 156.80 megahertz (Channel 16). These frequencies are subject to change by the Federal Communications Commission.

(Sec. 5, 28 Stat. 362, as amended, sec. 6(g) (2), 80 Stat. 637; 33 U.S.C. 499, 49 U.S.C. 1655(g) (2); 49 CFR 1.48(c) (5), 33 CFR 1.05-1(c) (4)).

SUBCHAPTER O—POLLUTION [CGD 75-026]

PART 155—VESSEL DESIGN AND OPERATIONS

Prohibited Oil Spaces

The purpose of this amendment is to provide a remedy for a situation that was not foreseen when the initial regulations were published, namely, that elimination of fuel tanks forward of collision bulkheads on vessels under 300 gross tons and certain larger existing vessels would be economically prohibitive while the resulting environmental gain would not be commensurate.

Section 155.470(a) prohibits operation of a vessel that carries fuel forward of the collision bulkhead. Section 155.110 permits exemptions from this requirement, but only where "an equivalent level of protection * * * will be provided by the alternative * * *."

Experience gained in the enforcement of the Pollution Prevention Regulations has highlighted problems in modifying certain "existing vessels" (those constructed before 1 July 1974) and a number of vessels under 300 gross tons to achieve compliance. As an example, several foreign flag chemical carriers and some U.S. passenger vessels, fishing vessels, and towing vessels on the western rivers now have fuel tanks forward of the collision bulkhead. Ship alteration of a chemical carrier either to reposition the fuel tanks or to construct a new collision bulkhead would require extensive redesign work at considerable cost (e.g., $250,000 for new bulkhead placement, associated repiping and refurbishing, and off-hire time of approximately 3 weeks). The smaller vessels simply cannot comply at all; they utilize otherwise wasted space for fuel, have no place to relocate the tanks and cannot comply with the 24-inch requirement and still continue in business.

The Coast Guard's Pollution Incident Reporting System and Port Safety/Marine Environmental Protection Activities Report data show that this expense or hardship is not justifiable. The probability of a tank ship discharging any oil as a result of a collision or grounding while in U.S. waters is less than 0.0005. More specifically, during 1973 and 1974, 21 tank ships were involved in 20 collisions and groundings resulting in the discharge of 43,187 bbls of oil. Only 2 of these 21 tank ships suffered hull damage forward of the collision bulkhead which resulted in 2 bbls of oil discharged. In other words, less than five one-thousandths of one percent (0.00005) of all the oil discharged from tankers across

Title 38—Pensions, Bonuses and Veterans' Relief

2. In § 36.4311, paragraph (a) is reof this chapter. All regulations cited are

December 4, 1974, whereby the revision maximum allowable sulfur content to sandths of one percent (0.00005) of all the oil discharged from tankers came from forward of the collision bulkhead. When considered together, these statistics show that the probability of oil being discharged from forward of a tanker's collision bulkhead as a result of a collision or grounding in U.S. waters is extremely remote (0.000000025). Further, the likelihood of such a discharge occurring from vessels less than 300 gross tons is equally remote.

Consideration was therefore given to revoking § 155.470. This was rejected because it is desirable that new vessels (constructed on or after 1 July 1974) be constructed in compliance with § 155.470. Although the resultant environmental protection is small, it can be justified because, when included in the initial design, fuel tank placement will generate little or no incremental cost. On the other hand, costly retrofitting of existing vessels is the action which cannot be justified.

Therefore, since noncompliance with a requirement is unacceptable, ship alteration is unreasonable, revocation of § 155.470 is undesirable and alternative measures required by the waiver provision do not exist, it is necessary to amend § 155.470 to provide relief for the "problem" vessels.

This relief is needed immediately because, if compliance is enforced, dry-docking for alterations must be scheduled at once for many vessels before their return to U.S. ports or continued service in U.S. waters. Accordingly, notice and public procedure thereon under 5 U.S.C. 553(b) (3) (B) are impracticable.

In consideration of the foregoing, Chapter I of Title 33 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended by revising § 155.470 to read as follows:

§ 155.470 Prohibited oil spaces.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, no person may operate a self-propelled vessel of 300 or more gross tons carrying bulk oil or oily waste in any space forward of a collision bulkhead.

(b) Fuel for use on a vessel constructed on or after 1 July 1974, may be carried in tanks forward of a collision bulkhead if such tanks are at least 24 inches inboard of the hull structure. Fuel for use on a vessel constructed before 1 July 1974, may be carried in tanks forward of a collision bulkhead if those tanks were designated, installed or constructed for fuel oil carriage also before 1 July 1974. Title 38—Pensions, Bonuses and Veterans' Relief

CHAPTER I—VETERANS ADMINISTRATION

PART 36—LOAN GUARANTY Interest Rate Change

The Veterans Administration is amending §§ 36.4212(a) (2) and (3), 36.4311(a) and 36.4503(a), Title 38 of the Code of Federal Regulations to increase the maximum allowable interest rates on new loans.

Sections 36.4311(a) and 36.4503(a), Title 38 of the Code of Federal Regulations are being amended to increase the maximum interest rate on new guaranteed, insured and direct loans from 8½ to 9 percent. Section 36.4212(a) (2) and (3), Title 38 of the Code of Federal Regulations relating to that portion of a mobile home loan which finances the purchase of a lot and the cost of necessary site preparation is amended to increase the maximum interest rate from 8½ to 9 percent, except for that portion of § 36.4212(a) (3) which relates to loans that do not exceed $2,500 made for site preparation to a lot owned by the veteran where no change is made. Thus, the interest rate on such loans will be consistent with that in effect on other guaranteed and insured loans for real estate purposes.

Compliance with the provisions of § 1.12 of this chapter is waived in this instance. The availability of mortgage funds from the private sector is dependent upon the interest rate being competitive with other available investments. Compliance with § 1.12 would create an acute shortage of mortgage funds pending the effective date of the amendments, which would necessarily be more than 30 days after it was published in proposed form.

1. In § 36.4212, paragraph (a) (2) and (3) is revised to read as follows:

§ 36.4212 Interest rates and late charges.

(a) The interest rate charged the borrower on a loan guaranteed pursuant to 38 U.S.C. 1819 may not exceed the following maxima except on loans guaranteed or insured pursuant to guaranty or insurance commitments issued by the Veterans Administration prior to September 2, 1975.

(2) 9 percent simple interest per annum for that portion of the loan which finances the purchase of a lot and the cost of necessary site preparation, if any.

(3) 9 percent simple interest per annum on that portion of a loan which will finance the cost of the site preparation necessary to make a lot owned by the veteran acceptable as the site for the mobile home purchased with the proceeds of the loan except that a rate of not to exceed 12 percent may be charged if the portion of the loan to pay for the cost of such necessary site preparation does not exceed $2,500.

2. In § 36.4311, paragraph (a) is revised to read as follows:

§ 36.4311 Interest rates.

(a) Excepting loans guaranteed or insured pursuant to guaranty or insurance commitments issued by the Veterans Administration which specify an interest rate in excess of 9 per centum per annum, effective September 2, 1975, the interest rate on any loan guaranteed or insured wholly or in part on or after such date may not exceed 9 per centum per annum on the unpaid principal balance.

3. In § 36.4503, paragraph (a) is revised to read as follows:

§ 36.4503 Amount and amortization.

(a) The original principal amount of any loan made on or after December 31, 1974, shall not exceed an amount which bears the same ratio to $25,000 as the amount of the guaranty to which the veteran is entitled under 38 U.S.C. 1810 at the time the loan is made bears to $17,500. This limitation shall not preclude the making of advances, otherwise proper, subsequent to the making of the loan pursuant to the provisions of § 36.4511. Loans made by the Veterans Administration shall bear interest at the rate of 9 per centum per annum.

These VA Regulations are effective September 2, 1975.

Approved: August 29, 1975.

PART 52—APPROVAL AND PROMULGATION OF IMPLEMENTATION PLANS

Puerto Rico Implementation Plan; Revision

On January 3, 1975, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico submitted a proposed revision to the Puerto Rico implementation plan which consisted of a revised Article 6 (Control of Sulfur Compound Emissions) of the Puerto Rico Regulation for Control of Atmospheric Pollution. Additional information was received from the Executive Director of the Puerto Rico Environmental Quality Board (EQB) on January 17, 1975, February 14, 1975, March 26, 1975, May 8, 1975, and June 2, 1975.

Revised Article 6 was adopted by Governor's Executive Order (Administrative Bulletin Number 3022) on December 19, 1974 and became effective under Puerto Rico law on December 30, 1974. This regulation was the subject of Commonwealth of Puerto Rico public hearings during the period October 24-25, 1974. Pursuant to subsection 6.1.3 of the revised Article 6, all stationary sources were to be in compliance with the applicable limitations specified therein by February 28, 1975.

The material initially submitted in support of the plan revision included information received from the Governor on January 3, 1975, and information transmitted by the Executive Director of EQB on January 17, 1975. This included the following:

(1) A notice of public hearings which were held October 24 and 25, 1974.

(2) A certification that public hearings were held in conformity with the requirements of 40 CFR 51.4.

(3) A record of the public hearings which includes a transcript of the proceedings, all other material which was submitted at the hearings and a copy of each written presentation submitted after adjournment of the hearings.

(4) The revised Article 6 of the Regulation for the Control of Atmospheric Pollution. Included as a part of the regulation were Appendices A and B which discuss, respectively, the atmospheric dispersion calculation method used to develop the maximum allowed percentage of sulfur in fuels for all sources with a design heat capacity greater than 8 million Btu/hr. and a listing of such limitations. A listing of the allowable sulfur in fuel limitations which are presented in Appendix B was published in the March 10, 1975 issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (40 FR 10998).

(5) A copy of Environmental Quality Board Resolution Number R-74-24, dated December 4, 1974, whereby the revision to Article 6 was adopted.

(6) A copy of the Governor's Executive Order, dated December 19, 1974 (Administrative Bulletin Number 3022) which sets December 30, 1974 as the effective date of the revised regulation.

(7) A listing of the diffusion model computer program.

(8) Summaries of predicted sulfur dioxide concentrations and partial contributions, by source, to these concentrations at each receptor point as determined by using the sulfur in fuel values set forth in Appendix B of the regulation.

(9) Meteorological parameters used in the diffusion calculations for the air basins of Mayaguez, Catano, Arecibo, Barceloneta, Ponce, Aguada, Trujillo Alto-Dorado and Manati.

(10) A document entitled, "Amendments to the State Implementation Plan of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico" which changes the text of the approved implementation plan as a result of the proposed revision.

(11) A document entitled, "Enforcement Procedures and Changes in Resource Requirements."

On February 14, 1975, additional information pertaining to the air basins of Guaynilla and Aguirre was received. This information includes a description of the meteorological parameters used in the diffusion calculations for these basins and the predicted sulfur dioxide concentrations and partial contributions at selected receptor sites.

On March 10, 1975, EPA published a notice of proposed rulemaking (40 FR 10997) covering the subject revision to the Puerto Rico implementation plan. In that notice, the Regional Administrator noted that EQB had failed to predict the expected ambient air concentration for sulfur oxides from one source in the Ponce air basin, even though this source had been assigned a sulfur in fuel limitation in Appendix B. To correct this omission EQB, on March 26, 1975, provided supplemental information to the Regional Office which stated that the source in the Ponce air basin had been assigned a sulfur in fuel value of 0.2 percent, by weight. In addition, on May 8, 1975, the Executive Director of EQB submitted supporting data which predicted sulfur dioxide concentrations in the Ponce air basin with this plant included. This data shows that national ambient air quality standards for sulfur oxides will not be contravened in this air basin when the assigned sulfur in fuel limitation of 0.2 percent, by weight, is used at this plant.

The notice of proposed rulemaking also stated that EQB would submit additional information pertaining to resources. This information was also received on March 26, 1975, and along with the information regarding the source in Ponce, has been available for public inspection in the Regional Office since its receipt.

The control strategy for sulfur oxides contained in the revision is intended to provide for attainment of national ambient air quality standards by assigning a maximum allowable sulfur content to each source such that the resulting ambient air concentrations predicted by means of the specified dispersion model are below national ambient air quality standards. The model specified is based on the conventional Gaussian plume dispersion equation. The predicted centerline concentration is used to estimate 3-hour and 24-hour sulfur oxide concentrations. The sector averaged form of this equation is used to determine annual concentrations.

Meteorological input for short term calculations consists of wind speed, wind direction and atmospheric stability measured at five minute intervals at meteorological towers which are located at several sites around Puerto Rico. Annual concentrations are calculated using joint stability space-wind rose data distributions recorded at U.S. Weather Service operated weather stations. The meteorological input is chosen so as to maximize the impact of individual sources and combinations of many sources. Both buoyant plume rise and plume enhancement are taken into account in the modeling technique.

The omission rates used by EQB are calculated assuming a 100 percent load factor in determining maximum three and 24-hour average concentrations and an 80 percent load factor is assumed in determining annual average concentrations. However, in the air basins of Mayaguez, Arecibo, Barceloneta, Ponce, Aguada, Trujillo Alto-Dorado and Manati an annual load factor of 70 percent is assumed.

Significant terrain features are considered by subtracting from the effective stack height of the source one half of the difference in height between the base of the stack and the elevation of the terrain at which a prediction of concentration is being made. Receptor locations are spaced at whatever interval is necessary to identify the maximum concentration.

Allowable sulfur contents are chosen so that the resulting ambient air concentrations are not predicted to exceed 80 percent of the applicable 3-hour and 24-hour national ambient air quality standards. Protection of the annual national ambient air quality standard is assured through the conservative estimate of an 80 percent load factor on an annual basis when estimating source emissions.

In addition to the information which EPA regulations require to be submitted in support of a request for a plan revision, EQB has also provided detailed computations of predicted ambient air quality for each source analyzed. Examination of these detailed calculations shows that some sources were modeled using different sulfur in fuel values than those presented in Appendix B to the revised Article 6. For each case in which this occurred, linear proportioning was used to adjust the predicted concentrations to those that would result from use of Appendix B sulfur contents. By this technique it was determined that the use of the sulfur limitations given in Appendix B would be sufficient to provide for attainment of the national standards. A listing of the maximum predicted sulfur oxide concentrations which are expected to result when all the assumptions described previously are used was presented in Table 2 of the March 10, 1975, FEDERAL REGISTER (40 FR 10999). These predicted concentrations include the assumption that all sources operate at 80 percent load factor throughout the entire year. The predicted annual average concentrations for the areas of Mayaguez, Arecibo, Barceloneta, Aguada, Trujillo Alto-Dorado, and Manati were predicted using an 80 percent load factor instead of the previously mentioned 70 percent load factor. This was done to assure consistency with the technique used in other areas as well as the technique described in Appendix A to the regulation.

EPA ANALYSIS OF PROPOSED REVISION

The Administrator's review of the control strategy analysis submitted by EQB has raised some questions as to whether the Commonwealth's procedures as defined in Appendix A of Article 6 have been applied correctly in all cases. The modeling technique described in Appendix A is used as the basis for assignment of the maximum allowable sulfur in fuel values which are presented in Appendix B. Appendix A contains, in addition to a description of the mathematical technique used in estimating pollutant concentrations, a requirement that whenever significant terrain features exist, the procedures outlined in Section IIC of Appendix A be used. It is apparent that this was not done in the following instance:

The maximum allowable sulfur content of fuel for sources in these areas in some instances was determined without accounting for terrain in the vicinity of the sources. Consequently, the Administrator is disapproving the maximum allowable sulfur content of fuel for the sources listed in Table 1.

Area	Source
Barceloneta	Abbott, Merck and Co. Bristol Myers, Pfizer, Union Carbide, Upjohn, Central Guanica.
Ensenada

On June 2, 1975, the Executive Director of EQB submitted the predicted ambient air concentrations for sulfur oxides in these areas when terrain is included. The calculations showed that with the sulfur in fuel limitations assigned in Appendix B contravention of the 24-hour and annual average national standards for sulfur oxides resulted. The Administrator has determined that this response is not adequate and is requiring those sources listed in Table 1, with the exception of the Central Guanica and Pfizer unit #15 plants, to use fuel with a maximum sulfur content of 1.0 percent, by weight. This value is required in the currently approved Puerto Rico implementation of national standards for sulfur oxides.

With regard to the Central Guanica plant in Ensenada and the Pfizer unit #15 in Barceloneta, it has been determined through use of the EQB modeling technique that fuel with maximum sulfur limitations of 0.4 percent and 0.5 percent, respectively, by weight, would provide for attainment and maintenance of national standards for sulfur oxides. Consequently, the Administrator is publishing in another section of this issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER a notice of proposed rulemaking for these sources.

A review of the computer printouts for the Aguirre air basin showed that the meteorological data used to predict ambient air concentrations conflict with that presented in a January, 1973 draft environmental impact statement (EIS) for a power plant in Aguirre. The draft EIS shows that the use of fuel with a maximum sulfur content of 2.0 percent, by weight, could cause contravention of the national 3-hour standard for sulfur oxides. When the meteorological data presented in the EIS is used with the 3.1 percent sulfur in fuel limitation presented in Appendix B, both the 3-hour and 24-hour national standards for sulfur oxides were predicted to be contravened.

In order to clarify this discrepancy over meteorological data, the Executive Director of EQB, on May 8, 1975, sent to EPA predicted sulfur dioxide concentrations for the Aguirre air basin. These concentrations were calculated based on meteorological data which was gathered at the Aguirre meteorological tower during the period March 18, 1973-July 23, 1974. The Administrator has determined that this data is representative of worst case conditions and more applicable than the data presented in the EIS. The maximum predicted 24-hour concentration for sulfur oxides was 341 ug/m<sup>3</sup>. This value is greater than 80 percent of the national standards and does not provide adequate assurance that the national standards will not be contravened. The 80 percent value was chosen so as to account for the contribution of area sources as well as uncertainties inherent in the modeling technique.

The Administrator has determined that, if the technique presented in Appendix A were applied properly, the maximum allowable sulfur content for the power plant in Aguirre would be 2.5 percent, by weight. Consequently, the Administrator is promulgating a requirement that this plant use fuel with a maximum sulfur content of 2.5 percent by weight.

ANALYSIS OF PUBLIC COMMENTS

A March 10, 1975 FEDERAL REGISTER notice (40 FR 10997) provided opportunity for a 30-day public comment period on this proposed revision to the Puerto Rico implementation plan. Three groups submitted comments during the comment period.

One group objects to the proposed revision on the grounds that EQB failed to comply with the requirements of 40 CFR 51.4. They state that EQB did not make available for public inspection complete information on the implementation plan revision prior to public hearings in that public hearings were conducted on the basis of only a set of proposed regulations. It is further argued that such a set of regulations alone do not constitute support for a plan revision request as contemplated by section 110(a)(2) of the Clean Air Act and that the computer printouts which show the basis for Appendix B maximum sulfur in fuel limitations were not made available prior to the public hearings. EQB has informed EPA that the following material was available for public inspection at the time of the public notice for the public hearings:

(1) Exhibit E: Proposed amendments to the Regulation for Control of Atmospheric Pollution, with Appendices A and B;

(2) Exhibit F: Proposed amendments to the State Implementation Plan for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico;

(3) Environmental Quality Board Resolution R-74-20;

(4) Environmental Quality Board Notification dated October 8, 1974. This document identifies Mr. Ralph Vallone and Dr. Juan J. Rigau as Hearing Examiners;

(5) Environmental Quality Board Notification dated October 22, 1974. This document additionally identifies Mr. David Paster and Mr. Jose Auger as Hearing Examiners;

(6) Exhibit J: Computer Printout; and,

(7) Exhibit K: Summaries of Exhibit J.

EQB also presented certification to EPA that the public hearings were held in accordance with the requirements set forth in 40 CFR 51.4. After reviewing the above material, the Administrator has determined that the information which was made available to the public by EQB prior to the public hearings was adequate to describe in detail the proposed revision to the Puerto Rico implementation plan and the probable effects of that revision. Adequate opportunity for meaningful public participation was assured by EQB prior to the public hearing. In addition, all the items referenced above were available for public inspection and comment during the EPA 30-day comment period.

Another comment contends that increases in the emissions of sulfur oxides as a result of the proposed revision will cause increases in particulate matter concentrations because sulfur oxides quickly degenerate into sulfates. This would, it is argued, lead to an exacerbation of current levels of particulate matter in excess of national ambient air quality standards. The Administrator has reviewed the sulfur in fuel values used in Puerto Rico in 1974 and compared them to the values which will be used as a result of the proposed revision. It has been determined that the total emissions of sulfur oxides brought about by the proposed revision to the Puerto Rico implementation plan would be less than the sulfur oxide emissions released during 1974. As a result, the proposed revision can be expected to decrease the concentration of sulfur oxides and further reduce any particulate matter concentrations resulting from sulfates. An analysis of the 1974 annual geometric means for particulate matter shows that concentrations at the five National Air Sampling Networks (NASN) sites in operation at that time vary from 49.4 ug/m<sup>3</sup> to 82.7 ug/m<sup>3</sup>. This represents a decrease, at all sites, from the annual geometric mean concentrations recorded during 1973. Therefore, it is not expected that the proposed revision will prevent the attainment of national ambient air quality standards for particulate matter by the standard attainment date.

One comment relates to a concern that the proposed revision does not provide for maintenance of national ambient air quality standards subsequent to the occurrence of future growth. Pursuant to 40 CFR 51.12(e), all States are required to analyze areas which may cause a contravention of national ambient air quality standards during the 10-year period following attainment of standards. Numerous such areas have been designated throughout the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico for both particulate matter and sulfur oxides. The maintenance plan, when submitted by Puerto Rico, will be evaluated to determine that the national standards will not be contravened subsequent to the attainment date.

One question arose over whether EQB has adequate resources to enforce the proposed revision. The resource document submitted by EQB on March 26, 1975, provides for the allocation of additional manpower from different program elements to enforce the revised Article 6. It is expected that approximately five man-years per year will be required to adequately enforce these requirements. To assure compliance with the maximum allowable sulfur contents, by weight, listed in Appendix B, EQB includes requirements that daily and monthly averages of fuel sulfur content be submitted by all affected sources. This program already has been initiated by EQB.

Section H of Appendix A of the proposed revision to Article 6 permits sources to take credit in the diffusion calculations for the raising of stack heights up to two and one half times the height of adjacent obstacles. This provision cannot be approved by the Administrator as it does not comply with the requirements of the Clean Air Act, as interpreted by the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals in "NRDC v. EPA," 489 F.2d 390 (1974). The use of dispersive techniques, such as stack height increases, as control strategy measures are permitted for attainment and maintenance of the national standards only where the use of the best emission reduction measures available have been applied and are found to be inadequate. As a matter of administrative equity additional stack height may be taken into account for stack construction actually begun prior to the date of the Fifth Circuit decision on February 8, 1974. However, credit for such additional stack height may not exceed two and one half times the height of any properly designed structure at the site of the source. Thus, this provision is disapproved to the extent that it would permit credit for stack height increases inconsistent with the Fifth Circuit's interpretation of the Clean Air Act as augmented by the grant of administrative relief stated above.

It should be noted that this disapproval does not affect the approvability of the proposed control strategy revision since the current revision does not give credit for stack height increases. However, any further revision proposed by Puerto Rico which gives credit to a specific source for post-February 8, 1974, stack height increases will be approved by the Administrator only if it is demonstrated that the best emission reduction measures available will be applied to the applicable source.

It is argued that the proposed revision to the Puerto Rico implementation plan would violate the EPA regulation pertaining to the prevention of significant deterioration of air quality (39 FR 42510) as it applies to sulfur dioxide. For Class II areas, including all of Puerto Rico, the 1974 sulfur dioxide annual concentrations are not to be increased by more than 15 ug/m<sup>3</sup>. The Administrator agrees that the Class II increment may be exceeded at some of the receptor sites chosen by EQB. However, this results from switching to a higher content in fuel. Section 52.21(d) (39 FR 42516) specifically exempts from the provisions of the significant deterioration regulation any modification which results from the switching to higher sulfur content fuel. The provisions of the regulation for the prevention of significant deterioration of air quality with regard to new sources and modifications, therefore, will be applied in the following manner:

(1) In areas where the Class II increment has been partially used up, the review of new sources and modifications under 40 CFR 52.21 will be conducted so as to assure that the Class II increment is not violated;

(2) In areas where the Class II increment has been violated or exhausted the review of new sources and modifications will be conducted so as to assure that there will be no increase in the ambient air quality values of sulfur oxides due to the source identified in 40 CFR 52.21.

Several submitted comments question EQB's application of the diffusion modeling techniques. One issue raised concerns whether an uncalibrated diffusion model, such as was used by EQB, is appropriate to use in control strategy development. It is recognized that comparison with field measurements allows a diffusion modeling technique to be fine tuned and, as a result, less conservative assumptions may be built into the model's application. When significant uncertainty exists in the accuracy of the diffusion modeling technique, conservative assumptions must be incorporated as a safeguard against the possibility of underestimating the actual impact upon air quality. In Puerto Rico the general unavailability of long term pollutant field data led to the latter approach being chosen by EQB. This approach is acceptable in that the limitations of an uncalibrated model are taken into account in a conservative manner.

Another question concerns the range of uncertainties which may be involved in the predictions of a diffusion model. As discussed in the August 27, 1974, FEDERAL REGISTER (39 FR 31003) a random error as high as 150% for annual average and 200 percent for short term concentrations may be observed between the results which are obtained from diffusion modeling and actual measurements. These factors represent the range of extreme values and agreement between most calculated and observed pollutant concentrations lies well within this range. The EQB analysis incorporates conservative measures such as load factors and safety margin to decrease the possibility that the model will underpredict the air quality impact of a source. Similar studies have been conducted in Puerto Rico which indicate that the Pasquill-Turner modeling technique would underpredict ambient air concentrations in the vicinity of elevated terrain. These studies indicate that terrain induced turbulence causes dispersion to be enhanced in the vicinity of elevated terrain and results in decreased maximum plume centerline concentrations. Since the EQB's modeling technique allows for impingement of the plume upon elevated terrain features, these studies support the conclusion that the concentrations calculated at elevated locations may be overestimates of actual conditions.

It is also stated that the diffusion technique used by EQB cannot cause pollutant plumes to directly impinge upon elevated terrain. The Regional Office's evaluation of the diffusion technique used by EQB confirmed that the diffusion modeling technique does provide for plumes to impinge upon elevated terrain, such as hills or mountains. Source plumes will impact upon those terrain features which are greater than twice the height of the effective plume height.

A comment was received that substantial amounts of sulfur oxide emissions previously identified as part of the 1970 emission inventory used in the approved implementation plan were not included in the current air quality predictions. This is not an area of major concern since area source emissions have been included and their impact is accounted for in the diffusion computations through the use of the 20 percent safety factor. It was claimed that "other" emissions of sulfur oxides accounts for 14 percent of the total sulfur oxide emissions. This is included in the area source category. Transportation sources are a very minor component whose impact can be accounted for by the conservative nature of the calculations employed by EQB.

The last comment regarding the diffusion model questions whether EQB searched available meteorological records to ascertain that worst case meteorologito ascertain that worst case meteorological conditions are used.

The information submitted by EQB on May 8, 1975, explained how meteorological data were used in the diffusion calculations. This information assured the Administrator that meteorological records were searched to identify: (1) The most persistent wind conditions to determine the maximum 24-hour concentrations; and (2) the correct combination of wind speed and stability to result in prediction of the maximum 3-hour concentration.

Two other comments submitted request a reassignment of the maximum allowable sulfur in fuel values. The Administrator recognizes that these requests may have merit; however, the maximum allowable sulfur in fuel values listed in Appendix B were assigned by EQB. Any requests for changes in the maximum allowable sulfur content of fuels should be addressed to EQB. If the EQB analysis determines that the request is valid, these revised maximum allowable sulfur in fuel values should be submitted to EPA as a request for a revision to the Commonwealth's implementation plan.

One fuel burning stationary source comments that three of the plant's existing furnaces had not been assigned maximum allowable sulfur in fuel values. Upon review of the computer printouts for the air basin which contains this source, it was determined that two of the boilers had been combined into one emission point due to their close proximity and that the third furnace had not been accounted for in the diffusion model. As a result, this source will be required to conform to the 1.0% by weight, sulfur in fuel limitation in the approved Article 6, as contained in the Puerto Rico implementation plan. Preliminary data indicates that this value may be more than adequate to attain and maintain national standards for sulfur oxides. However, the Administrator has no alternative other than to require the use of fuel consistent with the currently approved implementation plan. EQB may wish to submit, at a later date, information which supports the use of fuel with a higher sulfur content than that assumed. Such request will be handled according to the plan revision process.

The final comment questions that assignment of the maximum allowable sulfur in fuel value of 0.5 percent, by weight, for the power complex in Mayaguez. It is believed that the assignment of this value is overly restrictive and imposes a greater degree of control on this source than on other sources in Mayaguez. The controlling factor used by EQB to assign a maximum allowable sulfur in fuel value to this facility was that the facility consisted only of gas turbines which are designed to use distillate fuel oil. Distillate oil is by its nature a relatively low sulfur petroleum product and the maximum sulfur content oil commercially available is approximately 0.5 percent, by weight.

Effective date. These revisions will become effective on or before October 14, 1975.

Part 52 of Chapter I, Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended as follows:

Subpart BBB—Puerto Rico

1. Section 52.2720 is amended by adding a new paragraph (c) as follows:

§ 52.2720 Identification of plan.

(c) Supplemental information was submitted on:

(1) April 15, April 9, April 17, May 30, June 18, and September 10, 1973, and on February 1 and February 12, 1974.

(2) January 3 and 17, February 14, March 26, May 8, May 15, and June 2, 1975.

2. A new § 52.2729 is added as follows:

§ 52.2729 Control strategy and regulations: Sulfur oxides.

(a) The requirements of § 51.13 of this chapter are not met since the Puerto Rico plan does not provide for attainment and maintenance of the national standards for sulfur oxides in the areas of Aguirre, Barceloneta, Trujillo Alto-Dorado and Ensenada.

(b) Article 6, as submitted to EPA on January 3, 1975, of the Puerto Rico Regulations for Control of Atmospheric Pollution, as it applies to those areas listed in paragraph (a) of this section is disapproved for the following facilities: Puerto Rico Water Resources Authority—Aguirre Complex, Abbott, Merck and Company, Bristol Meyers, Pfizer, Union Carbide, Upjohn, located in the Barceloneta air basin, and Central Guanica, located in the Aquada air basin. Accordingly, these sources, with the exception of the Puerto Rico Water Resources Authority—Aguirre Complex, are required to conform to the sulfur in fuel limitations contained in Article 6 of the Puerto Rico implementation plan as submitted to EPA on January 31, 1972.

(c) On and after the effective date of this paragraph, the maximum allowable sulfur in fuel limitation, by weight, for the Puerto Rico Water Resources Authority Aguirre complex shall be 2.5 percent.

(d) The requirements of section 110 of the Clean Air Act are not met since Article 6 of the Puerto Rico Regulation for Control of Atmospheric Pollution would permit the use of stack height increases in lieu of available methods for emission reduction. Therefore, Section H of Appendix A of Article 6 of the Puerto Rico Regulation for Control of Atmospheric Pollution is disapproved to the extent that it would permit increases in stack height in lieu of available methods of emission reduction.

PART 60—STANDARDS OF PERFORMANCE FOR NEW STATIONARY SOURCES

Delegations of Authority to State of California on Behalf of Bay Area, Monterey Bay Unified, Humboldt County and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control Districts

Pursuant to the delegations of authority for the standards of performance for new stationary sources (NSPS) to the State of California on behalf of the Bay Area and Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control Districts (dated May 23, 1975), and on behalf of the Humboldt County and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control Districts (dated July 10, 1975), EPA is today amending 40 CFR 60.4, Address, to reflect these delegations. Notices announcing these delegations are published today in the Notices Section of this issue. The amended § 60.4 is set forth below. It adds the addresses of the Bay Area, Monterey Bay Unified, Humboldt County and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control Districts, to which must be addressed all reports, requests, applications, submittals, and communications pursuant to this part by sources subject to the NSPS located within these Air Pollution Control Districts.

The Administrator finds good cause for foregoing prior public notice and for making this rulemaking effective immediately in that it is an administrative change and not one of substantive content. No additional substantive burdens are imposed on the parties affected. The delegations which are reflected by this administrative amendment were effective on May 23, 1975 (Bay Area and Monterey Bay Districts) and on July 10, 1975 (Humboldt County and Del Norte County Districts) and it serves no purpose to delay the technical change of this addition of the Air Pollution Control District addresses to the Code of Federal Regulations.

This rulemaking is effective immediately, and is issued under the authority of section 111 of the Clean Air Act, as amended. 42 U.S.C. 1857c-6.

Dated: September 6, 1975.

PART 61—NATIONAL EMISSION STANDARDS FOR HAZARDOUS AIR POLLUTANTS

Delegation of Authority to State of California on Behalf of Bay Area, Monterey Bay Unified, Humboldt County and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control Districts

Pursuant to the delegations of authority for national emission standards for hazardous air pollutants (NESHAPS) to the State of California on behalf of the Bay Area and Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control Districts (dated May 23, 1975), and on behalf of the Humboldt County and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control Districts (dated July 10, 1975), EPA is today amending 40 CFR 61.04, Address, to reflect these delegations. Notices announcing these delegations are published today in the Notices Section of this issue. The amended § 61.04 is set forth below. It adds the addresses of the Bay Area, Monterey Bay Unified, Humboldt County, and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control Districts, to which must be addressed all reports, requests, applications, submittals, and communications pursuant to this part by sources subject to the NESHAPS located within these Air Pollution Control Districts.

The Administrator finds good cause for foregoing prior public notice and for making this rulemaking effective immediately in that it is an administrative change and not one of substantive content. No additional substantive burdens are imposed on the parties affected. The delegations which are reflected by this administrative amendment were effective on May 23, 1975 (Bay Area and Monterey Bay Districts), and on July 10, 1975 (Humboldt County and Del Norte County Districts), and it serves no purpose to delay the technical change of this addition of the Air Pollution Control District addresses to the Code of Federal Regulations.

This rulemaking is effective immediately, and is issued under the authority of section 112 of the Clean Air Act, as amended. 42 U.S.C. 1857c-7.

PART 28—PUBLIC ACCESS, USE, AND RECREATION

Dungeness National Wildlife Refuge, Washington, Horseback Riding Regulations

In the Federal Register of December 18, 1974 (39 FR 43728), there was published a notice of proposed rule making to amend § 28.28 of Title 50 of the Code of Federal Regulations. This amendment would establish specific rules for horseback riding on Dungeness National Wildlife Refuge. The rules were proposed to correct a safety hazard between horseback riders and pedestrian users of the refuge.

Due to the volume of public comments received, the period for receipt of written comments was extended from January 30, 1975 to March 1, 1975 (40 FR 4428). In addition, a public meeting was held on June 6, 1975 in Port Angeles, Washington, to facilitate public comment. The period for written comment was extended to July 7, 1975.

A total of 166 statements was received commenting on horseback riding and related public use management of the refuge. Some 56 specifically expressed opposition to the proposed regulations. Those opposed to the regulation argued that horseback riding did not conflict with wildlife; that equestrians were being discriminated against; that the proposed regulations effectively eliminated horseback riding entirely; and that viable alternatives to the proposed regulations existed and should be considered.

After due consideration of the comments received and a reevaluation of the possible alternatives and their potential effect upon safety, the regulations were revised. The revised regulations will remain in force pending periodic assessment of their effectiveness in controlling the safety hazard between horseback riders and pedestrian users of the refuge.

Therefore, the following special regulation under 50 CFR 28.28 is issued and is effective on January 1, 1976.

§ 28.28 Special regulations: public access, use and recreation for individual wildlife refuge areas.

DUNGENESS NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

1. Horses are prohibited on all portions of Dungeness National Wildlife Refuge on Saturdays, Sundays and State holidays from April 15 to October 15. Horses are permitted on designated and posted portions of the refuge daily from October 16 to April 14 and on weekdays from April 15 to October 15. Horseback riders must remain on the trail posted "horse trail" on that portion of the refuge on the bluff overlooking Dungeness Spit and on the Spit proper within ½ mile of the bluff.

The provisions of this special regulation supplement the regulations which govern public use of wildlife refuge areas generally, which are set forth in Title 50 Code of Federal Regulations Parts 26, 27 and 28.

CIBOLA NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

The public hunting of ducks, geese, coots and gallinules on the Cibola National Wildlife Refuge, Arizona and California, is permitted as follows: Ducks, coots and gallinules, from October 4 through October 31, 1975, inclusive, and from November 15, 1975 through January 4, 1976, inclusive; geese, from October 4 through October 17, 1975, inclusive, and from November 15, 1975 through January 18, 1976, inclusive; geese, from October 4 through October 17, 1975, inclusive, and from November 15, 1975 through January 4, 1976, inclusive. Hunting is permitted only on the areas designated by signs as open to hunting. These open areas, comprising 8,900 acres, are delineated on maps available at refuge headquarters, Blythe, California, and from the Regional Director, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, P.O. Box 1306, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87103. Hunting shall be in accordance with all applicable State and Federal regulations covering the hunting of ducks, geese, coots and gallinules subject to the following special conditions:

- (1) Up to two (2) dogs per hunter may be used for the purpose of hunting and retrieving.
- (2) Pits or permanent blinds are prohibited.
- (3) Hunting is prohibited within one-fourth mile of any occupied dwelling or 250 yards of any farm field worker.
- (4) Campfires will be permitted only in designated areas. All other open fires are prohibited.
- (5) Cibola Lake, located in Zone I, is closed to fishing from October 1 through March 1 during the waterfowl use period. The provisions of this special regulation supplement the regulations which govern hunting on wildlife refuge areas generally which are set forth in Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 32, and are effective through January 18, 1976.

HAVASU NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

The public hunting of ducks, geese, coots, gallinules and common snipe

RULES AND REGULATIONS

(Wilson's) on the Havasu National Wildlife Refuge, Arizona and California, is permitted as follows: Ducks, coots and gallinules, from October 4 through October 31, 1975, inclusive, and from November 15, 1975 through January 18, 1976, inclusive; geese, from October 4 through October 17, 1975, inclusive, and from November 15, 1975 through January 4, 1976, inclusive; common snipe (Wilson's), from November 15, 1975 through January 18, 1976, inclusive. Hunting is permitted only on the areas designated by signs as open to hunting. These open areas, comprising 13,200 acres, are delineated on maps available at refuge headquarters, Needles, California, and from the Regional Director, P.O. Box 1306, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87103. Hunting shall be in accordance with all applicable State and Federal regulations covering the hunting of ducks, geese, coots, gallinules and common snipe (Wilson's) subject to the following special conditions:

- (1) An iron shot study program to evaluate field use of iron shot shells will be conducted by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service on Havasu National Wildlife Refuge.
- (2) Topock Marsh is the designated area for the iron shot hunt. The hunt area includes Pintail Slough and all marsh lands open to hunting north of the south dike.
- (3) The iron shot hunt will continue throughout the waterfowl season.
- (4) Use of lead shot shells for waterfowl hunting is prohibited in the Topock Marsh iron shot hunt area.
- (5) Hunters must use a 12 gauge shotgun as iron shot shells are available only in 12 gauge.
- (6) Iron shot shells will be sold during business hours at the following locations: Premier Sports, 1404 Broadway, Needles, California; Five Mile Landing Concession, Route 95, Topock, Arizona; and Sportsman's One Stop and Variety, Main Street, Bullhead City, Arizona. Other local dealers of shotgun ammunition may also carry the iron shot shells.
- (7) All hunters may be required to fill out a post-hunt questionnaire at the end of each hunt. Questionnaires will be available at each of the hunt area entry points.
- (8) Waterfowl gizzards and wings may be collected from hunter's bag by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service personnel on a random sample basis.
- (9) Hunters are required to enter the hunt areas by way of the parking areas only.
- (10) Up to two (2) dogs per hunter may be used for the purpose of hunting and retrieving.
- (11) The construction or use of permanent blinds or pits is prohibited.
- (12) Hunting is prohibited within one-fourth mile of any occupied dwelling or concession operation.

The provisions of this special regulation supplement the regulations which govern hunting on wildlife refuge areas generally which are set forth in Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 32, and are effective through January 18, 1976.

TEXAS

BRAZORIA NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

The public hunting of ducks, geese and coots on the Brazoria National Wildlife Refuge, Texas, is permitted only on the area designated by signs as open to hunting. This open area, comprising 2,300 acres of Rattlesnake Island on the south-east side of the Intracoastal Waterway and adjacent to Bastrop, Christmas and Drum Bays, is delineated on maps available at refuge headquarters, Angleton, Texas, and from the Regional Director, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, P.O. Box 1306, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87103. Hunting shall be in accordance with all applicable State and Federal regulations governing the hunting of ducks, geese and coots subject to the following special conditions:

- (1) The refuge hunting season for ducks and coots extends from November 1 through November 30, 1975, inclusive, and from December 20, 1975 through January 18, 1976, inclusive.
- (2) The refuge hunting season for geese extends from November 1 through December 12, 1975, inclusive, and from December 20, 1975 through January 18, 1976, inclusive.
- (3) Travel to and from the area open to hunting across the refuge mainland will not be permitted. Access to the hunting area must be entirely over public water routes.
- (4) Only temporary blinds may be constructed or used on the hunting area. Pits or permanent blinds are prohibited.

§ 32.22 Special regulations: upland game; for individual wildlife refuge areas.

OKLAHOMA

WASHITA NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

The public hunting of quail and cottontail rabbits on the Washita National Wildlife Refuge, Oklahoma, is permitted only on the areas designated by signs as open to hunting. These open areas, comprising 2,655 acres, are delineated on maps available at refuge headquarters, Butler, Oklahoma, and from the Regional Director, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, P.O. Box 1306, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87103. Hunting shall be in accordance with all applicable State regulations covering the hunting of quail and cottontail rabbits subject to the following special conditions:

- (1) The open season for quail hunting on the refuge extends from November 20, 1975 through February 1, 1976, inclusive.
- (2) The open season for cottontail rabbit hunting on the refuge extends from November 20, 1975 through February 1, 1976, inclusive.
- (3) Hunting of either quail or cottontail rabbits is permitted only on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays and national holidays.

(4) Rifles and hand guns are prohibited on the refuge. Only shotguns are legal firearms for the taking of quail. Shotguns and/or long bows and arrows are legal weapons for the taking of cottontail rabbits.

The provisions of this special regulation supplement the regulations which govern hunting on wildlife refuge areas generally which are set forth in Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 32, and are effective through February 1, 1976.

PART 32—HUNTING

Certain National Wildlife Refuges in California

On July 31, 1975, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (40 FR 32124) a notice of proposed rules changing special regulations for hunting for certain individual wildlife refuges in California.

The purpose of the proposed changes was to improve the quality of the hunting experience on these refuge public hunting areas.

The public was provided a 30-day comment period. The only comments received concerned the proposed special regulation limiting waterfowl shooting hours from one-half hour before sunrise to 1:00 p.m. daily on Lower Klamath and Tule Lake National Wildlife Refuges. Shooting hours previously were from one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset daily.

The unfavorable comments received objected principally to an alleged decrease in hunting opportunity by a shortened hunting day. The purpose of the special regulation is to actually increase the opportunity by encouraging waterfowl to leave the refuge closed area in the afternoon and distribute themselves more widely in the Klamath Basin. If, in fact, this happens, an improvement in both hunting quality and opportunity will result.

Accordingly, Chapter I of Title 50 Code of Federal Regulations is amended by revising §§ 32.12, and 32.22 to read as set forth below.

§ 32.32 Special regulations: big game; for individual wildlife refuge areas.

The following regulations will be effective October 11, 1975. These regulations apply to public hunting on portions of certain national wildlife refuges in California.

GENERAL CONDITIONS: Hunting shall be in accordance with applicable State and Federal regulations. Portions of refuges which are open to hunting are designated by signs and/or delineated on maps. Special conditions applying to individual refuges are listed on the reverse side of maps available at the refuge headquarters and from the Office

Certain National Wildlife Refuges in Washington

On July 31, 1975 there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (40 FR 32126) a notice of proposed rules changing special regulations for hunting for certain individual wildlife refuges in Washington.

The purpose of the proposed changes was to improve the quality of the hunting experience on these refuge public hunting areas. The public was provided a 30-day comment period.

No unfavorable comments have been received. Accordingly, Chapter I of Title 50 Code of Federal Regulations is amended by revising §§ 32.12, 32.22 and 32.32 to read as set forth below.

The following regulations will be effective October 11, 1975. These regulations apply to public hunting on portions of certain National Wildlife Refuges in Washington.

GENERAL CONDITIONS: Hunting shall be in accordance with applicable State and Federal regulations. Portions of refuges which are open to hunting are designated by signs and/or delineated on maps. No vehicle travel is permitted except on maintained roads and trails. Special conditions applying to individual refuges are listed on the reverse side of maps available at refuge headquarters and from the office of the Regional Director, Fish and Wildlife Service, P.O. Box 3737, Portland, Oregon 97208.

§ 32.12 Special regulations: migratory game birds, for individual wildlife refuge areas.

Migratory game birds may be hunted on the following refuge area:

DeSoto National Wildlife Refuge, Ia.

The following special regulations is issued and is effective on September 11, 1975.

§ 32.12 Special regulations: migratory game birds; for individual wildlife refuge areas.

IOWA

DE SOTO NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

Public hunting of waterfowl on DeSoto National Wildlife Refuge, Iowa, is permitted in accordance with the following special regulations:

1. Species. Only waterfowl species (ducks, geese, coots) may be taken.

2. Seasons. The open season on the refuge hunting area will be November 1-December 9, 1975. Shooting hours will be the same as for the respective state, with the exception that refuge hunting will stop at 12:00 noon each day.

3. Bag limits. Bag limits for waterfowl species will be the same as the state bag limits.

4. Methods of hunting. Hunters must hunt from refuge-constructed 3-man blinds only. Blinds will be assigned under an advance reservation system. Individuals will be allowed to hold only one reservation at any one time. When this is used, he may apply for an unfilled date.

Hunters will be required to check in and out at the refuge check station. Hunters will be allowed the use of decoys (either personal or rented at check station) and retrieving dogs (one per hunter).

All hunting will be from blinds only, with the exception that crippled birds may be pursued and shot within the shooting zone only (within 40 yards of blind as posted). Crippled birds may be pursued beyond this point up to the retrieval zone line (as posted), but guns must remain inside the shooting zone.

Shotguns only will be permitted, capable of holding three shells or less. Steel shot loads will be required in the refuge hunting area. These may be purchased at the refuge check station and will be available in 12 gauge only. Lead loads will not be allowed. A maximum of 25 shells per hunter will be allowed per day.

5. Open area. The area open to hunting is delineated on maps available at refuge headquarters. The location of the hunting area is on the periphery of refuge lands in the northeast portion of the refuge. This area comprises about 355 acres.

6. Other provisions. All hunting will be by permit only. Applications for a specific date will be accepted by mail or in person at refuge headquarters, DeSoto National Wildlife Refuge, RR-1, Box 114, Missouri Valley, Iowa 51555, between the hours of 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Applications will be accepted through Saturday, September 27, 1975. A drawing to determine successful applicants will be held at refuge headquarters on Monday, September 29. Should openings remain following the drawing, reservations will be accepted on a first-come, first-serve basis on and after October 3, 1975. Reservations will not be accepted by phone.

Applicants for reservations must be at least 16 years of age or older. A $3 fee must accompany each request for a reservation, and this must be in the form of a check or money order. Each reservation holder will be entitled to bring two additional hunters with him in order to utilize the 3-man blinds. Each person will be charged $1 when he registers to hunt. Goose decoys, up to 3 dozen per blind, may be rented at the refuge check station at a charge of $1 per dozen. Hunters will be responsible for decoys and will be charged for any decoys lost or damaged. Personal decoys may also be used.

Reservations are non-transferable and fees will not be refunded. No provisions will be made for "stand by" hunters. Blinds will be assigned only once each day. Vacated blinds will not be refilled.

The provisions of this special regulation supplement the regulations which govern hunting on wildlife refuge areas generally which are set forth in Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 32, and are effective through December 9, 1975.

6. Other Provisions. All hunting will be by permit only. Applications for a specific date will be accepted by mail or in person at refuge headquarters, DeSoto National Wildlife Refuge, RR-1, Box 114, Missouri Valley, Iowa, 51555, between the hours of 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Applications will be accepted through Saturday, September 27, 1975. A drawing to determine successful applicants will be held at refuge headquarters on Monday, September 29. Should openings remain following the drawing, reservations will be accepted on a first-come, first-serve basis on and after October 3, 1975. Reservations will not be accepted by phone.

Applicants for reservations must be at least 16 years of age or older. A $3 fee must accompany each request for a reservation, and this must be in the form of a check or money order. Each reservation holder will be entitled to bring two additional hunters with him in order to utilize the 3-man blinds. Each person will be charged $1 when he registers to hunt. Goose decoys, up to 3 dozen per blind, may be rented at the refuge check station at a charge of $1 per dozen.

Hunters will be responsible for decoys and will be charged for any decoys lost or damaged. Personal decoys may also be used.

Reservations are non-transferable and fees will not be refunded. No provisions will be made for "stand by" hunters. Blinds will be assigned only once each day. Vacated blinds will not be refilled.

The provisions of this special regulation supplement the regulations which govern hunting on wildlife refuge areas generally which are set forth in Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 32, and are effective through November 16, 1975.

PART 32—HUNTING

De Soto National Wildlife Refuge, Ia.

The following special regulation is issued and is effective on September 11, 1975.

§ 32.32 Special regulations: big game; for individual wildlife refuge areas.

IOWA

DE SOTO NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

Public hunting of deer on the DeSoto National Wildlife Refuge, Iowa, is permitted only on the area designated by signs as open to hunting. This open area comprising 660 acres is delineated on a map available at the refuge headquarters and from the Area Manager, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, 601 E. 12th Street, Kansas City, Missouri 64106.

Hunting shall be in accordance with all State regulations governing the hunting of deer with bow and arrow and shall be permitted only during the regular Iowa archery deer season, October 11, 1975, to November 21, 1975, and November 26, 1975, to December 5, 1975.

The provisions of this special regulation supplement the regulations which govern hunting on wildlife refuge areas generally which are set forth in Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 32, and are effective through December 5, 1975.

In the Matter of Hefler Realty Sales, Inc., a corporation, and Clyde M. Taylor, individually and as an officer of said corporation.

Consent order requiring a Miami, Fla., marketer of condominiums and single-family homes, among other things to cease violating the Truth in Lending Act by failing to disclose to consumers, in connection with the extension of consumer credit, such information as required by Regulation Z of the said Act.

The order to cease and desist, including further order requiring report of compliance therewith, is as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents Hefler Realty Sales, Inc., a corporation, its successors and assigns, and its officers, and Clyde M. Taylor, individually and as an officer of said corporation, and respondents' agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporation, subsidiary, division or other device, in connection with any advertisement to aid, promote or assist directly or indirectly any extension of consumer credit, as "consumer credit" and "advertisement" are defined in Regulation Z (12 CFR Part 226) of the Truth in Lending Act (Pub. L. 90-321; 15 U.S.C. 1601, et seq.), do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Failing to state the rate of a charge for consumer credit expressed as an "annual percentage rate," using that term, as prescribed by § 226.10(d) (1) of Regulation Z.

2. Representing in any such advertisement, directly or by implication, that no downpayment is required, the amount of the downpayment or the amount of any installment payment, either in dollars or as a percentage, the dollar amount of any finance charge, the number of installments or the period of repayment, or that there is no charge for credit, unless all of the following items are clearly and conspicuously stated, in terminology prescribed under § 226.8 of Regulation Z, as required by § 226.10(d) (2) of Regulation Z:

- The cash price;
- The amount of the downpayment required or that no downpayment is required, as applicable;
- The number, amount and due dates or period of payments scheduled to repay.

addition and the like), and all patents resulting from continuations-in-part, divisions, renewals, reissues and extensions based on said patents or the applications thereof, but only insofar as it relates to an OFFICE COPIER PRODUCT.

F. "ISSUED" means published and either issued, granted, sealed or registered.

G. "CORRESPONDING PATENTS" means two or more PATENTS, each of which has ISSUED in a different country, is entitled to the same priority date (or could have been if timely filed) and is based upon the same conception and reduction to practice.

H. "PRESENT PATENT" means a United States or FOREIGN PATENT ISSUED on or before the date of issuance of this order and all CORRESPONDING PATENTS regardless of the date they are ISSUED.

I. "FUTURE PATENT" means a United States or FOREIGN PATENT other than a PRESENT PATENT ISSUED on a patent application having an effective filing date prior to three years after the date of issuance of this order or ISSUED during the six years following the date of issuance of this order, and all CORRESPONDING PATENTS, regardless of the date they are ISSUED.

J. "FOREIGN PATENT" means a PATENT ISSUED by a country other than the United States.

K. "XEROX PATENT" means a PATENT which is owned or controlled by XEROX, RANK XEROX or FUJI XEROX or under which one or more of them has the power to grant licenses or sublicenses to PERSONS. XEROX power to comply with this order with respect to PATENTS owned or controlled by RANK XEROX or FUJI XEROX, or under which they have the power to grant licenses or sublicenses, is confirmed in the undertakings of RANK XEROX and FUJI XEROX which have been submitted to the Commission.

L. "ORDER PATENT" means a PRESENT or FUTURE XEROX PATENT except one licensed pursuant to Paragraph X(b) of this order.

M. A "PATENT OF THE LICENSEE" means a PATENT which is owned or controlled by a LICENSEE, or a PATENT under which such LICENSEE has the power to grant licenses or sublicenses.

N. "IMPROVEMENT PATENT" means a PATENT on an invention which, if practiced, would infringe a licensed PATENT and which IMPROVEMENT PATENT is owned or controlled by the licensee of such PATENT or is one under which such licensee has the power to grant licenses or sublicenses. Determination of what is an IMPROVEMENT PATENT shall be made by reference to a licensed United States PATENT, if any, or if there is no such United States PATENT, by reference to the licensed FOREIGN PATENT.

O. "OFFICE COPIER" means a machine for the convenient reproduction of an original document and accessories physically attached to such machine. The term "OFFICE COPIER" refers to all xerographic and non-xerographic office copiers, including but not limited to polychromatic color office copiers, high speed office copiers (such as the Xerox Model 9200), hybrid offset office copiers (such as the AMCD) and office copiers adapted to receive micro input as well as hard copy input, but does not include specialized use copiers (such as engineering drawing and microfilm copiers), or offset, stencil, or spirit duplicator machines.

P. "OFFICE COPIER PRODUCT" means an OFFICE COPIER and parts, components, raw materials and consumable supplies for use therein, including but not limited to photosensitive elements, refined selenium, metal alloys for machine parts, toner, developer, paper, and containers (such as toner cartridges) for consumable supplies.

Q. "ROYALTY-BEARING PRODUCT" means (1) an OFFICE COPIER, (2) toner, developer, paper, and similar consumable supplies, (3) containers (such as toner cartridges) for consumable supplies and (4) photosensitive elements, any of which are covered by a licensed PATENT other than one which is royalty-free.

R. "NET REVENUES" shall mean the total revenues received by the licensee from the lease or sale, as the case may be, of a ROYALTY-BEARING PRODUCT, or in the case of a lease of a ROYALTY-BEARING PRODUCT, at the option of the licensee, the published selling price for such ROYALTY-BEARING PRODUCT. Any of the following items, or any comparable items, may be deducted from the aforesaid total revenues or published selling price when they are separately stated on the invoice:

- (a) Packing costs
- (b) Actual transportation and insurance costs from place of shipment to point of installation
- (c) Excise, sales, use and property taxes
- (d) Import and export duties and taxes
- (e) The fair market value of replacement parts and components which are not covered by a licensed PATENT
- (f) The fair market value of consumable supplies which are not covered by a licensed PATENT whether or not they are in a licensed container

(g) Actual credit to customers on account of any ROYALTY-BEARING PRODUCT which is not accepted by the customer

(h) Costs of servicing or repairing the ROYALTY-BEARING PRODUCT excluding the costs of parts or components covered by a licensed PATENT.

To the extent that the amounts charged for the above items can be verified by referring to separate bona fide offers of such services or products, or to separate documents as in the case of taxes or duties, such amounts need not appear on the invoice.

S. "POLYCHROMATIC COLOR OFFICE COPIER PRODUCT" means an OFFICE COPIER PRODUCT specially adapted to produce multicolor copy.

T. "KNOW-HOW" means all written materials used by Xerox Corporation in manufacturing, refurbishing, reconditioning, retrofitting and servicing its OFFICE COPIER PRODUCTS which Xerox Corporation is not specifically prohibited by a legally enforceable obligation from disclosing, including but not limited to blueprints, drawings, formulae, manuals, process descriptions, production methods, specifications, quality control and test standards and computer programs.

U. "COMMERCIALLY AVAILABLE" means generally available for immediate sale or lease to consumers in an area at least as large an area served by at least one sales branch of the seller or lessor and on publicly announced terms.

V. "IBM" means International Business Machines Corporation, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York, and its SUBSIDIARIES, successors and assigns, and directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives.

W. "UNITED STATES" means the United States of America, its territories or possessions, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

II

It is further ordered, That XEROX shall forthwith grant or cause to be granted to any PERSON making written application to XEROX at any time under this order a non-exclusive license for the full unexpired term under any, some or all ORDER PATENTS to make, have made, use or vend any, some or of the following: (1) OFFICE COPIERS (including the right to have made parts, components, and raw materials for use therein), (2) toner, developer, paper and similar consumable supplies, (3) toner, developer, paper and similar consumable supplies which may be used in future OFFICE COPIERS, (4) containers (such as toner cartridges) for consumable supplies, and (5) photosensitive elements. However, at XEROX's option exercised on a non-discriminatory basis, the effective date of licenses pertaining to POLYCHROMATIC COLOR OFFICE COPIER PRODUCTS may be up to three years from the date of issuance of this order for PRESENT PATENTS and three years from the date the PATENT is ISSUED for FUTURE PATENTS. Nothing in any license granted pursuant to the terms of this order shall be deemed to prohibit a LICENSEE from using a licensed OFFICE COPIER in conjunction with any other device for use in addition to the convenient reproduction of an original document.

III

XEROX, RANK XEROX and FUJI XEROX shall agree not to sue any LICENSEE, or customers or suppliers of the LICENSEE, for PATENT infringement or royalties, with respect to any OFFICE COPIER, photosensitive element, toner, developer, paper or container (such as toner cartridges) for consumable supplies manufactured by or for the LICENSEE prior to the date of issuance of this order, or to maintain any such suit.

IV

It is further ordered, That no license of an ORDER PATENT granted pursuant to the terms of this order shall contain or be conditioned upon any restriction, except as hereinafter provided:

A. The LICENSEE may, at his option, designate up to a total of three ORDER PATENTS which shall be licensed or sublicensed royalty-free; provided, however, that, in each country, the LICENSEE may substitute another ORDER PATENT as royalty-free for any ORDER PATENT previously designated as royalty-free which the LICENSEE has discontinued using in that country. On "ORDER PATENTS other than the three designated as royalty-free by the LICENSEE, XEROX may, in its sole discretion, charge a royalty not to exceed 1 1/2% per PATENT up to a maximum accumulated royalty of 1 1/2% of the LICENSEE'S NET REVENUES for each ROYALTY-BEARING PRODUCT which is manufactured, leased or sold by or for the LICENSEE. With respect to any ROYALTY-BEARING PRODUCT of the LICENSEE which the LICENSEE uses or consumes himself, the royalty shall be computed on the basis of the NET REVENUES that would have been received by the LICENSEE in an ordinary commercial transaction. The royalty shall be computed separately for each ROYALTY-BEARING PRODUCT on the basis of ORDER PATENTS subject to royalty which are used in such ROYALTY-BEARING PRODUCT. In no event shall more than three royalty-free PATENTS apply to any one ROYALTY-BEARING PRODUCT at any one time irrespective of the number of licenses granted by XEROX with respect to such ROYALTY-BEARING PRODUCT. For the purpose of this Paragraph IV A, a PATENT and all CORRESPONDING PATENTS in all countries shall count as one PATENT. The LICENSEE need not take a license under any CORRESPONDING PATENT.

B. XEROX may require that a LICENSEE agree not to use XEROX, RANK XEROX or FUJI XEROX, or their customers or suppliers, for PATENT infringement or royalties with respect to any OFFICE COPIER, photosensitive element, toner, developer, paper or container (such as toner cartridges) for consumable supplies manufactured by or for them prior to the date of issuance of this order, or to maintain any such suit.

C. To the extent the LICENSEE has the power to grant licenses or sublicenses, XEROX may require the grant to XEROX, RANK XEROX and FUJI XEROX of a non-exclusive license for the full unexpired term under any, some or all PATENTS OF THE LICENSEE to make, have made, use or vend any, some or all of the following: (a) OFFICE COPIERS (including the right to have made parts, components, and raw materials for use therein), (b) toner, developer, paper and similar consumable supplies, (c) toner, developer, paper, and similar consumable supplies which may be used in future OFFICE COPIERS, (d) containers (such as toner cartridges) for consumable supplies, and (e) photosensitive elements, as hereinafter provided in this Paragraph IV C.

(1) XEROX may (at any time) require the license of one PATENT OF THE LICENSEE to XEROX, RANK XEROX and FUJI XEROX for each XEROX PATENT licensed to the LICENSEE in excess of the first three ORDER PATENTS licensed to the LICENSEE but in so doing XEROX may not require the license of (a) a greater number of PRESENT PATENTS OF THE LICENSEE than the number of XEROX PRESENT PATENTS licensed to the LICENSEE, or (b) a greater number of FUTURE PATENTS OF THE LICENSEE than the number of XEROX FUTURE PATENTS licensed to the LICENSEE. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for purposes of determining how many PRESENT PATENTS or FUTURE PATENTS OF THE LICENSEE which XEROX, RANK XEROX and FUJI XEROX are entitled to license, the LICENSEE shall have the right, if exercised at the time of first receipt of a license from XEROX under Paragraph II of this order, to have the first three ORDER PATENTS licensed from XEROX count, at the LICENSEE'S option, as XEROX PRESENT PATENTS, or as XEROX FUTURE PATENTS or as any combination of XEROX PRESENT PATENTS and XEROX FUTURE PATENTS, irrespective of the actual character of such ORDER PATENTS. For the purpose of determining the number of PATENTS under this Paragraph IVC(1), (a) a PATENT and all CORRESPONDING PATENTS in all countries shall count as one PATENT, and (b) the substitution of a previously unlicensed ORDER PATENT shall count as an additional PATENT unless the PATENT for which substitution is made was dedicated, revoked, disclaimed, or has expired or lapsed, or was held invalid or unenforceable. XEROX, RANK XEROX and FUJI XEROX need not take a license under any CORRESPONDING PATENT. A LICENSEE shall have no obligation to grant a license to XEROX, RANK XEROX or FUJI XEROX in any country in which, by reason of governmental action, XEROX has been prevented from granting or causing to be granted a PATENT license requested pursuant to this order. XEROX shall have no obligation to grant licenses in any country in which, by reason of governmental action, the LICENSEE is prevented from granting licenses to XEROX, RANK XEROX or FUJI XEROX pursuant to the terms of this Paragraph IVC(1).

(2) The license of PRESENT PATENTS OF THE LICENSEE shall not become effective until four years after the date of issuance of this order or four years after an OFFICE COPIER PRODUCT (of the LICENSEE or its licensee) using an invention covered by the PATENT first becomes COMMERCIALY AVAILABLE, whichever is later. The license of FUTURE PATENTS OF THE LICENSEE shall not become effective until four years after the date the FUTURE PATENT OF THE LICENSEE is ISSUED or four years after an OFFICE COPIER PRODUCT (of the LICENSEE or its licensee) using an invention covered by the PATENT first becomes COMMERCIALY AVAILABLE, whichever is later. This Paragraph IVC(2) shall not apply to IBM, except that IBM may require that the effective date of licenses pertaining to POLYCHROMATIC COLOR OFFICE COPIER PRODUCTS not become effective for up to three years from the date of issuance of this order for PRESENT PATENTS and three years from the date IBM's FUTURE PATENTS are ISSUED. With respect to CORRESPONDING FUTURE PATENTS the date such PATENTS are ISSUED shall be the date that the first such CORRESPONDING FUTURE PATENT is ISSUED.

(3) XEROX may (at any time) require the immediate license to XEROX, RANK XEROX and FUJI XEROX of any of the PRESENT or FUTURE PATENTS OF THE LICENSEE (a) which would be infringed by a XEROX, RANK XEROX or FUJI XEROX OFFICE COPIER manufactured by any of them following the date of issuance of this order if the invention covered by the PATENT is the same as that embodied in an OFFICE COPIER manufactured by any of them prior to the date of issuance of this order, or (b) which would be infringed by a XEROX, RANK XEROX or FUJI XEROX OFFICE COPIER PRODUCT which any of them makes COMMERCIALY AVAILABLE during the six years following the date of issuance of this order if the invention of the PATENT was embodied in a device which, as of the first publication or public use anywhere in the world of the invention covered by the PATENT OF THE LICENSEE or application therefor (i) actually had been built and incorporated in an engineering model or prototype model of the OFFICE COPIER by XEROX, RANK XEROX or FUJI XEROX and (ii) was part of a XEROX, RANK XEROX or FUJI XEROX funded product program. As used in this Paragraph IVC(3), "engineering model" means the first complete assembly of all the sub-assemblies of the OFFICE COPIER; and "prototype model" means the product development stage which follows the engineering model, if any. Licenses granted pursuant to this Paragraph IVC(3) shall not be subject to the provisions of Paragraph IVC(1) (except that they shall count for the LICENSEE as PATENTS licensed to XEROX, RANK XEROX and FUJI XEROX if and when they become entitled to a license pursuant to that Paragraph) or Paragraph IVC(2), but shall be subject to all other provisions of this order. The burden of establishing the right to a license under this Paragraph IVC(3) shall be on XEROX.

(4) XEROX may require a LICENSEE to grant to XEROX, RANK XEROX, and FUJI XEROX a non-exclusive license under all IMPROVEMENT PATENTS on XEROX PATENTS licensed to the LICENSEE. Such licenses shall not be subject to the provisions of Paragraph IVC (1) except that IMPROVEMENT PATENTS OF THE LICENSEE shall count for the LICENSEE as PATENTS licensed to XEROX, RANK XEROX, and FUJI XEROX if and when they become entitled to a license pursuant to that Paragraph but shall be subject to all other provisions of this order.

XEROX. Within 60 days following ex-

(5) XEROX shall grant to the LICENSEE a non-exclusive license under all XEROX IMPROVEMENT PATENTS on PATENTS licensed to XEROX. Such licenses shall be subject to all the provisions of this order except that they shall not count for XEROX as PATENTS licensed by XEROX, RANK XEROX, and FUJI XEROX for purposes of Paragraph IVC(1).

(6) The LICENSEE may charge XEROX, RANK XEROX and FUJI XEROX a reasonable royalty for PATENTS licensed to any or all of them pursuant to this order, computed on the basis of the NET REVENUES of XEROX, RANK XEROX, and FUJI XEROX for each ROYALTY-BEARING PRODUCT which they manufactured, leased or sold. With respect to any ROYALTY-BEARING PRODUCT of XEROX, RANK XEROX and FUJI XEROX, which they use or consume themselves, the royalty shall be computed on the basis of the NET REVENUES that would have been received in an ordinary commercial transaction. The royalty shall be computed separately for each ROYALTY-BEARING PRODUCT on the basis of the PATENTS which are used in such ROYALTY-BEARING PRODUCT.

(7) XEROX, RANK XEROX and FUJI XEROX may require that they be permitted to sublicense any PERSON in which they own, directly or indirectly, 50% or less, but not less than 20% of the voting stock if such PERSON makes its PRESENT and FUTURE PATENTS available for licensing pursuant to Paragraph II of this order. All such PERSONS shall be identified to anyone making written request, and a list of all such PERSONS current as of the date of issuance of this order shall be filed on the public record of the Commission. Any changes in said list shall be filed with the Commission within 30 days after they occur.

(8) A license to XEROX pursuant to this Paragraph IVC shall contain the provisions specified in Paragraphs IVH and IVI of this order and may contain the provisions specified in Paragraphs IVD, IVE, IVF, IVG, and IVJ of this order.

(9) If XEROX grants a license under ORDER PATENTS either pursuant to the terms of Paragraph II of this order or otherwise, the license agreement shall contain the irrevocable covenant of the licensee to license such of its PATENTS as are licensed to XEROX on reasonable terms and conditions (including the license to itself of its licensees' PATENTS or IMPROVEMENT PATENTS) to any other PERSON who is entitled to a license from XEROX pursuant to Paragraph II of this order, provided that such license need not be effective prior to the effective date of the licensee's license to XEROX. Within 60 days following execution of a license agreement subject to this Paragraph IVC(9), XEROX shall submit to the Commission a copy thereof in camera.

D. Reasonable provisions may be made for the retention of books and records and for periodic royalty reports by the licensee to the Manager of Patent Licensing of the licensor, and for inspection of such books and records by an independent auditor or any other person reasonably acceptable to both the licensor and the licensee who shall report to said Manager only the amount of the royalty due and payable. The Manager of Patent Licensing of the licensor shall not disclose the content of said periodic royalty reports to any director, officer, employee, agent or representative of the licensor other than the members of his staff and employees necessarily involved in recording and depositing checks in a routine manner, who shall be similarly bound, unless the royalty owed is not timely paid. In the event that the licensor does not have a Manager of Patent Licensing, a mutually agreeable employee of the licensor shall be designated in his stead.

E. Notwithstanding any other provision of this order, any party taking a sublicense under the terms of this order may be required to reimburse the sublicensor for any payments it is legally required to make and does make to the original licensor on account of activities of the sublicensee under any sublicense granted pursuant hereto.

F. Reasonable provisions may be made for cancellation of the license granted to the licensee upon failure of the licensee to make the reports, pay the royalties, or permit the inspection of his books and records as hereinbefore provided, and, upon a wrongful act of the LICENSEE respecting the restrictions on use or disclosure of KNOW-HOW contained in Paragraph VII of this order, for XEROX to apply to the Commission for leave to cancel said license, in which event the decision of the Commission shall be final and non-appealable by either XEROX or the LICENSEE.

G. The license may be non-transferable.

H. The license must provide that the licensee may cancel the license in whole or as to any specified PATENTS at any time by giving 30 days notice in writing to the licensor; however, the licensor shall have the option to continue in effect any right granted to the licensor pursuant to Paragraph IVC of this order.

I. The license must provide for the arbitration specified in Paragraph VIII of this order and for suspension thereof pursuant to Paragraph VIII C of this order.

J. In granting a license pursuant to Paragraph II of this order, there shall be no discrimination by XEROX, RANK XEROX, FUJI XEROX or any PERSON in the royalty charged as among royalty-paying LICENSEES who procure the same rights under the same PATENTS; but nothing herein contained shall prevent XEROX, RANK XEROX, FUJI

XEROX or any PERSON from negotiating non-exclusive licenses and cross-licenses outside the terms (except Paragraph IVC(9) of this order) of this order with anyone who so elects.

V

It is further ordered, That nothing herein shall be deemed to prevent any LICENSEE or applicant for a license from attacking in any proceeding or controversy the validity, scope or enforceability of any PRESENT or FUTURE PATENT, nor shall this order be construed as imputing any validity, enforceability or value to any such PATENT.

VI

It is further ordered, That XEROX shall allow each PERSON who is a licensee of a XEROX PATENT on the date of issuance of this order to obtain a license pursuant to the terms of this order; however, XEROX, RANK XEROX and FUJI XEROX shall have the right to continue in effect any industrial property rights under the terms previously granted to XEROX, RANK XEROX or FUJI XEROX by the licensee, and such licensee shall have the right to continue in effect any industrial property rights under the terms previously granted to the licensee by XEROX, RANK XEROX or FUJI XEROX.

VII

It is further ordered, That:

A. During the period ending five years after the date of issuance of this order, XEROX shall make available to LICENSEES of United States ORDER PATENTS under a license pursuant to the terms of this order who make written application therefore all KNOW-HOW (1) in existence on the date of issuance of this order or (2) made available to any other UNITED STATES manufacturer (except a supplier to XEROX) or UNITED STATES marketer of OFFICE COPIER PRODUCTS for use in connection with such PRODUCTS during the five year period. The delivery of the KNOW-HOW requested shall begin within 30 days and shall be completed within 120 days after the initial application therefor is received by XEROX; the response to subsequent requests shall be completed within a reasonable period of time. Such KNOW-HOW shall be of such a nature as to enable one skilled in manufacturing electro-mechanical office machinery and in the technologies embodied in OFFICE COPIER PRODUCTS or comparable technologies to manufacture, refurbish, recondition and service Xerox Corporation's OFFICE COPIER PRODUCTS. Upon written application, XEROX shall provide written clarification respecting such KNOW-HOW where such clarification is reasonably necessary. XEROX may make a reasonable charge for the cost of collecting and duplicating KNOW-HOW which it discloses and for the time spent in clarification. At the option of such LICENSEE, XEROX shall disclose KNOW-HOW pertaining to photosensitive elements, supplies, raw materials and particular OFFICE COPIER models and shall limit its charge to such KNOW-HOW. XEROX may require the LICENSEE to agree that all

RULES AND REGULATIONS

KNOW-HOW disclosed to the LICENSEE by XEROX shall be considered a XEROX trade secret and to undertake, in good faith, to use the KNOW-HOW only in connection with the manufacture in the UNITED STATES of OFFICE COPIER PRODUCTS by or for the LICENSEE and not to disclose or permit the disclosure of the KNOW-HOW to anyone other than a supplier who is or will be manufacturing in the UNITED STATES and who enters into a similar agreement and undertaking respecting disclosure and use, unless the LICENSEE can establish that such KNOW-HOW (1) was previously known to the LICENSEE prior to the disclosure by XEROX, or (2) is or becomes part of the public domain through no wrongful act of LICENSEE, or (3) is subsequently otherwise legally acquired by LICENSEE, or (4) was or is disclosed by XEROX to third parties on non-confidential basis.

B. Commencing 120 days after the date of issuance of this order XEROX shall make available to KNOW-HOW licensees a list of the PERSONS whose KNOW-HOW XEROX claims to be prohibited from disclosing. Such list shall be subject to the restrictions on use and disclosure of KNOW-HOW provided in this Paragraph VII. XEROX need not make KNOW-HOW available to IBM.

VIII

It is further ordered, That:

A. Upon receipt of a written application for a PATENT license or for a PATENT license and disclosure of KNOW-HOW under the terms of this order, XEROX shall advise the applicant in writing of the terms of such license and/or KNOW-HOW disclosure. If a dispute arises between XEROX and a LICENSEE or applicant regarding their respective rights under this order (except where certain matters are specifically referable to the Commission as provided in Paragraph IVF of this order), and if the parties to the dispute are unable to resolve it within 90 days after the existence of such dispute is communicated in writing to XEROX or to the LICENSEE or applicant, the dispute shall be determined by arbitration pursuant to this Paragraph VIII. Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph V of this order, no dispute between XEROX and a LICENSEE or applicant with respect to the validity, enforceability, infringement or scope of any PATENT shall be subject to arbitration pursuant to this order.

B. Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties, arbitration shall be held at a location in the UNITED STATES designated by the LICENSEE or applicant and in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. The award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both parties. The arbitrator shall, upon a proper showing, issue protective orders and/or receive evidence in camera in the same manner as an Administrative Law Judge of the Federal Trade Commission.

C. Within 10 days after the initiation of arbitration, XEROX shall notify the Commission of the parties to the arbitration, the name of the arbitrator, and the nature of the dispute. XEROX shall notify the Commission of the dates of arbitration hearings and other arbitration proceedings, if any, as soon as possible. Copies of all papers in the nature of pleadings shall be served upon the Commission, and the Commission or its designee shall have the right to attend any arbitration proceeding. The Commission may, in its sole discretion, at any time before evidence has been submitted, suspend the provisions of this Paragraph VIII respecting arbitration and itself resolve any or all disputes subject thereto. The Commission will not assert any claim that XEROX has violated this order with respect to the subject matter of the arbitration where XEROX has complied with the award of the arbitrator.

D. Pending the completion of any negotiation, arbitration or Commission action respecting a dispute subject to this Paragraph VIII, XEROX and the applicant shall enter into a license, and XEROX shall make disclosure of KNOW-HOW, pursuant to the terms of this order with respect to the matters not in dispute. Upon conclusion of any negotiation, arbitration or Commission action, the disputed license or KNOW-HOW disclosure may provide for such adjustments as the parties agree to or as the arbitrator or Commission, as the case may be, deems appropriate.

IX

It is further ordered, That for the period ending six years after the date of issuance of this order, XEROX shall make available (a) English language translations of all ORDER PATENTS issued after the date of issuance of this order to XEROX, RANK XEROX, and FUJI XEROX by France, The Federal Republic of Germany, Japan, and The Netherlands, and (b) copies of all English language CORRESPONDING PATENTS at a reasonable charge not to exceed the cost of reproduction and, if the translation is made at the instance of the requesting PERSON, the cost of translation.

X

It is further ordered, That for the period ending 10 years after the date of issuance of this order, XEROX shall not, directly or indirectly, acquire from any PERSON (including The Rank Organisation Limited and Fuji Photo Film Co., Ltd.) any exclusive rights, whether by license or otherwise to any PATENTS or know-how for use in OFFICE COPIER PRODUCTS except those (a) resulting from the work of XEROX, RANK XEROX or FUJI XEROX employees, XEROX, RANK XEROX or FUJI XEROX consultants, or research organizations doing sponsored research for XEROX, RANK XEROX or FUJI XEROX, or (b) under which XEROX grants or causes to be granted to any PERSON making written application a non-exclusive, royalty-free, unrestricted license to make, have made, use or vend OFFICE COPIER PRODUCTS under such PATENT or know-how. Any exclusive rights acquired by XEROX in accordance with part (a) of this Paragraph X shall be on such terms as will permit XEROX to comply with the licensing provisions of Paragraph II of this order. This Paragraph X shall not apply to any acquisition or exclusive license of a FOREIGN PATENT or of the right to use the know-how in a foreign country by RANK XEROX or FUJI XEROX.

XI

It is further ordered, That XEROX shall not dispose or permit the disposition of any PATENTS or rights thereunder so as to deprive it of the power to grant or cause to be granted the licenses required by this order.

XII

It is further ordered, That for the period ending 10 years after the date of issuance of this order XEROX shall not, directly or indirectly, acquire any interest in a PERSON (including The Rank Organisation Limited and Fuji Photo Film Co., Ltd.) engaged in the manufacture, sale, lease or development of OFFICE COPIERS, or toner, developer, paper or photosensitive elements used in OFFICE COPIERS or form a joint venture involving any such products with any such PERSON (except The Rank Organisation Limited or Fuji Photo Film Co., Ltd. so long as either is a party to a joint venture with XEROX or RANK XEROX relating to OFFICE COPIER PRODUCTS). This Paragraph shall not apply (1) to the acquisition by XEROX of an interest in or joint venture with any PERSON in which at the time of the acquisition or joint venture it had a stock interest, other than a PERSON in which XEROX had such an interest by reason of an investment in employee funds such as pension or retirement plans (XEROX shall promptly file with the Commission a list of the PERSONS in which it has a stock interest as of the date of issuance of this order and to which this exception is to apply. Said list shall be updated as part of the annual compliance reports required by Paragraph XIX of this order.), or (2) to any acquisition by RANK XEROX or FUJI XEROX of a PERSON not engaged in the manufacture, sale, lease or development of OFFICE COPIERS but who is engaged in the manufacture, sale, lease or development, solely outside of the UNITED STATES, of toner, developer, paper or photosensitive elements used in OFFICE COPIERS, or to the formation of a joint venture by RANK XEROX or FUJI XEROX involving any such products with any such PERSON, or (3) to a joint venture involving new capacity for the production of paper with a PERSON other than one engaged in the manufacture, sale, lease or development of OFFICE COPIERS, or toner, developer or photosensitive elements used in OFFICE COPIERS, or (4) to the acquisition by XEROX of an interest in any PERSON the sole purpose of which is an investment in employee funds such as pension or retirement plans. Such acquisitions, however, shall not be deemed immune or exempt from require suppliers of toner or developer expiration of all FUTURE PATENTS, not be deemed immune or exempt from the provisions of the antitrust laws (including the Federal Trade Commission Act) by reason of anything contained in this order.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

XIII

It is further ordered. That during the period ending 10 years after the date of issuance of this order, XEROX shall not, directly or indirectly, make contracts in the UNITED STATES restricting employees working in its OFFICE COPIER PRODUCTS business from in the future working for any other PERSON, provided that XEROX may make contracts which prohibit the use or disclosure of trade secrets and confidential information as prohibited by XEROX' present form of "Proprietary Information and Conflict of Interest Agreement" which has been submitted to the Commission.

XIV

It is further ordered. That during the period commencing on a date not later than nine months after the date of issuance of this order and ending 5 years after said commencement date, XEROX shall not, directly or indirectly, utilize in the UNITED STATES any price plan for the sale or lease of an OFFICE COPIER which depends upon the customer purchasing or leasing one or more additional OFFICE COPIERS of a different model. Any minimum qualifying level for a pricing plan or price schedule respecting any OFFICE COPIER shall be based solely on volume, revenues, number of OFFICE COPIERS, or the like of the same model.

XV

It is further ordered. That:

A. During the period ending 10 years after the date of issuance of this order, XEROX shall, in addition to instructing its employees in the UNITED STATES not to comment on the quality of competitive toner or developer, place a notice in a location conspicuous to the key operator on each OFFICE COPIER sold or leased by it in the UNITED STATES stating the following: "Xerox Corporation manufactures and distributes toner and developer for use in this machine. Other suppliers may also provide toner and developer for this machine. It may be necessary to adjust the machine to accommodate toner or developer which is provided by either XEROX or any other supplier."

B. In the event that XEROX shall publish reasonable specifications for the toner and developer used in a particular machine, XEROX (1) may include the following additional statement in the aforementioned notice: "The toner and developer used in this machine must comply with specifications published by Xerox Corporation"; (2) shall promptly notify all suppliers of toner and developer, who request such notification, of any changes in such specifications, and shall promptly notify a supplier when his toner or developer does not comply with such specifications in a letter signed by an officer of XEROX, and (3) may not require suppliers of toner or developer for XEROX' OFFICE COPIERS to provide to XEROX' customers a certification that the toner or developer supplied by them meets such specifications.

C. XEROX shall promptly notify all suppliers of toner and developer, who request such notification, of changes in XEROX OFFICE COPIERS which may affect the useability of the toner and developer in such OFFICE COPIERS.

D. Nothing herein contained shall prevent XEROX from advising a customer, in a letter signed by an officer of XEROX, that a non-XEROX toner or developer is not useable in a particular XEROX OFFICE COPIER, provided that XEROX simultaneously advises the supplier of such toner or developer in a letter signed by an officer of XEROX, that (1) in the opinion of XEROX, the supplier's toner or developer is not useable in a particular OFFICE COPIER model, and (2) disputes regarding the useability of the toner and developer are subject to arbitration pursuant to this order. Disputes regarding the useability of non-XEROX toner and developer or the reasonableness of XEROX specifications shall be subject to arbitration in accordance with Paragraph VIII (b) and (c) of this order.

E. XEROX may not, directly or indirectly, require in the UNITED STATES that it be the sole supplier of toner or developer for leased or sold OFFICE COPIERS; however, it may impose such a requirement with respect to a new model during the six months from the date such model first becomes COMMERCIALY AVAILABLE. For purposes of this Paragraph XV, "new model" includes collectively the basic OFFICE COPIER model and all subsequent models not embodying material variations in the xerographic processor thereof.

XVI

It is further ordered. That during the period ending 10 years after the date of issuance of this order, (1) XEROX shall not in the UNITED STATES take orders or announce that it will take orders for the sale or lease of an OFFICE COPIER more than three months prior to the time when it is reasonably expected to be COMMERCIALY AVAILABLE, (2) XEROX shall not promote any new OFFICE COPIER in any area of the United States more than three months prior to the time that XEROX reasonably expects such new OFFICE COPIER to be first COMMERCIALY AVAILABLE in that area except for national advertising which includes a statement that the model is available only in the areas where XEROX reasonably expects such model to be COMMERCIALY AVAILABLE, and (3) at the time XEROX announces that it will take orders for the lease of an OFFICE COPIER in the United States, it shall also announce the selling price of such OFFICE COPIER.

XVII

It is further ordered. That within 30 days after the date of issuance of this order and annually thereafter until the expiration of all FUTURE PATENTS, XEROX shall submit for publication in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent Office a notice: (1) identifying by number, title, date of issue and category of subject matter (to an extent acceptable to the Commission) all United States PATENTS which it is empowered to license together with all FOREIGN PATENTS based on the patent application from which each United States PATENT originates; (2) stating that XEROX shall grant licenses under (a) its ORDER PATENTS to make, have made, use and vend OFFICE COPIER PRODUCTS under the terms of this order, and (b) patents required to be licensed pursuant to the terms of Paragraph X of this order, if any; (3) stating that XEROX shall disclose KNOW-HOW to a licensee of its United States ORDER PATENTS for use in connection with the manufacture of OFFICE COPIER PRODUCTS in the UNITED STATES under the terms of this order; and (4) stating that a copy of this order and a list of PATENTS licensed to XEROX which are subject to the provisions of Paragraph II and IVC(9) of this order, if any, are available from XEROX upon written request. Beginning 30 days following the date of issuance of this order, and until the expiration of all XEROX FUTURE PATENTS, XEROX shall send a copy of this order and of the current edition of such notice to each person who inquires as to the availability of a license for OFFICE COPIER PRODUCTS, or to whom XEROX has offered such a license at any time after January 1, 1970.

XVIII

It is further ordered. That XEROX notify the Commission at least 30 days prior to any proposed change in the respondent, RANK XEROX or FUJI XEROX which may affect compliance obligations arising out of this order, such as dissolution, assignment or sale resulting in the emergence of a successor corporation, the creation or dissolution of subsidiaries or any other such change.

XIX

It is further ordered. That XEROX shall file with the Commission reports, in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it intends to comply, is complying, and has complied with this order. Said reports shall be filed 60 days and 180 days after the date of issuance of this order, and yearly thereafter on the anniversary date of the order during the period in which XEROX has obligations under this order, and shall contain such information and documents as are requested by the Bureau of Competition or the Commission relating to compliance with this order.

With Commissioner Nye not participating the Decision and Order was issued by the Commission July 29, 1975.

proposed rules

This section of the FEDERAL REGISTER contains notices to the public of the proposed issuance of rules and regulations. The purpose of these notices is to give interested persons an opportunity to participate in the rule making prior to the adoption of the final rules.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Bureau of the Census

[15 CFR Part 80]

FURNISHING PERSONAL CENSUS DATA FROM CENSUS OF POPULATION SCHEDULES

Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

Title 13, United States Code, section 9, requires census of population records held by the Department of Commerce from the 1900 census and each decennial census thereafter to be maintained in confidence, except that section 8 provides authority to furnish data from such censuses for genealogical and other proper purposes.

These proposed rules set forth the procedures to be followed to obtain data from decennial census of population records, and they are issued under the authority of section 8 of title 13, United States Code, section 301 of title 5, United States Code, and Department of Commerce Organization Order No. 35-2A and 35-2B.

These rules do not fall within the criteria set forth in the Department Administrative Order relating to Inflationary Impact Statements required by Office of Management and Budget Circular No. A-107.

Interested parties have until October 14, 1975 within which to submit comments which will be considered before final action is taken on these proposed rules. Comments should be addressed to: Office of the Legal Adviser, Bureau of the Census, Room 3039, Federal Building 3, Suitland, Maryland 20233.

Copies of all written comments will be available for examination by interested persons at the above address during and after the 30-day period. The proposed rules may be changed in light of the comments received.

In consideration of the above, a new part 80 of title 15, Code of Federal Regulations is proposed as set forth below.

PART 80—FURNISHING PERSONAL CENSUS DATA FROM THE 1900 AND SUBSEQUENT DECENNIAL CENSUSES OF POPULATION

- Sec.
- 80.1 General requirements.
  - 80.2 Rules pertaining to records of the living.
  - 80.3 Rules applicable to deceased persons and estates.
  - 80.4 Signatures of persons unable to sign their name.
  - 80.5 Detrimental use of information.
  - 80.6 False statements.

AUTHORITY: Sec. 1, Pub. L. 83-1158, 68 Stat. 1013 (13 U.S.C. 8).

§ 80.1 General requirements.

(a) Data from records of decennial census of population questionnaires pertaining to an individual will be released only in accordance with these rules.

(b) Census information contains only the responses recorded by the Census enumerator; no changes of any of these entries have been or can be made.

(c) Requests for information from decennial census of population records (herein "Census information") should be made on Form BC-600, which is available from offices of the Bureau of the Census at Suitland, Maryland 20233 and Pittsburgh, Kansas 66762, all county court-houses, Social Security field offices, and Immigration and Naturalization Service offices.

(1) A letter request without Form BC-600 will be accepted only if it contains the information necessary to complete a Form BC-600.

(2) No application will be processed without payment of the required fee as set forth in § 50.5 of title 15, CFR.

(d) The Bureau may require verification of the identity of the applicant requesting Census information and it may require the applicant to submit the following notarized statement:

I, _____, do hereby certify that I am the individual to whom the requested record pertains or that I am within the class of persons authorized to act on his behalf in accordance with 15 C.F.R., Part 80.

Signature _____

Date _____

In the County of _____

State of _____

On this _____ day of _____, 19____,

_____ who is personally

(name of individual) known to me, did appear before me and sign the above certificate.

(S) My commission expires _____

(e) Except as otherwise provided, Census information will be provided only to the individual to whom the record pertains. It will include the names of the subject and the head of the household, the relationship of the subject to the head of the household, and the subject's age and birthplace.

(f) Similar Census information pertaining to other members of a household will be furnished only upon written authorization of the individual whose record is requested, except as provided in § 80.3.

(g) Census information may be provided to others only upon signed request by an individual entitled to receive the information which indicates the person and address to which the information is to be sent.

§ 80.2 Rules pertaining to records of the living.

(a) An individual who has attained age 18 may request his or her own Census information.

(b) A parent may request Census information for and in behalf of a child who has not reached age 18. The request must be signed by one of the parents.

(c) A legal guardian may obtain Census information relating to a ward by submitting a certified copy of the order of guardianship appointment.

§ 80.3 Rules applicable to deceased persons and estates.

(a) Census information relating to a deceased person may be released only to a parent, child, grandchild, brother, sister, spouse, insurance beneficiary, or the executor or administrator of a deceased person's estate. The request must be signed by a person entitled to receive the information as provided herein, state the relationship of the applicant to the deceased, and include a certified copy of the death certificate or other adequate proof of death. The request of an executor or administrator must be accompanied by a certified copy of the court order of appointment.

(b) Except for a spouse, a person related to the deceased person through marriage, such as an in-law relationship, is not eligible to request Census information on the deceased, whether or not the applicant was a member of the household of the deceased.

§ 80.4 Signature of persons unable to sign their name.

A person requesting Census information who is unable to sign his or her name shall make an "X" mark where signature is required, and the mark must be witnessed by two persons who know the applicant. They must also sign the application certifying the applicant's identity. In the case of such persons who are unable to make an "X" mark, Census information can be released upon receipt of a physician's sworn statement verifying the disability and the written request of a parent, brother, sister, child or a spouse.

§ 80.5 Detrimental use of information.

Section 8 of title 13, United States Code, requires that, "In no case shall information furnished under the authority of this section be used to the detriment of the persons to whom such information relates."

§ 59.6 False statements.

Any false statement or forgery on the application or supporting papers required to obtain Census information is punishable by a fine and/or imprisonment pursuant to section 1001 of title 18 of the United States Code.

Dated: September 4, 1975.

[CGD 75-123]

CIVIL PENALTY PROCEDURES

Final Agency Action

The Coast Guard is considering amending the procedure for implementing the civil penalty provisions of all statutes which the Coast Guard enforces by vesting authority for final agency action in the local District Commander. This is a change from the present procedure under which an appeal from a civil penalty assessment may be made to the Commandant of the Coast Guard.

The present procedure for handling civil penalties creates needless paperwork to the detriment of the person charged and the Government. Persons charged have had to expend considerable time, effort, and expense to exhaust administrative remedies. The Government has expended time and expense in support of this system. This change will significantly reduce paperwork, save time, and reduce administrative expense while maintaining a fair and reasonable civil penalty program effectuated by District Commanders and their maritime safety, port safety, boating safety, and legal staffs.

Interested persons may participate in this proposed rulemaking by submitting written data, views, or arguments to the Executive Secretary, Marine Safety Council (G-CMC/82), Room 8234, U.S. Coast Guard Headquarters, 400 Seventh Street, SW, Washington, D.C. 20590. Each person or organization submitting a comment should include his name and address, identify this notice (CGD 75-123), and give reasons for any recommendations. Comments received before October 27, 1975, will be considered before final action is taken on this proposal. Copies of all written comments received will be available for examination by interested persons in room 8234, Department of Transportation, Nassif Building, 400 Seventh Street, SW, Washington, D.C. This proposal may be changed in light of the comments received.

No hearing is contemplated, but one may be held at a time and place set in a later notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, if requested by an interested person desiring an opportunity to comment orally at a public hearing and raising a genuine issue.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is proposed to amend 33 CFR Part 1, as follows:

§ 1.07-9 [Amended]

1. Paragraph (d) of § 1.07-9 is deleted.
2. Paragraph (c) of § 1.07-13 is revised to read as follows:

§ 1.07-13 Payment and collection of civil penalties.

(c) If the assessed or mitigated amount of a civil penalty is not paid within 30 days of receipt of a notice of assessment or mitigation or within such longer period as may be allowed in the notice, the Coast Guard may initiate appropriate legal proceedings to collect the penalty.

[Airspace Docket No. 75-WE-20]

DESIGNATION OF TEMPORARY RESTRICTED AREAS

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) is considering amendments to Parts 71 and 73 of the Federal Aviation Regulations that would designate temporary restricted areas in the vicinity of Nellis AFB, Nev., and Edwards AFB/NAS China Lake, Calif., to contain a joint military training exercise, BOLD EAGLE 76 scheduled from 0800 PST, February 4, 1976, through 1800 PST, February 17, 1976. The restricted areas would also be included in the continental control area for the duration of their time of designation.

Interested persons may participate in the proposed rule making by submitting such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should identify the airspace docket number and be submitted in triplicate to the Director, Western Region, Attention: Chief, Air Traffic Division, Federal Aviation Administration, 15000 Aviation Boulevard, P.O. Box 92997, Worldway Postal Center, Los Angeles, Calif. 90099. All communications received on or before October 14, 1975 will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendments. The proposals contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

An official docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Federal Aviation Administration, Office of the Chief Counsel, Attention: Rules Docket, AGC-24, 800 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20591. An informal docket also will be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Division Chief.

The proposed amendments would designate the following restricted areas and include them in the continental control area for the duration of their times of designation.

Exercise BOLD EAGLE 76 will train active and reserve component forces in all phases of joint ground and air operations. The temporary restricted areas are required to accommodate the extensive air operations associated with the exercise. Approximately 196 tactical fighter aircraft, 13 reconnaissance, 10 airlift, 150 rotary wing and 50 other fixed wing aircraft would be involved. The aircraft would be conducting close air support, interdiction, air defense/counter air, reconnaissance, drone launch and recovery, aerial resupply and electronic warfare missions which would require air maneuvering through a wide range of airspeeds and altitudes. Total air traffic associated with the exercise is expected to exceed 500 sorties per day.

A Tactical Air Control System (TACS) would be established for the control of exercise aircraft within designated airspace. Nonparticipating aircraft would be allowed penetration of and operations within the designated exercise airspace after coordination with the appropriate TACS facility. They should encounter little or no delay in obtaining clearance.

Leased lines of communications would be installed with appropriate FAA facilities in order to accomplish the orderly and safe ingress/egress of both exercise air traffic and coordinated movement of nonexercise air traffic within and proceeding in and out of the exercise areas. A wide area telecommunications system (WATS) reverse charge telephone number would be provided so that nonparticipating pilots can obtain clearances on an individual basis without charge to themselves. The number would be published in Part 3 of the Airman's Information Manual (AIM) effective during the exercise period.

Except for approved arrivals and departures at operating bases, exercise aircraft will avoid overflight of inhabited areas. The users of the temporary restricted areas understand that they are also obligated to observe the minimum safe altitudes prescribed in § 91.79 of the Federal Aviation Regulations that are applicable for the protection of persons and property on the surface. All close air support training will be conducted in uninhabited maneuver areas and the permanent restricted areas, R-2502 and R-2524.

These amendments are proposed under the authority of Sec. 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1348 (a)) and Sec. 6(c) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)).

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

[40 CFR Part 52]

COMMONWEALTH OF PUERTO RICO

Approval and Promulgation of Implementation Plans

On January 3, 1975, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico submitted to the Regional Administrator a proposed revision to Article 6 of the Puerto Rico Regulation for the Control of Atmospheric Pollution. This regulation revises the control strategy for sulfur oxides in Puerto Rico by assigning a maximum allowable sulfur content, by weight, to each source having a rated heat input capacity which is greater than 8 million Btu/hr. The sulfur contents are chosen such that the resulting ambient air quality concentrations predicted by means of a specified dispersion model are below the national ambient air quality standards for sulfur oxides.

The computer printouts initially submitted with the plan revision request for the area of Ensenada which is part of the Aguada air basin and Barceloneta showed that the Central Guanica and Pfizer plants in these areas had been modeled without having included the impact of terrain on the predicted sulfur dioxide concentrations. On June 2, 1975, the Executive Director of EQB submitted the predicted sulfur dioxide concentrations for these areas after terrain was included. The calculations showed that with the sulfur in fuel limitations assigned in Appendix B contravention of the maximum 24-hour and annual average national standards for sulfur oxides resulted. Consequently, in a previous issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER, the Administrator is proposing maximum fuel limitation which had been assigned to these sources. To correct the deficiencies with regard to these sources, the Administrator is proposing maximum sulfur in fuel limitations of 0.4 percent and 0.5 percent, by weight, for the Central Guanica plant and Pfizer unit #15, respectively. The assignment of these sulfur in fuel limitations will ensure that national standards for sulfur oxides will not be contravened in the Aguada and Barceloneta air basins.

Public hearings on this proposed rulemaking will be held not less than 30 days after publication of this notice. Notice of the times, dates and locations of the voting securities of an issuer, subject to or scheme to evade the reporting require-hearings will be published in a subsequent issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Interested persons may participate in this rulemaking by submitting written comments, preferably in triplicate, to the Regional Administrator, EPA, Region II, 26 Federal Plaza, New York, New York 10007. Receipt of comments will be acknowledged. Comments receive will be available for public inspection during normal business hours at the EPA Region II Office, 26 Federal Plaza, New York, New York, Room 907 and at other locations to be announced in Puerto Rico. This notice of proposed rulemaking is issued under the authority of section 110 (c) of the Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. 1857c-5(c)).

Dated: September 4, 1975.

JOHN QUARLES,
Acting Administrator.

It is proposed to amend Part 52 of Chapter I, Title 40 Code of Federal Regulations as follows:

Subpart BBB—Puerto Rico

Section 52.2729 is amended by adding a new paragraph (e) as follows:

§ 52.2729 Control strategy and regulations: Sulfur oxides.

(e) Regulation for control of sulfur compound emissions. (1) On and after the effective date of this paragraph, the maximum allowable sulfur in fuel limitation, by weight, for Pfizer unit #15 in the Barceloneta air basin shall be 0.5 percent.

(2) On and after the effective date of this paragraph, the maximum allowable sulfur in fuel limitation, by weight, for the Central Guayama facility in the Aguada air basin shall be 0.4 percent.

(3) All other provisions of Article 6 of the Puerto Rico Regulation for Control of Atmospheric Pollution shall remain applicable to the sources referenced in paragraph (e) (1) and (2) of this section.

DISCLOSURE OF CORPORATE OWNERSHIP

Rules, Schedules, and Reporting and Registration Forms

The Commission today proposed rules and amendments to its rules, schedules, and reporting and registration forms relating to the disclosure of beneficial ownership for purposes of: Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act); the proxy rules and certain registration and reporting forms under the Exchange Act, certain registration forms under the Securities Act of 1933 (Securities Act) and Form U5S (17 CFR 259.55) under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (Holding Company Act). In addition, proposals would require disclosure in proxy statements and certain reporting forms and registration statements of the 30 largest record holders of any class of voting securities and of the associated underlying voting authority.

The purpose of the proposals is to make more meaningful and, in some cases, to clarify, disclosure of beneficial ownership and holders of record of securities of an issuer. The proposed rules and amendments under sections 13 and 14 of the Exchange Act would (1) provide standards for determination of beneficial ownership for purposes of sections 13(d) and 14(d); (2) require more disclosure in Schedule 13D (17 CFR 240.13d-101) about the nature of the beneficial ownership and about other beneficial owners of the securities; (3) require disclosure in Schedule 13D of record holders of the securities reported on; (4) permit filing of one Schedule 13D reporting different owners of the same securities; (5) deem certain persons who become beneficial owners of securities to have acquired such securities for purposes of Section 13(d) (1); (6) provide a short form acquisition notice, Form 13D-5, to be used by certain persons who acquire securities in the ordinary course of their business and not for purposes of control; and (7) provide an exemption from the filing requirements of Section 13(d) (1) for certain underwriters who acquire securities in the ordinary course of a firm commitment underwriting.

The proposed amendments to the various registration and reporting forms requiring disclosure of principal security holders as well as to Schedule 14A, Information Required in Proxy Statement (17 CFR 240.14a-101), would require disclosure, to the extent known by the issuer, of (1) beneficial owners of more than five percent of any class of voting securities and the nature of their ownership; (2) the aggregate amount and nature of beneficial ownership by officers and directors of each class of voting securities of the issuer; and (3) the 30 largest holders of record of each class of voting securities (names of persons holding less than 1/10 of 1 percent of the outstanding securities of the class need not be included) and their voting authority and underlying voting authority, if known. The proposed rule relating to who is a beneficial owner for purposes of section 13(d) is proposed to be adopted as an instruction to the proposed item relating to beneficial ownership, to Schedule 14B under the proxy rules, and to Form U5S under the Holding Company Act which requires disclosure of beneficial owners of more than one percent of any class of voting securities.

This release contains a general description of the background, purpose and general effect of the proposals to assist in a better understanding of their provisions. A brief synopsis is also included. However, attention is directed to the proposals themselves for a more complete understanding.

BACKGROUND

Since the adoption of sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act in 1968, as amended, requiring disclosure by persons acquiring beneficial ownership of more than five percent of certain classes of securities of an issuer, there have been questions raised about the standards to be applied for determination of beneficial ownership for purposes of the reporting requirements of sections 13(d) and 14(d). The need for improved disclosure in this area has become more apparent recently because of increased public interest in the identity and nationality of any person who has the power to influence or effect changes in the control of corporations.

In the fall of 1974, the Commission conducted hearings concerning beneficial ownership and related matters. Letters of comment from interested persons and written and oral testimony from witnesses at the hearings were received on, among other things, the questions whether the term "beneficial owner" should be defined and, if so, how, and whether there should be additional disclosure by beneficial owners and by companies about principal owners of their securities.

On the basis of the record of the Beneficial Ownership Hearings, Congressional concern with full disclosure in this area and the Commission's experience in administering the existing rules, the Commission is proposing rules intended to make more meaningful and to clarify disclosure concerning beneficial owners of securities of public companies. The Commission is of the view that these proposals, if adopted, would carry out the Congressional purpose for enacting section 13(d). In addition to disclosure about beneficial owners, the Commission is also proposing disclosure of the 30 largest record holders of each class of voting securities of an issuer, subject to a de minimis exception. This proposal reflects some of the recommendations of the Interagency Steering Committee on Uniform Corporate Reporting which recommended that agencies such as the Commission, the Civil Aeronautics Board, the Federal Communications Commission and the Interstate Commerce Commission require disclosure of, among other things, the 30 largest record holders and of their voting power with regard to issuers subject to the authority of such agencies.

See footnotes on pages 42216 and 42217.

PROPOSED RULES

SYNOPSIS OF PROPOSALS

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO RULE 13D-1: FILING OF SCHEDULE 13D

The proposed standards for determination of beneficial ownership (see discussion of proposed Rule 13d-3 below) could result in there being more than one beneficial owner of the same securities. This is particularly true with regard to the attribution provisions of proposed Rule 13d-3(a) which deem family members sharing the same home to be the beneficial owners of any securities held by any of them and where the incidents of ownership are split between several persons. Therefore, it is proposed to amend Rule 13d-1 (17 CFR 240.13d-1) to provide that only one report need be filed to report beneficial ownership of either a family group sharing the same home or of the same securities beneficially owned by different persons. In each case, the report would have to identify the persons who are beneficial owners of the securities and state that it is filed on behalf of all such persons. The proposals allowing for one report relate only to Schedule 13D and section 13(d) (1), not to any short form filings on proposed Form 13D-5.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO RULE 13D-3: DETERMINATION OF BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP

Proposed Rule 13d-3 would provide standards for determining who is a beneficial owner for purposes of deciding who must file the statement required by section 13(d). At present, there is no explicit definition of the term "beneficial owner" for purposes of this section.

Section 13(d) provides that any person who, after acquiring directly or indirectly the beneficial ownership of any equity security of a class which is registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Exchange Act, or any equity security of an insurance company which would have been required to be so registered except for the exemption contained in section 12(g) (2) (G) of the Exchange Act, or any equity security issued by a closed-end investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, is directly or indirectly the beneficial owner of more than five percent of such class must file an acquisition statement with the Commission and send it to the issuer and any exchange on which the securities are traded.

Proposed amendments to Rule 13d-3 would, for purposes of section 13(d), deem any person who directly or indirectly through any contract, arrangement, understanding or relationship, has or shares the power to direct the voting or disposition of a security or who has or shares the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of dividends from or the proceeds of sale of a security to be a beneficial owner of such security. Thus, as a note to the proposed rule points out, there could be more than one beneficial owner of the same securities, for example, the account owner and the broker in a discretionary account. In addition, as another note indicates, all securities beneficially owned by a person would be aggregated in determining how many securities he owned, regardless of the nature of his beneficial ownership. Thus, a person who served as investment adviser to a group of mutual funds and also as adviser to discretionary accounts might be the beneficial owner of the securities held by the funds as well as in the accounts and would have to aggregate the number held in each capacity in determining whether or not he was the beneficial owner of more than five percent of a class.

The proposed rule also provides specifically that certain persons, whether or not they otherwise would come within the definition, would be deemed to be beneficial owners. Thus, proposed Rule 13d-3(a) (1) deems a person to be a beneficial owner of all securities beneficially owned by all individuals who are related by blood, marriage or adoption to such person and who share the same home. In addition, proposed Rule 13d-3(a) (2) incorporates and expands existing Rule 13d-3 (17 CFR 240.13d-3) and deems a person to be the beneficial owner of securities which he has a right to acquire through the exercise of an option, warrant, or right exercisable within 60 days, through the conversion of convertible securities convertible within 60 days, or through the revocation of a trust or similar arrangement. The definition of beneficial owner, although intended to be broad, would not usually include such persons as pledgees pursuant to a bona fide pledge agreement, remaindermen under various trusts or estate arrangements or other persons who have an interest in securities that is subject to a condition occurring over which they have no control. As indicated in the proposed note to Rule 13d-3 (1) (b), if the conditions are within the control of the holder of the right to acquire the securities, the holder would be considered to be the beneficial owner of the securities to which such right related.

The proposed rule contains a specific exclusion for persons who would come within the definition solely because they are members of a national securities exchange that has rules allowing the members to vote securities held of record, without instruction, on certain routine matters.

Although the proposal would provide specific standards for determination of beneficial ownership, the actual determination usually rests on an analysis of the facts and circumstances of each case. It should be noted that if there is a plan or scheme to evade the reporting requirements of section 13(d), a report under section 13(d) (1) would be required.

The proposed rule also provides that any person may expressly declare in any statement filed that the filing of the statement shall not be construed as an admission that the person is the beneficial owner of the securities covered by the statement. This is parallel to the provision in Rule 16a-3 (17 CFR 240.16a-3) under the Exchange Act which allows a similar disavowance in reports filed pursuant to section 16(a). It should be noted, however, that this parallel does not carry over to the definition of beneficial ownership. Since the purposes of section 16 are different from those of sections 13(d) and 14(d), the Commission is not proposing to amend the rules under section 16. The current concept of beneficial ownership for purposes of section 16 would continue to be applicable, as defined and interpreted by the Commission and construed by the federal courts.

PROPOSED RULE 13D-5 AND FORM 13D-5: SHORT FORM ACQUISITION STATEMENT

The proposed definition of beneficial owner includes persons who, although deemed to have beneficial ownership of securities, have acquired the securities in the ordinary course of their business and not with a view toward changing or effecting a change in control of the issuer (for example, an endowment fund). In such cases, filing of a Schedule 13D and prompt amendment of such schedule do not appear to be necessary for the purposes of section 13(d). To alleviate burdens on such persons, Congress specifically provided in section 13(d) (5) that the Commission could permit the filing of a short form acquisition notice in lieu of the more detailed Schedule 13D which, since it is primarily aimed at obtaining information about potential changes in control, calls for specific information about the beneficial owner, his holdings and his plans.

The Commission believes, particularly in light of the proposed definition of "beneficial owner" for purposes of section 13(d), that it is appropriate to propose a short form acquisition notice pursuant to section 13(d) (5). Proposed Rule 13d-5 would make proposed Form 13D-5 available to any registered broker or dealer, insurance company exempted from the Exchange Act pursuant to Section 12(g) (2) (G), bank required to file under section 12(d) of the Exchange Act, registered investment company, registered investment adviser, or employee benefit plan, pension fund or endowment fund that had acquired the beneficial ownership of more than five percent of a class subject to section 13(d) (1), if such person had acquired the securities in the ordinary course of its business and not with the purpose or effect of changing or influencing the control of the issuer nor in connection with, or as a participant, in any transaction having such purpose or effect. This latter standard is the standard set by section 13(d) (5). The short form would be available only to definition of beneficial owner in proposed Rule 13d-3 would be applicable in rethe persons specified since they are the ones who are most likely to have acquired more than a five percent interest in an issuer in the ordinary course of their business.

The proposed short form, Form 13D-5, would require the name and business address of the principal office of the reporting person and the country of which such person is a national; the name of the issuer; the reporting person's business; and the amount and percentage of the class beneficially owned. In addition, any nominees used as record holders and their addresses would have to be identified, and the reporting person would have to represent that the securities were acquired in the ordinary course of business as set forth in section 13(d)(5).

In connection with the proposed short form acquisition notice, the Commission is also proposing a rule relating to the necessity for amendment of such notice. Existing Rule 13d-2 (17 CFR 240.13d-2) requires prompt amendment of an acquisition statement whenever a material change in the facts reported on occurs. The Commission believes it would be unworkable and also unnecessary for the protection of investors to require amendments to the short form notice whenever any material change occurs, since many of the persons filing such a notice would be financial institutions that might have changes occurring frequently in the ordinary course of their businesses. Therefore the Commission is proposing Rule 13d-5(b) which would, notwithstanding Rule 13d-2, require that an amendment to the short form notice reflecting material changes as of the end of the quarter be filed within ten days of the end of each calendar quarter; one type of material change that would have to be reported would be a decrease to five percent or less in the percent of the class owned. However, as a proposed note indicates, once an amendment to the short form notice has been filed reflecting ownership of five percent or less, no additional filing would be required unless the person thereafter acquired securities resulting in ownership of more than five percent of the class. To be able to use the quarterly update rather than be subject to Rule 13d-2, the person would have to continue to be eligible to file a short form acquisition notice pursuant to the requirements set forth in proposed Rule 13d-5. If the person ceased to meet such requirements for the short form notice, he would, under proposed Rule 13d-5(c), immediately become subject to Rule 13d-1.

The Commission is of the opinion that the information that would be required in the short form acquisition notice would be sufficient for purposes of section 13(d) so long as the securities were acquired in the ordinary course of business and not for the purpose (nor with the effect of) changing or influencing control of the issuer, nor in connection with any transaction having such purpose or effect. The Commission believes, however, that obtaining the short form information is important even where the object is not control since any large block of securities subject to direction by one person has the potential to be significant in influencing control of the issuer.

The Commission is aware that information obtained in the short form notice may, at some future time, also be required pursuant to new section 13(f) of the Exchange Act.<sup>7</sup> At such time as rules are adopted thereunder, the Commission intends, where appropriate, to revise any rules necessary to avoid duplication of information and unnecessary burdens on institutional holders of securities.

PROPOSED RULE 13D-6: ACQUISITION OF SECURITIES

The Commission is proposing Rule 13d-6 which would deem certain persons who become beneficial owners of securities to have "acquired" them for purposes of section 13(d)(1) of the Exchange Act. Under proposed Rule 13d-6 (a), a person such as a donee, executor, trustee or legatee who becomes a beneficial owner of securities without purchasing them shall be deemed to have "acquired" the securities for purposes of section 13(d)(1).<sup>8</sup> This would make it clear that an acquisition statement would have to be filed by such person if he becomes beneficial owner of more than five percent of a class subject to section 13(d)(1) even though he had not intended, and had taken no action, to become a beneficial owner.

Proposed Rule 13d-6(b) would deem persons who have agreed, whether orally or in writing, to act together for purposes of acquiring, holding or disposing of securities of an issuer to have "acquired," as of the time of the agreement, the securities beneficially owned by each of the persons in the group. This proposal is based in part on the holding of the court in "GAF v. Milstein"<sup>9</sup> where the court decided that, for purposes of section 13(d)(1), it was not necessary for a group to acquire additional securities if their combined holdings, upon formation of the group, were more than five percent of the class.

PROPOSED RULE 13D-7: EXEMPTION FOR CERTAIN UNDERWRITERS

In connection with the proposal to provide a short form for persons who acquire securities in the ordinary course of their business, the Commission is proposing Rule 13d-7 which would provide an exemption from section 13(d)(1) for acquisitions by certain underwriters. Section 13(d)(6)(D) of the Exchange Act provides that the Commission can exempt an acquisition from section 13(d)(1) if it determines that the acquisition was not entered into for the purpose of, and does not have the effect of, changing or influencing the control of the issuer, or is otherwise not comprehended within the purposes of section 13(d)(1).

The Commission believes that an acquisition by an underwriter of securities as part of a good faith firm commitment underwriting where it is anticipated that he will, as part of the distribution, be immediately reselling such securities, is not the type of acquisition that section 13(d)(1) was intended to cover. Proposed Rule 13d-7 would exempt an acquisition of securities by a person in the business of underwriting distributions through his participation in good faith in a firm commitment underwriting. However, the proposed rule would subject such underwriter to section 13(d)(1) if he retains beneficial ownership of the securities for more than 40 days (based on the 40 day period specified in section 4(3) of the Securities Act).

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO SCHEDULE 13D: MORE MEANINGFUL DISCLOSURE OF BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND HOLDERS OF RECORD

Since the proposed concept of beneficial owner may be somewhat broader than the current understanding of the term, the Commission is proposing amendments to the Notes and Items 2, 3, 5 and 6 of Schedule 13D, the acquisition statement, to reflect the proposed definition and to obtain more meaningful information about the beneficial owners and the nature of their ownership. In addition, a proposed paragraph would call for information about any record holder of the securities beneficially owned. Information obtained in the Beneficial Ownership Hearings and experience in this area suggest that other amendments to Schedule 13D may be appropriate; the staff of the Commission is currently considering recommending additional amendments.

Notes. As it now reads, Note B of Schedule 13D (the Notes are proposed to be changed to Instructions) requires that, if a reporting person is a corporation, the information required by Items 2-6 of the Schedule must be included with respect to each officer and director and controlling person of the corporation. The Commission believes that requiring such detailed information about each officer is unnecessarily broad and thus is proposing to limit the requirement to information about each "executive" officer, as defined to include the president, secretary, treasurer, any vice president in charge of a principal business function (such as sales, administration or finance) and any other person who performs similar policy making functions for the corporation. In addition, the Note, proposed Instruction B, would be amended to refer to "affiliate" rather than "controlling person."

The Commission also proposes to add a new Instruction C which would reflect the proposed definition of beneficial owner as it relates to family members sharing the same home. Under the proposed definition, all such persons would be deemed to be beneficial owners of securities owned by any of them; however, proposed Rule 13d-1(c) would allow only one report to be filed on behalf of all such persons. Proposed Instruction C specifies that information called for by Items 2-6 would need to be provided only as to the head of the household and as to each adult member of the household who would be the beneficial owner of the securities in the absence of the special provisions for attribution set forth in Rule 13d-3(a)(1). Thus, information would not have to be provided about any children nor about adults who are deemed to be beneficial owners solely because they share the same home with another beneficial owner.

Item 2. Item 2 of Schedule 13D, "Identity and Background," is proposed to be amended to require, in addition to information about the background of the person filing the Schedule, identification of the country of which such person is a national. The Commission specifically invites comment as to whether disclosure of citizenship would be more appropriate, and, if so, the reasons therefor.

Item 3. Item 3 of Schedule 13D, "Source and amount of funds or other consideration," requires information about the source of funds or other consideration used to acquire the securities reported on, or to be used to acquire additional securities. The Commission is proposing to amend Item 3 by adding a requirement that, if the securities reported on were acquired otherwise than by purchase, the method of acquisition should be described and the person from whom the securities were acquired identified. Thus, if the securities were received as a gift, the name of the donor and the circumstances of the gift would have to be included in the Schedule 13D.

Item 5. The core of disclosure about the securities beneficially owned by the person filing the report is contained in Item 5, "Interest in securities of the issuer." The Commission is proposing to amend existing Item 5 to reflect the broad definition of beneficial owner and to obtain more information relating to the securities owned.

As amended, Item 5 would require a statement of the number and percentage of the class beneficially owned by each of the persons about whom information is required by the Schedule and by each of their affiliates. Existing Item 5 requires information about the ownership of securities by associates, which may be a larger group than "affiliates."<sup>10</sup> In light of the expanded definition of beneficial owner, however, the Commission believes that information need only be furnished about affiliates of the persons reporting. The amended item would also require a description of the nature of each person's beneficial ownership, the names of any persons other than those set forth who share beneficial ownership of a material amount of the securities reported on, information about any transactions in the class of securities effected during the past 60 days by the persons reporting or by executive officers, directors or affiliates of any subsidiaries of a reporting corporation. In addition, the proposed item would require disclosure of any overlapping beneficial ownership so that a fair understanding of the amount of securities actually owned could be achieved from reading the Schedule.

Item 6. The Commission is also proposing to amend Item 6, "Contracts, arrangements or understandings with respect to securities of the issuer," to make clear that disclosure should be made if any of the securities are subject to any contingency that would give the power to direct the voting or disposition of the securities to another person or would give another person the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of the dividends or proceeds from the sale of such securities.

It is also proposed to add a new paragraph to Item 6 requiring disclosure of the record holder of the securities, if different from the person filing the statement. For purposes of this proposed paragraph, the record holder would be the person who is identified as the holder of the securities on the records of security holders maintained by or on behalf of the issuer of the securities. The name and address of the record holder would have to be provided, and if the record holder is a nominee, the name and address of the person employing the nominee would have to be included. For these purposes, where the nominee is the nominee for a clearing agency (such as Cede & Co. for the Depository Trust Company), information would have to be given about the participant in the clearing agency who deposited the securities.

Signature. The signature section of Schedule 13D is proposed to be amended to require that whenever the statement is filed on behalf of more than one person, each person on whose behalf it is filed must sign it, with certain exceptions relating to filings on behalf of a family. This would mean that in the case of a group filing, each person who is a member of the group would have to sign the statement. The existing Schedule provides that if a statement is signed on behalf of a person by an authorized representative, evidence of the representative's authority must be filed with the statement.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO RULE 14D-1 (17 CFR 240.14D-1): DETERMINATION OF BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP

Section 14(d) makes it unlawful for any person to make a tender offer for or a request or invitation for tenders of any class of security described in section 13(d)(1) if after consummation thereof, the person would directly or indirectly be the beneficial owner of more than five percent of the class, unless such person has filed with the Commission a statement of the type required by section 13(d).

In order to make clear that the definition of beneficial ownership for purposes of section 13(d)(1) also applies for purposes of section 14(d)(1), the Commission is proposing Rule 14d-1(g) so stating.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SCHEDULE 14B: DETERMINATION OF BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP

Schedule 14B (17 CFR 240.14a-102) under the Exchange Act must be filed by persons, other than management of an issuer, who solicit proxies in connection with an election contest. Item 3 of the Schedule requires information about shares of the issuer "beneficially owned." The Commission is proposing an instruction to Item 3 that would state that the definition of beneficial owner in proposed Rule 13d-3 would be applicable in responding to the item.

Proposed amendments to Schedule 14A, Forms 10, 10-K, 12 and 12-K under the Exchange Act; to Forms S-1, S-2, S-3, S-11 and 1-A under the Securities Act of 1933; and to Form U5S under the Holding Company Act to require information about security ownership and holdings of principal beneficial owners and management and to require information about the 30 largest security holders of record.

Schedule 14A, Information Required in Proxy Statement (17 CFR 240.14a-101), the Form 10 (17 CFR 249.210) registration statement and the annual report Form 10-K (17 CFR 240.310) under the Exchange Act, as well as Form S-1 (17 CFR 239.11), S-2 (17 CFR 239.12), S-3 (17 CFR 239.13), and S-11 (17 CFR 239.18) registration statement forms and the Form 1-A Notification Statement of Regulation A (17 CFR 239.90) under the Securities Act and the Form U5S (17 CFR 259.55) annual report form under the Holding Company Act require disclosure of the principal security holders, of record and beneficially, of the registrant and, in some instances, of the security holdings of management. Forms 12 (17 CFR 249.212) and 12-K (17 CFR 249.312) under the Exchange Act do not presently require information about principal security holders.

The Commission believes that information about both the record holders and the significant beneficial owners of the securities of the issuer is material to investors since it may be related to the question of who has or can influence control of the issuer. Also, there appears to be little reason to have different disclosure requirements for the various annual report, registration and notification forms, although the proxy statement form should contain more information about management holdings because the proxy statement is directly related to the voting of securities and to election of directors.

The Commission is therefore proposing to amend the above registration, notification, proxy and reporting forms to include an item (referred to for purposes of this release as Item X) calling for disclosure, to the extent known, with respect to (1) beneficial owners of more than five percent of any class of voting securities (one percent in the case of Form U5S); (2) aggregate beneficial ownership by officers and directors; and (3) any contractual agreement that involves a pledge of securities the operation of the terms of which may result in a change of control. Another proposed item (referred to as Item XA for purposes of this release) would require disclosure of the 30 largest holders of record of each class of voting securities subject to a de minimus exception, their voting authority, and certain underlying holders of voting authority, if not the record holder. These items, if adopted, would replace the existing principal security holder item in Schedule 14A and Forms 10, 10-K, S-1, S-2, S-3, S-11, 1-A and U5S, and would be added to Forms 12 any contractual arrangement known to mission also invites comment on the feasibility of such a requirement.

U5S, and would be added to Forms 12 and 12-K. Since information required by Schedule 14A is also required to be included in information statements filed pursuant to section 14(c), no amendment to Schedule 14C (17 CFR 240.14c-101) is necessary.

In some instances, the items would be modified to reflect the purpose and structure of the particular form. The Commission is not publishing the specific items for each form because this would be unnecessarily complex and lengthy and the substance of the proposed items should provide adequate basis for comment.

Item X. The first paragraph of proposed Item X would require the name and address and holdings of any person (including any group) known to the registrant to be, directly or indirectly, the beneficial owner of more than five percent (as opposed to the present ten percent requirement in many forms) of any class of the registrant's voting securities. In the case of Holding Company Act Form U5S, this would include a beneficial owner of more than one percent. It should be noted that this proposal will indirectly increase disclosure in other areas, particularly the items requiring disclosure of "certain transactions" between management and "principal shareholders" named in response to the principal shareholder item.

A breakdown of each person's voting and investment authority over the securities and of his right to receive or power to direct the receipt of dividends or proceeds from the sale, would have to be included, if known. Identification of the country of which such person is a national would also be required, if known. However, the instructions would specifically provide that the registrant could rely upon information set forth in acquisition statements filed with the Commission pursuant to section 13(d), unless the registrant knew or had reason to believe that the information was not complete or that an acquisition statement should have been filed but was not. The registrant would be deemed to know the contents of any statements filed pursuant to section 13(d).

The second paragraph of proposed Item X would require that the registrant include a table showing, as to each class of voting securities of the registrant or its parents or subsidiaries, the aggregate amount and percentage beneficially owned by all directors and officers of the registrant (other than directors' qualifying shares). This is similar to disclosure now required in several forms including Form 10-K. In addition, however, the proposed item would require an indication of the number of shares over which such persons have or share the power to direct the vote and disposition thereof and the number with respect to which they have the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of dividends or the proceeds from sale.

Several forms now also contain a requirement that the registrant disclose any contractual arrangement known to the registrant involving a pledge of securities if the operation of the terms of the arrangement might result in a change in control of the registrant. It is proposed that this be included in the item.

Proposed instructions to the item would make clear that the definition of beneficial owner for purpose of section 13(d) (proposed Rule 13d-3) would also apply for purposes of Item X. In addition, the proposed instructions would require that any overlapping beneficial ownership be appropriately disclosed, if known, in order to avoid confusion.

Item XA. Proposed Item XA would require that the issuer furnish for each class of voting securities the name and address of and amount and percentage of securities held of record by, and the voting authority (if known) held by, each of the 30 largest holders of record as of a recent date (except that a person holding less than 1/10 of 1 percent of the outstanding securities of the class need not be disclosed). In addition, the proposed item would require that if the issuer knows that a record holder does not have the power to direct the vote of securities held, the issuer must, to the extent known, provide information about the persons with power to direct the vote of the ten largest blocks of stock held of record by each record holder. Also, if the registrant has a corporate parent, comparable information would have to be provided about such parent.

A proposed instruction would specify that holder of record, as with Item 6(b) of Schedule 13D, means the person who is identified as the holder of securities on the records of security holders maintained by or on behalf of the issuer. The instruction would require, however, that if the holder of record is a nominee, the registrant must aggregate the holdings of different nominee accounts for the same person, to the extent known by the registrant after reasonable inquiry, and must identify the person employing the nominees. The person employing a nominee in the case of a nominee for a clearing agency would be the participant in such agency who deposited the securities. A proposed Note calls the attention of registrants to the Nominee List published annually by the American Society of Corporate Secretaries.

The proposal relating to holders of record is substantially based on the recommendations of the Interagency Steering Committee on Uniform Corporate Reporting. Although that Committee recommended that disclosure included the 30 largest shareholders of record and that anyone holding less than 1/10 of 1 percent of the outstanding securities not be required to be included, the Commission is considering other alternatives and specifically asks for public comment on the question of whether 30 is the appropriate and meaningful number and whether 1/10 of 1 percent is a reasonable cut off point for disclosure or whether some other standard such as a dollar amount is more appropriate. The Commission also invites comment on the feasibility of obtaining the information proposed to be required about the persons with underlying power to direct the vote of the securities.

OPERATION OF PROPOSALS

The Commission is mindful of the cost to registrants and others of its proposals and it recognizes its responsibilities to weigh with care the costs and benefits which result from its rules. Accordingly, the Commission specifically invites comments on the cost to registrants and others of the proposals published in this release, if adopted.

The Commission hereby proposes for comment (1) proposed Rules 13d-5, 13d-6 and 13d-7 and Form 13D-5 and amendments to Rules 13d-1, 13d-3 and 14d-1, Schedules 13D, 14A and 14B, and Forms 10, 10-K, 12 and 12-K pursuant to sections 12, 13, 14, 15(d) and 23(a) of the Exchange Act; (2) proposed amendments to Forms S-1, S-2, S-3, S-11 and 1-A pursuant to sections 3(b), 7, 10 and 19(a) of the Securities Act, and (3) proposed amendments to Form U5S pursuant to sections 5, 7, 14 and 20 of the Holding Company Act.

All interested persons are invited to submit their views and comments on the following proposals to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549 on or before November 30, 1975. Such communications should refer to File No. S7-580 and will be available for public inspection. The text of the proposed rules and forms and amendments to rules, schedules and forms follows.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] GEORGE A. FITZSIMMONS,
Secretary.

<sup>10</sup> "Associate" is defined in Rule 12b-2 (17 CFR 240.12b-2) under the Exchange Act to mean, when used to indicate a relationship with any person, (1) any corporation or organization (other than the registrant or a majority-owned subsidiary of the registrant) of which such person is an officer or partner or is, directly or indirectly, the beneficial owner of 10 percent or more of any class of equity securities, (2) any trust or other estate in which such person has a substantial beneficial interest or as to which such person serves as trustee or in a similar fiduciary capacity, and (3) any relative or spouse of such person, or any relative of such spouse, who has the same home as such person or who is a director or officer of the registrant or any of its parents or subsidiaries.

<sup>11</sup> "Affiliate" is defined in Rule 12b-2 under the Exchange Act to mean a person that directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the person specified.

Rule 13d-1 is proposed to be amended to read as follows:

§ 240.13d-1 Filing of Schedule 13D
(§ 240.13d-101).

(a) [No change]

(b) Not more than one report need be filed to report beneficial ownership of any securities by persons related by blood, marriage or adoption who share the same home; Provided, That the report filed shall identify all such persons and shall state that such report is filed on behalf of all such persons.

(c) Not more than one report need be filed to report beneficial ownership of the same securities by different persons; Provided, That the report filed shall disclose the names of all such persons, shall contain the required information about all such persons and their beneficial ownership of securities of the class being reported on, and shall indicate that such report is filed on behalf of all such persons.

Rule 13d-3 is proposed to be amended to read as follows:

§ 240.13d-3 Determination of beneficial ownership.

(a) For purposes of section 13(d), a beneficial owner of a security is any person who directly or indirectly through any contract, arrangement, understanding or relationship has or shares the power to direct the voting or the disposition of such security or has or shares the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of dividends from or the proceeds from the sale of such security; Provided, however, That:

(1) A person shall be deemed to be a beneficial owner of all securities beneficially owned by all individuals who are related by blood, marriage or adoption to such person and who have the same home as such person;

(2) A person shall be deemed to be a beneficial owner of securities which such person has the right to acquire (1) through the exercise of an option, warrant or right exercisable within 60 days, (ii) through the conversion of securities convertible within 60 days, or (iii) pursuant to the power to revoke within 60 days a trust or similar arrangement. Any securities not outstanding which are subject to such options, warrants, rights or conversion privileges shall be deemed to be outstanding for the purpose of computing the percentage of outstanding securities of the class owned by such person but shall not be deemed to be outstanding for the purpose of computing the percentage of the class owned by any other person.

NOTE.—Any option, warrant, right or conversion privilege subject to conditions the material ones of which are within the control of the holder of the option, warrant, right or privilege, would be considered exercisable.

(3) A member of a national securities exchange shall not be deemed to be a beneficial owner of securities held directly or indirectly by it on behalf of another person solely because such member, pursuant to the rules of such exchange, may direct the vote of such securities, without instruction, on other than contested matters or matters that may affect substantially the rights or privileges of the holders of the securities to be voted, but is otherwise precluded by the rules of such exchange from voting without instruction;

NOTE 1.—It is possible that there may be more than one beneficial owner of the same securities since different persons may have the same or different powers with respect to the securities. For example, securities held in a trust might be beneficially owned by the trustee, the settlor, and the beneficiary of the trust. In such case, Rule 13d-1(c) allows only one report to be filed under certain circumstances.

NOTE 2.—All securities of the same class of the same issuer beneficially owned by any person would, regardless of the form which such beneficial ownership takes, be aggregated in calculating the number of shares beneficially owned by such person.

(b) Any person may expressly declare in any statement filed that the filing of such statement shall not be construed as an admission that such person is the beneficial owner of any securities covered by the statement.

Rule 13d-5 is proposed to read as follows:

§ 240.13d-5 Filing of Form 13D-5

(Schedule 13D-5), short form acquisition notice.

(a) A person, who after acquiring directly or indirectly the beneficial ownership of any equity security of a class described in section 13(d) (1) of the Act, is directly or indirectly the beneficial owner of more than five percent of such class, may in lieu of filing a Schedule 13D acquisition statement required by section 13(d) (1) of the Act, file with the Commission, within ten days after the end of the month in which such person became subject to section 13(d) (1), a short form acquisition notice on Form 13D-5 and send it, by registered or certified mail, to the issuer of the security at its principal executive office and to each exchange where the security is traded, provided that:

(1) Such person has acquired such securities in the ordinary course of his business and not with the purpose nor with the effect of changing or influencing the control of the issuer, nor in connection with or as a participant in any transaction having such purpose or effect; and

(2) Such person is:

(i) A broker or dealer registered under section 15 of the Act;

(ii) An insurance company which would be required to file reports under the Act but for the exemption set forth in section 12(g) (2) (G) of the Act;

(iii) A bank which is required to file reports under section 12(i) of the Act;

(iv) An investment company registered under section 8 of the Investment Company Act of 1940;

(v) An investment adviser registered under section 203 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940; or

(vi) An employee benefit plan, pension fund, or an endowment fund.

(b) Notwithstanding Rule 13d-2: And provided, That such person continues to meet the requirements set forth in Rule 13d-5(a), any person who has filed a short form acquisition notice on Form 13D-5 shall amend such form within ten days after the end of each calendar quarter to reflect, as of the end of the quarter, material changes, if any, in the information reported including a decrease in percentage of the class of securities held to five percent or less of the class. Such amendment shall be filed with the Commission and sent, by registered or certified mail, to the issuer of the security at its principal executive office and to each exchange where the security is traded.

NOTE.—Once an amendment has been filed reflecting beneficial ownership of five percent or less of the class of securities, no additional filings would be required unless the person thereafter becomes the beneficial owner of more than five percent of the class. In addition, no amendment would be required if there were no material change in the information previously reported.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, if any person who has filed a short form acquisition notice on Form 13D-5 ceases to meet the requirements of Rule 13d-5(a), such person shall immediately become subject to Rule 13d-1.

Rule 13d-6 is proposed to read as follows:

§ 240.13d-6 Acquisition of securities.

(a) A person who becomes a beneficial owner of securities otherwise than through purchase of such securities shall be deemed to have acquired such securities for purposes of section 13(d) (1).

(b) Persons who agree, orally or in writing, to act together for the purpose of acquiring, holding or disposing of securities of an issuer shall be deemed to have acquired, as of the date of such agreement, beneficial ownership of all the securities of that issuer beneficially owned by such persons, for purposes of section 13(d) (1).

PROPOSED RULES

Rule 13d-7 is proposed to read as follows:

§ 240.13d-7 Exemption for certain underwriters.

An acquisition of equity securities of a class described in section 13(d)(1) by a person engaged in business as an underwriter of securities, through his participation in good faith in a firm commitment underwriting, shall be deemed not to be an acquisition for purposes of section 13(d). Provided, That, any such securities which are beneficially owned by such person for more than 40 days shall be deemed to have been acquired for purposes of section 13(d) at the end of such 40 day period.

Schedule 13D is proposed to be amended to read as follows:

§ 240.13d-101 Schedule 13D—Information to be included in statements filed pursuant to § 240.13d-1 or § 240.14d-1.

INSTRUCTIONS: A. [No change]

B. [No change in first sentence] If a person referred to in (1), (2), or (3) is a corporation or the statement is filed by a corporation, the information called for by the above-mentioned items shall be given with respect to each executive officer and director of such corporation and any affiliate of such corporation. Executive officer shall mean the president, secretary, treasurer, any vice president in charge of a principal business function (such as sales, administration or finance), and any other person who performs similar policy making functions for the corporation.

C. If filed by an individual on behalf of himself and persons related to him by blood, marriage or adoption who share the same home, the information called for by Items 2-6 inclusive shall be given with respect to the head of household and any adult person who would be the beneficial owner of the securities in the absence of the provisions for attribution in Rule 13d-3(a)(1).

Item 1. [No change.]

Item 2. Identity and Background.

(a)-(e) [No change.]

(f) Country of which such person is a national.

Item 3. Sources and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

[No change in first sentence] If the securities were acquired otherwise than by purchase, describe the method of acquisition and identify the person from whom the securities were acquired.

Item 4. [No change]

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

(a) State the aggregate number and percentage of the class represented by such shares beneficially owned (identifying those shares which there is a right to acquire) by each of the persons named in response to Item 2 and by each of his affiliates (other than the issuer of the securities), identifying any such affiliate.

(b) For each person named in response to paragraph (a), indicate the nature of such person's beneficial ownership (e.g., the power to direct the voting or disposition of the securities, or the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of dividends or proceeds from the sale of the securities).

(c) If persons other than those named in paragraph (a) share beneficial ownership or a material amount of the securities reported on, identify such persons and the nature and extent of their beneficial ownership;

(d) If the persons named in response to this item share beneficial ownership of the same securities, disclose and quantify any overlapping ownership;

(e) Describe any transactions in the class of securities to be reported on that were effected during the past 60 days or since the most recent filing, whichever is less, by the persons named in response to paragraph (a) and by any executive officers, directors or affiliates of any subsidiaries of such person.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements or Understandings with Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

(a) Furnish any information as to any contracts, arrangements or understandings with any person with respect to any securities of the issuer, including but not limited to transfer or voting of any of the securities, joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guarantees of profits, division of profits or losses, or the giving or withholding of proxies, naming the persons with whom such contracts, arrangements or understandings have been entered into and giving the details thereof. Include such information for any of the securities that are pledged or are otherwise subject to a contingency the occurrence of which would give another person the power to direct the voting or disposition of the securities, or the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of dividends or proceeds from the sale thereof.

(b) If the securities are held of record by someone other than the person filing this statement:

(1) Give the name and address of such record holder.

(2) If the record holder is a nominee, furnish in addition, the name and address of the person employing such nominee. For purposes of this paragraph, the person employing the nominee shall, in the case of securities which are evidenced by certificates registered in the name of a nominee for a clearing agency (e.g., the Depository Trust Company, Midwest Securities Trust Company, Pacific Securities Depository Trust Company, and National Clearing Corporation for which the nominees are, respectively, Cede & Co., Kray & Co., Pacific & Co., and NCC & Co.), be deemed to be the participant in such agency who deposited such securities.

(3) For purposes of this item, holder of record shall mean a person who is identified as the holder of such securities on the records of security holders maintained by or on behalf of the issuer.

Item 7. [No change]

Item 8. [No change]

Signature

I certify that to the best of my knowledge and belief the information set forth in this statement is true, complete and correct.

(Date) (Signature)

The statement shall be signed by each person on behalf of whom the statement is filed, except that in the case of a statement filed on behalf of persons related by blood, marriage or adoption who share the same home, the statement shall be signed only by those persons about whom information is provided in accordance with Instruction C. Notwithstanding, the statement may be signed on behalf of a person by an authorized representative. In such case, evidence of the representative's authority to sign on behalf of such person shall be filed with the statement.

Rule 14d-1 is proposed to be amended to read as follows:

§ 240.14d-1 Filing Schedule 13D (§ 240.13d-101) and furnishing of information to security holders.

(a)-(f) [No change]

(g) The definition of beneficial owner set forth in Rule 13d-3 for purposes of section 13(d)(1) shall apply also for purposes of section 14(d)(1).

Schedule 14B is proposed to be amended to read as follows:

§ 240.14a-102 Schedule 14B. Information to be included in statements filed by or on behalf of a participant (other than the issuer) pursuant to § 240.14a-1(c) (Rule 14a-1(c)).

Item 3. Interests in Securities of the Issuer

Instruction. For purposes of this item, the definition of "beneficial owner" set forth in Rule 13d-3 under the Act shall apply.

Schedule 14A and Forms 10, 10-K, 12 and 12-K under the Exchange Act; Forms S-1, S-2, S-3, S-11 and 1-A under the Securities Act; and Form U5S under the Holding Company Act are proposed to be amended as follows:

The following items are proposed to replace existing items relating to principal security holders in Schedule 14A (17 CFR 240.14a-101) and in Forms 10 (17 CFR 249.210) and 10-K (17 CFR 249.310) under the Exchange Act; Forms S-1 (17 CFR 239.11), S-2 (17 CFR 239.12), S-3 (17 CFR 239.13), S-11 (17 CFR 239.18) and 1-A (17 CFR 239.90) under the Securities Act and Form U5S (17 CFR 259.55) under the Holding Company Act (in that form, disclosure must be made of all beneficial owners of more than one percent of the class). They are also proposed to be added to Forms 12 (17 CFR 249.212) and 12-K (17 CFR 249.312) under the Exchange Act.

Item X. Security Ownership and Holdings of Principal Owners and Management.

(a) Furnish the following information, in substantially the tabular form indicated, with respect to any person (including any "group" as that term is used in section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act) who is known to the registrant to be the beneficial owner of more than five percent of any class of the registrant's voting securities. Show in Column (3) the total number of shares beneficially owned and in Column (4) the percent of class so owned. If known, indicate in Column (5) the number of shares over which such listed beneficial owner has sole or shared power to direct the voting of such securities. Show in Column (6) the number of shares over which such listed beneficial owner has sole or shared power to direct the disposition; and indicate in Column (7) the number of shares with respect to which such listed beneficial owner has or shares the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of the dividends or proceeds from the sale. If known, indicate also the country of which each listed beneficial owner is a national.

PROPOSED RULES

(1) Title of class	(2) Name and address of beneficial owner and country of which beneficial owner is a national	(3) Amount beneficially owned	(4) Percent of class	(5) Authority to direct vote	(6) Authority to direct disposition	(7) Right to receive or power to direct receipt of dividends or proceeds from sale
(b) Furnish the following information, in substantially the tabular form indicated, as to each class of voting securities of the registrant or any of its parents or subsidiaries, other than directors' qualifying shares, beneficially owned by all directors and officers of the registrant as a group, without naming them. Indicate in Column (4) the number of shares over which such persons have sole or shared power to direct the voting of such securities; show in Column (5) the number of shares over which such persons have or share the power to direct the disposition; and indicate in Column (6) the number of shares with respect to which such persons have or share the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of the dividends or proceeds from the sale.

(1) Title of class	(2) Amount beneficially owned	(3) Percent of class	(4) Authority to direct vote	(5) Authority to direct disposition	(6) Right to receive or power to direct receipt of dividends or proceeds from sale
-----------------------	----------------------------------	-------------------------	---------------------------------	--	---

(c) Describe any arrangements known to the registrant including any pledge by any person of securities of the registrant or any of its parents, the operation of the terms of which may at a subsequent date result in a change in control of the registrant.

Instructions to Item X.

1. The percentages are to be calculated on the basis of the amount of outstanding securities, excluding securities held by or for the account of the issuer.

2. For purposes of this item, the definition of "beneficial owner" set forth in Rule 13d-3 under the Act shall apply. [In Securities Act forms, the text of Rule 13d-3 would be included in the instruction.]

3. The registrant shall be deemed to know the contents of any acquisition statements filed with the Commission pursuant to section 13(d) of the Act. A registrant may rely upon information set forth in such acquisition statements unless the registrant knows or has reason to believe that such information is not complete or accurate or that an acquisition statement or amendment should have been filed and was not.

4. Where more than one beneficial owner is known to be listed for the same securities, appropriate disclosure should be made to avoid confusion.

5. Paragraph (c) does not require a description of ordinary default provisions contained in the charter, trust indentures or other governing instruments relating to securities of the registrant.

Item XA. Holdings of 30 Largest Security Holders of Record

1. Furnish the following information, in substantially the form indicated, with respect to each of the 30 largest holders of record, as of a recent date, of each class of voting securities of the registrant: Provided, however, That no information need be furnished as to any record holder of less than 1/10 of 1% of the class. If known, show in Column (5) the amount over which the holder of record has or shares the power to direct the voting of the securities held.

2. If, to the issuer's knowledge, a record holder named in response to paragraph (1) does not have the power to direct the vote of the securities held, furnish, if known, the information called for by paragraph (1) about the persons having the power to direct the vote of the ten largest blocks of such securities held of record by such record holder.

3. If the issuer has a parent corporation, the issuer should furnish the information required by paragraphs (1) and (2) of this item with respect to such parent corporation.

Form 13D-5, Short Form Acquisition Notice, is proposed to include the following:

REGISTERED BROKERS

Communications to Beneficial Owners

The Commission today proposed new Rule 14b-1 (17 CFR 240.14b-1) under the FEDERAL REGISTER, VOL. 40, NO. 177—THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1975

Securities Exchange Act of 1934, "Obligations of Registered Brokers in Connection with the Timely Forwarding of Certain Communications to Beneficial Owners." The proposed rule would require a registered broker to (1) respond promptly, by means of a search card or otherwise, to inquiries made by issuers in accordance with Rule 14a-3(d) (17 CFR 240.14a-3) with respect to how many of the broker's customers are beneficial owners of the issuer's securities which are held of record by the broker or its nominees and (2) upon receipt of a sufficient number of proxy statements and annual reports to security holders and assurances that its reasonable expenses shall be paid by the issuer, to forward such materials in a timely manner to such customers. As an alternative to complying with the foregoing obligations, the proposed rule would permit a registered broker to furnish an issuer with a list of its customers who are beneficial owners of the issuer's securities held of record by the broker or its nominees provided that the broker also furnished authorization to vote such securities in accordance with instructions of the customer. A note to the proposed rules makes clear that a broker furnishing such a list to an issuer may impose reasonable conditions upon the issuer's use of such a list.

Last fall the Commission adopted Rule 14a-3(d) requiring that if an issuer knows that securities of a class entitled to vote at a meeting are held of record by a broker, dealer, bank or voting trustee or their nominees, the issuer must inquire of such record holder whether other persons are beneficial owners, and, if so, the issuer must supply the record holder with as many copies of proxy soliciting material and annual reports to security holders as requested by the record holder in order to send a copy of each to the beneficial owners. The issuer is also required to pay the reasonable expenses of the record holder for mailing the materials. The Commission is proposing to amend Rule 14a-3(d) to require issuers to carry out their obligations in a timely manner and to reflect the obligations imposed on brokers by proposed Rule 14b-1. The proposed amendments would require that issuers make appropriate inquiry at least 10 days prior to the record date for the annual meeting and that issuers furnish record holders with their materials in a timely manner. The proposed amendments would also require that if a broker, pursuant to Rule 14b-1, provides the issuer with an appropriate list of names, addresses and holdings of its customers and appropriate authorization, the issuer must comply with the proxy rules with respect to such customers directly, i.e., the issuer must forward proxy materials and annual reports directly to the broker's customers.

The Commission has been concerned that persons whose securities are held in "street name" or nominee accounts for convenience, safety or other personal reasons receive information about the issuer of the securities in a timely manner. As the Commission recently noted, "the process of communication between issuers and beneficial owners is one which requires close cooperation among issuers, transfer agents, soliciting agents, and brokers, banks and other securities record holders such as securities depositories."

The Commission adopted Rule 14a-3(d), "Information to be Furnished to Security Holders," based upon its own experience and its consideration of the letters of comment submitted in response to proposed Rule 14a-3(d). Many letters of comment supported the proposed rule but several letters also requested that the Commission take suitable action to require that record holders promptly forward materials received from issuers to beneficial owners.<sup>3</sup>

In late 1974, the Commission conducted a Public Fact-Finding Investigation in the Matter of Beneficial Ownership, Takeovers and Acquisitions by Foreign and Domestic Persons.<sup>4</sup> One of the specific inquiries of that proceeding was whether the Commission should adopt rules to facilitate communications between issuers and the beneficial owners of their securities. During the proceeding the Commission received oral testimony and written comments on this inquiry from representatives of public companies, brokerage firms, banks and proxy soliciting firms and from attorneys and other interested persons.

Many of the witnesses and commentators noted that, from time to time, there have been breakdowns in connection with the timely distribution of issuer communications to beneficial owners. The Commission received inconsistent, and sometimes contradictory, testimony regarding the extent of, and the causes for, breakdowns in the distribution system. There appears, however, to be a consensus among most interested persons with experience in the distribution process that the performance in this area at times has varied greatly from issuer to issuer and from brokerage firm to brokerage firm.

Based upon the record in the Beneficial Ownership Proceeding and its own experience, the Commission is publishing for comment a proposed Rule 14b-1 relating to the obligations of registered brokers which would complement the obligations already imposed on issuers by the adoption of Rule 14a-3(d). The Commission believes that proposed Rule 14b-1, if adopted, would improve the distribution of issuer communications to beneficial owners. It should be particularly noted that all procedural rules and interpretations implementing the broad mandate of Rule 14b-1, including the setting of "reasonable expenses," would continue to be administered and enforced by the various self-regulatory organizations.

The Commission recognizes that the imposition of obligations on brokerage firms alone will not assure that all beneficial owners receive issuer communications since other record holders such as banks and trust companies would not be subject to such obligations. Accordingly the Commission is concurrently transmitting its proposals in this area to the Comptroller of the Currency, the Federal Reserve System and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation recommending that they consider the adoption of comparable regulations for persons subject to their jurisdiction.

Based upon the record in the Beneficial Ownership Proceeding and its own experience, the Commission is publishing for comment proposed amendments to Rule 14a-3(d) in order to require issuers to carry out their obligations in a timely manner. In particular, issuers would be required to make appropriate inquiry of record holders at least ten days prior to the record date for the meeting of security holders and, upon receipt of a search card or other communication for the record holder, to furnish an appropriate amount of proxy materials and annual reports to record holders in a timely manner. The rule would also be amended to require an issuer to furnish these materials directly to beneficial owners if a broker chooses to comply with proposed Rule 14b-1(b) by furnishing a list of its customers to the issuer.

OPERATION OF PROPOSALS

The Commission is mindful of the cost to registrants, brokers and others of its proposals and it recognizes its responsibilities to weigh with care the costs and benefits which result from its rules. Accordingly, the Commission specifically invites comments on the cost to registrants, brokers and others of the proposals published in this release, if adopted.

The Commission hereby proposes for comment proposed Rule 14b-1 and proposed amendments to Rule 14a-3(d) pursuant to Sections 14(a), 14(b), and 23(a) of the Exchange Act. All interested persons are invited to submit their views and comments on the following proposal to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549, on or before November 30, 1975. Such communications should refer to File No. S7-581, and will be available for public inspection.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] GEORGE A. FITZSIMMONS,
Secretary.

AUGUST 25, 1975.

Section 240.14a-3 is proposed to be amended as follows:

§ 240.14a-3 Information to be furnished to security holders.

(a)-(c) [No change.]

(d) If the issuer knows that securities of any class entitled to vote at a meeting with respect to which the issuer intends to solicit proxies, consents or authorization are held of record by a broker, dealer, bank or voting trustee, or their nominees, the issuer shall inquire of such record holder, at least ten days prior to the record date for the meeting of security holders, whether other persons are the beneficial owners of such securities and, if so, the number of copies of the proxy and other soliciting material and, in the case of an annual meeting at which directors are to be elected, the number of copies of the annual report to security holders, necessary to supply such material to beneficial owners. The issuer shall supply such record holder in a timely manner with additional copies in such quantities, assembled in such form and at such a place, as the record holder may reasonably request in order to address and send one copy of each to each beneficial owner of securities so held and shall, upon the request of such record holder, pay its reasonable expenses for completing the mailing of such material to security holders to whom the material is sent; provided, however, if a broker pursuant to Rule 14b-1, furnishes the issuer with a list as of the record date of the names, addresses and holdings of beneficial owners of securities held of record by the broker or its nominees and also furnishes appropriate authorization to vote such securities in accordance with the instructions of such customers, the issuer shall comply with the requirements of this rule for solicitation of proxies, consents or authorization with respect to such customers.

NOTE 1.—If the issuer's list of security holders indicates that some of its securities are registered in the name of a clearing agency (e.g., the Depository Trust Company, Midwest Securities Trust Company, and Pacific Securities Depository Trust Company, and National Clearing Corporation for which the nominees are, respectively, Cede & Co., Kray & Co., Pacific & Co., and NCC & Co.), an issuer shall make appropriate inquiry of the agency and thereafter of the participants in such an agency who may hold on behalf of a beneficial owner, and shall comply with the above paragraph with respect to any such participant.

NOTE 2.—The requirement for sending an annual report to security holders of record having the same address will be satisfied by sending at least one report to a holder of record at that address provided that those holders of record to whom a report is not sent agree thereto in writing. This procedure is not available to issuers, however, where banks, broker-dealers, and other persons hold securities in nominee accounts or "street names" on behalf of beneficial owners, and such persons are not relieved of any obligation to obtain or send such annual report to the beneficial owners.

NOTE 3.—The attention of issuers is called to the fact that broker-dealers have an obligation pursuant to Rule 14b-1 and applicable self-regulatory requirements to obtain and forward annual reports and proxy soliciting materials in a timely manner to beneficial owners for whom such broker-dealers hold securities.

Section 240.14b-1 is proposed to read as follows:

§ 240.14b-1 Obligations of registered brokers in connection with the timely forwarding of certain communications to beneficial owners.

(a) A broker registered under Section 15 of the Act shall:

(1) Respond to an inquiry made in accordance with Rule 14a-3(d) by or on behalf of an issuer whose management is soliciting proxies, consents or authorization by promptly indicating, by means of a search card or otherwise, the approximate number of its customers who are beneficial owners of the issuer's securities that are held of record by the broker or its nominees; and

(2) Upon receipt of the proxy, other proxy soliciting material, and/or annual reports to security holders and of assurances that its reasonable expenses shall be paid by the issuer forward such materials in a timely manner to such customers; or

(b) In lieu of complying with the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section, a broker registered under section 15 of the Act may respond to an inquiry made in accordance with Rule 14a-3(d) by or on behalf of an issuer whose management is soliciting proxies, consents or authorization by promptly furnishing such issuer with:

(1) A list as of the record date of the names, addresses and holdings of its customers who are beneficial owners of the issuer's securities that are held of record by the broker or its nominees; and

(2) Authorization to vote such securities in accordance with the instructions of such customers.

NOTE.—A broker choosing to furnish a list of its customers who are beneficial owners to an issuer may impose reasonable conditions on the use of such a list—e.g., that the list be used only for the purposes of mailing annual reports and proxy materials to beneficial owners.

PROPOSED RULES

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[49 CFR Part 1037]

[No. 35220]

GRAIN AND GRAIN PRODUCTS

Practices and Policies in the Settlement of Loss and Damage Claims

SEPTEMBER 4, 1975.

Pursuant to numerous informal requests for modification of the present rules governing the handling of loss and damage claims on bulk grain and bulk grain products (49 CFR 1037), the Commission, Division 2, convened an informal conference on July 15, 1975, and a subsequent informal conference on August 14, 1975, in the above-entitled proceeding. In these informal conferences, shippers and carriers have generally represented that the present rules do not reflect the realities of rail operations and grain loading practices in the Nation and have resulted in hardships and inequities not contemplated in the prior report and order in No. 35220 (346 I.C.C. 33). The shippers and carriers have encouraged the Commission to modify the present rules so as to provide a workable scheme of rules to govern the handling of loss and damage claims and to eliminate certain obstacles to the efficient handling of grain and grain product traffic. Accordingly, the parties attending the August 14 conference agreed to the following modifications:

1. Revise Paragraph c of § 1037.1, to read as follows:

§ 1037.12 Weights and weighing.

(c) Shipping weights—Where the shipper weighs the grain or grain products for shipment and a claim for loss and damage is subsequently filed on that shipment, the shipper shall furnish the carrier with whom the claim is filed certificates of weight showing car initials and number; the kind of grain or grain products; the total scale weight; the type and house number of the scale used; the number of drafts and weight of each draft; the date and time of weighing; whether the weight is official, board-of-trade, grain-exchange, State, or other supervised weight; and the number of grain door used. This information should be furnished at the time the claim is filed.

§ 1037.2 [Amended]

2. In Paragraph a of § 1037.2, delete the words "open-top interior linings or" appearing in line 3 of that paragraph.

3. Establish a new provision, Paragraph c of § 1037.2 reading,

(c) Cars with open-top linings tendered by the railroads may be used by the shipper without jeopardizing any subsequent claim which may be filed.

4. In Paragraph (c) of § 1037.3, delete the last two sentences of that paragraph so that the provision will read, § 1037.3 Claims.

(c) In case of a disputed claim, the records of both the carrier and the claimant affecting the shipment involved shall be available to both parties. These records shall include a written complaint if any, filed by the shipper with the railroad at the time the car was placed for loading that the car was defective, and the written report of an investigation of the complaint, filed by the railroad with the shipper, if made.

This notice is being given to allow any interested party an opportunity to comment upon the proposed modifications. While the scope of the prior informal conferences included issues not covered by the proposed modifications, such as the application of the 1/4 of one percent weight tolerance on shipments moving prior to March 5, 1975, the Commission will address those additional issues in a separate order and not in conjunction with the implementation of the proposed modifications.

Accordingly, interested parties are invited to comment on the proposed modifications by written statement. Written statements are due 15 days from the date of service of this notice and should be confined to the modifications proposed herein.

It is ordered, That this notice of proposed rulemaking and modification of regulations be served upon the parties, and furnished to the general public by mailing a copy of this notice and order to the Governor of every State and to the Public Utilities Commission or Board having jurisdiction over transportation in each State, by depositing a copy of this order in the office of the Secretary, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C., for public inspection, and by delivering a copy thereof to the Director, Office of The Federal Register, for publication in The Federal Register.

CASTOR OIL PRODUCTS FROM BRAZIL

Preliminary Countervailing Duty Determination

On April 30, 1975, a "Notice of Receipt of Countervailing Duty Petition" was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (40 F.R. 13814). The notice indicated that a petition had been received alleging that payments, bestowals, rebates or refunds, granted by the Brazilian Government upon the manufacture, production, or exportation of hydrogenated castor oil and 12 hydroxystearic acid constitute the payment or bestowal of a bounty or grant, directly or indirectly, within the meaning of section 303 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1303) (referred to in this notice as "the Act").

On the basis of an investigation conducted pursuant to section 159.47(c), Customs Regulations (19 CFR 159.47 (c)), it tentatively has been determined that benefits have been received by the Brazilian manufacturers/exporters of hydrogenated castor oil and 12 hydroxystearic acid which may constitute bounties or grants within the meaning of the Act. These programs include the granting to manufacturers/exporters of tax credits upon export, income tax reductions, and preferential financing. Programs tentatively determined not to be bounties or grants within the meaning of the Act include the exemption from certain indirect taxes upon exportation of the castor oil product under consideration and the governmental control of prices for castor oil exports. The investigation indicated no government controls promoting artificially high prices for castor oil exports. Programs tentatively found not to be applicable to the manufacturers/exporters of the castor oil products under consideration from Brazil include exemption for certain imports from certain indirect taxes and import taxes, an income tax deduction for overseas promotion expenses, and a trading company tax exemption. A final decision in this case is required on or before March 10, 1975.

Before a final determination is made, consideration will be given to any relevant data, views or arguments, submitted in writing with respect to the preliminary determination. Submissions should be addressed to the Commissioner of Customs, 1301 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20229, in time to be received by his office not later than 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

This preliminary determination is published pursuant to section 303(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1303(a)).

Dated: September 8, 1975.

VERNON D. ACREE,

Commissioner of Customs.

REGIONAL DISCHARGE REVIEW BOARDS

Hearings

1. Authority. Department of Defense memorandum dated June 18, 1975, which directed the Services, effective October 31, 1975, to establish procedures for review of discharges under 10 U.S.C. 1553 in areas outside of Washington, D.C.

2. Purpose. To make discharge review boards more geographically accessible to applicants.

NOTICES

3. Implementation. The Air Force will have a traveling board hold quarterly hearings beginning in November 1975 in the Veterans Administration Regional Offices in St. Louis at 1520 Market Street, San Francisco at 211 Main Street, and Houston at 2515 Murworth Drive. Hearings will last approximately two or three days in each city, depending upon caseload.

Those former service members who desire to appeal the type of discharge received and who wish to appear before either the Washington board or one of the new regional boards can make application using DD Form 293. The applicant should indicate his preference of hearing site when making application.

PROPOSED REHABILITATION OF NATIONAL MALL, WASHINGTON, D.C.

Availability of Final Environmental Statement

Pursuant to section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, the Department of the Interior has prepared a final environmental statement on the proposed rehabilitation of the National Mall, Washington, D.C.

This statement describes the project to rehabilitate the Mall in Washington, D.C., between Madison Drive and Jefferson Drive, from Third Street to 14th Street. The project includes the construction of four pedestrian/bike paths between Third Street and 14th Street and crosswalks at each of the Mall museum buildings, plus reconstruction of walks along Third, Fourth, Seventh, and 14th Streets. It also includes the installation of park benches, drinking fountains, curb ramps for handicapped persons, street lights, telephones, refreshment and information kiosk foundations, bike racks, additional plantings in the tree panels, and necessary utility services. Two of the walks would replace Adams and Washington Drives and two walks would replace Sixth and 13th Streets between Madison and Jefferson Drives.

A part of the project, but outside the boundaries of the project area, is the establishment as a demonstration project, of fringe parking at the Robert F. Kennedy Stadium and at the North Pentagon parking area. A visitor bus shuttle system would connect both fringe parking lots with the Mall. The route to be taken from RFK Stadium to the Mall would be spread over several streets. Additional visitor parking would be provided in East Potomac Park with bus shuttle service to the Mall. All day parking along Ohio Drive, in West Potomac Park, would be prohibited. Methods of enforcing parking regulations on the Mall would also be changed.

Dated: September 8, 1975.

VERNON D. ACREE,

Commissioner of Customs.

Approved:

DAVID R. MACDONALD,
Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

NEVADA Proposed Withdrawal and Reservation of Lands

SEPTEMBER 3, 1975.

The Forest Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture has filed the above application for the withdrawal of the lands described below from location and entry under the mining laws (30 U.S.C. Ch. 2), but not from leasing under the mineral leasing laws. The applicant desires the land to be set aside as a natural research area, designated as the Mt. Jefferson Research Natural Area. The lands are within the Toiyabe National Forest. On or before October 14, 1975, all persons who wish to submit comments, suggestions, or objections in connection with the proposed withdrawal may present their views in writing to the undersigned officer of the Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior, 300 Booth Street, Reno, Nevada 89502.

The Department's regulations (2351.4 (c)) provide that the authorized officer of the Bureau of Land Management will undertake such investigations as are necessary to determine the existing and potential demand for the lands and their resources. He will also undertake negotiations with the applicant agency with the view of adjusting the application to reduce the area to the minimum essential to meet the applicant's needs, to provide for the maximum concurrent utilization of the lands for purposes other than the applicant's, to eliminate lands needed for purposes more essential than the applicant's, and to reach agreement on the concurrent management of the lands and their resources. The authorized officer will also prepare a report for consideration by the Secretary of the Interior who will determine whether or not the lands will be withdrawn as requested.

The determination of the Secretary on the application will be published in the Federal Register. A separate notice will be sent to each interested party of record.

If circumstances warrant, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced. The lands involved in the application are:

DEAR SIR:
 The Soco Gardens Zoo, Maggie Valley, North Carolina, has on loan from the Louisiana Purchase Garden & Zoo, Monroe, Louisiana, one male captive born JAGUAR, born January 19, 1974. Scientific name: Panthera onca.

The Louisiana Purchase Zoo has no breeding plans for this animal. As such, we would like to purchase the Jaguar for our own breeding stock.

We have given tours and lectures to hundreds of thousands of students, scouts, church groups, etc. Our guides are all college educated, then trained on the job here to insure maximum performance.

Your consent to our request to purchase the Jaguar will be greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

THOMAS P. RITTER,
 Owner, Soco Gardens Zoo.

Statement: I am willing to participate in a cooperative breeding program and maintain or contribute data to a studbook.

The Jaguar is being housed and maintained at the Soco Gardens Zoo and is being regularly inspected by the U.S.D.A. under license #55c3.

THOMAS P. RITTER.

Re: PRT-8-278-C

The DIRECTOR
 Fish and Wildlife Service
 Washington, D.C. 20240
 Attention: A. Eugene Hester, Special Agent
 In Charge, Permits

DEAR SIR:

In response to your recent letter, we submit the following additional information, which you have requested:

(1) The housing is constructed of concrete floor, chain link fence, corrugated metal roof with wood insulation. The enclosure contains a sleeping box, pool, wood bench, and hanging tire. Pictures and scaled diagram of same enclosed.

(2) At present we have one male Jaguar 22 years old. Incapable of breeding. He is probably the oldest living Jaguar in the country. We also have the young male Jaguar which is on loan from the Louisiana Purchase Garden & Zoo, for which we have requested the permit in order to acquire him permanently.

For nearly 20 years we have carried on a cooperative program with the Knoxville Zoological Park, Knoxville, Tennessee, Guy Smith, Director, in order to breed, balance inventories, and exhibit animals, reptiles and birds. They have promised us a young female Jaguar which should be delivered in late October. This will enable us to continue on with our Jaguar breeding plans.

(3) As noted previously, we have been in the animal business for 22 years and have bred or raised almost any animal that you can think of. The fact that we have one Jaguar 22 years old, that we raised from a kitten, should be proof in itself that we know the animal business.

(4) Our veterinary services are handled by the Junaluska Animal Hospital, Waynesville, North Carolina, which is a 10-minute drive from us. They have three full-time vets on their staff, namely, Dr. Mack Setser, Dr. Frank Enloe, and Dr. R. F. Mannisto. A copy of our most recent bill from them is attached as proof.

(5) We have had no Jaguar mortalities at our zoo. We have had one Cougar die of old age last year.

Please note: Our original request called for a permit to acquire a captive-bred male Jaguar from the Louisiana Purchase Garden & Zoo.

Please change the request to read: To acquire captive-bred male and female jaguars from recognized zoos for propagation purposes.

Or, to acquire a captive-bred male jaguar from the Louisiana Purchase Garden & Zoo, and a captive-bred female jaguar from the Knoxville Zoological Park for propagation purposes.

Sincerely yours,

THOMAS P. RITTER,
 Owner, Soco Gardens Zoo, Route 1,
 Box 355, Maggie Valley, North

Rural Electrification Administration CENTRAL ELECTRIC POWER CO-OP.

Draft Environmental Impact Statement

Notice is hereby given that the Rural Electrification Administration intends to prepare a Draft Environmental Impact Statement in accordance with Section 102 (2) (C) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 in connection with an anticipated request for financial assistance for Central Electric Power Cooperative, Inc., Cayce, South Carolina 29033.

The proposed transmission lines and related facilities are:

1. 23 miles of 230 kV transmission line from the Summer Nuclear Plant in Fairfield County to Blythewood in Richland County, and 230 kV terminal facilities at the existing 230/69 kV substation located near Blythewood.

2. 17 miles of 230 kV transmission line from the Summer Nuclear Plant in Fairfield County to Newberry in Newberry County and a new 230/69 kV substation located near Newberry.

3. 55 miles of 230 kV transmission line from Varnville in Hampton County to Hilton Head (mainland) in Beaufort County passing through Jasper County with a new 230/115 kV substation located near Varnville and a new 230/115 kV substation located on the mainland just opposite Hilton Head Island.

4. A new 230/115 kV substation near Batesburg.

5. A new 230/69 kV substation near Camden.

Additional information may be obtained at Central's office during regular business hours.

Interested parties are invited to submit comments which may be helpful in preparing the Draft Environmental Impact Statements.

Comments should be forwarded to the Assistant Administrator—Electric, Rural Electrification Administration, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250, with a copy to Central Electric Power Cooperative, Inc., whose address is given.

Dated at Washington, D.C., this 5th day of September 1975.

This order effective August 12, 1975 amends the material appearing at 40 FR 10218 of March 5, 1975.

DIBA Organization and Function Order 45-2, dated February 11, 1975 is hereby amended, as follows:

1. Section 7., Office of Industrial Mobilization, is amended to read, as follows:

"Section 7. Office of Industrial Mobilization

.01 The Office of the Director includes: the Director who shall plan and direct the execution of policies and programs of the Office, and the Deputy Director who shall assist in the direction of the Office and perform the functions of the Director in his absence. The Director shall supervise and direct the following organizational components:

.02 The Mobilization Operations and Plans Division shall support current national defense requirements, the Alaskan oil production program, the Maritime shipbuilding program and such other high national priority programs as may be authorized, by administering the Defense Materials System and the Defense Priorities System under Title I of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended and extended; plan for and maintain emergency measures for regulating industrial production and distribution during emergency situations; and develop plans for assisting defense contractors suffering from natural disasters and implement them as necessary.

.03 The Industrial Resources Division shall provide guidance to the Federal Preparedness Agency, GSA, on matters relating to the National Stockpile Program; identify industrial facilities of exceptional importance to the national security, mobilization readiness, post-attack survival and recovery; supervise analyses of critically important industrial products and services and conduct feasibility studies to determine capabilities to meet national emergencies; maintain Industrial Mobilization Data Centers at selected relocation sites; evaluate and improve relocation sites of DIBA's field offices; support BDC's participation in Departmental preparedness exercises and in FPA/GSA interdepartmental preparedness exercises; recruit and train Executive Reservists from industry to assume major responsibilities in a national emergency; develop emergency operating procedures for continuity of BDC's essential functions during war, and provide staff support for the U.S. Representative to the NATO Industrial Planning Committee and for the Chairman of the U.S./Canadian Emergency Planning Committee for Industrial Production and Materials. The Division shall also identify for GSA the required machine tools and their manufacturers for expediting procurement in an emergency under the "Machine Tool Trigger Order Program."

MARYLAND STATE DEPT. OF HEALTH & MENTAL HYGIENE ET AL.

Notice of Consolidated Decision on Applications for Duty Free Entry of Scientific Articles

The following is a consolidated decision on applications for duty-free entry of scientific articles pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Materials Importation Act of 1966 (Public Law 89-651, 80 Stat. 897) and the regulations issued thereunder as amended (40 F.R. 12253 et seq., 15 CFR 701, 1975.)

A copy of the record pertaining to each of the applications in this consolidated decision is available for public review during ordinary business hours of the Department of Commerce, at the Special Import Programs Division, Office of Import Programs, Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230.

Decision: Applications denied. Applicants have failed to establish that instruments or apparatus of equivalent scientific value to the foreign articles are intended to be used, are not being manufactured in the United States.

Reasons: Subsection 301.8 of the Regulations provides in pertinent part:

"The applicant shall on or before the 20th day following the date of such notice, inform the Deputy Assistant Secretary whether it intends to resubmit another application for the same article for the same intended purposes to which the denied application relates. The applicant shall then resubmit the new application on or before the 90th day following the date of the notice of denial without prejudice to resubmission, unless an extension of time is granted by the Deputy Assistant Secretary in writing prior to the expiration of the 90 day period. . . . If the applicant fails, within the applicable time periods specified above, to either (a) inform the Deputy Assistant Secretary whether it intends to resubmit another application for the same article to which the denial without prejudice to resubmission relates, or (b) resubmit the new application, the prior denial without prejudice to resubmission shall have the effect of a final decision by the Deputy Assistant Secretary on the application within the context of Subsection 301.11."

The meaning of the subsection is that should an applicant either fail to notify the Deputy Assistant Secretary of its intent to resubmit another application for the same article to which the denial without prejudice relates within the 20 day period, or fails to resubmit a new application within the 90 day period, the prior denial without prejudice to resubmission will have the effect of a final decision denying their respective applications.

None of the applicants to which this consolidated decision relates has satisfied the requirements set forth above, therefore, the prior denials without prejudice have the effect of a final decision denying their respective applications.

Subsection 301.8 further provides: ". . . the Deputy Assistant Secretary shall transmit a summary of the prior denial without prejudice to resubmission to the Federal Register for publication, to the Commissioner of Customs, and to the applicant."

Each of the prior denials without prejudice to resubmission to which this consolidated decision relates was based on the failure of the respective applicants to submit the required documentation, including a completely executed application form, in sufficient detail to allow the issue of "scientific equivalency" to be determined by the Deputy Assistant Secretary.

EASTERN PACIFIC TUNA FISHERIES

Notice of Intent and Finding

In view of reports which indicate that extensive violations of the conservation recommendations of the Inter-American Tropical Tuna Commission (IATTC) have taken place by foreign vessels with respect to fishing for yellowfin tuna in the eastern Pacific Ocean, a public hearing was held by the National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS) on August 29, 1975, in San Diego, California.

The purpose of the hearing was, among other things, to receive relevant information from the U.S. fleet and other interested persons with respect to such alleged violations and to determine whether the various sanctions available to the United States under the provisions of the Tuna Conventions Act of 1950, as amended (16 U.S.C. 951 et seq.), might be applicable.

Under the Act, and regulations contained at 50 CFR, Part 281, the Director, NMFS, upon finding that the conduct of foreign fishing operations by any country in the regulatory area tends to diminish the effectiveness of the conservation recommendations of the Commission, shall prohibit the entry into the United States of fish subject to regulation under the convention caught in the regulatory area in violation of such conservation recommendations. Yellowfin tuna is currently the only species of fish under regulation by the Commission.

As a result of such hearing, the Director of the NMFS has made a preliminary determination that the information thus far received indicates that foreign flag fishing vessels are being used in the conduct of fishing operations in the regulatory area in such manner or in such circumstances as would tend to diminish the effectiveness of the conservation recommendations of the Commission. Before taking action on this information, the interested public is invited, within 15 days from the date of this Notice, to submit any additional information that may assist the Director of the NMFS in arriving at a final determination. Where the information consists of sightings of foreign vessels, it should be submitted in written form containing the name, flag and home port of vessel sighted; the time, date, and place of sighting; the name of the vessel from which the sighting is made, and place of sighting; the name of the vessel from which the sighting is made, and should be signed by the person making the sighting. Such information should be submitted to the Director, National Marine Fisheries Service, Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20235.

A final determination will be made on this matter within 30 days from the date of this Notice and will be published in the Federal Register. Prior to such determination, the Director of the NMFS will analyze any additional information received and, through the Department of State, discuss the matter with the appropriate foreign governments. It is the intention of the Director of the NMFS to impose an embargo on the importation of yellowfin tuna in any form taken from the regulatory area by all countries operating in a manner which tends to diminish the effectiveness of the conservation recommendations of the IATTC.

In addition to the embargo referred to above, the Act provides that, if there are repeated and flagrant fishing operations in the regulatory area by the vessels of any country which seriously threaten the achievement of the objectives of the Commission's recommendations, the Secretary of Commerce, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, may, in his discretion, also prohibit the entry from such country of such other species of tuna, in any form, that are under investigation by the Commission and which were taken in the regulatory area. This authority has been delegated to the Director of the NMFS.

In addition to the embargoes permitted under the Act, the Act directs the Secretary of Commerce to suspend at any time the application of regulations when, after consultation with the Secretary of State and the United States Commissioners of the IATTC, he determines that foreign fishing operations in the regulatory area are such as to constitute a serious threat to the achievement of the objectives of the Commission's recommendations. This authority has also been delegated to the Director of the NMFS.

Data available to the National Marine Fisheries Service indicates that approximately 8,000 tons of yellowfin tuna in 1975 through August 15 have been taken from the CYRA during the closed season contrary to the Commission's recommendations. It is estimated that during the remainder of the fishing season this could rise to 15,000-20,000 tons.

The IATTC recommended a quota for yellowfin tuna of 175,000 tons for 1975, with two increments of an additional 10,000 tons each of yellowfin tuna allowable at the discretion of the Director of Investigations of the Commission. In addition, the length of the open season was calculated on the assumption of a certain level of total catch from all sources.

The Director of the NMFS has determined that the current level of fishing by foreign vessels during the closed season in the Commission Yellowfin Regulatory Area (CYRA) does not support a finding that such fishing operations constitute a serious threat to the achievement of the objectives of the Inter-American Tropical Tuna Commission recommendations.

On the basis of information presently available, it is believed that the current level of operations by foreign vessels contrary to the IATTC recommendations coupled with the efforts expended in conformance with the conservation regime will not result in a total catch of yellowfin tuna in 1975 which is significantly above the 175,000 ton quota. In view of this evaluation, it is the determination of the National Marine Fisheries Service that the finding required by the Act to invoke an embargo on all species of tuna taken in the regulatory area or to support a suspension of the application of regulations governing the fishing for yellowfin tuna cannot be sustained at this time.

ROBERT L. BROWNELL, JR.
Issuance of Endangered Species
Permit—E6

On May 9, 1975, notice was published in the Federal Register (40 F.R. 20333) that applications had been filed with the National Marine Fisheries Service by Robert L. Brownell, Jr., Department of Vertebrate Zoology, National Museum of Natural History, Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D.C. 20560, for permits to take, by tagging, up to one hundred and fifty (150) fin whales (Balaenoptera physalus), two hundred and twenty-five (225) sei whales (Balaenoptera borealis), and four hundred and fifty (450) sperm whales (Physeter catodon) over a period of three years, in the western South Atlantic Ocean, for the purpose of scientific research.

Notice is hereby given that on August 27, 1975, the National Marine Fisheries Service issued a Scientific Purposes Permit, as authorized by the provisions of the Endangered Species Act of 1973 (16 U.S.C. 1531-1543) for the above mentioned taking, to Robert L. Brownell, Jr., subject to certain conditions set forth therein. Issuance of this permit, as required by the Endangered Species Act of 1973, is based on a finding that such permit: (1) was applied for in good faith; (2) will not operate to the disadvantage of the endangered species which are the subject of the permit; and (3) will be consistent with the purposes and policies set forth in Section 2 of the Endangered Species Act of 1973. This permit was also issued in accordance with and is subject to Parts 220 and 222 of Title 50 C.F.R., the National Marine Fisheries Service regulations governing endangered species permits (39 F.R. 41367, November 27, 1974).

Therefore, on July 3, 1975, in accordance with 42 C.F.R. 101.106, the Secretary

A similar permit (40 F.R. 30515, July 21, 1975) for the taking of these and other species of whales has been issued under the provisions of the Marine Mammal Protection Act of 1972 (16 U.S.C. 1361-1407).

The Scientific Purposes Permit is available for review by interested persons in the Division of Marine Mammals and Endangered Species, National Marine Fisheries Service, Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20235.

Dated: August 27, 1975.

NELLY AND ANDRE BRUNEAU
Receipt of Application for Public Display
Permit

Notice is hereby given that the following applicant has applied in due form for a permit to take marine mammals for public display as authorized by the Marine Mammal Protection Act of 1972 and the Regulations Governing the Taking and Importing of Marine Mammals.

Nelly and Andre Bruneau, Van Donwen's Seals, P.O. Box 2014, St. Augustine, Florida 32084, to take one (1) California sea lion (Zalophus californianus), which will be trained and exhibited in their traveling performing sea lion show.

The sea lion will be taken from the California Channel Islands by a professional collector.

The requested sea lion will be exhibited with four other sea lions currently displayed by the applicant.

The sea lions are transported between exhibition sites in a truck, 16 feet long, 8 feet wide and 9 feet high in interior dimensions. Two of the currently owned sea lions are maintained in individual cages, 4 by 4 feet and 3 by 4 feet, respectively. Two younger sea lions are kept in one cage, 7 feet wide and 4 feet deep. All cages are 6½ feet high. Similar space will be available for the requested sea lion. Two pools are available to the sea lions. One, 18 inches deep, is within the truck, directly beneath the cages. The second is a portable pool, 6 feet long, 5 feet wide and 3½ feet deep.

Van Donwen's Seals perform with circuses and at fairs and shopping centers. This trained sea lion show is presented for 8 to 10 minutes twice daily, with three shows on Saturday. Such shows are normally performed 25 to 30 weeks each year. Van Donwen's Seals have been exhibited throughout Europe and North America since 1955.

The arrangements and facilities for transporting and maintaining the marine mammal requested in the above application have been inspected by a licensed veterinarian, who has certified that such arrangements and facilities are adequate to provide for the well-being of the sea lion.

Documents submitted in connection with the above application are available for review at the following locations: Office of the Director, National Marine Fisheries Service, Department of Commerce, Washington, DC 20235; Office of the Regional Director, National Marine Fisheries Service, Southeast Region, Duval Building, 9450 Gandy Boulevard, St. Petersburg, Florida 33902; and the Office of the Regional Director, National Marine Fisheries Service, Southwest Region, 300 South Ferry Street, Terminal Island, California 90731.

Concurrent with the publication of this notice in the Federal Register, the Secretary of Commerce is forwarding copies of this application to the Marine Mammal Commission and the Committee of Scientific Advisors. Interested parties may submit written data or views, or requests for a public hearing on this application to the Director, National Marine Fisheries Service, Department of Commerce, Washington, DC 20235 within 30 days of the publication of this notice. The holding of such hearing is at the discretion of the Director.

All statements and opinions contained in this notice in support of this application are those of the Applicant and do not necessarily reflect the views of the National Marine Fisheries Service.

UTICA ZOOLOGICAL SOCIETY
Receipt of Application for Public Display
Permit

Notice is hereby given that the following applicant has applied in due form for a permit to take marine mammals for public display as authorized by the Marine Mammal Protection Act of 1972 and the Regulations Governing the Taking and Importing of Marine Mammals.

Utica Zoological Society, Steele Hill Road, Utica, New York 13502, requests to take two (2) California sea lions (Zalophus californianus) for the purpose of public display.

The California sea lions will be taken by a professional collector from the beaches of the California Channel Islands. The animals will be captured with nets during the period of November to April.

The animals will be maintained in a circular pool with a 37 foot diameter and a depth of 4 feet 4 inches having a capacity of 22,000 gallons. An Island 19 feet in diameter provides a haulout area and a heated compartment of nine square feet for winter quarters. The Utica Zoo is a non-profit publicly owned facility operated by the Utica Zoological Society. Admission to the Zoo is free and a nominal fee is charged at the Children's Zoo where the sea lions will be exhibited. An estimated 110,000 people visited the Zoo in 1974. Animal health care services are available from a local veterinarian. The animals will be on display six days a week during the period of May through October.

The arrangements and facilities for transporting and maintaining the marine mammals requested in the above application have been inspected by a licensed veterinarian who has certified that such arrangements and facilities are adequate to provide for the well-being of the animals.

Documents submitted with this application are available for review in the Office of the Director, National Marine Fisheries Service, Washington, DC 20235, and the Office of the Regional Director, National Marine Fisheries Service, Northeast Region, Federal Building, 14 Elm Street, Gloucester, Massachusetts 01930, and the Office of the Regional Director, Southwest Region, 300 Ferry Street, Terminal Island, California 90731.

Concurrent with publication of this notice in the Federal Register, the Secretary of Commerce is forwarding copies of this application to the Marine Mammal Commission and the Committee of Scientific Advisors.

Written views or data, or requests for a public hearing on this application should be submitted to the Director, National Marine Fisheries Service, Department of Commerce, Washington, DC 20235, within 30 days of the publication of this notice. The holding of such hearing is at the discretion of the Director.

All statements and opinions contained in this Notice in support of this application are summaries based upon information supplied by the Applicant and, therefore, do not necessarily reflect the views of the National Marine Fisheries Service.

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS REVIEW ORGANIZATION—CALIFORNIA
Results of Poll of Physicians in PSRO Area VI

On May 7, 1975, the Secretary of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare published in the FEDERAL REGISTER a notice in which he announced his intention to enter into an agreement with the Professional Standards Review Organization of San Mateo County, Inc., designating it as the Professional Standards Review Organization for PSRO Area VI located in the State of California, which area is designated a Professional Standards Review Organization Area in 42 CFR 101.7.

Such notice was also published in three consecutive issues of the San Mateo Times and News Leader on May 7, 8, and 9, 1975. In addition, copies of the notice were mailed to organizations of practicing doctors of medicine or osteopathy, including the appropriate State and county medical and specialty societies, and hospitals and other health care facilities in the area, with a request that each such society or facility inform those doctors in its membership or on its staff who are engaged in active practice in PSRO Area VI of the contents of the notice.

The notice requested that any licensed doctor of medicine or osteopathy engaged in active practice in PSRO Area VI who objects to the Secretary entering into an agreement with the Professional Standards Review Organization of San Mateo County, Inc., on the grounds that such organization is not representative of doctors in PSRO Area VI, mail such objection in writing to the Director, Office of Professional Standards Review, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, P.O. Box 1588, FDR Station, New York, New York 10022, on or before June 6, 1975.

After reviewing the final tabulation of objections from doctors of medicine or osteopathy in PSRO Area VI, the Secretary has determined, pursuant to 42 CFR 101.105, that more than 10 per centum of the doctors engaged in the active practice of medicine or osteopathy in PSRO Area VI have expressed timely objection to entering into an agreement with the Professional Standards Review Organization of San Mateo County, Inc.

NOTICES

Therefore, on July 3, 1975, in accordance with 42 CFR 101.106, the Secretary of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare published in the FEDERAL REGISTER a notice announcing a poll to be conducted of all doctors of medicine or osteopathy engaged in active practice in PSRO Area VI to determine whether the Professional Standards Review Organization of San Mateo County, Inc., is representative of such doctors in the area.

Such notice was also published in the San Mateo Times and News Leader on July 3, 1975. In addition, copies of the notice were mailed to organizations of practicing doctors of medicine or osteopathy, including the appropriate State and county medical and specialty societies, and hospitals and other health care facilities in the area, with a request that each such society or facility inform those doctors in its membership or on its staff who are engaged in active practice in PSRO Area VI of the contents of the notice.

The notice stated that a ballot was to be mailed to each such doctor in which he was to indicate whether in his opinion the Professional Standards Review Organization of San Mateo County, Inc., was or was not representative of the doctors of medicine or osteopathy engaged in active practice in PSRO Area VI. The notice also requested that any licensed doctor of medicine or osteopathy engaged in active practice in PSRO Area VI who had not received a ballot by July 8, 1975, might request in writing a ballot from the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, P.O. Box 1588, FDR Station, New York, New York 10022. According to the notice, only those ballots postmarked no later than August 2, 1975, and returned in the stamped self-addressed envelope provided to each individual doctor would be considered valid.

A ballot and envelope together with a letter of explanation was mailed to each individual doctor of medicine or osteopathy whom the Secretary determined, pursuant to 42 CFR 101.103, to be engaged in the active practice of medicine or osteopathy in the PSRO Area.

The counting of the ballots took place in a proceeding open to the public at the City Council Chambers, City Hall, 330 West 20th Avenue, San Mateo, California, on August 8, 1975.

After reviewing the final tabulation of valid ballots received from doctors of medicine or osteopathy in PSRO Area VI, the Secretary has determined, pursuant to 42 CFR 101.107, that more than 50 percent of the doctors responding to the poll indicated that the Professional Standards Review Organization of San Mateo County, Inc., was not representative of the medical and osteopathic communities. Therefore the Secretary will not designate the San Mateo PSRO as a conditional Professional Standards Review Organization for San Mateo County.

Any doctor in the area who files a written request for a recount for purposes of challenging the eligibility of a physician to participate in the poll shall identify the particular physician and state the reasons that form the basis for the challenge. If the total number of ballots challenged and/or the total number of ballots found to be invalid do not exceed the difference between the number of tabulated ballots which indicate that the organization is representative of the doctors in the area and the number of tabulated ballots which indicate that the organization is not representative of the doctors in the area, the Secretary will so state in a notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER and the result of the polling will be final. If the total number of ballots challenged and/or the total number of ballots found to be invalid do exceed the difference between the number of tabulated ballots which indicate that the organization is representative of the doctors in the area and the number of tabulated ballots which indicate that the organization is not representative of the doctors in the area, a recount will be conducted.

If five doctors file a written request for a recount on or before 10 days after the date this Notice appears in the FEDERAL REGISTER for the purpose of obtaining a second tabulation of the ballots, a recount shall be conducted without a reverification of the ballots.

Social Security Administration
COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SECURITY
Delegations of Authority Pertaining To Adjustment Conferences in Overpayment Cases

Under section 205(b) of the Social Security Act, as amended (the Act), the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (the Secretary) may make findings of fact and decisions affecting the rights of individuals to benefits under provisions of title II of the Act, as well as determinations not affecting the rights of individuals to such benefits. Under section 204(b) of the Act, the Secretary is authorized to waive recovery of incorrect payments made under provisions of title II where the overpaid individual is without fault and recovery would defeat the purpose of title II or would be against equity and good conscience. The Secretary has delegated the authority to perform these functions to the Commissioner of Social Security (the Commissioner), with authority to redelegate (33 FR 5836-37, dated April 16, 1968).

To comply with an order issued by the U.S. District Court, W.D. Washington, in the case of Buffington-Biner v. Weinberger, Civil No. 734-7302, the Social Security Administration (SSA), pending appeal of the order, will give individuals who incur an overpayment under section 202 of the Act, an opportunity for an oral hearing prior to taking any action to recover the overpayment by adjusting or reducing section 202 benefits. The conference must be conducted by an SSA employee who did not participate in the prior overpayment determination. Interim procedures have been established to provide for such conferences. Beginning August 15, 1975, a 6-month test will be conducted to determine which SSA employees can most effectively and efficiently conduct preadjustment review conferences in these cases.

Notice is hereby given that, in conjunction with SSA's interim procedures relative to preadjustment conferences in section 202 overpayment cases, the Commissioner has delegated the following authorities to the position of Associate Commissioner for Program Operations, to conduct preadjustment review conferences and to make decisions on these cases:

1. Authority, under section 205(b) of the Social Security Act, as amended (the Act), to make findings of fact and decisions affecting the rights of individuals;
2. Authority, under section 205(b) of the Act, to make determinations not affecting the rights of individuals;
3. Authority, under section 204(b) of the Act, to approve or deny waiver of adjustment or recovery of incorrect payments.

The Associate Commissioner for Program Operations may, in turn, redelegate the authorities described above only to personnel who:

1. Hold positions as Claims Representatives (Social Insurance Representatives, GS-105-7 and above); or Field Representatives (Social Insurance Representatives, GS-105-10); or
2. Hold positions as Reconsideration Reviewers (Social Insurance Claims Examiners, Retirement, GS-993-11 or above); or

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Federal Aviation Administration
[Docket No. 14976]

STUDY OF AVIATION WAR RISK INSURANCE

Notice of Public Meeting and Request for Comments

The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) is conducting an investigation and study of the possible need for expanding the Aviation War Risk Insurance Program required under Section 3 of Public Law 94-90 (89 Stat. 439) and Executive Order No. 11875, dated August 9, 1975 (40 FR 33961; August 13, 1975). The purpose of this notice is to invite public participation in this study by submitting written comments to the docket and making oral presentations at the public meeting to be conducted for that purpose on September 30, 1975.

Section 3 of Public Law 94-90 requires that the President conduct an investigation and study of the possible expansion of the Aviation War Risk Insurance Program and report to Congress within 90 days the results of this investigation and study together with his recommendation, if any, for legislation. By Executive Order 11875 the President has designated the Secretary of Transportation, who in turn, has delegated to the Federal Aviation Administration the responsibility for conducting the investigation and study, developing the report, and the drafting of recommendations, if any, for legislation.

Authority for the Aviation War Risk Insurance Program is set forth in Title XIII of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended, (49 U.S.C. 1531, et seq.). Implementing regulations are prescribed in Part 198 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR Part 198).

The existing authority of the Secretary of Transportation is limited to "war risks" including to the extent he may determine all or any part of those risks described in "free of capture and seizure" and analogous clauses in commercial insurance policies. This investigation and study is considering the possible legislative expansion of this coverage to include losses and damage resulting from riots, civil disorder, hijacking or other similar acts which are normally subject to the exclusionary provisions of commercial insurance policies.

Interested persons are invited to participate in this study by submitting such relevant written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Written communications should identify the docket number and be submitted in duplicate to the Federal Aviation Administration, Office of the Chief Counsel, Attention: Dockets Section, AGC-24, 800 Independence Avenue SW., Washington, D.C. 20591. All written communications received before September 30, 1975, will be considered by the FAA in the preparation of the study report.

Any comment regarding the legislative expansion of the Aviation War Risk Insurance Program is of interest; however, the FAA specifically invites statements or comments regarding the following possible approaches to the Aviation War Risk Insurance Program under Subsection 1301(b) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958:

1. Leaving the present language in Subsection 1301(b) and relying on the existing authority of the Secretary of Transportation to provide coverage to risks related to a "war" or "free of capture and seizure" situation.

2. Amending Subsection 1301(b) by adding at the end thereof: "and, all or any part of those risks which are directly related to and arise out of such war risks."

3. Amending Subsection 1301(b) by changing the period presently at the end thereof to a comma and by adding after that comma the following: "and also includes, to such extent as the Secretary may determine, all or any part of any other risk of loss and damage from—(i) detonation of an explosive, any weapon of war, or any exercise of military power, and (ii) riots, civil commotion, hijacking, and any other act intended to cause loss, damage, injury or death however described (other than acts of employees or agents of the insured in connection with a labor dispute with the insured)."

4. Amending Subsection 1301(b) by adding at the end thereof: "and, any intentional act, whether or not intended to cause loss or damage."

The FAA will conduct a public meeting on the subject matter of this notice on September 30, 1975, convening at 9:30 a.m. in Conference Rooms 7A and B on the seventh floor of the Federal Aviation Administration Building, 800 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. The meeting will be informal in nature and will be conducted by a designated representative of the Administrator.

Since the meeting will not be evidentiary or judicial in nature, there will be no cross-examination or other adjudicatory procedure applied to the presentations. However, interested persons wishing to make rebuttal statements may be given the opportunity to do so, if time permits, at the conclusion of the presentations in the same order in which initial statements are made. Persons wishing to make oral statements at the meeting must notify the FAA that they desire to be heard, and indicate the amount of time requested for their initial statements. Presentations will be scheduled on a first-come-first-served basis, as time may permit. Persons requesting to be heard at the public meeting or wishing to receive additional information about the study should contact Mr. Theron A. Gray, (AGC-10), Office of the Chief Counsel, Federal Aviation Administration, 800 Independence Avenue SW., Washington, D.C. 20591, or telephone (202) 426-3362.

Issued in Washington on September 9, 1975.

Chief Counsel.

BOARD ON GEOGRAPHIC NAMES FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC GEOGRAPHIC NAMES

Notice of Availability of Information

The United States Board on Geographic Names (BGN) is a Federal body which, in conjunction with the Secretary of Interior, is authorized by law (61 Stat. 456, 43 U.S.C. 364) to standardize the spelling of names of foreign and domestic geographic features for official U.S. use. Comprised of representatives of nine departments and agencies, BGN operates through various standing and advisory committees to determine standard spellings and applications of geographic names. Information on BGN-approved names is maintained in BGN files and is disseminated to users in various ways.

In the process of standardizing geographic names, BGN works to establish the spelling of names of cities, rivers, mountains, and of other geographic features, and to determine latitude and longitude and other relevant locational data for these features. Its work on foreign names covers foreign countries and entities, Antarctica, undersea areas, and extraterrestrial bodies. Its responsibilities for domestic names includes the United States and its dependencies.

For information about BGN and its general programs, interested parties should call or write Dr. Richard R. Randall, Executive Secretary, US Board on Geographic Names, Defense Mapping Agency, Bldg. 56, US Naval Observatory, Washington, D.C. 20305, telephone (202) 254-4453.

BGN FOREIGN NAMES PROGRAM

As a result of its foreign-names program, BGN has created a file of over four million standardized foreign geographic names, and has issued gazetteers of nearly 150 countries and areas. In addition, a telephone inquiry service is operated to furnish information about names. Staff support for names research and for the dissemination of names information is provided by the Defense Mapping Agency (DMA), an element of the Defense Department.

For general information about BGN foreign-names programs, persons should call or write Dr. Randall. BGN Gazetteers are available from the Geographic Names Division of the DMA Topographic Center at this telephone number: (202) 227-2076. (It should be noted that while Gazetteers are recommended as the primary source of BGN-approved foreign names, certain volumes may be in short supply.)

Information about specific foreign place names may be obtained from the DMA Geographic Names Division Inquiry Desk at: (202) 227-2362.

BGN DOMESTIC NAMES PROGRAM

The BGN program to standardize domestic names includes the maintenance of a file now containing some 55,000 names, the publication of a quarterly list of names (Decisions on Geographic Names in the United States), and the operation of an inquiry service. These activities are supported by the U.S. Geological Survey, an agency of the Department of the Interior.

For information about domestic names, persons should write or call Mr. Donald J. Orth, Executive Secretary for Domestic Names, US Board on Geographic Names, National Center (Stop 523), Reston, Virginia 22092, telephone (703) 860-6261. (Calls from the Washington, D.C. area do not require the Area Code.)

Enforcement Proceeding Regarding Possible Substantial Product Hazard Involving Airless Paint Spray Guns; Prehearing Conference

In the matter of Spray Tech Corporation d/b/a Wagner/Spray Tech Corporation and Peter E. Bader, enforcement proceeding regarding possible substantial product hazard involving airless paint spray guns, [Docket No. CPSC 75-71], notice of prehearing conference.

The Commission, having on August 5, 1975, issued a Notice of Enforcement directed to the above named Respondents setting forth that in the opinion of its Staff an undetermined number of airless paint spray cup guns including but not limited to model W-280 which are manufactured and sold in commerce by Respondents to consumers either directly or through distributors and/or retailers under various brand names including but not limited to Spray Tech, Wagner, Ashland or Sears may present a substantial product hazard within the meaning of section 15 of the Consumer Product Safety Act (15 U.S.C. 2064), which Notice of Enforcement (copy attached) seeks re-

Act as amended, the Administrator promulgated regulations in 40 CFR Part

Bay Area District would be deemed to have accepted all the terms of the delegation.

Regulation 8 of the District, except as provided in this paragraph. Should the District grant such variance, EPA will consider the

of objections within 10 days of the date of receipt of this letter, the State and District will be deemed to have accepted all of the tablishing standards of performance for twelve categories of new stationary sources (NSPS). In addition, on April 6,

Enforcement (copy attached) seeks relief under section 15 (c) and (d) of said Act in the form of an order directing Respondents to give notice to the public in general and all purchasers of its airless spray cup guns of the hazardous nature of said products and that, in addition, Respondents be ordered to elect to repair, replace, or to refund the purchase price of the affected paint sprayers; and

Respondents, having on September 2, 1975, filed an answer generally denying the charges contained in the Notice of Enforcement and alleging that said Notice fails to constitute a prima facie case of violation; that said Notice fails to contain a clear and concise factual statement sufficient to inform Respondents with reasonable definiteness of the acts or practices alleged to be violations of law; that said Respondents have been unfairly, arbitrarily and discriminatorily singled out for prosecution by the Commission in violation of the Fifth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution; and that Respondents' Fifth Amendment rights have also been violated by contradictory and inconsistent approaches by the Staff in seeking agreements to a voluntary corrective action plan and initiating the pending enforcement proceeding before the Commission or its Staff has ruled upon or evaluated such plan;

Therefore, issue having been joined, and a Presiding Officer, Administrative Law Judge Paul N. Pfeiffer, having been duly designated by the Commission to conduct the adjudicative hearing required under Section 15(f) of the Act;

Notice is hereby given that a prehearing conference in the above-entitled proceeding will be held at 10 a.m. (EDST) Tuesday, September 23, 1975, in the Commission's Seventh Floor Conference Room at 1750 K Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20207 for the purpose of further defining the issues to be heard, considering offers of settlement requests for discovery, disclosure of names of witnesses, estimating the length of each presentation and establishing dates for exchange of testimony and exhibits and the time and place for hearing.

Memoranda concerning the above matters should be exchanged by counsel by the close of business Friday, September 19, 1975 with two copies to the Office of the Administrative Law Judge.

Dated: September 5, 1975.

CALIFORNIA; BAY AREA AIR POLLUTION CONTROL DISTRICT

Delegation of Authority

On December 23, 1971 (36 FR 24876) and March 8, 1974 (29 FR 9308), pursuant to Section 111 of the Clean Air

NOTICES

Act as amended, the Administrator promulgated regulations in 40 CFR Part 60 establishing standards of performance for twelve categories of new stationary sources (NSPS). In addition, on April 6, 1973 (38 FR 8820), pursuant to section 112 of the Clean Air Act, as amended, the Administrator promulgated in 40 CFR Part 61 national emission standards for three hazardous air pollutants (NESHAPS). Sections 111(c) and 112(d) require the Administrator to delegate authority to implement and enforce the standards to any State which submits an adequate procedure. Nevertheless, the Administrator retains concurrent authority to implement and enforce the standards following delegation of authority to a State.

On August 19, 1973, the Regional Administrator, Region IX forwarded to the States in his Region information setting forth the requirements for an adequate procedure for implementing the enforcing the NSPS and NESHAPS. On January 13, 1975, William Simmons, Executive Office of the State of California Air Resources Board, submitted a request on behalf of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District for delegation of authority to implement and enforce the NSPS and NESHAPS. Included in that request were copies of the NSPS and NESHAPS regulations adopted by the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District. Also included were citations to State law and District regulations which provide the State and District with the requisite authority to implement and enforce the NSPS AND NESHAPS.

After a thorough review of the request for delegation, the Regional Administrator notified Mr. Simmons on April 4, 1975 that authority to implement and enforce the NSPS and NESHAPS was delegated to the State of California on behalf of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District. By letter dated April 15, 1975, Mr. Simmons notified the Regional Administrator that the Air Resources Board was unwilling to agree to the wording of two of the conditions contained in the EPA letter of April 4, 1975. Accordingly, on May 23, 1975 the Regional Administrator sent the following official letter to Mr. Simmons:

Mr. WILLIAM SIMMONS,
Executive Officer
California Air Resources Board
1709 11th Street,
Sacramento, CA 95814

DEAR MR. SIMMONS:

On January 13, 1975 you transmitted to EPA a letter in which you requested delegation of authority for implementation and enforcement of the Standards of Performance for New Stationary Sources (NSPS) and the National Emission Standards for Hazardous Air Pollutants (NESHAPS) to the State of California on behalf of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District. By letter dated April 4, 1975, EPA delegated such authority to the State of California on behalf of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District. That letter contained certain conditions relating to the delegation and further specified that unless EPA received from the State written notice of objections within 10 days of the date of receipt of the letter, the State and

Bay Area District would be deemed to have accepted all the terms of the delegation.

By letter dated April 15, 1975, the State of California Air Resources Board objected to the terms of two of the conditions (numbers 5 and 8) in the EPA letter of delegation. EPA has determined that clarification of conditions 5 and 8 is appropriate in light of the questions raised by the State and District concerning the interpretation of those paragraphs. EPA believes that clarification of the language of condition 4 of that letter is also appropriate in response to informal discussions between the State, Bay Area District, and EPA concerning the interpretation of that condition.

The State's objections to the conditions contained in EPA's letter of delegation of April 4, 1975 have caused that delegation to be without legal force or effect. This letter shall therefore be deemed to constitute the sole effective delegation of the NSPS and NESHAPS to the State of California on behalf of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District.

We have reviewed the pertinent laws of the State of California and the rules and regulations of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District, and have determined that they provide an adequate and effective procedure for implementation and enforcement of the NSPS and NESHAPS by the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District and the State of California. Therefore, we hereby grant delegation of the NSPS and NESHAPS to the State of California on behalf of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District as follows:

A. Authority for all sources located in the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District subject to the standards of performance for new stationary sources promulgated in 40 CFR Part 60 as of the date of delegation. The 12 categories of new sources covered by the delegation are fossil fuel-fired steam generators; incinerators; portland cement plants; nitric acid plants; sulfuric acid plants; asphalt concrete plants; petroleum refineries; storage vessels for petroleum liquids; secondary lead smelters; secondary brass and bronze ingot production plants; iron and steel plants; and sewage treatment plants.

B. Authority for all sources located in the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District subject to the national emission standards for hazardous air pollutants promulgated in 40 CFR Part 61 as of the date of delegation. The 3 hazardous air pollutants covered by the delegation are asbestos; beryllium and mercury.

This delegation is based upon the following conditions: 1. Semi-annual reports will be submitted to EPA by the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District through the Air Resources Board as specified in the State's Request for Delegation.

2. Enforcement of the NSPS and NESHAPS in the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District will be the primary responsibility of the District and the State of California Air Resources Board. If the District and State determine that such enforcement is not feasible and so notify EPA, or where the District or State act in a manner inconsistent with the terms of this delegation, EPA will exercise its concurrent enforcement authority pursuant to Section 113 of the Clean Air Act, as amended, with respect to sources within the Bay Area District subject to the NSPS and NESHAPS.

3. The State of California and the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District are not requesting delegation of authority over federal facilities within the District which are subject to the NSPS and NESHAPS.

4. The Bay Area Air Pollution Control District will at no time grant a variance from compliance with either Regulation 7 or

NOTICES

Regulation 8 of the District, except as provided in this paragraph. Should the District grant such variance, EPA will consider the source receiving the variance to be in violation of the applicable federal regulation and may initiate enforcement action against the source pursuant to Section 113 of the Clean Air Act. The granting of such variances by the District shall also constitute grounds for revocation of delegation by EPA. However, if the Bay Area District in the future amends Regulation 7 or 8 so as to make the District regulation more stringent than the applicable federal regulation, the Bay Area District may grant variances from the more stringent District regulation if such variances do not relieve subject sources of the responsibility of complying with standards equally as stringent as those contained in the applicable federal regulations.

5. The Bay Area Air Pollution Control District will utilize the methods specified in 40 CFR Parts 60 and 61 in performing source tests pursuant to the regulations. However, the District, through the Air Resources Board, has also submitted to EPA for its evaluation certain tests methods normally used by the District. EPA is proceeding with its evaluation of these District methods to determine whether they are acceptable for use as "alternative" test methods within the meaning of the federal NSPS regulations. When this evaluation is completed, EPA will promptly notify the State and District and provision will be made at that time for any modification of the terms of this delegation which may then be appropriate. Any use of test methods by the District, after delegation, not in accordance with the terms and conditions of this delegation shall constitute grounds for revocation of delegation by EPA.

6. The Air Resources Board and EPA will develop a system of communication sufficient to guarantee that each office is always fully informed regarding the current compliance status of subject sources in the Bay Area District and regarding the interpretation of applicable regulations.

7. If at any time there is a conflict between a State or Bay Area Air Pollution Control District regulation and a federal regulation (40 CFR Part 60 or 61), the federal regulation must be applied if it is more stringent than that of the State or District. In the event of such a conflict, if either the Air Resources Board or the Bay Area District determine that it is unwilling or unable to apply the more stringent federal regulation, it will so notify EPA. EPA, in consultation with the Air Resources Board and the Bay Area District, will then modify or revoke the terms of this delegation to the extent it determines to be appropriate.

8. If the Regional Administrator determines that a State or Bay Area Air Pollution Control District procedure for enforcing or implementing the NSPS or NESHAPS is inadequate, or is not being effectively carried out, this delegation may be revoked in whole or in part. Any such revocation shall be effective as of the date specified in a Notice of Revocation to the Air Resources Board.

A Notice announcing this delegation will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER in the near future. The Notice will state, among other things, that, effective immediately, all reports required pursuant to the federal NSPS and NESHAPS by sources located in the Bay Area District should be submitted to the District Office at 600 Fifth Street, San Francisco, California 94109. Any such reports which have been or may be received by EPA, Region IX, will be promptly transmitted to the District.

Since this delegation is effective immediately, there is no requirement that the State notify EPA of its acceptance. Unless EPA receives from the State written notice of objections within 10 days of the date of receipt of this letter, the State and District will be deemed to have accepted all of the terms of the delegation.

Sincerely,

PAUL DE FALCO, Jr.,
Regional Administrator.

cc: Bay Area Air Pollution Control District EPA received no notice from the Air Resources Board or the District of objections to the May 23, 1975 letter.

By letter dated June 16, 1975, the Regional Administrator amended the May 23, 1975 letter of delegation to add a new condition 10 as follows:

10. As of the date of this delegation, sources subject to the NSPS and NESHAPS located within the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District are required to submit all reports pursuant to the NSPS and NESHAPS directly to the Bay Area District. Such sources are no longer required to submit reports to Region IX, EPA.

By letter dated July 18, 1975, the Regional Administrator again amended the May 23, 1975 letter of delegation to add condition 3, which had inadvertently been omitted from the May 23 letter. Condition 3 reads as follows:

3. Acceptance of this delegation of presently-promulgated NSPS and NESHAPS does not commit the State of California and the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District to request or accept delegation of future standards and requirements. A new request for delegation will be required for any standards not included in the State's request of January 13, 1975.

Copies of the request for delegation of authority and the Regional Administrator's letter of delegation and amendments thereto are available for public inspection at the following addresses:

California Air Resources Board, 1709 11th Street, Sacramento CA 95814.
Environmental Protection Agency, Region IX, Enforcement Division, 100 California Street, San Francisco CA 94111.
Division of Stationary Source Enforcement, Room 3202 Waterside Mall, 401 "M" Street, SW., Washington, D.C. 20460.

Effective immediately, all reports required pursuant to the NSPS and NESHAPS by sources located in the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District should be submitted to the office of the Air Pollution Control District, located at 939 Ellis Street, San Francisco, CA 94109.

Dated: August 19, 1975.

CALIFORNIA; HUMBOLDT COUNTY AND DEL NORTE COUNTY AIR POLLUTION CONTROL DISTRICTS

Delegation of Authority

On December 23, 1971 (36 FR 24876) and March 8, 1974 (29 FR 9308), pursuant to Section 111 of the Clean Air Act, as amended, the Administrator promulgated regulations in 40 CFR Part 60 establishing standards of performance for twelve categories of new stationary sources (NSPS). In addition, on April 6, 1973 (38 FR 8820), pursuant to section 112 of the Clean Air Act, as amended, the Administrator promulgated in 40 CFR Part 61 national emission standards for three hazardous air pollutants (NESHAPS). Sections 111(c) and 112(d) require the Administrator to delegate authority to implement and enforce the standards to any State which submits an adequate procedure. Nevertheless, the Administrator retains concurrent authority to implement and enforce the standards following delegation of authority to a State.

On August 19, 1973, the Regional Administrator, Region IX forwarded to the States in his Region information setting forth the requirements for an adequate procedure for implementing and enforcing the NSPS and NESHAPS. On March 27, 1975, William Simmons, Executive Officer of the State of California Air Resources Board, submitted a request on behalf of the Humboldt County and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control Districts for delegation of authority to implement and enforce the NSPS and NESHAPS. Included in that request were copies of the NSPS and NESHAPS regulations adopted by the Humboldt County and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control Districts and citations to State law and District regulations which provide the State and Districts with the requisite authority to implement and enforce the NSPS and NESHAPS.

After a thorough review of the request for delegation, the Regional Administrator has determined that for the source categories set forth in paragraphs (A) and (B) of the following official letter to Mr. Simmons, delegation is appropriate subject to the conditions set forth in paragraphs (1) through (10) of that letter:

Mr. WILLIAM SIMMONS,
Executive Officer,
California Air Resources Board
1709 11th Street
Sacramento CA 95814

DEAR MR. SIMMONS:

This is in response to your letter of March 27, 1975, requesting delegation of authority for implementation and enforcement of the Standards of Performance for New Stationary Sources (NSPS) and the National Emission Standards for Hazardous Air Pollutants (NESHAPS) to the State of California on behalf of the Humboldt County and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control District.

We have reviewed the pertinent laws of the State of California and the rules and regulations of the Humboldt County and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control Districts, and have determined that they provide an adequate and effective procedure for implementation and enforcement of the NSPS and NESHAPS by the Air Pollution Control Districts and the State of California. Therefore, we hereby grant delegation of the NSPS and NESHAPS to the State of California on behalf of the Humboldt County and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control Districts as follows:

A. Authority for twelve categories of new sources located in the Humboldt County and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control Districts subject to the standards of performance for new stationary sources promulgated in 40 CFR Part 60 as of the date of delegation.

authority pursuant to Section 113 of the Clean Air Act, as amended, with respect to sources within the Monterey Bay District subject to the NSPS and NESHAPS.

near future. The Notice will state, among other things, that, effective immediately, all reports required pursuant to the federal NSPS and NESHAPS by sources located in ance for new stationary sources promulgated in 40 CFR Part 60 as of the date of delegation. The categories of new sources covered by the delegation are fossil fuel-fired steam generators; incinerators; portland cement plants; nitric acid plants; sulfuric acid plants; asphalt concrete plants; petroleum refineries; storage vessels for petroleum liquids; secondary lead smelters; secondary brass and bronze ingot production plants; iron and steel plants; and sewage treatment plants.

B. Authority for all sources located in the Humboldt County and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control Districts subject to the national emission standards for three hazardous air pollutants promulgated in 40 CFR Part 61 as of the date of delegation. The hazardous air pollutants covered by the delegation are asbestos; beryllium; and mercury.

This delegation is based upon the following conditions: 1. Semi-annual reports will be submitted to EPA by the Humboldt County and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control Districts through the State of California Air Resources Board as specified in the State's Request for Delegation.

2. Enforcement of the NSPS and NESHAPS in the Humboldt County and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control Districts will be the primary responsibility of the Districts and the State of California Air Resources Board. If either District and the State determine that such enforcement is not feasible and so notify EPA, or where either District or the State act in a manner inconsistent with the terms of this delegation, EPA will exercise its concurrent enforcement authority pursuant to Section 113 of the Clean Air Act, as amended, with respect to sources within the appropriate District subject to the NSPS and NESHAPS.

3. Acceptance of this delegation of presently-promulgated NSPS and NESHAPS does not commit the State of California and the Humboldt County and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control Districts to request or accept delegation of future standards and requirements. A new request for delegation will be required for any standards not included in the State's Request of March 27, 1975.

4. The State of California and the Humboldt County and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control Districts are not requesting delegation of authority over Federal facilities within the Districts which are subject to the NSPS and NESHAPS. However, this does not relieve Federal facilities of the responsibility of complying with all applicable State laws and Humboldt County or Del Norte County District regulations.

5. The Humboldt County and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control Districts will at no time grant a variance from compliance with either Rule 65 or 66 of the Humboldt County District, or Rule 48 or 49 of the Del Norte County District, respectively, except as provided in this paragraph. Should either District grant such a variance, EPA will consider the source receiving the variance to be in violation of the applicable Federal regulation and may initiate enforcement action against the source pursuant to Section 113 of the Clean Air Act. The granting of such variances by the District shall also constitute grounds for revocation of delegation by EPA. However, if the Humboldt County District or Del Norte County District in the future amend either Rule 65 or 66, or Rule 48 or 49, respectively, so as to make the District regulation more stringent than the applicable Federal regulation, the District may grant variances from the more stringent District regulation if such variances do not relieve subject sources of the responsibility of complying with standards equally as stringent as those contained in the applicable Federal regulations.

6. The Humboldt County and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control District will utilize only the methods specified in 40 CFR Parts 60 and 61 in performing source tests pursuant to the NSPS and NESHAPS regulations. Any use of test methods by a District, after delegation, not in accordance with the terms and conditions of this delegation shall constitute grounds for revocation of delegation by EPA.

7. The Air Resources Board and EPA will develop a system of communication sufficient to guarantee that each office is always fully informed regarding the current compliance status of subject sources in the Humboldt County and Del Norte County Air Pollution Control Districts and regarding interpretation of applicable regulations.

8. If at any time there is a conflict between a State or Humboldt County or Del Norte County Air Pollution Control District regulation and a Federal regulation (40 CFR Part 60 or 61), the Federal regulation must be applied if it is more stringent than that of the State or District. In the event of such a conflict, if either the Air Resources Board or the District determine that it is unwilling or unable to apply the more stringent Federal regulation, it will so notify EPA. EPA, in consultation with the Air Resources Board and the District, will then modify or revoke the terms of this delegation to the extent it determines to be appropriate.

9. If the Regional Administrator determines that a State or Humboldt County or Del Norte County Air Pollution Control District procedure for enforcing or implementing the NSPS or NESHAPS is inadequate, or is not being effectively carried out, this delegation may be revoked in whole or in part. Any such revocation shall be effective as of the date specified in a Notice of Revocation to the Air Resources Board.

10. As of the date of this delegation, sources subject to the NSPS and NESHAPS located within either the Humboldt County or Del Norte County Air Pollution Control District are required to submit all reports pursuant to the NSPS and NESHAPS directly to the appropriate Air Pollution Control District. Such sources are no longer required to submit reports to Region IX, EPA.

A Notice announcing this delegation will be published in the Federal Register in the near future. This Notice will state, among other things, that, effective immediately, all reports required pursuant to the Federal NSPS and NESHAPS by sources located in the Humboldt County Air Pollution Control District should be submitted to the Air Pollution Control District Office at 5600 S. Broadway, Eureka, CA 95501, and that all such reports by sources located in the Del Norte County Air Pollution Control District should be submitted to the Air Pollution Control District Office at Courthouse, Crescent City, CA 95531. Any such reports which have been or may be received by EPA, Region IX, will be promptly transmitted to the appropriate District.

Since this delegation is effective immediately, there is no requirement that the State notify EPA of its acceptance. Unless EPA receives from the State written notice of objections within 10 days of the date of receipt of this letter, the State and Districts will be deemed to have accepted all of the terms of the delegation.

Sincerely,

PAUL DE FALCO, Jr.,
Regional Administrator.

CALIFORNIA; MONTEREY BAY UNIFIED AIR POLLUTION CONTROL DISTRICT Delegation of Authority

On December 23, 1971 (36 FR 24876) and March 8, 1974 (29 FR 9308), pursuant to Section 111 of the Clean Air Act, as amended, the Administrator promulgated regulations in 40 CFR Part 60 establishing standards of performance for twelve categories of new stationary sources (NSPS). In addition, on April 6, 1973 (38 FR 8820), pursuant to section 112 of the Clean Air Act, as amended, the Administrator promulgated in 40 CFR Part 61 national emission standards for three hazardous air pollutants (NESHAPS). Sections 111(c) and 112(d) require the Administrator to delegate authority to implement and enforce the standards to any State which submits an adequate procedure. Nevertheless, the Administrator retains concurrent authority to implement and enforce the standards following delegation of authority to a State.

On August 19, 1973, the Regional Administrator, Region IX forwarded to the States in his Region information setting forth the requirements for an adequate procedure for implementing and enforcing the NSPS and NESHAPS. On February 19, 1975, William Simmons, Executive Officer of the State of California Air Resources Board, submitted a request on behalf of the Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control District for delegation of authority to implement and enforce the NSPS and NESHAPS. Included in that request were copies of the NSPS and NESHAPS regulations adopted by the Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control District and citations to State law and District regulations which provide the State and District with the requisite authority to implement and enforce the NSPS and NESHAPS.

After a thorough review of the request for delegation, the Regional Administrator has determined that for the source categories set forth in paragraphs (A) and (B) of the following official letter to Mr. Simmons, delegation is appropriate subject to the conditions set forth in paragraphs (1) through (9) of that letter:

MR. WILLIAM SIMMONS,
Executive Officer
California Air Resources Board
1709 11th Street
Sacramento CA 95814

DEAR MR. SIMMONS:

This is in response to your letter of February 19, 1975, requesting delegation of authority for implementation and enforcement of the Standards of Performance for New Stationary Sources (NSPS) and the National Emission Standards for Hazardous Air Pollutants (NESHAPS) to the State of California on behalf of the Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control District.

We have reviewed the pertinent laws of the State of California and the rules and regulations of the Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control District, and have determined that they provide an adequate and effective procedure for implementation and enforcement of the NSPS and NESHAPS by the Air Pollution Control District and the State of California. Therefore, we hereby grant delegation of the NSPS and NESHAPS to the State of California on behalf of the Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control District as follows:

A. Authority for six categories of new sources located in the Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control District subject to the standards of performance for new stationary sources promulgated in 40 CFR Part 60 as of the date of delegation. The six categories of new sources covered by the delegation are fossil fuel-fired steam generators; incinerators; portland cement plants; asphalt concrete plants; storage vessels for petroleum liquids; and sewage treatment plants.

B. Authority for all sources located in the Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control District subject to the national emission standards for hazardous air pollutants promulgated in 40 CFR Part 61 as of the date of delegation. The three hazardous air pollutants covered by the delegation are asbestos; beryllium; and mercury.

This delegation is based upon the following conditions: 1. Semi-annual reports will be submitted to EPA by the Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control District through the Air Resources Board as specified in the State's Request for Delegation.

2. Enforcement of the NSPS and NESHAPS in the Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control District will be the primary responsibility of the District and the State of California Air Resources Board. If the District and State determine that such enforcement is not feasible and so notify EPA, or where the District or State act in a manner inconsistent with the terms of this delegation, EPA will exercise its concurrent enforcement authority pursuant to Section 113 of the Clean Air Act, as amended, with respect to sources within the Monterey Bay District subject to the NSPS and NESHAPS.

3. Acceptance of this delegation of presently-promulgated NSPS and NESHAPS does not commit the State of California and the Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control District to request or accept delegation of future standards and requirements. A new request for delegation will be required for any standards not included in the State's Request of February 19, 1975.

4. The State of California and the Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control District are not requesting delegation of authority over federal facilities within the District which are subject to the NSPS and NESHAPS. However, this does not relieve federal facilities of the responsibility of complying with all applicable State laws and Monterey Bay District regulations.

5. The Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control District will at no time grant a variance from compliance with either Rule 424 or 425 of the District, except as provided in this paragraph. Should the District grant such a variance, EPA will consider the source receiving the variance to be in violation of the applicable federal regulation and may initiate enforcement action against the source pursuant to Section 113 of the Clean Air Act. The granting of such variances by the District shall also constitute grounds for revocation of delegation by EPA. However, if the Monterey Bay District in the future amends Rule 424 or 425 so as to make the District regulation more stringent than the applicable federal regulation, the Monterey Bay District may grant variances from the more stringent District regulation if such variances do not relieve subject sources of the responsibility of complying with standards equally as stringent as those contained in the applicable federal regulations.

6. The Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution District will utilize only the methods specified in 40 CFR Parts 60 and 61 in performing source tests pursuant to the regulations. Any use of test methods by the District, after delegation, not in accordance with the terms and conditions of this delegation shall constitute grounds for revocation of delegation by EPA.

7. The Air Resources Board and EPA will develop a system of communication sufficient to guarantee that each office is always fully informed regarding the current compliance status of subject sources in the Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control District and regarding interpretation or applicable regulations.

8. If at any time there is a conflict between a State or Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control District regulation and a federal regulation (40 CFR Part 60 or 61), the federal regulation must be applied if it is more stringent than that of the State or District. In the event of such a conflict, if either the Air Resources Board or the Monterey Bay District determine that it is unwilling or unable to apply the more stringent federal regulation, it will so notify EPA. EPA, in consultation with the Air Resources Board and the Monterey Bay District, will then modify or revoke the terms of this delegation to the extent it determines to be appropriate.

9. If the Regional Administrator determines that a State or Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control District procedure for enforcing or implementing the NSPS or NESHAPS is inadequate, or is not being effectively carried out, this delegation may be revoked in whole or in part. Any such revocation shall be effective as of the date specified in a Notice of Revocation to the Air Resources Board.

A Notice announcing this delegation will be published in the Federal Register in the near future. The Notice will state, among other things, that, effective immediately, all reports required pursuant to the federal NSPS and NESHAPS by sources located in the Monterey Bay Unified District should be submitted to the District Office at 420 Church Street (P.O. Box 487), Salinas, CA 93901. Any such reports which have been or may be received by EPA, Region IX, will be promptly transmitted to the District.

Since this delegation is effective immediately, there is no requirement that the State notify EPA of its acceptance. Unless EPA receives from the State written notice of objections within 10 days of the date of receipt of this letter, the State and District will be deemed to have accepted all of the terms of the delegation.

Sincerely,

PAUL DE FALCO, Jr.,
Regional Administrator.

Therefore, pursuant to authority delegated to him by the Administrator, the Regional Administrator notified Mr. Simmons on May 23, 1975, that authority to implement and enforce the NSPS and NESHAPS was delegated to the State of California on behalf of the Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control District. EPA received no notice from the Air Resources Board or the Monterey Bay District of objections to the May 23 letter.

By letter dated June 16, 1975, the Regional Administrator amended the May 23, 1975, letter of delegation to add a new condition 10 as follows:

10. As of the date of this delegation, sources subject to the NSPS and NESHAPS located within the Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control District are required to submit all reports pursuant to the NSPS and NESHAPS directly to the Monterey Bay District. Such sources are no longer required to submit reports to Region IX, EPA.

On June 20, 1975, the Air Resources Board notified EPA that the Monterey Bay District and State of California could not enforce the NESHAPS standard for beryllium in the District because the District had not in fact adopted the necessary regulations. Accordingly, by the following letter to Mr. Simmons, dated July 15, 1975, the Regional Administrator revoked the delegation of authority to implement and enforce the standard for beryllium on behalf of the Monterey Bay District:

MR. WILLIAM SIMMONS,
Executive Officer,
California Air Resources Board,
1709 11th Street,
Sacramento CA 95814

DEAR MR. SIMMONS: On February 19, 1975, you requested that EPA delegate authority to implement and enforce the National Emission Standards for Hazardous Air Pollutants (NESHAPS), including the standard for beryllium, to the State of California Air Resources Board, on behalf of the Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control District. EPA delegated the requested authority by letter dated May 23, 1975.

In a letter dated June 20, 1975, Mr. Harmon Wong-Woo, Chief of the Division of Implementation and Enforcement, California Air Resources Board, informed Richard L. O'Connell, Director, Enforcement Division, EPA, Region IX, that the Monterey Bay District and State of California could not enforce the beryllium standard in the District because the District had not in fact adopted the necessary regulations.

Accordingly, EPA hereby revokes authority to implement and enforce the NESHAPS standard for beryllium which authority was delegated to the State of California on behalf of the Monterey Bay Unified Air Pollution Control District on May 23, 1975. If in the future the Monterey Bay District adopts regulations incorporating the NESHAPS standard for beryllium, the State may again request that EPA delegate authority to implement and enforce such standard to the State on behalf of the Monterey Bay District. Until such time as EPA so delegates such authority, EPA, Region IX will continue to implement and enforce the NESHAPS regulations dealing with beryllium in the Monterey Bay District.

Sincerely,

PAUL DE FALCO, Jr.,
Regional Administrator.

VERMONT

Marine Sanitation Device Standard

On June 30, 1975, notice was published that the State of Vermont had petitioned the Administrator to concur with the State's intent to prohibit the discharge from all vessels of any sewage, whether treated or not, into the waters of the State including those Vermont portions of Lake Champlain and Lake Memphremagog. The petition was filed pursuant to section 312 (f) (3) and (f) (4) of Pub. L. 92-500 (40 F.R. 27620, June 30, 1975).

No comments were received in opposition to the petition. A number of citizens responded in favor of approving the petition. Following an examination of the petition and supporting information, and a consideration of all comments received pursuant to the June 30 Federal Register notice, I have determined that adequate facilities for the safe and sanitary removal and treatment of sewage from all vessels are reasonably available for the navigable waters of the State of Vermont including those Vermont portions of Lake Champlain and Lake Memphremagog. I find that the State of Vermont

Notice of Meeting

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Public Law 92-463, 86 Stat. 770), notice is hereby given that the Food Industry Advisory Committee will meet Wednesday, October 1, 1975 at 9:00 a.m., Conference Room B, Departmental Auditorium, Old Labor Building, Constitution Avenue between 12th & 14th Streets, N.W., Washington, D.C.

The Committee was established to advise the Administrator, Federal Energy Administration, about food industry interests and problems as they relate to national energy conservation programs. The agenda for the meeting is as follows:

1. Chairman's Report
2. Transportation Report
3. Natural Gas Report
4. Discussion of FY '76 Conservation Program
5. Reports from the Subcommittees:
  - a. Discussion of Recommendations of Future Planning
  - b. Energy Conservation Efforts in the Retail Grocery Stores
  - c. Energy Audit Programs

Subcommittees may meet informally in Washington the preceding evening at the discretion of the Subcommittee chairmen. For further details, contact Lois Weeks, Advisory Committee Management Officer at (202) 961-7022.

The meeting is open to the public. The Chairman of the Committee is empowered to conduct the meeting in a fashion that will, in his judgment, facilitate the orderly conduct of business. Any member of the public who wishes to file a written statement with the Committee will be permitted to do so, either before or after the meeting. Members of the public who wish to make oral statements should inform Lois Weeks, Advisory Committee Management Officer at (202) 961-7022, at least 5 days before the meeting and reasonable provision will be made for their appearance on the agenda.

Further information concerning this meeting may be obtained from the Advisory Committee Management Office.

Minutes of the meeting will be made available for public inspection at the Federal Energy Administration, Washington, D.C.

Issued at Washington, D.C. on September 5, 1975.

(1) In violation of section 18 of the Shipping Act, 1916 by setting rates so unreasonably low as to be detrimental to the commerce of the United States.

(2) In violation of sections 16 and 17 of the Shipping Act, 1916 and 46 U.S.C. sections 815 and 816 by giving certain shippers and the Port of New York an unreasonable preference and advantage over other shippers and the Port of Boston.

(3) In violation of section 17 of the Shipping Act, 1916 by charging rates different from the rates and charges specified for the same movements in tariffs filed with the Federal Maritime Commission by conferences to which U.S. Lines belongs.

The Commission believes that its final resolution of the issues in this proceeding may constitute a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment. Consequently, the environmental factors involved warrant consideration and evaluation before decision making is undertaken.

Therefore, notice is hereby given that the Federal Maritime Commission intends to make an environmental assessment to determine whether its final decision in this proceeding will constitute a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment within the meaning of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA). Written comments regarding possible environmental effects which may occur from the eventual resolution of the proceeding are invited. Such comments should be submitted within 30 days of the date of this Order to the Secretary, Federal Maritime dictional sales of natural gas, as set forth in Appendix A hereof.

The proposed changed rates and charges may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is in the public interest and consistent with the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon hearings regarding the lawfulness of the proposed changes, and that the supplements herein be suspended and their use be deferred as ordered below.

The Commission orders: (A) Under the Natural Gas Act, particularly Sections 4 and 15, the Regulations pertaining thereto (18 CFR, Chapter I), and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, public hearings shall be held concerning the lawfulness of the proposed changes.

(B) Pending hearings and decisions thereon, the rate supplements herein are suspended and their use deferred until date shown in the "Date Suspended Until" column. Each of these supplements shall become effective, subject to refund, as of the expiration of the suspension period without any further action by the Respondent or by the Commission. Each Respondent shall comply with the refunding procedure required by the Natural Gas Act and Section 154.102 of the Regulations thereunder.

(C) Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, neither the suspended supplements, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered, shall be changed until disposition of these proceedings or expiration of the suspension period, whichever is earlier.

By the Commission.

The proposed rate increase of Union Oil Company under its Supp. No. 13 to its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 48 exceeds the applicable area ceiling and is suspended for five months, and that portion of its proposed rate increase under its Supp. No. 13 to its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 124 insofar as it exceeds the applicable area ceiling is suspended for five months, and that portion not exceeding the applicable area ceiling together with the amendatory agreements of Union Oil Company are accepted thirty days after filing or the date set forth in the "Effective Date Unless Suspended" column.

Continental Oil's tax reimbursement represents a revised increase to reflect a correction in the amount of tax reimbursement contained in a prior increase that is being collected subject to refund. The additional increase is the result of partial reimbursement for the New Mexico ad valorem tax, and it is suspended for one day subject to the existing suspension proceeding.

FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

PEOPLES BANCSHARES, INC.

Order Approving Acquisition of Bank

Peoples BancShares, Inc., Canton, Ohio, a bank holding company within the meaning of the Bank Holding Company Act, has applied for the Board's approval under section 3(a)(3) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(a)(3)) to acquire all of the voting shares (less directors' qualifying shares) of The Scio Bank Company, Scio, Ohio ("Bank").

Notice of the application, affording opportunity for interested persons to submit comments and views, has been given in accordance with section 3(b) of the Act. The time for filing comments and views has expired, and the Board has considered the application and all comments received in light of the factors set forth in section 3(c) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(c)).

Applicant, the 25th largest banking organization in Ohio, controls 2 banks with aggregate deposits of approximately $170 million, representing about 0.6 per cent of the total deposits in commercial banks in the State.<sup>1</sup> Applicant's acquisition of Bank ($10.6 million in deposits) would increase Applicant's share of total State deposits by less than 0.1 per cent and would have no appreciable effect on the concentration of banking resources in Ohio. Upon consummation herein, Applicant would become the 24th largest banking organization in Ohio.

Bank is the only bank in the village of Scio, a rural community (population of approximately 1,000 persons) located in the east-central portion of the State approximately 85 miles southeast of Cleveland. Bank is also the only banking institution in its relevant banking market (approximated by the northwest portion of Harrison County, which includes the townships of Monroe, North, Franklin and Stock). Applicant's banking subsidiary closest to Bank is located 27 miles away in Jefferson County. No meaningful competition presently exists between either of Applicant's banking subsidiaries and Bank, nor does it appear likely that any significant competition would develop between them in the future in view of the distances involved and Ohio's branching laws. Furthermore, it appears unlikely that Applicant would enter the market de novo in view of the fact that the market's deposits and population per banking office are below the Statewide averages. Therefore, the Board concludes that consummation of the proposal would not have a significantly adverse effect on existing or potential competition in any relevant area and that competitive considerations are consistent with approval of the application.

The financial and managerial resources and future prospects of Applicant, its subsidiaries, and Bank are regarded as generally satisfactory, particularly in view of Applicant's commitment to inject $300,000 in additional equity capital into Bank. Accordingly, considerations relating to the banking factors are consistent with approval of the application. Affiliation with Applicant would enable Bank to draw upon Applicant's resources and expertise and thereby offer expanding banking services to its customers. Therefore, considerations relating to the convenience and needs of the community to be served lend some weight toward approval of the application. It is the Board's judgment that consummation of the proposed transaction would be in the public interest and that the application should be approved.

On the basis of the record, the application is approved for the reasons summarized above. The transaction shall not be made (a) before the thirtieth calendar day following the effective date of this Order or (b) later than three months after the effective date of this Order, unless such period is extended for good cause by the Board or by the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland pursuant to delegated authority.

By order of the Board of Governors,<sup>1</sup> effective September 4, 1975.

Secretary of the Board.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

LINE-OF-BUSINESS REPORTING PROGRAM

Resolution Requiring Annual Line of Business Reports From Corporations and Confidentiality Rules and Procedures for the 1974 Reporting Year

Notice is hereby given that the Federal Trade Commission has approved, adopted and entered of record the following resolution requiring annual line of business reports from corporations:

Whereas, it is necessary for the proper functioning of the government that there be available to the President, the Congress, government agencies, and the business community, continuing and current financial data and statistics from corporations within the various industries and lines of commerce of the United States; and

Whereas, the Federal Trade Commission, acting pursuant to the authority vested in it by Section 6 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, is engaged in the collection of annual and special reports from corporations engaged in commerce and compilation and publication of the results thereof in combined statistical form for the purposes of said Act;

Now, therefore, it is hereby resolved that the Federal Trade Commission, in the exercise of the powers vested in it by Section 6 of the Federal Trade Commission Act (38 Stat. 721; 15 U.S.C.A., Section 46), and with the aid of any and all powers conferred upon it by law and all compulsory processes available to it, does forthwith proceed to collect information, for the purposes herein stated, in the form of reports or otherwise, regarding the financial position and financial results of business operations, including, but not limited to the information called for by the attached Federal Trade Commission Form LB,<sup>1</sup> which is incorporated herein by reference together with such other facts as may be necessary.

sary for the classification and interpretation thereof, from such corporations as may be designated by the Commission pursuant to general or special order;

It is further resolved that the reports of and data relating to an individual company contained therein obtained as a result of this resolution shall be received in and afforded confidential status in accordance with and as spelled out in the Confidentiality Rules and Procedures for the 1974 Reporting Year adopted by the Commission, attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference (set forth below), and shall not be available for use in any Commission adjudication or in connection with any investigation for the purpose of initiating adjudicative proceedings.

CONFIDENTIALITY RULES AND PROCEDURES FOR THE 1974 REPORTING YEAR

Notice is hereby given that the Federal Trade Commission has approved and adopted certain rules and procedures hereinafter set forth prescribing the confidential handling and use of reports to be filed by companies pursuant to an Order to File Special Report under the Line of Business Program. The rules and procedures shall apply to reports relating to the 1974 reporting year. They do not apply to reports relating to the 1973 reporting year, the confidentiality of which are governed by the Rules and Procedures for the Use of Confidential Individual Company Data Collected Under the FTC's Line of Business Report Program issued in connection with the Commission's Resolution Requiring Annual Line of Business Reports from Corporations, dated August 2, 1974, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 27, 1974 (39 FR 30970).

Definitions: For purposes of these Rules and Procedures, the following definitions apply:

"LB Report" means a report filed by a company pursuant to an Order to File Special Report under the Line of Business (LB) Program.

"Reporting Company" means a company ordered to file an LB Report.

Confidentiality of LB Reports With Respect to Persons Outside the Commission: Pub. L. 93-563, which provides Federal Trade Commission appropriations for the fiscal year 1975, states in part that:

No part of these funds may be used to pay the salary of any employee including Commissioners, of the Federal Trade Commission who—

(3) permits anyone other than sworn officers and employees of the Federal Trade Commission to examine the line-of-business reports from individual firms.

The Commission interprets this provision as prohibiting disclosure of LB Reports to any person outside the Commission including Congress, parties in court proceedings, governmental agencies and members of the public so long as the provision remains in effect. Accordingly, during the period this provision or a substantially similar provision in subsequent years.

substantially similar provision in subsequent appropriations acts for the Federal Trade Commission remains in effect, LB Reports will not be disclosed to any person outside the Commission except pursuant to a superseding act of Congress; or pursuant to an order of a court but only after a motion by the Commission to quash and for a protective order have been disposed of by the court. In the event that the Commission receives a subpoena for an LB Report, it will promptly notify the Reporting Company.

Under Section 10 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, any officer or employee of the Commission who shall make public any information obtained by the Commission, without its authority, unless directed by a court, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, may be punished by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000) or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

Confidentiality of LB Reports Within the Commission. Access to and use of LB Reports within the Commission shall be restricted as hereinafter set forth, and persons authorized to have access thereto and use thereof shall not release any LB Report, or in any way provide access thereto, to anyone not authorized to have access. LB Reports shall be used to compile statistical and other economic reports authorized by the Commission. The latter reports may be utilized in connection with any Commission investigation or proceeding for carrying out specific law enforcement responsibilities of the Commission. However, they shall not be compiled in a way that LB data furnished by a particular Reporting Company can be identified. LB Reports shall not be made available to any person within the Commission for use in connection with any Commission investigation or proceeding for carrying out specific law enforcement responsibilities of the Commission. However, this restriction shall not limit the authority of the Commission to require by subpoena or other compulsory process the production of any information or data from any source outside the Commission for use in connection with an investigation or proceeding for carrying out specific law enforcement responsibilities of the Commission.

Except as hereinafter provided, access to and use of LB Reports within the Commission shall be restricted to the Division of Financial Statistics, Bureau of Economics; the Statistical Reports Unit of the Economic Research and Services Section, Bureau of Economics; and the Division of Management as hereinafter set forth.

The Division of Financial Statistics plans, develops and prepares for publication statistical and other economic reports such as the Quarterly Financial Report and the Annual Line of Business Report. The Division shall have access to and use of LB Reports for planning, developing and preparing such statistical and economic reports. Procedures sufficient to assure that LB data furnished by a particular Reporting Company can not be identified shall be developed and implemented by that Division in connection with each statistical or other economic report to be published which is derived from LB data. With respect to each such report, the Assistant Director for Financial Statistics shall certify to the Director, Bureau of Economics, that he has reviewed and approved the procedures applied thereto.

The Statistical Reports Unit of the Economic Research and Services Section, Bureau of Economics, plans, develops and prepares for publication reports such as merger statistical reports, annual statistics on aggregate concentration and other statistical and economic reports authorized by the Commission. The Unit shall have access to and use of LB Reports for planning, developing or preparing such statistical and economic reports. Publication of any report which is derived from LB data shall be conditioned upon a determination by the Assistant Director for Financial Statistics that the procedures applied therein are sufficient to assure that LB data furnished by a particular Reporting Company cannot be identified, and certification of his determination to the Director, Bureau of Economics.

The Division of Management shall have access to LB Reports but only during and for the purpose of electronic processing of information and data contained in LB Reports. The Division may employ the services of an outside computer facility for purposes of computer processing of LB data subject to the restriction that no one other than authorized employees of the Federal Trade Commission may examine the LB Reports from individual Reporting Companies.

Employees of the Division of Financial Statistics and the Statistical Reports Unit of the Economic Research and Services Section, while assigned to either of these units, shall not participate in any Commission investigation or proceeding for carrying out specific law enforcement responsibilities of the Commission. Any employee who transfers into or out of either of these units shall be formally notified in writing that he is subject to these Rules and Procedures and to Section 10 of the Federal Trade Commission Act.

The Director, Bureau of Economics, shall not have access to LB Reports. He shall, however, have supervisory responsibility and authority with respect to the Division of Financial Statistics and the Statistical Reports Unit of the Economic Research and Services Section. Such responsibility and authority shall include approving any reports prepared by them, making recommendations with respect to the preparation of such reports, and exercising any other supervisory control not requiring access to LB Reports.

Upon notification to the General Counsel by the Assistant Director for Financial Statistics that a Reporting Company has failed adequately to comply with an Order to File Special Report under the LB Program, the following additional Commission officers and employees shall have access to such parts of that company's LB Report required to evaluate the noncompliance and to advise and represent the Commission with respect to any proceeding initiated because of a refusal or failure of the Reporting Company to file an adequate LB Report: the General Counsel and his staff and the Commissioners and their assistants.

Security of LB Reports: All Commission members and employees authorized to have access to and use of LB Reports as hereinbefore provided shall, while in possession of any such material, be personally responsible for ensuring that unauthorized personnel do not obtain access to such material and for observing the following procedures:

1. All LB Reports and reproductions of LB data from individual Reporting Companies (such as tabulations, punch cards, tapes or printouts, etc.) shall be conspicuously marked "Confidential".

2. All rooms containing LB Reports and reproductions of LB data from individual Reporting Companies shall be locked except when occupied.

3. All LB Reports and reproductions of LB data from individual Reporting Companies shall be stored in locked drawers, files or cabinets except when being used.

4. All LB Reports and reproductions of LB data from individual Reporting Companies shall be returned to the Division of Financial Statistics immediately after any authorized use of such material is no longer required.

Limitations: The Rules and Procedures set forth above shall not apply to:

(1) disclosure to a court of an LB Report of a Reporting Company in connection with a proceeding initiated because of a refusal or failure of that company to file an adequate LB Report;

(2) the identity of a Reporting Company;

(3) information or data furnished by a Reporting Company in a context other than an LB Report (e.g., a motion to quash or other motion challenging an Order to File Special Report under the LB program); such information or data shall be treated as confidential pursuant to §§ 4.10-4.11 of the Commission's procedures and rules of practice only upon request with a showing of justification therefor, and a determination by the Commission, with due regard to statutory restrictions, the Commission's procedures and rules of practice and the public interest, that such information or data should not be made public;

(4) information or data which (a) are in the public domain, (b) enter the public domain from a source other than the Commission or its employees, (c) were in the Commission's possession prior to transmission to the Commission in an LB Report, or (d) are supplied to the Commission or its employees by a third party lawfully in possession thereof; or

(5) information or data which are supplied to the Commission in response to a compulsory process order other than an Order to File Special Report under the LB Program.

By direction of the Commission.

GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

[FPMR TEMP. REG. E-40]

MOTOR VEHICLE

Requests for Procurement

1. Purpose. This regulation provides revised policy for submitting requests to GSA for the procurement of motor vehicles.

2. Effective date. This regulation is effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

3. Expiration date. This regulation expires June 30, 1976, unless sooner revised or superseded.

4. Applicability. The requirements of this regulation apply to all executive agencies except the Department of Defense. Other Federal agencies are encouraged to comply with these requirements.

5. Background. The method used by GSA for processing agency requests for the procurement of motor vehicles was recently converted to a computerized system. The system is dependent upon the input of FEDSTRIP codes rather than the written information presently submitted to GSA. To obtain full benefit from the system, it is necessary that agency requests for motor vehicles contain the appropriate FEDSTRIP data. This data would eliminate the present need for GSA to convert written information to FEDSTRIP data or to contact agencies for information not contained in the requests which now delays procurement. Accordingly, a motor vehicle requisition form is being developed which will provide for entry of the additional data. In the interim, it is appropriate that agencies be required to submit the additional data with requests for motor vehicle procurement.

6. Submission of requests for motor vehicle procurement.

a. Requests for motor vehicle procurement (including the submission of GSA Form 1781, Motor Vehicle Requisition—Delivery Order—Invoice) shall be accompanied by the alpha/numeric data specified in paragraph 6b, below. The data may be submitted on a Standard Form 344, Multiuse Standard Requisitioning/Issue System Document, or by other means as determined by the ordering agency.

b. Alpha/numeric data for the following blocks, as numbered on the Standard Form 344, shall be provided with requests for motor vehicle procurement action:

- (1) Block 1, Document Identifier;
- (2) Block 3, Media and Status;
- (3) Block 7, Unit of Issue;
- (4) Block 8, Quantity;
- (5) Blocks 9-11, Document Number;
- (6) Block 12, Serial;

(7) Blocks 14-15, Supplementary Address (when required);

(8) Block 16, Signal;

(9) Block 17, Fund; and

(10) Block 20, Priority.

7. Availability of forms. Supplies of Standard Form 344, Multiuse Standard Requisitioning/Issue System Document, may be obtained by submitting a requisition in FEDSTRIP/MILSTRIP format to the GSA regional office providing support to the requesting activity.

8. Agency comments. Comments concerning the effect or the impact of this regulation on agency operations or programs should be submitted to the General Services Administration (FF), Washington, D.C. 20406, no later than September 30, 1975, for possible inclusion in a permanent regulation.

Dated: August 29, 1975.

FEDERAL PROCUREMENT DATA SYSTEM Proposed Establishment

The purpose of this notice is to make known an interagency committee proposal concerning the establishment of a Federal Procurement Data System (FPDS). This data system is being designed for collecting, developing, and disseminating procurement data which takes into account the needs of the Congress, the executive branch, and the private sector. The proposed FPDS would establish uniform data elements to be reported to a central data bank by Federal agencies on contracts of more than $10,000. The data would provide information on what was purchased, when, from whom, by whom, dollar value of the transaction, the principal place of performance, method of procurement, extent of competition, negotiation authority, type of contract, type of business, foreign trade data, and other information. In addition, the system would collect summary statistical data on contractual transactions of $10,000 and under. From this information, the central data bank would publish reports on Federal procurements and answer inquiries from information contained in the data bank.

Background: This proposal is an outgrowth of Commission on Government Procurement (COGP) Recommendations A-1 and D-1, and the reports of the interagency task groups established to develop the executive branch positions on these recommendations. In addition, Section 6.(d)(5) of the Office of Federal Procurement Policy Act (Public Law 93-400, August 31, 1974) specifies that the functions of the Administrator for Federal Procurement Policy shall include "establishing a system for collecting, developing and disseminating procurement data which takes into account the needs of the Congress, the executive agencies, and the private sector." As yet, no decision has been made by the Administrator for Federal Procurement Policy as to the means to be employed to satisfy the above referenced section of P.L. 93-400.

Views of interested parties are solicited on the proposed FPDS. A copy of the FPDS Committee Report covering the proposed system can be obtained by calling Area Code 202 343-7794 or by writing the Office of Federal Management Policy (AMC), Washington, DC 20405. To be given consideration, written comments should be submitted to the above address by October 31, 1975.

Dated at Washington, D.C. on September 5, 1975.

SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION

Delegation of Authority

1. Purpose. This regulation continues in effect the authority delegated to the Secretary of Transportation to perform all functions in connection with the leasing of certain space at East Liberty, Ohio, for use by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

2. Effective date. This regulation is effective immediately.

3. Expiration date. This regulation shall expire 8 years from the effective date of the lease of the rented premises, upon termination of the lease, or upon failure of the Administrator of General Services to concur in the exercising of any renewal option, whichever is earlier.

4. Background. This regulation reflects the delegation of authority which was granted by letter of May 28, 1975, to the Secretary of Transportation by the Administrator of General Services.

5. Delegation.

a. Pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 (63 Stat. 377), as amended, authority is hereby delegated to the Secretary of Transportation to perform all functions in connection with the leasing of approximately 32,500 square feet of space at East Liberty, Ohio, for a firm term of 3 years with five 1-year renewal options, provided the Administrator of General Services concurs in the exercising of any renewal options. This delegation includes authority to lease the required property and to assign, reassign, operate, maintain, control and protect the demised property.

b. This delegation shall extend to leasing space under authority in section 210 (b) (1) of the above-cited act (40 U.S.C. 490(b)(1)).

c. The Secretary of Transportation may redelegate this authority to any official or employee of the Department of Transportation.

d. This authority shall be exercised in accordance with the applicable limitations and requirements of the above-cited act, section 322 of the Act of June 30, 1932 (40 U.S.C. 278a), as amended, other applicable statutes and regulations, and the policies, procedures, and controls pre-

NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION ADVISORY PANEL FOR ATMOSPHERIC SCIENCES

Meeting

In accordance with the Federal Advisory Committee Act, P.L. 92-463, the National Science Foundation announces the following meeting:

Name: Advisory Panel for Atmospheric Sciences

Date: September 30 and October 1, 1975

Time: 9 a.m. each day
Place: Room 338, National Science Foundation, 1800 G St., NW., Washington, D.C.

NOTICES

Type of meeting: Open
Contact person: Dr. Fred D. White, Head, Atmospheric Research Section, Room 312 National Science Foundation, Washington, D.C. 20550 telephone (202) 632-4198

Summary minutes: May be obtained from the Committee Management Coordination Staff, Management Analysis Office, Rm. 248, National Science Foundation, Washington, D.C. 20550.

Purpose of advisory panel: To advise the Foundation of the impact of its research support program on the scientific community in atmospheric sciences.

Agenda: Topics will include:

SEPTEMBER 30, MORNING

9:00 Introductory Remarks—Dr. White, Panel Chairman, and Head, Atmospheric Research Section

9:15 Remarks—Dr. Hughes, Assistant Director for Astronomical, Atmospheric, Earth, and Ocean Sciences (AAEO)

9:45 Peer Review—Dr. Todd, Deputy Director, AAEO

10:30 Record of Actions, March 25-26, 1975, meeting—Dr. Hanson, Vice Chairman

10:40 Highlights of Federal, Atmospheric Sciences program—Captain Albers, Executive Secretary, Interdepartmental Committee for Atmospheric Sciences

10:50 Plans for National Climatic Center Research User's Workshop—Dr. Eden, Program Director for Meteorology

11:00 Climate Dynamics—progress and problems—Dr. Bierly, Head, Climate Dynamics Research Section

11:30 Global Atmospheric Research Program (GARP) highlights and problems—Dr. Greenfield, Program Director for GARP

12:00 Recess for Lunch

AFTERNOON

1:00 Highlights of Weather Modification Program—Mr. Downie, Program Manager for Weather Modification

1:15 Report of July and September meetings of the Advisory Panel for Weather Modification—Dr. Simpson, Panel Member

1:45 National Center for Atmospheric Research (NCAR)—status report—Dr. Wilkiss, NCAR Project Officer

2:10 Stratospheric Chemistry—Dr. McGill, Program Director for Aeronomy and Dr. Eden, Program Director for Meteorology

2:30 Report of the Solar Astronomy Task Force and Status of Sacramento Peak Observatory—Dr. Oertel, Head, Astronomy Research Section

3:00 Solar Constant Workshop—Dr. Zirin—Panel Member

3:30 International Magnetospheric Study (IMS)—progress and problems—Dr. Manka, Federal IMS Coordinator

4:00 General discussion—Panel Members

OCTOBER 1, MORNING

9:00-12:00 Program discussions

1. Lower Atmosphere, Panel Members and Staff (Rm. 338)

2. Upper Atmosphere, Panel Members and Staff (Rm. 421)

12:00 Recess for Lunch

AFTERNOON

1:00 Reassembly of full Panel (Rm. 338)—Panel discussion and recommendations

WORKSHOP ON ELECTRIC UTILITY FINANCIAL PROBLEMS AND POTENTIAL SOLUTIONS

Meeting

The National Science Foundation is convening a Workshop on Electric Utility Financial Problems and Potential Solutions on September 25 and 26, 1975, in the Main Conference Center, the MITRE Corporation, Westgate Research Park, McLean, Virginia. Both sessions will begin at 9:00 a.m. and the Workshop will adjourn at 4:00 p.m. on September 26. The purpose of the Workshop is to provide a forum for discussion of the electric utility financial problems and potential solutions.

While this ad hoc informal session is not considered to be a meeting of an "advisory committee" as that term is defined in Section 3 of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (P.L. 92-463), this Workshop is believed to be of sufficient importance and interest to the general public to be announced in the FEDERAL REGISTER as a meeting open for public attendance and participation. The agenda for the meeting is as follows:

SEPTEMBER 25

The Effects of Inflation and Recession on the Electric Utility Industry's Financial Condition

Regulating the Price of Electricity—Experiences and Alternatives
The Need for Rate Relief and Rate Design

Panel Discussion, chaired by Ed Mampe (OMB), on Short and Intermediate Term Federal Policy

SEPTEMBER 26

Financing Electric Utility Capital Needs, Problems and Prospects

European Experiences with Load Management

Panel Discussion, chaired by Don Craven (FEA), on Federal Proposals Concerning Finance, Rates, and Load Management

The Workshop will be chaired by Mr. Edward G. Lilly, Executive Vice-President for Finance, Carolina Power and

NOTICES

NATIONAL TRANSPORTATION SAFETY BOARD

[N-AR 75-23]

ACCIDENT REPORT; SAFETY RECOMMENDATIONS AND RESPONSES

Availability and Receipt

Railroad highway accident report. The National Transportation Safety Board has released its report on the collision of a Southern Railway work train with a Polk District schoolbus at Aragon, Georgia, October 23, 1974. The report, No. NTSB RHR-75-1, was released September 2, 1975. The Safety Board determined that the probable cause was "the failure of the schoolbus driver to stop his vehicle short of the track and wait until it was safe to proceed, and the failure of the flagman of the train to guard the unprotected crossing." Contained in the report are two recommendations (R-75-31 and 32) to the Federal Railroad Administration, and one recommendation (H-75-17) directed to the Polk School District, Georgia. The Board recommended that FRA promulgate regulations (1) governing railroad operating rules for use of radio and for flagging when trains are pushed across grade crossings, and (2) requiring that if radios are used to direct rearward train movements, they must be installed so that they may be used by an employee from the leading platform. To the Polk School District, the Board recommended establishment of a formal procedure for frequent field checks of schoolbus driver compliance with the District's safety policies and the State operating rules.

Safety recommendation letters. Also issued last week were six recommendations to the Federal Aviation Administration.

On September 2, the Board recommended that the FAA (1) issue Airworthiness Directives to require installation of both visual and audible engine-out visual warning systems on all turbine-powered helicopters, and (2) amend 14 CFR Parts 27 and 29 to require that all turbine-powered helicopters be equipped with a prominent engine-out visual warning system and an audible warning system which can be heard with or without the use of a headset. (Recommendations A-75-72 and 73.) The recommendation letter concerns an Aerospatiale Model SA-315B Lama helicopter which crashed on takeoff from Springerville, Arizona, November 7, 1974. A list of 18 turbo-shaft-powered helicopter engine failure accidents, 1970-1974, is attached.

Four additional recommendations resulting from the Board's investigation of the Trans World Airlines Flight 514 crash at Berryville, Virginia, December 1, 1974, were released in the Board's September 4 letter to FAA. The Board recommended that FAA (1) in concert with the Departments of Commerce and Defense (members of the Interagency Air Cartographic Committee (IACC)) and the Jeppesen Company, conduct a study of cartographic techniques and specifications used throughout the aviation industry for approach charts to identify those techniques and specifications that best lend themselves to uniformity and standardization; (2) based on such study, to revise the IACC manual to include those techniques and specifications which are unanimously agreed upon by the parties to the study; (3) require that the IACC manual be used as the minimum standards for cartographic presentation of specified data on all instrument approach charts used in U.S. civil and military aviation; and (4) require that the revised IACC manual be used as mandatory reference by FAA personnel whenever a new instrument approach procedure is developed or whenever an existing procedure is modified.

Responses to safety recommendations. During the past week, the following letters were received in response to earlier Safety Board recommendations:

From FAA, letter of August 18 re recommendations A-75-58 and 59 (see 40 FR 32177, July 31, 1975). FAA concurs with the recommendations, and notes that prior to receipt of the recommendations, they had established a task Light Company, and is open to the public. Individuals who wish to attend should inform Dr. James L. Plummer, Energy Policy Analyst, Office of Energy R&D Policy, Rm. 537, National Science Foundation, Washington, D.C. 20550 telephone 202/632-7804, prior to the Workshop. Dr. Plummer should be contacted for further information concerning the Workshop or for summary proceedings.

AD HOC TASK GROUP 13 OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR RESEARCH Addendum to Notice of Meeting

In FR Doc. 75-23595 appearing on page 41196 of the issue for Friday, September 5, 1975 (Vol. 40 No. 173) make the following addition:

Agenda: To work on draft material for the Task Group's reports to the full committee. One report will consider the possible implications to the grantee community of making more large umbrella awards and fewer small individual grants. The other report will consider how limited funds for scientific equipment might be more effectively used.

ADVISORY PANEL FOR ASTRONOMY Meeting

In accordance with the Federal Advisory Committee Act, P.L. 92-463, the National Science Foundation announces the following meeting:

Name: Advisory Panel for Astronomy.

Date: October 2 and 3, 1975.

Time: 9:00 a.m. each day.

Place: Room 543, National Science Foundation, 1800 G St., NW., Washington, D.C.

Type of meeting: Open.

Contact person: Dr. G. K. Oertel, Head, Astronomy Research Section, Room 305, National Science Foundation, Washington, D.C. 20550, telephone (202) 632-4196. Anyone who plans to attend should contact Ms. Mary Saffell at the above address.

Summary minutes: May be obtained from the Committee Management Coordination Staff, Management Analysis Office, Room 248, National Science Foundation, Washington, D.C. 20550.

Purpose of advisory panel: To provide advice and recommendations concerning research proposals and projects in astronomy and to advise the Foundation of the impact of its research support programs on the scientific community in astronomy.

force to review and study the definitions, terms, and phrases used in the ATC system to determine what terms and phrases should be defined, and what definitions should be made available to the pilot community. FAA expects to complete the study by December 1.

From the FAA, letter of August 20 in further response to recommendation A-75-23 (see 40 FR 22323, May 22, 1975). In rejecting the recommendation, FAA states, "The service record for both the CF 6-6 and -50 installations fails to disclose any positive incidents of in-flight engine damage due to icing." FAA concludes, "Consequently, we are withdrawing any plans for expanding current operating instructions under icing conditions or issuing an operations alert on the subject."

From the Coast Guard, letter of 25 August re recommendations 72-M-7a and 7b, issued in the Board's 1972 special study "Collisions Within the Navigable Waters of the United States" (NTSB-MSS-72-1). The Coast Guard considers that these recommendations are identical with recommendations 69-M-23 and 69-M-25, issued in the Board's 1969 study of "Collisions of Radar-Equipped Merchant Ships," to which the Coast Guard responded in a memorandum dated 7 June 1974. The Coast Guard provides a copy of that memorandum, which states in pertinent part, "Basic marine radar performance specifications are being developed by the Radio Technical Commission for Marine Services (RTCM) in order to fulfill the requirements of SOLAS. Within its various working groups RTCM is examining equipment relating to transponder identification systems between radar equipped vessels, an electronic stabilization device which will compensate for roll, true motion trail persistence, a speed over the ground measuring device and other collision avoidance associated equipment. The Coast Guard is keeping abreast of the development of these basic standards by the RTCM."

From Illinois Central Gulf Railroad (ICG), letter of August 26 re recommendations R-73-28 and 29, issued in Board report NTSB-RAR-73-5, "Collision of Illinois Central Gulf Railroad Commuter Trains, Chicago, Illinois, October 30, 1972." Actions taken by ICG, according to their response, include the rewriting of "Book of Operating Rules," effective July 1, 1974, and the conducting of classes on interpretation of the rules. Also, efficiency tests have been revised, and ICG rule examiners are preparing "explanation of operating rules, including questions and answers," targeted for January 1, 1976. ICG states, "We have revised our operating practices in regard to Rule 99(a), so that a trainman is required to provide flag protection against following trains at any time the train stops on the main track, except in yard limits." Finally, the letter notes, 70 of 129 Highliner cars have been modified to provide a brake valve for crewmembers in either the A or B end of the car, in addition to the center vestibule.

In a letter forwarded September 3, the Safety Board urges the Federal Aviation Administration to reconsider action as proposed originally in recommendations A-74-67 and 68. The Board's request is in reply to FAA's response of January 13, 1975. Recommendation A-74-67 requested that 14 CFR Part 141 be amended to increase the required minimum of 35 hours of classroom instruction given to private pilot trainees, and to specify the number of hours of meteorological instruction. FAA responded, in part, "What appears to be more appropriate is emphasis on the quality of meteorological instruction received * * *." While quality should be emphasized, the Board continues to believe that additional instruction should be given, in view of the number of subjects to be covered in a mere 35 hours and particularly in view of the continuing large numbers of fatal, weather-involved, general aviation accidents. The Board further states, with reference to recommendation A-74-68 concerning written meteorology examinations, " * * * a pilot should not be able to obtain his certificate unless he has received a passing grade of at least 70 percent on the weather questions in the examination." The recommendations were issued in the Board's special study, "Fatal, Weather-Involved, General Aviation Accidents" (NTSB-AAS-74-2).

The accident report and the recommendations letters are available to the general public; single copies may be obtained without charge. A $4.00 user-service charge will be made for each recommendation response, in addition to a charge of 10¢ per page for reproduction. All requests must be in writing, addressed to: Publications Unit, National Transportation Safety Board, Washington, D.C. 20554.

Multiple copies of the accident report may be purchased from the National Technical Information Service, U.S. Department of Commerce, Springfield, Virginia 22161.

Order Reconvening Evidentiary Hearing

It is ordered that the evidentiary hearing which was convened on Tuesday August 12, 1975 at 10:00 a.m. local time at the Coker College Music Hall, Hartsville, South Carolina 29550, and which ran in daily sessions through Friday August 15, 1975, shall be reconvened at 9:00 a.m. local time, Tuesday, September 23, 1975, at Coker College Music Hall, Hartsville, South Carolina, 29550.

Sessions will also be held in the hearing room described above on Wednesday, September 24, 1975 on Thursday, September 25, 1975 and on Friday, September 26, 1975, if required to complete the record. If hearing sessions in addition to the four ordered herein, are required, the Board, in cooperation with the parties, will arrange the time for additional sessions at the close of the hearing on September 26, 1975.

The Public is invited to attend each of the evidentiary hearing sessions ordered herein.

The agenda set out below will be followed at the hearing sessions:

1. Introduction of the balance of the licensee-applicant's case and questions by the parties and members of the Board.
2. Introduction of the Staff's case and questions by the parties and Board.
3. Introduction of the Intervenor's case and questions by the parties and Board.
4. Closing matters.

It is so ordered.

Issuance of Amendment to Facility Operating License

Notice is hereby given that the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) has issued Amendment No. 1 to Facility Operating License No. DPR-65 issued to The Connecticut Light and Power Company, The Hartford Electric Light Company, Western Massachusetts Electric Company, and Northeast Nuclear Energy Company (Millstone Nuclear Power Station, Unit 2) (licensees). This amendment is effective as of the date of issuance.

The amendment corrects certain proofreading errors and grants a special test exception to permit the performance of tests during hot functional testing to verify the adequacy of the feedwater sparger modifications that were installed to prevent the occurrence of water hammer in the feedwater system piping.

The application for the amendment complies with the standards and requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's rules and regulations. The Commission has made appropriate findings required by the Act and the Commission's rules and regulations in 10 CFR Chapter 1, which are set forth in the license amendment. Prior public notice of this amendment is not required since the amendment does not involve a significant hazards consideration.

For further details with respect to this action, see (1) the application for amendment dated August 21, 1975 and supplement thereto dated August 25, 1975, (2) Amendment No. 1 to License No. DPR-65, with any attachments, and (3) the Commission's related Safety Evaluation. All of these items are available for public inspection at the Commission's Public Document Room 1717 H Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. and at the Waterford Public Library, Rope Ferry Road, Waterford, Connecticut. A copy of items (2) and (3) may be obtained upon request addressed to the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20555, Attention: Director, Division of Reactor Licensing.

Issuance of Amendment to Facility Operating License

Notice is hereby given that the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) has issued Amendment No. 2 to Facility Operating License No. DPR-65 issued to The Connecticut Light and Power Company, The Hartford Electric Light Company, Western Massachusetts Electric Company, and Northeast Nuclear Energy Company (Millstone Nuclear Power Station, Unit 2) (licensees). This amendment is effective as of the date of issuance.

The amendment corrects an error which was made during the development of the original technical specifications.

The application for the amendment complies with the standards and requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's rules and regulations. The Commission has made appropriate findings required by the Act and the Commission's rules and regulations in 10 CFR Chapter 1, which are set forth in the license amendment. Prior public notice of this amendment is not required since the amendment does not involve a significant hazards consideration.

For further details with respect to this action, see (1) the application for amendment dated August 26, 1975, (2) Amendment No. 2 to License No. DPR-65, with any attachments, and (3) the Commission's related Safety Evaluation. #### Issuance of Amendment to Facility Operating Licenses

Notice is hereby given that the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) has issued Amendments No. 10 and No. 9 to Facility Operating Licenses Nos. DPR-31 and DPR-41, respectively, issued to Florida Power and Light Company which revised Technical Specifications for operations of the Turkey Point Nuclear Generating Units 3 and 4, located in Dade County, Florida. The amendments are effective as of the date of issuance.

These amendments incorporate into the Turkey Point Nuclear Generating Units 3 and 4, Technical Specifications re-formatted Administrative Controls consistent with presently issued licenses. They relate to licensee staffing qualifications and management procedures involved with operating the facilities. The revisions to the reporting requirements proposed by the licensee as part of the Administrative Controls have not been incorporated into the Technical Specifications since they are still under review.

The application for the amendments complies with the standards and requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's rules and regulations. The Commission has made appropriate findings as required by the Act and the Commission's rules and regulations in 10 CFR Chapter 1, which are set forth in the license amendments. Prior public notice of the amendments is not required since the amendments do not involve a significant hazards consideration.

For further details with respect to this action, see (1) the application for amendments dated September 19, 1974, as supplemented January 9, 1975, (2) Amendment No. 10 to License No. DPR-31 and Amendment No. 9 to License No. DPR-41 with Change No. 22, and (3) the Commission's related Safety Evaluation. All of these items are available for public inspection at the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. and at the Environmental and Urban Affairs Library, Florida International University, Miami, Florida.

KANSAS GAS AND ELECTRIC CO. ET AL.

Availability of Safety Evaluation Report for Wolf Creek Generating Station, Unit No. 1

Notice is hereby given that the Office of Nuclear Reactor Regulation has published its Safety Evaluation Report on the proposed construction of the Wolf Creek Generating Station, Unit No. 1 to be located in Coffey County, Kansas. Notice of receipt of the application filed by Kansas Gas and Electric Company and Kansas City Power and Light Company to construct and operate the Wolf Creek Nuclear Generating Station, Unit No. 1 was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 30, 1974 (39 F.R. 31683).

The Kansas Gas and Electric Company and Kansas City Power and Light Company, together with a group of three other utilities, consisting of the Union Electric Company, the Rochester Gas Northern States Power Company (the and Electric Corporation and the SNUPPS utilities), under the acronym SNUPPS (Standardized Nuclear Unit Power Plant System) submitted a standard plant design for review under the Nuclear Regulatory Commission's standardization policy statement of March 5, 1973. The five SNUPPS utilities have filed four separate applications with the Commission for licenses to construct and operate four proposed standardized plants or SNUPPS plants (consisting of a total of units) under the duplicate plant option of the Commission's policy. This policy allows, under one of the options, for a simultaneous review of the safety-related parameters of a limited number of duplicate plants which are to be constructed within a limited time span.

The report is being referred to the Advisory Committee on Reactor Safeguards and is being made available at the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. and at the Office of the County Clerk, Coffey County Courthouse, Burlington, Kansas for inspection and copying. The report (Document No. NUREG 75/080) can also be purchased, at current rates, from the National Technical Information Service, Springfield, Virginia 22161.

Separate safety evaluation reports will be issued for each application. On August 7, 1975 the Office of Nuclear Reactor Regulation issued its Safety Evaluation Report (Document No. NUREG 75/076) for the Union Electric Company's Callaway Plant. It is also available from the National Technical Information Service at a cost of $7.25 per paper copy and $2.25 for microfiche.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[811-2060]

NO-LOAD SELECTED FUNDS, INC.

Notice of Filing of Application for an Order Declaring That Company Has Ceased To Be an Investment Company

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that No-Load Selected Funds, Inc., ("Applicant"), 3300 Whitehaven Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20007, registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act") as an open-end, diversified management investment company, filed an application on April 18, 1975, and an amendment thereto on August 19, 1975, pursuant to Section 8(f) of the Act for an order of the Commission declaring that Applicant has ceased to be an investment company as defined in the Act. All interested persons are referred to the application on file with the Commission for a statement of the representations contained therein, which are summarized below.

Applicant states that it was organized as a Maryland corporation, and that it registered under the Act by filing a Notice of Registration on Form N-8A on April 23, 1970. Thereafter, Applicant filed a Registration Statement under the Act on Form N-8B-1 on October 28, 1970 and a Registration Statement under the Securities Act of 1933 on Form S-5 which it states became effective on August 26, 1971.

Applicant further represents that its Board of Directors, at a meeting held on February 24, 1975, recommended the adoption of a proposed Plan of Dissolution, Complete Liquidation and Termination of Existence of the Fund ("Plan"). At a meeting held on April 16, 1975, shareholders owning more than two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Applicant approved and adopted the Plan in accordance with the laws of the State of Maryland. Applicant further represents that all of its assets were converted to cash and distributed to its shareholders on a pro rata basis and that Applicant has ceased to act as an investment company as defined in the Act. Applicant states that it filed Articles of Dissolution with the State of Maryland, on April 17, 1975, said Articles being approved on May 5, 1975.

Section 8(f) provides, in pertinent part, that when the Commission, upon application, finds that a registered investment company has ceased to be an investment company, it shall so declare by order, and upon the taking effect of such order the registration of such company shall cease to be in effect.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that any interested person may, not later than September 30, 1975 at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request, and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission shall order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (air mail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon Applicant at the address stated above. Proof of such service (by affidavit, or in case of an attorney-at-law, by certificate) shall be filed contemporaneously with the request. As provided by Rule 0-5 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application will be issued as of course following said date unless the Commission thereafter orders a hearing upon request or upon the Commission's own motion. Persons who request a hearing, or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered, will receive any notices and orders issued in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

For the Commission, by the Division of Investment Management Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

(SEAL) GEORGE A. FITZSIMMONS,
Secretary.

PINESTOCK ASSOCIATES, INC. AND FIDUCIARY EQUITY ASSOCIATES, INC.

Notice of Filing of Application for an Order Exempting Proposed Transaction for Order Permitting Participation in Said Transaction

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Pinestock Associates, Inc. ("Pinestock"), and Fiduciary Equity Associates, Inc. ("FEA"), 140 Broadway, New York, New York 10005, both open-end diversified management investment companies registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act") (collectively, the "Applicants"), filed an application on June 5, 1975, and amendments thereto on July 28, August 13, and August 29, 1975, for orders (1) pursuant to Section 17(b) of the Act for an order of the Commission exempting from the provisions of Section 17(a) of the Act the proposed merger of FEA with and into Pinestock and (2) pursuant to Section 17(d) of the Act and Rule 17d-1 thereunder for an order permitting Alliance Capital Management Corporation ("Alliance"), the investment adviser of each of the Applicants, to participate in the proposed merger. All interested persons are referred to the application on file with the Commission for a statement of the representations contained therein, which are summarized below.

The Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Agreement") between the Applicants provides for the merger of FEA with and into Pinestock (which will be the surviving company). The corporate existence of FEA will cease on the effective date of the merger. The Agreement is subject to approval by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding common stock of Pinestock, and approval by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding common stock of FEA. The Agreement provides that the consummation of the merger is subject, among other things, to receipt by the Applicants of opinions of counsel to the effect that (1) the merger will constitute a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended (the "Code"); (2) no gain or loss for federal income tax purposes will be recognized to FEA, to Pinestock or to the Pinestock stockholders as a result of the merger; and (3) in accordance with Section 362 (b) of the Code, the basis of the assets received by Pinestock will be the same as the basis of such assets in the hands of FEA immediately prior to the merger. The shareholders of FEA are organizations exempted from taxation by Section 501 of the Code.

The Agreement provides that on the effective date of the merger, each outstanding share of FEA common stock will be converted into shares of Pinestock common stock having the same aggregate net asset value as a share of FEA common stock as of the close of business on the last business day preceding the effective date of the merger. No fractional shares of Pinestock common stock will be issued on conversion of the FEA common stock, but cash will be paid in lieu thereof. Applicants state that the effective date of the merger shall be not later than December 31, 1975, and that it is anticipated that the effective date of the merger will be a date shortly after the meetings of the shareholders of the Applicants held for the purpose of voting on the merger.

Applicants state that FEA was a "personal holding company" for federal tax purposes for its taxable year ending December 31, 1974 and that it will likely remain a personal holding company until the effective date of the merger. It is also represented that FEA intends, shortly before the effective date of the merger, to declare and pay to its shareholders a dividend substantially equal to the amount of its then undistributed net investment income, if any.

Applicants state that as of April 30, 1975, FEA and Pinestock had net assets of approximately $5,259,529 and $7,679,550, respectively. Under these circumstances, Applicants state that FEA and Pinestock each had accrued $6,000 in anticipation of expenses to be incurred in connection with the proposed merger. According to the Applicants, however, the net asset value of FEA has decreased substantially since April 30, 1975, due to several large redemptions by certain of its major stockholders; Applicants state that as of July 31, 1975, FEA's net assets were approximately $2,216,054. For this reason, Applicants submit that Alliance has agreed to assume all of the expenses of Pinestock incurred in connection with the merger, and that the said $6,000 accrual by Pinestock has accordingly been reversed.

Applicants state that the Agreement does not provide for any adjustment of the net assets of either FEA or Pinestock for realized or unrealized capital gains and losses. In support of this proposal, Applicants submit that as of June 30, 1975, FEA and Pinestock had net unrealized gains of approximately $565,580 and $564,165, respectively, representing approximately 16.43% and 6.91% of the net assets of FEA and Pinestock, respectively, on that same date; that as of June 30, 1975, FEA had net realized capital losses of approximately $497,725, representing approximately 14.46% of the net assets of FEA on the same date; that as of June 30, 1975, Pinestock had net realized capital gains of approximately $22,888, representing approximately 28% of the net assets of Pinestock on that same date; that as of December 31, 1974, Pinestock had a net capital loss carry-forward of $2,658,279 of which $1,811,088 expires in 1975, $384,271 expires in 1978 and $462,920 expires in 1979; and that as of December 31, 1974, FEA had a net capital loss carry-forward of $3,284,722 of which $2,062,836 expires in 1975 and $1,221,886 expires in 1979.

Alliance is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette, Inc.

("DLJ"). The Applicants state that all of the officers of each Applicant are officers or employees of Alliance, and that the same officers and employees of Alliance hold the offices of Treasurer, Assistant Secretary, Secretary and Assistant Secretary of each Applicant. Two of the Pinestock directors are officers and directors of Alliance. One FEA director is a director of, but is not employed by, Alliance, and another is a stockholder of DLJ but is not an affiliated person of DLJ or its subsidiaries. Both of the Pinestock directors who are officers and directors of Alliance are officers of FEA and one of such directors is a director of FEA. The Applicants state that they have no other common directors or officers.

Section 17(a) of the Act provides, in part, that it shall be unlawful for any affiliated person of a registered investment company, or an affiliated person of such affiliated person, knowingly to sell any security or other property to such registered investment company (except securities of which the buyer is the issuer) or knowingly to purchase any security or other property from such registered investment company (except securities of which the seller is the issuer). Section 17(b) of the Act provides that any person may file with the Commission an application for an order exempting a proposed transaction from one or more of the provisions of Section 17(a) of the Act, and that the Commission shall grant such application and issue such order of exemption if evidence establishes that the terms of the proposed transaction are fair and reasonable and do not involve any over-reaching on the part of any person concerned; that the proposed transaction is consistent with the policy of each registered investment company concerned; and that the proposed transaction is consistent with the general purposes of the Act.

The Applicants state that in view of the relationships described above, they might be deemed to be affiliated persons or that each Applicant might be deemed to be affiliated persons of such a person, within the meaning of Section 2(a)(3) of the Act. The Applicants therefore request an exemption pursuant to Section 17(b) of the Act exempting the merger from the provisions of Section 17(a) of the Act.

Section 17(d) of the Act provides, in part, that it shall be unlawful for any affiliated person of a registered investment company, acting as principal, to effect any transaction in which such registered company is a joint or a joint and several participant with such person, in contravention of such rules and regulations as the Commission may prescribe. Rule 17d-1 under the Act provides, in part, that no such person shall so effect or participate in any such joint arrangement unless an application regarding such arrangement has been filed with the Commission and has been granted by order; and that in passing upon such applications, the Commission will consider whether the participation of such registered company in such arrangement on the basis proposed is consistent with the provisions, policies and purposes of the Act and the extent to which such participation is on a basis different from or less advantageous than that of other participants.

Applicants submit that, to the extent that the assumption by Alliance of the expenses incurred by Pinestock in connection with the merger of the Applicants might be considered a participation by Alliance in a joint enterprise in which a registered investment company is a participant, an application regarding such joint enterprise and an order granting such application would be required in connection with the proposed merger.

The investment objective of Pinestock is said to be capital appreciation, and that of FEA growth of capital. The Applicants submit that the proposed transaction is consistent with their respective policies since the stockholders of FEA will receive shares of an open-end management company with similar investment objectives and substantially identical fundamental policies and investment restrictions. The Applicants believe that the portfolio securities of FEA are compatible with the objectives and policies of Pinestock and that the merger will not entail the sale of a substantial portion of any such securities by reason of any differences in the investment objectives or policies of the Applicants.

The Applicants assert that the terms of the proposed transaction are fair and reasonable in that Pinestock will be issuing its shares in exchange for property at a price not less than the net asset value thereof and that the shareholders of FEA will receive shares of common stock of Pinestock equal in value to the aggregate net asset value of their FEA common stock.

Applicants state that in view of the magnitude of Pinestock's capital loss carry-forward, the value to Pinestock of FEA's net realized losses and capital loss carry-forward is uncertain. For this reason and because the shareholders of FEA will be acquiring through the merger shares of a diversified open-end management company which, unlike FEA, is not a "personal holding company" for federal tax purposes, Applicants submit that their managements are of the opinion that the terms of the Agreement, in not providing for any adjustments with respect to these items, are equitable.

Applicants also submit that, under the circumstances of the decreased amount of the net assets of FEA to be acquired by Pinestock pursuant to the merger, Alliance deemed it appropriate to assume the expenses of Pinestock incurred in connection with the merger. The stockholders of FEA, who will be receiving pursuant to the merger shares of a more viable fund which, unlike FEA, is not a "personal holding company" for federal tax purposes, derive no less a benefit from the proposed merger as a result of the decrease in FEA's net assets.

The Applicants, therefore, submit and represent that the assumption by Alliance of the expenses incurred by Pine-stock and not by FEA in connection with the merger is fair and reasonable and is consistent with the provisions, policies and purposes of the Act.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that any interested person may, not later than September 30, 1975, at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request, and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission shall order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (air mail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon Applicants at the address stated above. Proof of such service (by affidavit or, in case of an attorney-at-law, by certificate) shall be filed contemporaneously with the request. As provided by Rule O-5 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application will be issued as of course following said date unless the Commission thereafter orders a hearing upon the Commission's own motion. Persons who request a hearing, or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered, will receive any notices and orders issued in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

For the Commission, by the Division of Investment Management Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

Secretary.

[Securities Exchange Act Release No. 11629]

UNFIXED COMMISSIONS

Confirmation of Transactions

The Commission today drew attention to practices recently being urged on brokers in connection with confirming transactions. It has been suggested that institutions, particularly foreign institutions, have requested that brokers (i) provide to such institutions confirmations of transactions which reflect a commission calculated according to the old minimum rate schedules of exchanges, (ii) collect the commission so reflected and (iii) agree to return to the institutions, at monthly intervals, some percentage of the commission collected.<sup>1</sup>

Since May 1, 1975, the Commission has,

<sup>1</sup> Broker-dealers are required by Section 11(d)(2) of the Act to disclose in writing at or prior to completion of a transaction with a customer whether it is acting as a dealer for its own account, as a broker for such customer or as broker for some other person. In addition, in the case of over-the-counter transactions, Securities Exchange Act Rule 15c1-4 requires disclosures with respect to the source and amount of any commission or other remuneration.

NOTICES

pursuant to Rule 19b-3, prohibited national securities exchanges from fixing commission rates on exchange transactions.<sup>2</sup> A fundamental part of the Commission's reasoning in adopting Rule 19b-3 was that "the free play of competition" could "provide a level and structure of commission rates" which "would better serve the interests of the investing public, the securities markets, the securities industry, the national economy and the public interest than any system of price fixing. . . ."

During the initial transition to competitively determined commission rates, there may have been reasons, such as the need to adjust rapidly to changing methods of doing business, for using arrangements such as those described above. Clearly, however, where the parties are prepared to determine the commission at the time an order is placed, there would not be any reason for continuing to prepare confirmations along the lines referred to above. The following applies to all transactions by brokers, whether effected on or off an exchange or for a foreign or domestic institution.

Institutions which have been suggesting the arrangements referred to above are, in most cases, acting as agents for investors when they place orders with brokers. Under general principles of agency law in the United States, an institution which acts as an agent for an investor and receives a return of commissions paid by the investor to a broker is under a duty to turn them over to the investor.<sup>3</sup> An institution's violation of that duty would, in the opinion of the Commission, constitute a fraudulent or deceptive act or practice in connection with the purchase or sale of securities. Furthermore, where acts (or culpable failures to act) within the United States, such as directing the preparation of misleading confirmations, directly cause losses to foreigners outside the United States, the anti-fraud provisions of the federal securities acts are applicable.<sup>4</sup>

A broker which causes or assists an institution to violate a duty to the investor may be aiding and abetting a fraudulent or deceptive act or practice.<sup>5</sup> Further-

<sup>4</sup> See Restatement (Second) of Agency, Sections 388 and 404A. In the absence of fraud that duty may, presumably, be modified with the investor's informed consent.

COTTMAN CAPITAL CORP.

Application for License as a Small Business Investment Company

An application for a license to operate as a small business investment company under the provisions of section 301(d) of the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, as amended (15 U.S.C. 661 et seq.), has been filed by Cottman Capital Corporation (applicant), with the Small Business Administration (SBA) pursuant to 13 CFR 107.102 (1975).

The officers, directors and stockholder of the applicant are as follows:

Richard O. Silva, President, Director, Woodford, Bryn Athyn, Penna. 19009.
Stephan B. Narin, Secretary, Treasurer, Director, 331 Mallwyd Road, Merion, Penna. 19066.
Cottman Franchises Internationale, Inc., 100% Stockholder, 575 Virginia Drive, Fort Washington, Penna. 19034.

The applicant, a Pennsylvania corporation, with its principal place of business located at 575 Virginia Drive, Fort Washington, Pennsylvania 19034, will begin operations with $300,000 of paid-in capital and paid-in surplus derived from the sale of 300,000 shares of common stock. The applicant's parent, Cottman Franchises International Inc., was established in 1964 and has extensive experience in franchising transmission systems centers.

As a small business investment company under section 301(d) of the Act, the applicant has been organized and chartered solely for the purpose of performing the functions and conducting the activities contemplated under the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, as amended from time to time, and will provide assistance solely to small business concerns which will contribute to a well-balanced national economy by facilitating ownership in such concerns by persons whose participation in the free enterprise system is hampered because of social or economic disadvantages.

to state a material fact in order to make the statements made therein not misleading. See, e.g., Securities Exchange Act Rule 10b-5, 17 CFR 240.10b-5, and Securities Exchange Act Rule 15c1-2, 17 CFR 240.15c1-2.

CREDITO INVESTMENT COMPANY, INC.

Filing of Application for Approval of Conflict of Interest Transaction

Notice is hereby given that Credito Investment Company, Inc. (Credito), Recinto Sur and San Justo Streets, San Juan, Puerto Rico 00936, a Federal Licensee under the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, as amended, has filed an application pursuant to § 107.1004(b) of the SBA rules and regulations governing small business investment companies (13 CFR 107.1004 (1975)), for an exemption from the provisions of the conflict of interest regulations.

The exemption, if granted, will permit Credito to purchase 5 percent of the common stock of Carbotek, Inc. (Carbotek) for $180,000. Carbotek, which is located in Carolina, Puerto Rico, is a manufacturer of a toner used in photocopying machines. Mr. Jorge L. P. Valdivieso, Chairman of the Board of Carbotek is a director of Banco Credito y Ahorro Poncena, (Banco). Banco owns 46.6 percent of Credito's stock. Carbotek is considered to be an "Associate" of the Licensee, as defined by § 107.3 of the regulations. This transaction, therefore, will require an exemption pursuant to § 107.1004(b)(1) of the regulations.

Notice is hereby given that any person may, on or before September 26, 1975, submit written comments on the proposed transaction to: Deputy Associate Administrator for Investment, Small Business Administration, 1441 "L" Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20416.

A copy of this notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Dated: September 4, 1975.

Commission's general rules of practice (49 CFR, as amended), published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of April 20, 1966, effective May 20, 1966. These rules provide, among other things, that a protest to the granting of an application must be filed with the Commission on or before October 14, 1975. Failure seasonably to file a protest will be construed as a waiver of opposition and participation in the proceeding. A protest under these rules should comply with section 247(d) (3) of the rules of practice which requires that it set forth specifically the grounds upon which it is made, contain a detailed statement of protester's interest in the proceeding (including a copy of the specific portions of its authority which protester believes to be in conflict with that sought in the application, and describing in detail the method—whether by joinder, interline, or other means—by which protester would use such authority to provide all or part of the service proposed), and shall specify with particularity the facts, matters, and things relied upon, but shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. Protests not in reasonable compliance with the requirements of the rules may be rejected. The original and one (1) copy of the protest shall be filed with the Commission, and a copy shall be served concurrently upon applicant's representative, or applicant if no representative is named. If the protest includes a request for oral hearing, such requests shall meet the requirements of section 247(d) (4) of the special rules, and shall include the certification required therein.

Section 247(f) of the Commission's rules of practice further provides that each applicant shall, if protests to its application have been filed, and within 60 days of the date of this publication, notify the Commission in writing (1) that it is ready to proceed and prosecute the application, or (2) that it wishes to withdraw the application, failure in which the application will be dismissed by the Commission.

Further processing steps (whether modified procedure, oral hearing, or other procedures) will be determined generally in accordance with the Commission's general policy statement concerning motor carrier licensing procedures, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of May 3, 1966. This assignment will be served on each party of record. Broadening amendments will not be accepted after the date of this publication except for good cause shown, and restrictive amendments will not be entertained following publication in the Federal Register of a notice that the proceeding has been assigned for oral hearing.

Evidence respecting how equipment is expected to be returned to an origin point, as well as other data relating to operational feasibility (including the need for dead-head operations), must be presented as part of an applicant's initial evidentiary presentation (either at oral hearing or in its opening verified statement under the modified procedure) with respect to all applications filed on or after December 1, 1973.

If an applicant states in its initial evidentiary presentation that empty or partially empty vehicle movements will result upon a grant of its application, applicant will be expected (1) to specify the extent of such empty operations, by mileages and the number of vehicles, that would be incurred, and (2) to designate where such empty vehicle operations will be conducted.

Each applicant (except as otherwise specifically noted) states that there will be no significant effect on the quality of the human environment resulting from approval of its application.

OPERATING AUTHORITY Applications

SEPTEMBER 8, 1975.

The Commission wishes to call to the attention of all applicants for operating authority whose applications were filed after January 20, 1975, that they are subject to the amended Rule 247 set forth in Ex Parte No. 55 (Sub-No. 10) and published in 120 M.C.C. 670. In particular, applicants should be aware of the requirement that the application when filed must be accompanied by certifications of support for each supporting shipper known to the applicant at that time. This is particularly important since the rule now limits the total number of witnesses whose testimony may be offered to no more than twice the number for whom certifications were filed with the application. Thus, for example, if 10 certifications are filed with the application, testimony at a hearing or under the modified procedure may be presented by no more than 20 such witnesses.

The Commission recognizes that frequently supporting shippers are unable to appear at a hearing and that certifications may be filed on behalf of more supporting shippers than will be permitted to testify under this rule. Thus, the rule does not limit the total number of additional supporting shipper witnesses for whom certifications may be filed after filing the application provided all such certifications are filed not later than 30 days before the date assigned for commencement of oral hearing. Nonetheless, the total number of witnesses presented is limited as set forth above.

Applicants are warned that the deadline for filing subsequently obtained certifications (30 days prior to hearing) is not subject to waiver and the Commission will not entertain petitions therefor. The rule specifically provides that no testimony will be received from witnesses for whom such certifications have not been timely received.

Applicants should also be aware of the new provision that, upon request by any party, the applicant shall furnish to such party copies of all certifications filed with the application and shall serve copies of all subsequently obtained certifications upon all parties of record.

The attention of all applicants is also called to the revised deadline for submitting proposed amendments to applications. This deadline is now 30 days from the service date of the notice that the case has been designated for processing under oral hearing procedures or the date of a prehearing conference assigned to consider amendments.

Attention is also called to the amendment to Rule 247(1), appearing in Ex Parte No. 55 (Sub-No. 13) and printed in 350 I.C.C. 475. Effective September 15, 1975, this revised rule provides, in part, that submission of a request for dismissal of an application later than 15 calendar days after the service date of a notice setting it for oral hearing, or failure of applicant to appear and prosecute such application at such hearing, will result in dismissal thereof and will bar the filing of any application for the same or any part of the same authority by the same applicant for a period of one year after the date of the dismissal order.

The above revisions in the General Rules of Practice were the subject of rulemaking proceedings in which all interested persons were invited to participate and are intended to improve the Commission's procedures and contribute to more expeditious decisions. They are particularly designed to insure that applicants for operating authority take prompt action to have their case as fully prepared as possible prior to filing the application and to promptly dismiss any application which they do not intend to prosecute.

[SEAL] ROBERT L. OSWALD,
Secretary.

IRREGULAR-ROUTE MOTOR COMMON CARRIERS OF PROPERTY

Elimination of Gateway Applications

SEPTEMBER 8, 1975.

The following applications to eliminate gateways for the purpose of reducing highway congestion, alleviating air and noise pollution, minimizing safety hazards, and conserving fuel have been filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission under the Commission's Gateway Elimination Rules (49 CFR 1065(d) (2)), and notice thereof to all interested persons is hereby given as provided in such rules.

Carriers having a genuine interest in an application may file an original and three copies of verified statements in opposition with the Interstate Commerce Commission within 30 days from the date of publication. (This procedure is outlined in the Commission's report and order in Gateway Elimination, 119 M.C.C. 530.) A copy of the verified statement in opposition must also be served upon applicant or its named representative. The verified statement should contain all the evidence upon which protestant relies in the application proceeding including a detailed statement of protestant's interest in the proposal. No rebuttal statements will be accepted.

IRREGULAR-ROUTE MOTOR COMMON CARRIERS OF PROPERTY—ELIMINATION OF GATEWAY LETTER NOTICES

Notice

SEPTEMBER 8, 1975.

The following letter-notices of proposals to eliminate gateways for the purpose of reducing highway congestion, alleviating air and noise pollution, minimizing safety hazards, and conserving fuel have been filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission under the Commission's Gateway Elimination Rules (49 CFR 1065), and notice thereof to all interested persons is hereby given as provided in such rules.

An original and two copies of protests against the proposed elimination of any gateway herein described may be filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission within 10 days from the date of this publication. A copy must also be served upon applicant or its representative. Protests against the elimination of a gateway will not operate to stay commencement of the proposed operation.

Successively filed letter-notices of the same carrier under these rules will be numbered consecutively for convenience in identification. Protests, if any, must refer to such letter-notices by number.

MOTOR CARRIER TEMPORARY AUTHORITY APPLICATIONS

SEPTEMBER 4, 1975.

The following are notices of filing of applications for temporary authority under Section 210(a) of the Interstate Commerce Act, provided for under the provisions of 49 C.F.R. § 1131.3. These rules provide that an original and six (6) copies of protests to an application may be filed with the field official named in the FEDERAL REGISTER publication no later than the 15th calendar day after the date the notice of the filing of the application is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. One copy of the protest must be served on the applicant, or its authorized representative, if any, and the protest must certify that such service has been made. The protest must identify the operating authority upon which it is predicated, specifying the "MC" docket and "Sub" number and quoting the particular portion of authority upon which it relies. Also, the protestant shall specify the service it can and will provide and the amount and type of equipment it will make available for use in connection with the service contemplated by the TA application. The weight accorded a protest shall be governed by the completeness and pertinence of the protestant's information.

Except as otherwise specifically noted, each applicant states that there will be no significant effect on the quality of the human environment resulting from approval of its application.

A copy of the application is on file, and can be examined at the Office of the Secretary, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C., and also in the I.C.C. Field Office to which protests are to be transmitted.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

[Notice 1975-42]

ADVISORY OPINION

Incorporation of Political Committee

The Federal Election Commission announces the publication today of Advisory Opinion 1975-37. The Commission's opinions are in response to questions raised by individuals holding Federal office, candidates for Federal office and political committees, with respect to whether any specific transaction or activity by such individual, candidate, or political committee would constitute a violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, of Chapter 95 or Chapter 96 of Title 26 United States Code, or of Sections 608, 610, 611, 613, 614, 615, 616, or 617 of Title 18 United States Code.

The Commission points out that these advisory opinions should be regarded as interim rulings which are subject to modification by future Commission regulations of general applicability. In the event that a holding in either opinion is altered by the Commission's regulations, the persons to whom the opinions were issued will be notified.

ADVISORY OPINION 1975-37

INCORPORATION OF POLITICAL COMMITTEE

This advisory opinion is rendered under 2 U.S.C. § 437f in response to a request by David E. Birenbaum on behalf of the Shriver for President Committee which was published as AOR 1975-37 in the August 20, 1975, FEDERAL REGISTER (40 FR 36534). Interested parties were given an opportunity to submit written comments relating to the request.

The request asks the Commission whether the Shriver for President Committee, a political committee incorporated as a nonprofit corporation solely for the purpose of collecting and expending political contributions, is barred as a corporation from making contributions or expenditures in connection with any federal election under 18 U.S.C. § 610.

The Commission in its advisory opinion published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 19, 1975, as AO 1975-16, stated in Section 4 of that opinion, that if "a nonprofit organization is created expressly and exclusively to engage in political activities . . . and has incorporated for liability purposes only, the general prohibitions in § 610 will not apply to that corporation." Accordingly, the Shriver for President Committee is exempted from the restrictions in § 610 as long as it meets the requirements specified above.

It should be noted further that although an incorporated, nonprofit political committee is not subject to the prohibitions in 18 U.S.C. § 610, the treasurer and the chairman of such a political committee nevertheless remain personally responsible for carrying out their respective duties as contemplated by the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. The fact of incorporation does not absolve those officers of any liability imposed upon them under the Act, implementing regulations, and pertinent provisions of Title 18, U.S. Code.

Dated: September 9, 1975.

THOMAS B. CURTIS,
Chairman for the Federal Election Commission.

Title I—General Provisions
CHAPTER IV—MISCELLANEOUS AGENCIES (PRIVACY REGULATIONS)
PART 410—COMMISSION ON THE REVIEW OF THE NATIONAL POLICY TOWARD GAMBLING

Implementation

The following Regulations, drafted in accordance with Section F of the Privacy Act of 1974, were offered for public comment by publication in the Federal Register on August 6, 1975. No comments were submitted, and the Regulations are hereby adopted unchanged.

Signed the 5th day of September 1975.

JAMES E. RITCHIE,
 Executive Director.

§ 410.1 Purpose and scope.

The purposes of these regulations are to:

- (a) Establish a procedure by which an individual can determine if the Commission on the Review of the National Policy Toward Gambling (hereafter known as the Commission) maintains a system of records which includes a record pertaining to the individual; and
- (b) Establish a procedure by which an individual can gain access to a record pertaining to him for the purpose of review, amendment, and/or correction.

§ 410.2 Definitions.

For the purpose of these regulations—

- (a) The term "individual" means a citizen of the United States or an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence;
- (b) The term "maintain" includes maintain, collect, use or disseminate;
- (c) The term "record" means any item, collection or grouping of information about an individual that is maintained by the Commission, including, but not limited to, his education, financial transactions, medical history, and criminal or employment history and that contains his name, birth date, or other identifying number, symbol, or other identifying particular assigned to the individual, such as a finger or voice print or a photograph;
- (d) The term "system of records" means a group of any records under the control of the Commission from which information is retrieved by the named of the individual or by some identifying number, symbol or other identifying particular assigned to the individual; and

(e) The term "routine use" means, with respect to the disclosure of a record, the use of such record for a purpose which is compatible with the purpose for which it was collected.

§ 410.3 Procedures for requests pertaining to individual records in a record system.

An individual must submit a request to the Executive Director of the Commission to determine if a system of records named by the individual contains a record pertaining to the individual. The individual must submit a request to the Executive Director of the Commission which states the individual's desire to review his record.

§ 410.4 Times, places and requirements for the identification of the individual making a request.

An individual making a request to the Executive Director pursuant to § 410.3 shall present the request at the Commission's offices, 2000 M Street, NW., Room 3302, Washington, D.C. 20036, on any business day between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. The individual submitting the request is required to present himself at the Commission's offices with a form of identification which will permit the Commission to verify that the individual is the same individual as contained in the record requested.

§ 410.5 Disclosure of requested information to the individual.

Upon verification of identity the Commission shall disclose to the individual the information contained in the record which pertains to that individual.

§ 410.6 Request for correction or amendment to the record.

The individual must submit a request to the Executive Director of the Commission which states the individual's desire to correct or to amend his record. This request is to be made in accord with the provisions of § 410.4.

§ 410.7 Agency review of request for correction or amendment of the record.

Within ten (10) days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal public holidays) of the receipt of the request to correct or to amend the record, the Executive Director must acknowledge, in writing, such receipt and promptly, either—

(a) Make any correction or amendment of any portion thereof which the individual believes is not accurate, relevant, timely, or complete; or

(b) Inform the individual of his refusal to correct or to amend the record in accordance with the request, the reason for the refusal, and the procedures established by the Commission for the individual to request a review of that refusal.

§ 410.8 Appeal of an Initial Adverse Agency Determination on Correction or Amendment of the Record.

An individual who disagrees with the refusal of the Executive Director of the Commission to correct or to amend his record may submit a request for a review of such refusal to the Chairman of the Commission, Mr. Charles H. Morin, Dickstein, Shapiro & Morin, 1735 New York Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C. 20006. The Chairman shall, not later than thirty (30) days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal public holidays) from the date on which the individual requests such review, complete such review and make a final determination unless, for good cause shown, the Chairman extends such thirty (30) day period. If, after his review, the Chairman also refuses to correct or to amend the record in accordance with the request, the individual may file with the Commission a concise statement setting forth the reasons for his disagreement with the refusal of the Commission and may seek judicial review of the Chairman's determination under 5 U.S.C. section 552a(g) (1) (A).

§ 410.9 Disclosure of record to a person other than the individual to whom the record pertains.

The Commission shall not disclose a record to any individual other than to the individual to whom the record pertains without receiving the written consent of the individual to whom the record pertains.

§ 410.10 Fees.

If an individual requests copies of his record he shall be charged ten cents per page, excluding the cost of any search for and review of the record.

Notices of Record Systems

The Notices of Record Systems of the Commission on the Review of the National Policy Toward Gambling were drafted as prescribed by section e(4) of the Privacy Act of 1974, and the routine uses thereof were offered for public comment as provided by section e(11) of the Act, by publication in the Federal Register on August 6, 1975. Upon consideration of recommendations submitted by the Department of Justice, the Notices were amended to include the following additional routine uses. With these exceptions, the Notices of Record Systems stand as originally published.

Signed the 5th day of September, 1975.

JAMES E. RITCHIE,
 Executive Director.

System Name: Members and Past Members of the Commission—CRNPG

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES

Identification of the Commission's members, past and present. Used by the Commission's staff.

In the event that this system of records maintained by this agency to carry out its functions indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute, or by regulation, rule or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether federal, state, local or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, or rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.

A record from this system of records may be disclosed as a "routine use" to a federal, state or local agency maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to an agency decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit.

A record from this system of records may be disclosed to a federal agency, in response to its request, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

System name: Personnel Records—CRNPG

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES

Identification of CRNPG personnel and their employment records. Used by the Executive Director, Associate Director and the Deputy for Management, Budget and Administration.

In the event that this system of records maintained by this agency to carry out its functions indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute, or by regulation, rule or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant record in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether federal, state, local or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, or rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.

A record from this system of records may be disclosed as a "routine use" to a federal, state or local agency maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to an agency decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit.

A record from this system of records may be disclosed to a federal agency in response to its request, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

Title 3—The President

PROCLAMATION 4390

National Saint Elizabeth Seton Day

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

Among the most important elements of America's Bicentennial observance—and of everyday American life for nearly 200 years—is the religious heritage of our Nation, rich in its diversity and its quality.

The singular devotion, faith and courage of such servants of God as Elizabeth Ann Seton give life to that heritage and inspiration to us all.

On Sunday, September 14, 1975, His Holiness Pope Paul VI will confer upon "Mother Seton," as she is known to millions of Roman Catholics, the rites of canonization. From that day, Mother Seton will be Saint Elizabeth Seton, the first American-born saint of the Roman Catholic Church.

Born in New York more than 200 years ago, Mother Seton was content in her early years to live the common life of the 18th century woman. But tragedy entered her life, leaving her a widow at a young age and with five children. Moving to Emmitsburg, Maryland, she turned to the work of her church, took the vows of a nun and later founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph, an order of nuns devoted to teaching.

Mother Seton established the first parochial school in America, the foundation for an educational system that has brought the priceless gift of knowledge to millions of Americans, including a multitude of newly arrived immigrants whom Mother Seton and her followers instructed in the language and the ways of their new homeland.

For her devout faith and diligent service in the Kingdom of God, her church is bestowing its highest honor on Mother Seton on September 14, 1975.

For her service to her country, we, as a Nation, and believers in many faiths, also have just cause to honor the memory of Mother Seton on that special day.

V

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GERALD R. FORD, President of the United States of America, in accordance with Senate Joint Resolution 125, do hereby designate Sunday, September 14, 1975, as National Saint Elizabeth Seton Day, and call for such memorials and other observances as are appropriate to the occasion.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this eleventh day of September, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred seventy-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two-hundredth.

rules and regulations

This section of the FEDERAL REGISTER contains regulatory documents having general applicability and legal effect most of which are keyed to and codified in the Code of Federal Regulations, which is published under 50 titles pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 1510. The Code of Federal Regulations is sold by the Superintendent of Documents. Prices of new books are listed in the first FEDERAL REGISTER issue of each month.

Title 7—Agriculture CHAPTER IX—AGRICULTURAL MARKET- ING SERVICE (MARKETING AGREE- MENTS AND ORDERS; FRUITS, VEGE- TABLES, NUTS), DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

[Grapefruit Reg. 76]

PART 905—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, TANGERINES, AND TANGELOS GROWN IN FLORIDA

Grade and Size Regulations

This regulation, effective during the period September 15 through October 26, 1975, prescribes minimum grade and size requirements applicable to domestic and export shipments of Florida grapefruit as follows: Domestic shipments of seeded grapefruit—U.S. No. 1 and  $3\frac{1}{16}$  inches in diameter; domestic shipments of seedless grapefruit—Improved No. 2 and  $3\frac{3}{16}$  inches in diameter; export shipments of seeded grapefruit—U.S. No. 1 and  $3\frac{1}{16}$  inches in diameter; and export shipments of seedless grapefruit—Improved No. 2 and  $3\frac{3}{16}$  inches in diameter. The minimum grade and size requirements specified for Florida grapefruit are prescribed during the present stage of the development of the crop to guard against the shipment of lower quality and smaller size fruit, which tends to weaken the market for such fruit.

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 905, as amended (7 CFR Part 905), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, tangerines, and tangelos grown in Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674), and the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the regulation of shipments of grapefruit, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) The minimum grade and size requirements specified herein reflect the Department's appraisal of the need for regulation of shipments of grapefruit during the period September 15 through October 26, 1975, based on the available supply and current and prospective market demand conditions. Available data indicate that during the 1975-76 season fresh market outlets will take about 50 carlots of seeded grapefruit and 36,750 carlots of seedless grapefruit. The minimum grade and size requirements specified herein for seeded and seedless grapefruit are necessary during the early part of the season to prevent the handling of such fruits that are of a lower grade or smaller size in order to provide good-quality fruit to consumers and promote orderly marketing.

The specified grade and size requirements for export shipments of such grapefruit are necessary to assure the exportation of good-quality fruit and thereby aid the expansion of export markets.

It is concluded that the grade and size requirements hereinafter provided are necessary to provide good-quality fruit in the interest of producers and consumers pursuant to the declared policy of the act.

(3) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rulemaking procedure, and postpone the effective date of this regulation until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this regulation is based became available and the time when this regulation must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of grapefruit, grown in the production area, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on September 4, 1975, such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this regulation, including the effective time hereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendations of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such fruits; it is necessary to make this regulation effective on September 15, 1975, to preclude the shipment of lower quality grapefruit, as hereinafter set forth, and to otherwise effectuate the declared policy of the act; and compliance with this regulation will not require any special preparation on the part of the persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

§ 905.563 Grapefruit Regulation 76.

Order. (a) During the period September 15, 1975, through October 26, 1975, no handler shall ship between the production area and any point outside thereof in the continental United States, Canada, or Mexico:

(1) Any seeded grapefruit, grown in the production area, which do not grade at least U.S. No. 1;

(2) Any seeded grapefruit, grown in the production area, which are of a size smaller than  $3\frac{1}{16}$  inches in diameter, except that a tolerance for undersize grapefruit shall be permitted as specified in § 51.761 of the United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit;

(3) Any seedless grapefruit, grown in the production area, which do not grade at least Improved No. 2; or

(4) Any seedless grapefruit, grown in the production area, which are of a size smaller than  $3\frac{3}{16}$  inches in diameter, except that a tolerance for undersize grapefruit shall be permitted as specified in § 51.761 of the United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit.

(b) During the period September 15, 1975, through October 26, 1975, no handler shall ship to any destination outside the continental United States other than to Canada or Mexico:

(2) Any seeded grapefruit, grown in the production area, which are of a size smaller than  $3\frac{1}{16}$  inches in diameter, except that a tolerance for undersize grapefruit shall be permitted as specified in § 51.761 of the United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit;

(3) Any seedless grapefruit, grown in the production area, which do not grade at least Improved No. 2; or

(4) Any seedless grapefruit, grown in the production area, which are of a size smaller than  $3\frac{3}{16}$  inches in diameter, except that a tolerance for undersize grapefruit shall be permitted as specified in § 51.761 of the United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit.

(c) Terms used in the amended marketing agreement and order, including Improved No. 2 grade, shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in said amended marketing agreement and order; and terms relating to grade, except Improved No. 2 grade, and diameter, as used herein, shall have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in the revised United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit (7 CFR 51.750-anges, 4,000 carlots of tangelos, 4,000 carlots of tangerines, and 1,850 carlots of murcotts. [Orange Reg. 74; Tangerine Reg. 47; Tangelo Reg. 47]

PART 905—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, TANGERINES, AND TANGELOS GROWN IN FLORIDA

Grade and Size Regulations

These regulations specify minimum grade and size requirements for the period September 15, 1975, through October 26, 1975, applicable to the handling of oranges, tangerines and tangelos grown in the production area in Florida. The regulations are necessary to ensure the shipment of fruit of appropriate grades and sizes in the interest of both growers and consumers. The action is necessary to promote orderly marketing conditions by preventing the adverse effect on the market caused by shipment of lower-quality and smaller-size fruit when more than ample supplies of the more desirable grades and sizes are available to serve consumers' needs.

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 905, as amended (7 CFR Part 905), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, tangerines, and tangelos grown in Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674), and the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the regulation of shipments of oranges, including Navel, Temple and Murcott Honey oranges, Valencia, Lue Gim Gong and similar late maturing oranges of the Valencia type, tangerines, and tangelos, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) The minimum grade and size requirements specified herein reflect the Department's appraisal of the need for regulation of shipments of the specified varieties of oranges, tangerines, and tangelos during the period September 15 through October 26, 1975, based on the available supply and current and prospective market demand conditions. Available data indicate that during the 1975-76 season fresh market outlets will take about 21,500 carlots of round oranges, 3,500 carlots of Temple oranges, 4,000 carlots of tangelos, 4,000 carlots of tangerines, and 1,850 carlots of murcotts. The minimum grade and size requirements specified for Early and Midseason type oranges are prescribed during the present stage of maturity and development of such oranges to guard against the shipment of lower quality and smaller size fruit which tends to weaken the market for such fruit. The U.S. No. 1 Golden grade requirement specified herein for Navel oranges is consistent with the fact that Navel oranges tend to possess more surface discoloration.

The size and grade requirements specified herein for tangerines and tangelos are necessary during the early part of the season to prevent the handling of such fruits that are of a lower grade or smaller size in order to provide good-quality fruit to consumers and promote orderly marketing.

The specified grade and size requirements for export shipments of the named varieties of oranges, tangerines and tangelos are necessary to assure the exportation of good-quality fruit and thereby aid the expansion of export markets.

It is concluded that the grade and size requirements hereinafter provided are necessary to provide good-quality fruit in the interest of producers and consumers pursuant to the declared policy of the act.

(3) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rulemaking procedure, and postpone the effective date of these regulations until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which these regulations are based became available and the time when these regulations must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of oranges, tangerines, and tangelos, grown in the production area, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on September 4, 1975, such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of these regulations, including the effective time hereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendations of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such fruits; it is necessary to make these regulations effective on September 15, 1975, to preclude the shipment of lower quality oranges, tangerines, and tangelos, as hereinafter set forth, and to otherwise effectuate the declared policy of the act; and compliance with these regulations will not require any special preparation on the part of the persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

§ 905.560 Orange Regulation 74.

Order. (a) During the period September 15, 1975, through October 26, 1975, no handler shall ship between the production area and any point outside thereof in the continental United States, Canada, or Mexico:

(1) Any oranges, except Navel oranges, Temple oranges, Murcott Honey oranges, and Valencia, Lue Gim Gong, and similar late maturing oranges of the Valencia type, grown in the production area, which do not grade at least U.S. No. 1;

(2) Any oranges, except Navel oranges, Temple oranges, Murcott Honey oranges, and Valencia, Lue Gim Gong and similar late maturing oranges of the Valencia type, grown in the production area, which are of a size smaller than 2 1/4 inches in diameter, except that a tolerance for undersize oranges shall be permitted as specified in § 51.1152 of the United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos; Provided, That such tolerance for undersize oranges shall be based only on those oranges in such lot which are of a size 2 1/4 inches in diameter or smaller;

(3) Any Navel oranges, grown in the production area, which do not grade at least U.S. No. 1 Golden;

(4) Any Navel oranges, grown in the production area, which are of a size smaller than 2 1/4 inches in diameter, except that a tolerance for undersize Navel oranges shall be permitted as specified in § 51.1152 of the United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos;

(5) Any Temple oranges, grown in the production area, which do not grade at least U.S. No. 1;

(6) Any Temple oranges, grown in the production area, which are of a size smaller than 2 1/4 inches in diameter, except that a tolerance for undersize Temple oranges shall be permitted as specified in § 51.1152 of the United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos;

(7) Any Murcott Honey oranges, grown in the production area, which do not grade at least Florida No. 1 grade for murcotts;

(8) Any Murcott Honey oranges, grown in the production area, which are of a size smaller than 2 1/4 inches in diameter, except that a tolerance for undersize Murcott Honey oranges shall be permitted as specified in § 51.1818 of the United States Standards for Florida Tangerines;

(9) Any Valencia, Lue Gim Gong, and similar late maturing oranges of the Valencia type, grown in the production area, which do not grade at least U.S. No. 1: Provided, That during the period September 15, 1975, through September

28, 1975, such oranges may be shipped if they grade at least U.S. No. 2 Russet; and

(10) Any Valencia, Lue Gim Gong, and similar late maturing oranges of the Valencia type, grown in the production area, which are of a size smaller than 2 1/4 inches in diameter, except that a tolerance for undersize oranges shall be permitted as specified in § 51.1152 of the United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos: Provided, That such tolerance for undersize oranges shall be based only on those oranges in such lot which are 2 1/4 inches in diameter or smaller.

(b) During the period September 15, 1975, through October 26, 1975, no handler shall ship to any destination outside the continental United States other than to Canada or Mexico:

(1) Any oranges, except Navel oranges, Temple oranges, Murcott Honey oranges, and Valencia, Lue Gim Gong and similar late maturing oranges of the Valencia type, grown in the production area, which do not grade at least U.S. No. 1;

(2) Any oranges, except Navel oranges, Temple oranges, Murcott Honey oranges, and Valencia, Lue Gim Gong and similar late maturing oranges of the Valencia type, grown in the production area, which are of a size smaller than 2 1/4 inches in diameter, except that a tolerance for undersize oranges shall be permitted as specified in § 51.1152 of the United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos;

(3) Any Navel oranges, grown in the production area, which do not grade at least U.S. No. 1 Golden;

(4) Any Navel oranges, grown in the production area, which are of a size smaller than 2 1/4 inches in diameter except that a tolerance for undersize Navel oranges shall be permitted as specified in § 51.1152 of the United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos;

(5) Any Temple oranges, grown in the production area, which do not grade at least U.S. No. 1;

(6) Any Temple oranges, grown in the production area, which are of a size smaller than 2 1/4 inches in diameter except that a tolerance for undersize Temple oranges shall be permitted as specified in § 51.1152 of the United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos;

(7) Any Murcott Honey oranges, grown in the production area, which do not grade at least Florida No. 1 grade for murcotts;

(8) Any Murcott Honey oranges, grown in the production area, which are of a size smaller than 2 1/4 inches in diameter, except that a tolerance for undersize Murcott Honey oranges shall be permitted as specified in § 51.1818 of the United States Standards for Florida Tangerines;

(9) Any Valencia, Lue Gim Gong, and similar late maturing oranges of the Valencia type, grown in the production area, which do not grade at least U.S. No. 1: Provided, That during the period September 15, 1975, through September

28, 1975, such oranges may be shipped if they grade at least U.S. No. 2 Russet; and

(10) Any Valencia, Lue Gim Gong, and similar late maturing oranges of the Valencia type, grown in the production area, which are of a size smaller than 2 1/4 inches in diameter, except that a tolerance for undersize oranges shall be permitted as specified in § 51.1152 of the United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos.

(c) Terms used in the amended marketing agreement and order shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in said amended marketing agreement and order; Florida No. 1 grade for murcotts shall have the same meaning as provided in Rule No. 20-35.03 of the Regulations of the Florida Citrus Commission, and all other terms relating to grade and diameter, as used herein, shall have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in the revised United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos (7 CFR 51.1140-51.1180) or the revised United States Standards for Florida Tangerines (7 CFR 51.1810-51.1835).

PART 910—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

Limitation of Handling

This regulation fixes the quantity of California-Arizona lemons that may be shipped to fresh market during the weekly regulation period September 14-20, 1975. It is issued pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and Marketing Order

No. 910. The quantity of lemons so fixed was arrived at after consideration of the total available supply of lemons the

The quantity of lemons so fixed was arrived at after consideration of the total available supply of lemons, the quantity of lemons currently available for market, the fresh market demand for lemons, lemon prices, and the relationship of season average returns to the parity price for lemons.

§ 910.310 Lemon Regulation 10.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 910, as amended (7 CFR Part 910), regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such lemons, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) The need for this regulation to limit the quantity of lemons that may be marketed during the ensuing week stems from the production and marketing situation confronting the lemon industry.

(i) The committee has submitted its recommendation with respect to the quantity of lemons it deems advisable to be handled during the ensuing week. Such recommendation resulted from consideration of the factors enumerated in the order. The committee further reports the demand for lemons is generally easier. Average f.o.b. price was $8.29 per carton the week ended September 6, 1975, compared to $7.99 per carton the previous week. Track and rolling supplies at 92 cars were down 10 cars from last week.

(ii) Having considered the recommendation and information submitted by the committee, and other available information, the Secretary finds that the quantity of lemons which may be handled should be fixed as hereinafter set forth.

(3) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this regulation until 90 days after publication hereof in the Federal Register (5 U.S.C. 553) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this regulation is based became available and the time when this regulation must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for lemons and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this regulation, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this regulation effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this regulation will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on September 9, 1975.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in California and Arizona which may be handled during the period September 14, 1975, through September 20, 1975, is hereby fixed at 225,000 cartons.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," and "carton(s)" have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

REVISION

Part 1832, Title 7, Code of Federal Regulations is revised by combining Subparts A, B, and E into Subpart A; Subparts B and E are reserved. The revision of Subpart A of this Part 1832 (37 FR 7293; 37 FR 19119; 37 FR 21158; 38 FR 2169; 2170; 38 FR 14820; 38 FR 16631; 38 FR 20245, 20246; 39 FR 787; 39 FR 3667; 39 FR 14500; 39 FR 20677; 39 FR 41169; 39 FR 41511, 41512) makes numerous changes in the Emergency (EM) loan policies and procedures which are designed to improve the processing of EM loan applications and to implement the changes made in the Emergency loan program by Public Law 94-68, an amendment to the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act. This revision incorporates the EM loan processing and special policies and authorizations contained in former Subparts B and E, and sets out the revised policies, procedures, and authorizations for making EM loans to provide financial assistance to eligible farmers, ranchers, and aquaculture operators to cover losses, make major adjustments, pay operating expenses, and other essential needs for a sound operation in order that they may continue their farming, livestock, or aquaculture operations after the occurrence of a natural disaster. The major changes will:

(1) Include a test for credit except for applications filed by the close of business on July 8, 1975;

(2) Change the method of making Emergency loans available;

(3) Provide for the forming of Emergency loan support teams;

(4) Change the eligibility requirements from having a 10 percent loss of gross income to a 20 percent loss in a single basic enterprise;

(5) Change the terms of loans;

(6) Change loan purposes to include in addition to actual losses at a 5 percent interest rate, annual loans for operating purposes as well as loans for reorganization of operations at a market rate of interest determined by the Secretary of Agriculture;

(7) Change the method of determining a normal year's production to be the average production per acre for the applicant's five-year history immediately preceding the disaster year, and change the method of calculating loss payment;

(8) Change the policy for securing EM loans and permitting the use of depreciated security; and

(9) Include as Appendix I a statement of the relationship between the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration and the Farmers Home Administration.

It is the policy of this Department that rules relating to public property, loans, grants, benefits or contracts shall be published for comment notwithstanding the exemption of 5 U.S.C. 553 with respect to such rules. This revision, however, is being published without prior notice of proposed rulemaking because such notice would delay the granting of Emergency loans to eligible disaster victims causing possible financial losses, and therefore be contrary to the public interest. Upon enactment of Public Law 94-68, it was necessary to cease processing and approval of applications received in Farmers Home Administration County Offices on or after July 9, 1975. Applications for Emergency loans cannot be processed until these revised regulations are issued. Any delay in the issuance of the regulations may cause extreme hardship to many disaster victims. In addition, such delay may cause an adverse effect on local economy of areas affected by natural disasters.

In accordance with the spirit of that policy, interested parties may submit written comments, suggestions, data or arguments to the Office of Chief, Directives Management Branch, Farmers Home Administration, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Room 6316, South Building, Washington, D.C. 20250, on or before October 14, 1975. Material thus submitted will be evaluated and acted upon in the same manner as if this document were a proposal. However, this Subpart A as revised will remain effective until it is further revised or amended in order to permit the public business to proceed expeditiously. All written submissions made pursuant to this notice will be made available for public inspection at the Office of the Chief, Directives Management Branch during regular business hours (8:15 a.m. to 4:45 p.m.).

As revised, Subpart A reads as follows:

§ 1832.1 General.

This Subpart A of Part 1832 prescribes the policies, procedures, and authorizations of the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) for making Emergency (EM) loans to farmers, ranchers, and aquaculture operators.

§ 1832.2 Objectives.

The basic objective of EM loans is to provide financial assistance to eligible farmers, ranchers, and aquaculture operators to cover losses, make major adjustments, pay operating expenses, and other essential needs for a sound operation in order that they may continue their farming, livestock, or aquaculture operations. Also, the objective is to permit the disaster victims to return to local sources of credit as soon as possible, but in no event longer than six full crop years after the disaster. These objectives will be accomplished through the extension of credit and such supervisory assistance as is determined necessary to achieve the objectives of the loan and protect the Government's interest. Supervisory assistance will be given in accordance with the provisions of Part 1802 of this chapter (430 series of FmHA Instructions.)

§ 1832.3 Definitions.

(a) Farm. This term includes a tract or tracts of land with or without improvements considered to be a farm or ranch, operated or managed by the applicant, and used in the production for sale of crops or livestock, including the production of aquatic organisms under a controlled or selected environment.

(b) Farming or farm enterprise. These terms are defined as the business of producing crops, livestock, livestock products, and aquatic organisms through the management of land, water, labor, capital, and basic raw materials, including seed, feed, fertilizer, and fuel. Farming and farm enterprise consist of a total farming or aquaculture operation, or a portion thereof, which produces different types of products, including crops, livestock, livestock products, and aquatic organisms. The following types of enterprises are eligible for FmHA EM loan assistance and are classified into the categories listed below:

- (i) Production of crops including:
  - (i) Field crops—feed, fiber, and tobacco;
  - (ii) Fruits, vegetables, nuts, greenhouse crops, and mushrooms;
  - (iii) Flowers, ornamental plants, shrubs and trees, and sod;
  - (iv) Nursery stock for fruits and nuts;
  - (v) Vegetable and small fruit plants for transplanting; and
  - (vi) Water plants.
- (2) Production and/or feeding of livestock or poultry including milk and egg production in the applicant's owned or rented facilities. This does not include feeding operations which function primarily as a service to others.

(3) Operation of hatcheries for the production of baby chicks, turkey poults, ducklings, goslings, and other poultry where the hatchery maintains its own breeding flocks in its own facilities, regardless of whether the hatchery raises or sells them.

(4) Operation of aquaculture farms or hydroponic farms.

(5) Production of fur bearing animals, game animals, or game birds.

(6) Production of aquatic organisms under a controlled or selected environment.

(7) Non-farm enterprises located on the farm and needed to supplement farm income. Non-farm enterprises which make farming incidental to the applicant's total operation would not be eligible for consideration for an EM loan. Only those non-farm enterprises which the farmer depends upon to supplement his farm income are eligible for EM loan assistance.

(c) Farmers. This term also includes ranchers and others engaged in farming or farm enterprises as defined in paragraph (b) of this section. They may be individuals, partnerships, or private domestic corporations engaged in the production of agricultural commodities for sale.

(d) Aquaculture. This term means the husbandry of aquatic organisms under a controlled or selected environment.

(1) Aquatic organism planters. This

(t) Normal income security property.

(7) FDAA—Federal Disaster Assist-

(b) Composition. ELST's will consist of a team leader and team members.

(1) Aquatic organism planters. This term means performing or actively managing the aquatic operations. Such operations must be conducted on the applicant's owned, leased, or permit grounds. Such grounds are grounds under water on which the planting operations are conducted. Other types of operations, such as contract operations, gathering such organisms, and harvesting those planted in public water, are not eligible for EM loans unless these waters are identified and a permit is issued to the applicant. An applicant who performs the aquatic functions in connection with such operations owned by others (share operators), or is employed by others in any type of aquatic operation is not eligible.

(e) Major Disaster. This term means any natural disaster in any part of the United States which, in the determination of the President, causes damage of sufficient severity and magnitude to warrant major disaster assistance above and beyond normal emergency services by the Federal Government, to supplement the efforts and available resources of States, local government, and disaster relief organizations in alleviating the damage, loss, hardship, or suffering caused thereby.

(f) Presidential Emergency. This term means any natural disaster in any part of the United States which requires Federal emergency assistance to supplement State and local efforts to save lives and protect property, public health and safety, or to avert or lessen the threat of a disaster, and it is of such magnitude that the President makes a declaration.

(g) Natural disaster. This term means a natural disaster as determined by the Secretary of Agriculture when designating EM loan areas, or by an FmHA State Director when he authorizes the making of EM loans. Natural disasters can be caused by such natural phenomena as hurricanes, tornadoes, cyclones, excessive rainfall, floods, earthquakes, blizzards, freezes, electrical storms, snowstorms, drought, excessively high temperatures, and hail; insects where abnormal weather contributed substantially to the spreading and flourishing of such insects; fires resulting from lightning, and fires of other origins which could not be controlled because of abnormal weather; and plant and animal diseases where abnormal weather contributed substantially to such diseases spreading into epidemic stages.

(h) Designated counties or similar areas. This term means a county or similar political subdivision in which EM loans are authorized to be made under designation by the Federal Disaster Assistance Administration (FDAA) pursuant to a Presidential declaration of a major disaster or emergency; under designation by the Secretary of Agriculture based on damage caused by a natural disaster which substantially affected farming, ranching, or aquaculture operations; and when authorized by the State Director without a formal designation when 25 or less farming, ranching, or aquaculture operations are substantially affected by a natural disaster.

(i) Qualifying disaster. This term means the major disaster, Presidential Emergency, or natural disaster for which EM loans were made available.

(j) Incidence period. This term means the specific time frame established for the occurrence of the qualifying disaster during which qualifying losses were sustained.

(k) Termination dates. Termination dates are those dates specified in disaster declarations, designations, or State Director authorizations which establish the final dates after which EM loan applications may no longer be received. For physical losses, 60 days from the date of declaration, designation, or State Director authorization, and for production losses, 9 months from such date. The 60-day and 9-month periods will commence on the first workday following the designation. The final day for accepting applications will always be on a workday. Therefore, if the last day falls on a non-workday, Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holiday, the next workday will be the final day.

(l) Normal year's production. This is the average production per animal or acre of the applicant's or farm's 5-year history based on the total production (acres X yield) or (number X production) for the 5 years immediately preceding the disaster. None of the years may be discounted. The applicant will be required to furnish proof of his 5-year production history. Such proof will be his records for that period. If the applicant cannot supply records for one or more of the 5 years he farmed the farm, the production will be counted zero for that year or years and used in the 5-year calculation unless the applicant's records were destroyed by the disaster. In such case the policy outlined below will be followed. If the applicant does not have a 5-year history for the enterprise on that farm the County average for the previous 5 years as provided by the Crop Reporting Service for each year for which he did not farm that farm will be used in determining his normal year's production. The disaster year's production will be obtained from the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) when they have made a disaster payment to the applicant. If the applicant has farmed less than 5 years, his production will be determined as described above for a 5-year period.

(m) Single enterprise. This term means an enterprise which constitutes part of the applicant's farming, ranching, or aquaculture operation. The following are examples of "single enterprises":

- (1) All cash field crops;
- (2) All cash vegetable crops;
- (3) All cash fruit crops;
- (4) All feed crops;
- (5) Beef operations;
- (6) Dairy operations;
- (7) Hog operations; and
- (8) Aquaculture operations.

NOTE.—Some crops such as corn may be produced as a cash or feed crop. In such cases the actual acres produced for each purpose for the past 5 years will be used in determining a ratio of production for acres of the crop grown for feed or for sale.

(n) Basic enterprises. This term means any single enterprise which constitutes not less than 25 percent of the applicant's total farming operation's gross income. The value of the feed produced for livestock use to qualify feed crops as a basic enterprise must be at least equal to 25 percent of the value of the total feed fed to the livestock annually. However, for a feed crop to be considered a basic enterprise one or more of the livestock enterprises must qualify as a basic enterprise. To determine a basic enterprise the applicant must show records of the income he received on all enterprises for the year before the disaster year so that a determination can be made as to which are basic enterprises. The records may be from records he maintains, computer records, income tax return, or sales slips. If the applicant's system of farming or certain enterprises have materially changed for the disaster year, the County Supervisor with the assistance of the applicant will project the effect of the changes on his basic enterprises and record that information in the County Office case file.

(o) Production loss. To qualify for a production loss the applicant must have sustained at least a 20 percent loss of normal per acre or per animal production as a result of the disaster in one or more basic enterprises. Livestock increases (calves, pigs, etc.) are considered as production losses. Reductions in the production of livestock products due to feed crop losses will not be considered as production losses when purchased feed is available to purchase, regardless of the cost of feed. When the disaster has severely disrupted the usual feeding pattern of a livestock enterprise because of extended utility failure or inaccessibility to the livestock, a loss in production (i.e., milk, eggs, weight losses, etc.) may be calculated based on the reduction from normal for the disruption period in order to bring production to the normal level.

(p) Physical loss. This damage to or destruction of physical property including farmland (except sheet erosion); structures on the land such as buildings, fences, dams, etc.; machinery, equipment, and tools; basic livestock; and supplies.

(q) Mortgage. This term includes any form of real estate security interest or lien upon any rights or interest in real property of any kind.

(r) Security. This term includes any rights or interests in property of any kind subject to a real or personal property lien.

(s) Basic security property. This term means all foundation herds, flocks, aquaculture animal organisms, and all machinery and equipment necessary to the successful operation of the farm.

(t) Normal income security property. This term means property produced for sale during the year.

(u) Insured loan. This term means a loan made from the Agricultural Credit Insurance Fund.

(v) Guaranteed loan. This term means a loan made by a bank or other legally organized lending institution where FmHA guarantees 90 percent of the principal and interest on the loan.

(w) Subsequent loans. This term means additional EM loans made to a borrower who is indebted for an EM loan. The disaster designation number has no effect on determining whether an EM loan is a subsequent loan.

(x) USDA Emergency Board. This term means State (SEB) and County (CEB) Emergency Board. There is a United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) Emergency Board to serve every State and county (or comparable subdivision) in the United States, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands. The boards coordinate USDA State or county activities relating to defense preparedness and natural disaster programs. Members of the SEB's represent those USDA agencies which have major emergency responsibilities in the field; ASCS; Cooperative Extension Service, FmHA, Soil Conservation Service, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, Forest Service, and Statistical Reporting Service. The CEB's are composed of representatives of the first four of these agencies, with additional representation as available or warranted. The ASCS member usually chairs the board. The SEB's and the CEB's natural disaster responsibilities are contained in "USDA State Emergency Memorandum No. 54, Natural Disaster Responsibilities of USDA State and County Emergency Boards." A copy of USDA State Emergency Memorandum No. 54 is available for inspection at any State Office of the FmHA or ASCS and in the National Office of FmHA at 14th and Independence Avenue S.W., Washington, D.C. 20250.

(y) Substantially affected. This term means a natural disaster that has had a strong impact on farming, ranching, or aquaculture operations to the extent that Federal assistance is necessary to supplement normal assistance available in the area to permit such operators to continue their operations on a sound basis. This judgment determination must be supported by the number of farmers affected and the dollar amount of physical and/or production losses reflected on the Damage Assessment Report (DAR).

(z) Abbreviations. A list of abbreviations used in this regulation and their meaning are listed below.

- (1) ASCS—Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.
- (2) CEB—County USDA Emergency Board.
- (3) DAR—Damage Assessment Report.
- (4) ELST—Emergency Loan Support Team.
- (5) ECM—Emergency Conservation Measures.
- (6) EM—Emergency loans.

§ 1832.4 Relationship between FmHA and other Federal Agencies.

(a) FDAA and FmHA. An arrangement between the FDAA and the USDA-FmHA is set forth in Appendix I.

(b) Small Business Administration (SBA) and FmHA. A Memorandum of Understanding between the SBA and USDA-FmHA is attached as Appendix II. In implementing the intent of paragraph IV A 1(a) of this memorandum, the provisions of § 1832.15(d) of this regulation must be observed particularly with respect to the requirement that a partnership or corporation must engage primarily in farming, ranching, or aquaculture to be considered for EM loan eligibility.

(c) ASCS and FmHA. An agreement between the ASCS and FmHA is attached as Appendix III.

§ 1832.5 FmHA Emergency Loan Support Teams (ELST).

(a) Purpose and use. Each State Director shall form an ELST to be deployed, when needed, in areas affected by a major disaster, Presidential emergency, or a natural disaster. Such ELST shall assist the State Director in expediting the carrying out of his responsibilities in making EM loans available to victims of disasters.

(1) An ELST is to be used when a disaster is of such a nature as to warrant immediate attention by FmHA in implementing the EM loan program or when such unusually large numbers of EM loan applications are received that personnel from other areas are required to be temporarily assigned to assist in rendering prompt service to the affected area.

(2) State Directors shall use the ELST formed in their State(s) and all other State personnel to meet the conditions described in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. If help is needed above that which is available to the State Director, including temporary personnel, he shall advise the National Office of his needs.

(3) Upon request of a State Director, the Administrator will consider detaching ELST's from other States to assist in the making of EM loans.

(b) Composition. ELST's will consist of a team leader and team members.

(1) The team leader and individual members shall be selected by the State Director.

(2) In order that no one person or county unit bears an unfair burden, team members will be rotated from time to time. This will also provide training in EM loan making to all County Supervisors. The District Director is responsible for notifying the State Director of any need to change a team member within his district for any reason.

(c) Training. ELST's will be trained as follows:

(1) The National Office will hold a training meeting or workshop for ELST leaders as needed.

(2) State ELST leaders are responsible for training and keeping the State team and all other personnel in the State current on all phases of EM loan making.

(d) State Instructions. Each State Director will issue a State Instruction establishing an ELST for their State(s). This Instruction will name the team leader and all members. A copy of this Instruction will be sent to the National Office, Attention: Director, Emergency Loan Division.

§§ 1832.6–1832.8 [Reserved]

§ 1832.9 Reporting natural disasters.

(a) Purpose. The purpose of reporting natural disaster is to provide a systematic procedure for rapid reporting of natural disasters which may result in a need for EM loans in an area.

(b) Action. Immediately after the occurrence of a natural disaster the following action will be taken:

(1) The County Supervisor will report immediately to the CEB, as specified in USDA State Emergency Memorandum No. 54, the occurrence of any natural disaster causing substantial property loss, damage, or injury, including severe production losses in his County Office area, regardless of whether EM loans will be needed. He will assist the CEB in preparing the report required in paragraph (b) (2) of this section. If the CEB has not completed a 24-hour report within two workdays after a disaster he will report to the State Director on Form FmHA 441-27, "Report of Natural Disaster." In urgent situations the report may be made by telephone followed by the CEB report or Form FmHA 441-27. The CEB report or Form FmHA 441-27 will be based on information obtained from personal knowledge and from farmers, agricultural and community leaders, representatives of other agricultural agencies, agricultural lenders, and from any other reliable sources. The County Supervisor will advise the Chairman of the CEB of any information he has on the disaster, and also provide him with a copy of Form FmHA 441-27 if prepared.

(2) The CEB will report the natural disaster (in accordance with USDA State Emergency Memorandum No. 54) to:

- (i) SEB, and
  - (ii) Appropriate county government representative.
- (3) The SEB provides copies of reports to:

RULES AND REGULATIONS

(i) USDA Washington—(ASCS, FmHA, and Office of Intergovernmental Affairs).
(ii) Governor's Emergency Coordinator and State Department of Agriculture.

(4) The State Director will inform the National Office of each natural disaster as soon as possible. He will forward copies of the CEB report or Form FmHA 441-27, with any attachments to the National Office. The CEB report or Form FmHA 441-27 will be supplemented by his comments, including any additional information he may have, and his recommendation as to the number of farmers, ranchers, or aquaculture operators affected by the disaster. In urgent situations he should report to the National Office by telephone and immediately thereafter send a written report to the National Office. The State Director will advise the Chairman of the SEB of any additional information he receives on the natural disaster.

(5) When the National Office is advised by a State Director of the occurrence of a natural disaster, the FmHA Administrator will advise the Office of the Secretary of Agriculture of the natural disaster and of any action taken or planned by the FmHA. The National Office will also provide the same information to members of Congress and FDAA, if so requested.

(6) When inquiries are received from victims of natural disasters before the area is designated by the Secretary of Agriculture or before EM loans are authorized by a State Director, the following actions will be taken:

(i) Inquiries from victims of natural disasters received in County Offices will be advised:

(A) That EM loans are not available at this time.

(B) As to what assistance would be available if EM loans are authorized for the area.

(C) That he may file an application for an EM loan or wait to file if EM loans are authorized at a later date. However, he must understand that the application cannot be processed until EM loans are authorized. Frequently, the credit needs of an individual can be met under regular FmHA programs if EM loans are not authorized.

(ii) If the inquiry is received in either the State or National Office, the individual will be advised in accordance with paragraph (b) (6) (i) of this section and refer him to the appropriate County Office.

(7) The action stated in paragraph (b) of this section will be taken even if the Governor of the State has requested the President to declare the county a major disaster or emergency area.

(8) When inquiries are received from county governing bodies or Indian Tribal Councils concerning the designation of an area they will be advised of the procedure for making EM loans available as contained in § 1832.10. Individuals will be advised of the procedure for designation and asked to discuss the needs for emergency designation of the area with his representative of the local governing body.

§ 1832.10 Making EM Loans Available.

EM loans will be made available in counties named by FDAA as eligible for Federal assistance under a major disaster or emergency declaration by the President; in counties designated by the Secretary of Agriculture; and in counties authorized by the State Director.

(a) Declaration by the President. Designation by the Secretary of Agriculture is not necessary for making EM loans available in counties determined by FDAA to be eligible for Federal assistance under a major disaster or emergency declaration by the President. Therefore, when there is a Presidential major disaster or emergency declaration, the National Office will notify the State Director and the Director of the Finance Office. The notification will specify the type of disaster; the names of the county or counties determined by FDAA to be eligible for Federal assistance; the termination dates for receiving EM applications, the incidence period for the disaster or emergency; the major disaster (MDDN-Example: M 501) or Presidential emergency (PEDN-Example: P 102) declaration number; and the date loan activity reporting will commence. Each Senator and Congressman representing the area involved will be notified simultaneously of the action taken.

(1) State Director. The State Director will notify the appropriate County Supervisor immediately and instruct him to make EM loans available. Notification will be confirmed by a State Instruction or a revision thereof. The State Director will also notify the SEB Chairman in writing and will make such public announcements as appear to be appropriate.

(2) County Supervisor. Immediately upon receiving notice about counties under his jurisdiction, the County Supervisor will notify the appropriate CEB Chairman and make such public announcements as appear to be appropriate. Also, the County Supervisor will explain the assistance available under the EM loan program to agricultural lenders and leaders in the area.

(b) Designation by the Secretary of Agriculture.

(1) The Secretary of Agriculture may designate a county as an EM loan area when:

(i) Unusual and adverse weather conditions have resulted in severe production losses and/or damage or losses to livestock, farm machinery, farmland, or buildings, and aquaculture operations;

(ii) A natural disaster has substantially affected farming, ranching, and aquaculture operations and more than 25 farmers have been affected;

(iii) The request for designation has been made within three months from the last day of the occurrence of the natural disaster; and

(iv) He receives a formal written request for designation from the Governor of the State.

(2) A Governor's request for EM loan area designation will be sent to the Secretary of Agriculture with a copy of the request to the FmHA State Director. Upon receiving the Governor's request the Administrator, FmHA, will immediately take the following actions:

(i) Acknowledge the Governor's letter on behalf of the Secretary.

(ii) Advise FmHA State Director by phone and confirm by letter of the request. The State Director shall thereafter send the Administrator, Attention: Director, Emergency Loan Division, a monthly report of the action taken on the request, an estimate of the situation and the estimated time complete information will be available. The Governor will be advised by the National Office if there will be any delay in processing his request, the reason for the delay and when action will be taken. These reports will be referred to by a Governor's request (GR) number assigned by the National Office. Example: GR (State Abbreviation) 001, 002, 003, etc.

(3) Upon reviewing his copy of the Governor's request the State Director will immediately take the following actions:

(i) Advise the SEB Chairman that a Damage Assessment Report (DAR) is needed in accordance with USDA State Emergency Memorandum No. 54, for the requested county or counties. The State Director will request the SEB Chairman, to ask the CEB Chairman to invite the county governing body to participate in the CEB meeting. The SEB Chairman will ask the CEB Chairman to have his DAR in by a specific date.

(ii) Advise the County Supervisor(s) of the request and remind him of his responsibility to assist the CEB in preparing the DAR.

(4) The CEB meets and prepares the DAR in accordance with USDA Emergency Memorandum No. 54. The county governing body or its appropriate representatives will be encouraged to attend the CEB meeting. The completed DAR will be sent to the SEB Chairman.

(5) The SEB Chairman shall edit each county DAR as necessary in cooperation with FmHA and other board members as appropriate and indicate the SEB concurrence and recommendation. The SEB Chairman will provide the FmHA State Director a copy of the completed DAR with the SEB recommendation.

(6) The State Director will review each DAR and take one of the following actions:

(i) Refer the DAR to the National Office, Attention: Director, Emergency Loan Division, by letter, recommending when he agrees with the SEB recommendation for designation and provide his comments. These comments should indicate his views on the entire situation as it relates to the need for EM loans as a direct result of the natural disaster. If he has additional supporting information not contained in the DAR, he should present this information.

(ii) Refer the DAR to the National Office, Attention: Director, Emergency Loan Division, by letter recommending that a designation not be made and the reasons for the recommendation. The National Office will advise the Secretary of Agriculture of the reasons for not recommending the area. The Secretary will advise the Governor of the rejection.

(iii) If EM loans are needed and less than 25 farmers in a county have been affected, the State Director can authorize EM loans in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section.

(7) The National Office will review the information furnished by the State Director and send it to the Secretary with recommendations for designation or rejection.

(8) When a county is designated by the Secretary of Agriculture, the National Office will notify the State Director and the Director of the Finance Office. The notification will specify the type of disaster; the county or counties designated; the termination dates for receiving EM loan applications; the incidence period for the disaster; the Secretarial Disaster Designation Number (SDDN) (Example: A205); and the date loan activity reporting will commence. The Governor of the state and each Senator and Congressman representing the area involved will be notified simultaneously of the action taken.

(i) The State Director will immediately notify the appropriate County Supervisors. This notification will be confirmed by a State Instruction or a revision thereof. The State Director will also notify in writing the SEB Chairman and make such public announcements as appear to be appropriate.

(ii) Immediately upon receiving notice of the designation of the county or counties under his jurisdiction, the County Supervisor will notify the appropriate CEB Chairman and make such public announcements as appear to be appropriate. Also, the County Supervisor will explain the assistance available under the EM loan program to agricultural lenders and leaders in the area.

(c) State Director Authorization. If the State Director finds in any county that the requirements of paragraph (b) (1) (i), (ii), and (iii) of this section are met, except that 25 or less farmers have been substantially affected by the natural disaster, EM loans may be authorized by the State Director. The authority to make EM loans available by the State Director will only be exercised after the Governor, the county governing body or its authorized representative, or an Indian Tribal Council, and the CEB has made a formal written request for such action to the State Director and he has given prior notice to the National Office by telephone. This authorization may not be used to make EM loans available immediately in anticipation of a later designation by the Secretary of Agriculture based on the same natural disaster.

(1) The State Director Authorization Number (SDAN) (Example: N186), termination dates for receiving EM loan applications, the date loan reporting will commence, and the incidence period for the disaster will be established by the National Office when the prior telephone notice is given.

(2) Applications for EM loans will be received by County Supervisors only after authorization by the State Director except as provided in § 1832.9(b) (6) (i) (C).

RULES AND REGULATIONS

42325

(3) The State Director will send to the National Office a copy of his authorization letter written to the County Supervisor; the DAR; and the formal written request from the Governor; the county governing body or its authorized representative, or CEB.

(4) The National Office will notify the Secretary of Agriculture and the Director of the Finance Office of the action taken by the State Director.

(5) The State Director will direct appropriate County Supervisors to take EM loan applications in the county or counties he has authorized. Simultaneously, he will notify the SEB Chairman. The State Director will also make appropriate public announcements.

(6) Immediately upon receiving notice of the State Director authorization of loans for a county or counties under his jurisdiction, the County Supervisor will notify the appropriate CEB Chairman and make appropriate public announcements. He will also explain the assistance available under the EM loan program to agricultural lenders and leaders in the area.

(d) Continuing disaster conditions. When a need occurs for EM loans resulting from a subsequent natural disaster, or the continuation of a natural disaster in any area presently designated for EM loans under paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) of this section, such need may be met by completing one of the following actions:

(1) Declarations By The President. EM loans are made available in counties determined by FDAA to be eligible for Federal assistance under a major disaster or emergency declaration by the President without establishing that a substantial number of farmers, ranchers, or aquaculture operations have been affected. The conditions which led to the major disaster or emergency declaration and which affect agricultural crops may extend beyond the incidence period established by FDAA, or the disaster conditions which lead to the original declaration may have been prolonged in the same area by a new natural disaster which affects the same crops, livestock, or aquaculture operations during the same crop year. Under such circumstances, the Secretary of Agriculture may designate the area as a natural disaster area under paragraph (b) of this section and establish an incidence period commencing on, or subsequent to, the date of the commencement of the incidence period for the major disaster or emergency declaration, provided the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section are met. In those cases, the Secretary will establish a new termination date for the incidence period for the natural disaster extending beyond the termination date originally established for the major disaster or emergency declaration. He may also establish new termination dates for accepting applications in connection with a designation under paragraph (d) (1) of this section.

(2) Designation By The Secretary Of Agriculture And State Director Authorization. Certain types of natural disasters which affect farming such as drought, floods, and insect infestation, may extend beyond the incidence period established in connection with a Secretary's designation pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section or a State Director's authorization pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section. Furthermore, the disaster conditions which led to the original designation may be prolonged in the same area by a new natural disaster which affects the same farming operation during the same crop year. Under these circumstances, additional authorization by the Secretary is not necessary to extend the incidence period to cover the continuing or subsequent natural disaster. To extend the designation the following actions must be taken:

(i) County Supervisor will advise the State Director on any continuing or subsequent natural disaster and provide him with the CEB report or Form FmHA 441-27.

(ii) State Director will request the National Office by letter for an extension of the designation.

(iii) If the request is justified, the National Office can, by letter or telegram, authorize the extension of the incidence period for the designation and establish new termination dates for receiving applications. However, in areas authorized by State Directors extensions may not be authorized if such extensions will result in more than 25 farmers in any one county having had losses from the same disasters.

§§ 1832.11-1832.12 [Reserved]

§ 1832.13 Scope of operations to be financed.

No ceiling has been established on the size of operations that may be financed with EM loans nor on the size of loans that may be made. Therefore, subject to the eligibility requirements and other provisions of this regulation, EM loans may be made to finance larger than family farm operations.

§ 1832.14 Receiving applications.

(a) Applications for EM loans will be received as outlined in Subpart A of Part 1801 of this Chapter (FmHA Instruction 410.1) only in designated counties, except as provided in § 1832.9(b) (6) (i) (c). Form FmHA 410-1, "Application for FmHA Services," will be used for this purpose.

(b) If the applicant is a partnership, personal financial statements will be obtained from each of the partners and included in the loan docket, in addition to the partnership's financial statement.

(c) If the applicant is a corporation, the following additional information will be obtained and included in the loan docket:

(1) A complete list of stockholders, showing the address, principal occupation, and the number of shares of stock held in the corporation by each.

(2) A current personal financial statement from each of the principal stockholders. For this purpose a principal stockholder is one owning or controlling as much as 20 percent of the outstanding stock of the corporation, or if no stockholder owns or controls as much as 20 percent, all stockholders will be considered principal stockholders. Any other stockholder whose financial statement, in the judgment of the County Supervisor or the loan approval official, would be pertinent to a consideration of the financial strength of the corporation and its stockholders will also provide personal financial statements.

(3) A copy of the corporation's charter, articles of incorporation and bylaws, and a resolution (b) adopted by the Board of Directors or stockholders authorizing specified officers of the corporation to apply for and obtain the desired EM loan and execute required debt, security, and other instruments and agreements.

(4) A copy of any lease, contract, or agreement entered into by the corporation which may be pertinent to a consideration of its application.

(d) The applicant's statement of loss or damage will be obtained in support of his application on Form FmHA 441-22, "Certification of Disaster Losses."

(1) Production losses will be shown on Form FmHA 441-22, by listing the estimated or actual crop yields or livestock production for the disaster year; the five year history of crop yields and animal units produced for all farm enterprises (see § 1832.3 (1)); and information stating when and how the designated disaster caused the production losses.

(2) Physical losses will be shown on Form FmHA 441-22 by indicating the actual loss as the market value of the property at the time of the disaster, except in case of repair or restoration the actual cost of repair or restoration may be shown as long as it does not exceed the market value of the property at the time of the disaster.

(e) The applicant's production losses in a designated county or counties must constitute at least a 20 percent loss of normal per acre or animal production as a result of the disaster in one or more basic single enterprises to qualify him for an EM loan based on production losses. Regardless of the situation, losses to farming enterprises which have acreage in a county or counties which have not been designated, such acres or livestock in that county or counties cannot be counted in determining the amount of the loss.

§ 1832.15 Eligibility Requirements.

To be eligible for an EM loan, an applicant must:

(a) Be unable to provide the necessary funds from his own resources or to obtain sufficient credit from local commercial sources to finance his actual needs at reasonable rates and terms available to other farmers in the area, taking into consideration prevailing private and cooperative rates and terms for loans for similar purposes and periods of time in the community in or near which he resides. The applicant's equity in real estate, chattels, and other assets will be considered in determining his ability to obtain credit from private and cooperative sources. For partnerships or corporations, the principal partners or principal stockholders, either individually or collectively, must be unable to obtain the required funds with their own resources or with credit obtained by them from other sources. Any partner or stockholder owning or controlling as much as 20 percent or more interest in a partnership or a corporation's stock, or if no partner or stockholder owns or controls as much as 20 percent, all partners or stockholders will be considered as a principal partner or stockholder. The facts concerning the findings in either case must be documented in the County Office case files. The provisions of this paragraph do not apply to applications filed prior to July 9, 1975. These applicants will be made EM loans for actual losses only without regard to whether the required financial assistance is otherwise available from private, cooperative, or other responsible sources. If such applicants desire to be considered for an EM loan for other than actual losses, they must file an additional application and the test for credit will apply to these applicants.

(b) Be required to prove in writing from major financing sources (such as banks, Farm Credit Administration, or individuals) that he is unable to obtain the credit needs elsewhere.

(c) Be a citizen of the United States, if an individual. If a partnership, the individual partners must be citizens of the United States. If a corporation, the corporation must be incorporated under the laws of the United States or any State thereof, and the principal stockholders must be citizens of the United States. Also, the corporation must be authorized to conduct farming operations in the State in which the farming operation is conducted.

(1) One or more of the following sources of information should be used in determining whether applicants qualify for EM loans as a partnership.

(i) Written partnership agreements that set forth the farming arrangements and ownership of property prior to the starting of the operation.

(ii) County ASCS office records.

(iii) Local bank and Production Credit Association records.

(iv) Invoices and receipts reflecting purchase of farm supplies, livestock, and machinery.

(v) Records or receipts from sale of farm production products or commodities.

(vi) Written farm rental agreements.

(vii) Income tax returns and personal property tax records.

(viii) Financial statements.

(2) When an EM loan is made to a corporation or partnership, only one EM loan can be made to the entity constituting the farming operation. However, this does not prohibit an individual stockholder or partner from obtaining a separate EM loan to cover his losses in a separate farming operation which he is conducting as an individual on a different farm tract.

(3) Individual members of a partnership will not receive individual loans to finance their interest in the joint or partnership farming operation. The partnership will be considered for one loan to cover the loss in the farming operation. In the event the membership of a partnership changes after the disaster the new partnership may receive consideration for a loan provided no substitutes other than heirs or remaining partners are involved.

(d) Be an established farmer doing business as an individual, partnership, or corporation, either as an owner-operator or tenant, who manages the farming operations. If the applicant is a partnership or corporation, it must be engaged primarily in farming operations and the operation(s) must be managed by one of the partners or stockholders. An applicant who does not devote full time to his farming operation may be considered as the manager provided that he (or the managing partner or stockholder) visits the farm at sufficiently frequent intervals to exercise control and see that the operations are being carried on properly, pursuant to his directions. Any operation that involves a full-time hired manager or management service does not qualify irrespective of the number of visits made.

(e) Operate in a county or counties where EM loans have been authorized under a major disaster or emergency declaration by the President; natural disaster designated by the Secretary of Agriculture; or State Director's Authorization.

(f) Have suffered qualifying production losses or property damages in one or more counties in which EM loans are authorized; such losses or damages must be directly related to the disaster that brought about the EM loan authorization for that county or counties; and the losses or damages must have occurred during the incidence period.

(1) For production losses the applicant must have actually suffered a 20 percent loss in a basic farming enterprise, as a direct result of the designated disaster. Production loss eligibility will be determined in accordance with § 1832.16.

(2) Physical damages or losses, not compensated by insurance or otherwise, to farm dwellings including home equipment, furnishings, and personal possessions; farm service buildings and facilities; land and water resources; farm supplies including harvested or stored crops; and livestock essential to normal farm operations, would qualify an applicant for a loan only to repair, replace, or restore such property, or to reimburse the applicant for costs incurred for such purpose. Physical losses eligibility will be determined in accordance with § 1832.16. Sheet erosion would not qualify as a physical loss.

(g) Show an intent to continue farming or agriculture operations after the disaster. Those applicants who may have stopped temporarily because of the disaster loss or damage to their operations, but intend to continue with EM loan assistance, will be considered to meet this requirement.

(h) Possess legal capacity to contract for the loan, under applicable state law. State Instructions will be issued with the advice of the Office of the General Counsel (OGC) with respect to this requirement.

(i) Be of good character and possess the ability, industry, and experience necessary to carry out the proposed farming operations to assure a reasonable prospect for success with the assistance of the loan, and will honestly endeavor to carry out the undertakings and obligations required in connection with the loan.

§ 1832.16 Determining Losses and Maximum Amount Of Loan For Actual Losses.

(a) For Production Losses.

(1) To determine which single enterprises are basic enterprises it will be necessary to determine the applicant's normal gross farm income. This will be determined as follows and all calculations will be recorded on Form FmHA 441-26, "County Supervisor's Calculation and Verification of Qualifying Production Losses."

(i) For any farm enterprise the applicant's 5-year average of production history for those enterprises will be used (see 1832.3 (1)) Examples:

(A) Cash crops: During the 5 years immediately preceding the disaster the applicant's per acre average production of soybeans was: 29.1 bu.+28.9 bu.+27.3 bu.+24.5 bu.+32.2 bu.=142.0 bu.+5=28.4 bu. per acre.

(B) Livestock: During the 5 years immediately preceding the disaster the applicant's actual calf production in a cow-calf operation was: 92%+88%+90%+87%+93%=450÷5=90 percent normal calf crop.

(C) Feed crops: During the 5 years immediately preceding the disaster the applicant's per acre average production of hay was: 3 ton+2.9 ton+2.8 ton+3.1 ton+2.7 ton=14.5÷5=2.9 tons per acre.

(ii) Normal gross farm income will be calculated by multiplying: the acreage of crops and/or number of livestock which actually constituted the farming operation during the disaster year by the yield per acre or units of production for each farming enterprise as determined in paragraph (a) (1) (i) of this section and by the average market price for the commodity as established by the State Director. The State Director will prepare and distribute to all County Offices, by a State Bulletin or Instruction, a list of the average market price for commodities during the past calendar year if available, otherwise using crop year or harvest season average market price, whichever is available, for such commodities. These prices are from State and Federal Marketing Services and other reliable sources if not available from the State Crop Reporting Service.

(iii) Total each single enterprise separately and then add together to determine the applicant's normal gross farm income.

NOTE.—Feed crops will not be included in this total and will not be considered at all if no livestock enterprise is a basic enterprise. Any single enterprise except feed crops which constitutes not less than 25 percent of the applicant's total farming operation's gross income as follows:

(A) Cash crops.....	$55,910
(B) Feed crops (not totaled).....	22,127
(C) Dairy enterprise.....	77,637
(D) Hog enterprise.....	18,275

Total (normal annual gross income)..... 151,822

Cash crops=36.8 percent; dairy cattle=51.1 percent; and hogs=12.1 percent; therefore, cash crops and the dairy operation are basic enterprises and the hog operation is not. During a normal year the applicant purchased $16,059 worth of feed for his dairy and hog operations. To determine if the feed crops are a basic enterprise, add $16,059 to $22,127 for a gross feed cost of $38,186; therefore, the feed crops are 57.9 percent of the value of the total feed fed to the livestock annually and is a basic enterprise.

(2) To establish eligibility for production losses it will be necessary to determine the applicant's gross income for the disaster year for a basic single enterprise having a loss. To be eligible for payment of actual production losses, a basic enterprise must have suffered at least a 20 percent reduction in normal income. Insurance payments and other compensation will be added to the gross income for that enterprise in arriving at the actual loss. This will be determined as follows and recorded on Form FmHA 441-26. Example: Using the same basic enterprises as determined in paragraph (a) (1) (iii) of this section, disaster year gross income for cash crops was $31,491 and the dairy enterprise was $75,302. The applicant lost $7,353 worth of his feed crop and received ASCS feed worth $1,850. Also, the hog enterprise, which is not a basic enterprise, has a disaster year gross income of $18,950. Cash crops—$55,910 less $31,491 equals $24,419 loss which is a 43.7 percent loss in a basic enterprise and therefore the applicant is eligible for a production loss loan. For purpose of eligibility it will not be necessary to determine the losses in any other basic enterprise.

(1) Gross income for the disaster year will be calculated by multiplying: the same acreages and/or number of livestock used in the calculation in paragraph (a) (1) (ii) of this section by the actual or estimated yields (this estimate cannot be greater than his established normal) per acre or units of production for each crop and farming enterprise conducted in the disaster year (for some commodities ASCS will provide the percentage loss, when they have established these losses for their Disaster Payments, on Form FmHA 441-29) and by the average market price as established in paragraph (a) (1) (i) of this section.

(ii) Add to the amount derived in paragraph (a) (1) (i) of this section all insurance or other compensation which has been or is expected to be received for those losses. The sum of these amounts will be the disaster year's gross income.

(iii) The difference between the normal year's gross income and the disaster year's gross income will constitute the actual dollar loss resulting from the disaster.

(3) The maximum loan for production losses at the actual loss interest rate will be the difference between the normal annual gross income and the disaster year's gross income. The amount of loan will be determined as follows:

(i) Disaster year's gross income:

(A) Cash crops.....	$31,491
(B) Dairy enterprise.....	75,302
(C) Hog enterprise.....	18,950

Total (disaster year's gross income)..... 125,743

(ii) The normal year's gross income $151,822 less the disaster year's gross income of $125,743 equals $26,079.

(iii) Add the disaster year's losses to feed crops which were $7,353 less ASCS feed worth of $1,850 equals $5,503.

(iv) The sum of paragraph (a) (3) (ii), and (iii) of this section equals the amount of loan for actual production loss which is $31,582 rounded to $31,580.

(4) When an applicant is unable to plant a crop during the disaster year his loan will be limited to the cost of land preparation and other expenses incurred to the date of the disaster for the crop(s) that could not be planted. Since EM loan will be used to cover the applicant's actual losses sustained, the County Supervisor will request an itemized list from the applicant verifying the claimed expenditures incurred in the disaster year for those enterprises for which disaster losses are claimed. The EM loans will be limited to the amount of expenditures that are shown on the list. In all cases, the applicant must furnish a signed statement itemizing all expenditures which he claims were incurred in the disaster year. The County Supervisor will document his verification in the applicant's case file.

(5) When an applicant was able to plant all or a portion of his normal crops during the disaster year, his production for that portion of his planted crops will be shown as zero, if no part of the crop can be harvested, on Form FmHA 441-22 provided that a substitute or different crop could not be planted.

(6) When crops that were destroyed by a qualifying disaster are replanted with a substitute crop during the same crop year, the substitute crops income will be compared to the normal year's income in arriving at the disaster year income loss.

(7) When an applicant has had disaster damage to feed crops and elects to sell his livestock at an earlier date or lighter weight than is his usual practice rather than purchase feed to replace that which he would have produced except for the natural disaster, he may not claim as a loss the difference between the sale price and an estimate of what the sale price would have been if the livestock had been fed for the normal period. This is because the earlier sale was based on a judgment decision and differs from an applicant who could not plant crops because of the natural disaster. The latter has no opportunity for a judgment decision about planting.

(8) Claims of production losses will be verified when the applicant's claims appear to be unreasonable.

(9) When the loss from the disaster is due to a reduction in quality rather benefits which the applicant is not obligated to repay, reduces his actual loss total cost may be used in lieu of a written lease. However, when relatively small

(ii) Construct or improve buildings and facilities on the applicant's real

(C) Not more than $50,000 may be loaned to a borrower for real estate im-plan. Interest on the initial advance will accrue from the date of the promissory

(9) When the loss from the disaster is due to a reduction in quality rather than production that can be substantiated, the applicant will be given credit for this loss by adjusting actual production downward to compensate for any loss in value resulting from poor quality.

(b) For physical losses. Losses of a physical nature will be shown by the applicant on Form FmHA 441-22 by indicating the actual loss as the market value of the property at the time it was lost or damaged by the disaster; except in case of repair or restoration, the actual cost of such items may be used as long as it does not exceed the market value of the property at the time of the disaster. The amount of loan made for this purpose will be determined in the following manner:

(1) For farm machinery, the market value at the time of the disaster of the asset damaged or destroyed will be considered as the maximum loss in arriving at the total amount of the loss.

(2) For livestock, the market value at the time of the disaster will be considered the actual loss.

(3) For farm dwellings for the operator and existing labor, the amount of actual loss will be the amount sufficient to permit the repair or replacement of the dwelling with one of like quality and size as necessary to meet local codes and to provide permanent, adequate but modest, decent, safe and sanitary living conditions for the family. However, if the amount of the actual loss permits the replacement or repair of a larger dwelling the financing of such dwelling is permissible.

(4) For farm service building and farm real estate other than buildings, the amount of the actual loss will be an amount sufficient to permit the repair or replacement of the damaged property with a building or property of like quality and capacity that will meet local codes and be adequate to meet the needs of the farming operation. If the financing required exceeds the actual loss, the balance needed may be loaned at the market rate.

(5) For supplies, harvested or stored crops, and livestock products on hand, the market value of the lost or destroyed supplies, harvested or stored crops, and livestock products at the time of the disaster will be considered the actual loss.

(6) The actual physical loss to income producing trees will be the cost of removing the damaged or destroyed trees, clearing debris, preparing the land for replanting, the cost of suitable replacement trees, and other necessary expenses to reestablish the income producing trees.

(7) The actual physical loss to permanent pasture will be the cost of cleaning debris, preparing the land for replanting, seed, fertilizer, and other expense necessary to reestablish the pasture.

(8) Claims of physical loss will be verified when the applicant's claim appears to be unreasonable.

(c) Compensation for losses. Compensation for losses from a disaster through insurance or government program(s) benefits which the applicant is not obligated to repay, reduces his actual loss and thus the amount of EM loan eligibility. The amount of any benefits received from ASCS programs including the Emergency Livestock Feed Program (ELFP), Emergency Conservation Measures (ECM) payments, Sugar Abandonment or Deficiency payments, and Disaster payments will be considered as compensation for losses.

§§ 1832.17-1832.19 [Reserved]

§ 1832.20 Loan Purposes.

EM loans may be made for the following purposes:

(a) Loan for Actual Losses

(1) Loans may be made to applicants for the amount of actual losses and expenses for disaster damaged or destroyed farm property and/or production enterprises resulting from the disaster. Actual loss loan funds may be included to repair, restore, or replace damaged or destroyed farm property and supplies and for actual expenses already incurred for such purposes. Applications for actual losses must be processed within one full crop year after the application is filed.

(2) EM loans will not be made to flood and mudslide victims to repair or replace damaged or destroyed farm dwellings or farm service buildings and the contents therein, in areas where "National Flood Insurance" is available, except as authorized in Subpart B of Part 1806 of this chapter. (FmHA Instruction 426.2.)

(b) EM loans for annual operating purposes. After the initial EM loan for annual operating purposes, five annual subsequent EM loans may be made, provided they are made within six full crop years after the disaster to permit the borrower to return to his normal credit sources. If the borrower has received EM loans in the past for annual operating purposes because of a designated disaster, their loan or loans will be deducted from the six. Example: A borrower received an initial and two subsequent EM loans for annual operating purposes, based on losses from a qualifying disaster, therefore, only three additional loans can be made. Annual loans for operating purposes may be made for:

(1) Purchase of feed, seed, fertilizer, insecticides, feeder livestock, farm and other supplies, including inventory; the repair or rental of equipment; and the payment of essential expenses for the operation or paying bills incurred for any items in this subparagraph for the crop or operating year being financed.

(2) Payment of customary cash rent or cash charges for the use of essential buildings, pasture, crop, hay, land, and grazing permits or bills for such purposes for the operating or crop year being financed, subject to the following:

(i) The applicant is obligated under a written lease or other agreement to pay such rent or charges in advance of the time income will be available from the operations to make such payment. For grazing fees an invoice showing the number of livestock to be grazed, the grazing period, the cost per head and the total cost may be used in lieu of a written lease. However, when relatively small amounts are involved an invoice will not be required if the applicant's explanation of a satisfactory grazing agreement is recorded in the loan docket.

(ii) Arrangements cannot be made for the rent or charges to become due when income will be available from the operations to make such payment.

(iii) Not more than one year's cash rent or cash charges will be paid with loan funds in any one lease year, except that if a loan is approved near the end of the current lease year funds for payment of such rent or charges for the succeeding lease year may be included in the loan.

(iv) The terms of the rental agreement provide the applicant with reasonably satisfactory tenure.

(3) Payment of:

(i) Personal (chattel and equipment) and real property taxes due or about to become due and water or drainage charges or assessments.

(ii) Applicant's share of Social Security taxes in connection with hired labor for the operation.

(iii) Premiums for insurance on real estate and personal (chattel and equipment) property including premiums for public liability and property damage insurance on farm and other essential equipment, including farm trucks. When a loan is secured by chattels, and the loss of such chattels would jeopardize the interest of the Government, the County Supervisor may require the borrower to insure the chattels against hazards customarily covered by insurance in the area.

(4) Payment of not more than a year's interest that is due on, or about to become due on debts secured by liens of other creditors on property essential for the farm, or income producing nonfarm enterprises located on the farm.

(5) Payment in any one year of not to exceed 15 percent of the market value of the essential farm equipment under prior lien to another creditor, or 15 percent of the principal amount owed to such creditors, whichever is less.

(6) Meeting modest family subsistence needs, including premiums on reasonable amounts of health and life insurance, and expenses for medical care or paying bills incurred for any of these purposes during the crop year being financed.

(c) Major adjustments to the operation.—An EM loan may be made after disaster damages occur for the following purposes which will only result in an operation equivalent to that conducted prior to the disaster regardless of the changes made in the operation. In no case may loans be made for such purposes later than one full crop year after the designation date.

(1) Real Estate Purposes (Subtitle A).

(i) The purchase of additional essential real estate necessary for an effective operation provided his resulting operation will not provide more net income annually than his normal operation prior to the disaster. Depreciation will be disregarded in computing net income in both cases.

(ii) Construct or improve buildings and facilities on the applicant's real estate including:

(A) The construction of an essential but modest dwelling(s) for himself and necessary labor and service buildings, including facilities and structures for nonfarm enterprise and aquaculture operations.

(B) The improvement, alteration, repair, replacement, relocation, or purchase and moving of essential dwellings and service buildings, facilities and structures.

(C) The purchase and/or installation of essential domestic water and sewage systems, other equipment or facilities necessary to the effective operation of a farm, aquaculture operation, or nonfarm enterprise.

(iii) Provide land and water development, acquire water supplies, rights, use, and conservation essential to the operation of the farm or nonfarm enterprise facilities, and aquaculture operations. This includes but is not limited to fencing, land clearing, forestry purposes, establishment of approved forestry practices, establishment and improvement of permanent hay or pasture, drainage and irrigation facilities, basic application of lime and fertilizer, fish ponds, and trails and lakes.

(iv) Refinance secured and unsecured debts.

(v) Pay expenses incident to obtaining plans and making the loan such as fees for legal, architectural, and other technical services, which are required to be paid by the borrower and which he cannot pay from other funds. Loan funds also may be used to pay the borrower's share of Social Security taxes for labor hired by the borrower in connection with making the planned building or land improvements.

(vi) Payment of the first-year premium for required insurance on buildings on the property which are to be taken as security for the loan which the borrower cannot pay from personal funds. Buildings will be insured in accordance with Subpart A of Part 1806 of this chapter (FmHA Instruction 426.1), except when the appraisal report reflects that the land will adequately secure the loan without giving consideration to the value of the building. However, the applicant will be encouraged to take property insurance on essential buildings to protect his own interest. Borrowers eligible for insurance under the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968 will be advised of its availability in accordance with Subpart B of Part 1806 of this chapter (FmHA Instruction 426.2).

(vii) EM loans may be made to tenants to finance real estate improvements or repairs, provided:

(A) The County Supervisor determines that the applicant has reasonably secure tenure for a sufficient period to enable him to realize adequate benefits to justify the expenditures.

(B) A written lease is obtained providing for compensating the tenant for any unexhausted value of the improvement, upon termination of the lease.

(C) Not more than $50,000 may be loaned to a borrower for real estate improvement, repairs, or for refinancing unsecured debts clearly incurred for such purposes. Before an EM loan is made for real estate improvements to a tenant, a careful analysis must be made of the applicant's resources and proposed operations and all of the following determinations must be made:

(1) EM loans will not be needed or made year after year to make substantial real estate improvements.

(2) The applicant will likely continue to operate the farm for a sufficient period of time and under such terms that will enable him to obtain reasonable returns on his investment.

(2) Operating purposes (Subtitle B).

(i) Purchase of basic livestock, poultry, fur bearing and other farm animals, fish, bees, farm equipment, and paying costs incident to reorganizing the farming system for a sound operation.

(ii) Purchase of essential home equipment and furnishings, and the payment for home equipment repairs required by the applicant family to sustain itself in a reasonably satisfactory manner.

(iii) Refinancing secured and unsecured debts.

(iv) Purchase of milk base either with or without cows where such action is necessary to assure the borrower a satisfactory market for his dairy productions.

(v) Purchase of grazing license or permit rights of private parties which can be validly sold and transferred.

(d) General Purposes. In addition to the purposes authorized in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section, the EM loan may also include funds for:

(1) Expenses incident to loan closing.

(2) Payment of FmHA interest-only installment(s) scheduled for the first installment due date and, when a deferred payment of principal is involved, the second installment due date following the closing of the loan, when a borrower will not otherwise be able to meet the initial interest payment(s) on his loan because income from crops, livestock, or other sources is not available. The Finance Office may credit loan funds advanced for the payment of interest-only installment(s) first to interest from the date of payment (loan closing) and then to principal, if applicable.

§ 1832.21 Rates And Terms.

(a) Interest rates. The interest rates for EM loans for actual losses will be 5 percent. The interest rate will be 9 percent for loans made under § 1832.20 (b) and (c) (2) (Subtitle B purposes), and 8.75 percent for loans made under § 1832.20 (c) (1) (Subtitle A purposes). The interest rate, for other than actual losses, will be reviewed in June and December of each year with new interest rates established on July 1 and January 1 of each year.

(b) Terms of loans. EM loans will be scheduled for repayment in annual installments as set forth below, consistent with the applicant's reasonable ability to pay. This will be determined by his operations as reflected in his farm and home plan. Interest on the initial advance will accrue from the date of the promissory note. Interest on other advances will accrue from the date of the loan check for each such advance.

(1) Loan terms for actual losses to crops, livestock, supplies, harvested or stored crops, livestock products on hand, and equipment will be in accordance with useful life of the security and repayment ability of the applicant but not to exceed 7 years. When conditions warrant, installments may be scheduled in various amounts. For example, when an applicant's farming operation has been severely disrupted by a disaster, it may be necessary to consider payment schedules established previously for other outstanding loans, such as debts owed other creditors and other types of FmHA loans. However, the final installment will not be larger than the amount which can be refinanced with private lenders or be repaid within a renewal period of not to exceed 5 years. The applicant must be advised before the loan is closed, that FmHA will review each case at the end of the initial loan term to determine if a renewal is warranted. For any disaster occurring after January 1, 1975, loans made as a result of these disasters may be scheduled for repayment of more than 7 years, but not more than 20 years if the State Director determines in writing, after being recommended by the County Committee that the needs of the applicant justifies such a longer repayment period. Generally real estate will be needed as security when more than 7 years is authorized. Our experience indicates that the need of most applicants can be met with a repayment period of 7 years and if necessary up to a 5-year renewal. Therefore, State Directors will grant the longer repayment periods only in unusual cases. When the longer period is used renewal is not authorized.

(2) The terms for actual losses to real estate will be in accordance with the useful life of the security and the repayment ability of the applicant not to exceed 40 years.

(3) The term for loans for annual operating expenses will be as follows:

(i) Advances for annual recurring operating expenses or for paying bills incurred for such purposes for the operating or crop year being financed will be scheduled for payment when the principal income from the year's operations normally would be received.

(ii) Advances to purchase or produce feed for productive livestock or livestock to be fed for the market, or to pay bills incurred for such purposes for the crop year being financed, except for feed of a type which the County Supervisor determines will be produced in future years, will be scheduled for payment when the principal income from the sale of such livestock or livestock products can be expected.

(4) Items financed under § 1832.20(c) (2) except annual operating expenses, will be in accordance with the useful life of the security and the repayment ability of the applicant but not to exceed 7 years. When conditions warrant installments may be scheduled in various amounts.

However, the final installment will not be larger than the amount which can be refinanced with private lender's of the real estate owned by the applicant. If the applicant has enough equity in real estate, no additional security need

However, the final installment will not be larger than the amount which can then be refinanced with private lender's or be repaid within a renewal period of not to exceed 5 years. The applicant must be advised before the loan is closed, that FmHA will review each case at the end of the initial loan term to determine if a renewal is warranted.

(5) Items financed under § 1832.20(c) (1) will be in accordance with the useful life of the security but not to exceed 40 years.

(c) Deferment of principal installments. Interest will not be deferred. However, initial principal installments (for EM loans other than for annual operating expenses) may be deferred in whole or in part to the second or third installment due date, as appropriate, following the date of note when the year's income will be sufficient to meet the payment but will not be received in full that year because of the type of farming or the method of marketing; or the total planned income is less than planned annual recurring expenses because the productive capacity of the farm has been adversely affected by a qualifying disaster. During the deferment period, each installment will include the total amount of interest accruing to the date of the installment plus the estimated principal amount the applicant will be able to pay. Principal deferments will not be granted for the purpose of enabling applicants to use income to make payments on old bills before paying annual recurring expenses. When the payment of principal is deferred to the second installment due date following the date of the note, the first scheduled installment will be the amount of accrued interest from the date of the note to installment due date. When the payment of principal is deferred to the third installment due date following the date of the note, the second scheduled installment will be the amount of accrued interest for a full year.

(d) Graduation. All borrowers will be advised that their EM loans will be reviewed for "graduation" two years after they are received and every other year thereafter. They will also be advised that they are required to refinance if other credit is available even though their EM loans have not fully matured.

§ 1832.22 Security Requirements.

EM loans will be adequately secured to protect the interests of the Government.

(a) Annual loans will be secured by a first lien on the crop and/or livestock production which is being financed with EM loan funds plus sufficient other security to assure that the Government's financial interests will be protected. Under no circumstances will a loan of over $25,000 be secured only by a crop lien.

(b) Actual loss loans for the same purposes as authorized for loans under § 1832.20 (c) (2) and loans made under § 1832.20 (c) (2) will be secured by a lien on sufficient equity in livestock, equipment and machinery and other personal property if necessary to protect the Government's interest, plus when necessary a lien on equity in part or all of the real estate owned by the applicant. If the applicant has enough equity in real estate, no additional security need be taken. A second crop lien may be taken when deemed necessary to secure repayment of the loan.

(c) Actual loss loans for the same purposes as authorized for loans under § 1832.20(c) (1) and loans made for purposes under § 1832.20(c) (1) will be secured by equity in real estate. However, if there is not sufficient equity in the real estate, a lien will also be taken on personal property plus if necessary a second lien on the crops. An EM loan made to a tenant with a long-term lease will be secured by a lien on a transferable leasehold.

(d) If the security requirements of paragraph (b) and (c) of this section cannot be met because of losses caused by the disaster, the State Director can consider making an exception, in writing, to the requirements if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) Adequate security property is not available because of the disaster.

(2) The applicant must have some security which has depreciated in value due to the disaster.

(3) The applicant must offer all available security property, some or all of which may depreciate in value due to the disaster.

(4) The security property, together with the applicant's repayment ability as assessed by the State Director must be adequate security for the loan.

(5) The County Committee after a review of the loan docket recommended such action and believes that the applicant can repay the loan in an orderly manner.

(e) EM loans may be approved with abbreviated appraisals of the property being taken as security for the loan provided:

(1) The approval official determines that equity in the security property will fully secure the EM loan(s).

(2) Abbreviated appraisals are prepared:

(i) For real estate, the following portions of Form FmHA 422-1, "Appraisal Report—Farm Tract," will be completed: The heading of the report; Item A of Part 1; Part 2; Part 3; Part 7; and Part 8. The report will be signed and dated by an FmHA authorized appraiser.

(ii) For chattel property, Form FmHA 440-21, "Appraisal of Chattel Property," will list and identify each chattel item, and items A through E will be completed.

(3) When the conditions of paragraph (e) (1), and (2) (i) of this section are met, the requirements of § 1810.16 (a) of this chapter (FmHA Instruction 440.2 VI A) will not apply if the State Director authorizes a County Supervisor in an individual case or by State Instruction to make the farm appraisal and approve the EM loan.

(f) When an EM loan has been scheduled for repayment over a period not longer than 7 years, it may be extended for up to 5 additional years, under provision of Part 1867 of this chapter (FmHA Instruction 452.1), at the end of the initial 7-year term or at the time it is determined scheduled installments cannot be met. An extension will be granted only after review and determination by the County Committee and the approval official that FmHA's experience with the borrower has been satisfactory; the borrower has paid in accordance with his ability; the remaining EM balance can be adequately secured; there is a reasonable chance for the borrower to return to conventional credit within the 5-year extension; and this action is not being taken in lieu of foreclosure.

(g) When an EM loan, for whatever purposes, is to be secured by a lien on real estate or a combination of real estate and chattels, the security will be considered "basic security;" and for all loans over $10,000 title clearance is required in accordance with the provisions of Part 1807 of this chapter (FmHA Instruction 427.1), except when a reputable long-term lender has a first mortgage on the property the search need only be made subsequent to the recordation date for such mortgage. For loans of $10,000 or less, only certification of ownership and verification of equity in real estate is required. Certification of ownership may be accepted in the form of a notarized affidavit from the applicant, stating who is the owner of record of the real estate in question and acknowledging all known debts, with balances owed, against that real estate. Whenever the County Supervisor is uncertain as to the ownership or debts against the real estate security, he will require title clearance.

(h) If the real estate offered as security is held under a purchase contract, the following conditions will prevail:

(1) The applicant must be able to provide a mortgageable interest in the real estate concerned.

(2) The applicant and the purchase contract holder will agree in writing that all insurance claim settlements received for real estate losses will be used in their entirety in replacing or repairing the damaged real estate. The applicant will renegotiate with the holder to arrive at a new contract devoid of any provisions objectionable to FmHA.

(3) If a satisfactory contract of sale cannot be renegotiated or the contract holder refuses to apply the insurance proceeds toward the repair or replacement of the real estate losses, but chooses to retain some of the proceeds as an extra payment on the balance owed, the applicant will make every effort to refinance the existing purchase contract. If he cannot obtain refinancing from another source, an EM loan will be considered for inclusion of funds for the purpose(s) of paying off the contract and improving the property. If he can get the contract refinanced, an EM loan will be considered for the purpose(s) of restoring the property to predisaster condition.

(4) If the conditions provided for in paragraph (h) (1), (2), or (3) of this section can be met and an EM loan is made it will be closed in accordance with Part 1807 of this chapter (FmHA Instruction 427.1), and the FmHA escrow agent or designated attorney determines that:

(i) The applicant has mortgageable interest in the property under a long term purchase contract.

(ii) The purchase contract is not subject to summary cancellation upon default, and does not contain other provisions which might jeopardize the Government's security position or the borrower's ability to repay the loan.

(iii) The contract holder will agree in writing to give FmHA notice of any breach by the purchasers, and further agrees to give FmHA 30 days from breach to rectify said conditions.

(i) If any of the prior liens against real estate offered as security contain future advance provisions, or other provisions which might jeopardize the security position of the Government or the applicant's ability to meet his obligations under these prior liens and to pay his EM loan, the prior lienholders involved must agree in writing, before the loan is closed, to modify, waive, or subordinate such objectionable provisions. This will be accomplished usually on Form FmHA 427-8, "Agreement with Prior Lienholder," subject to any modifications necessary to meet legal requirements for closing a particular loan.

(j) In States where a prior lienholder may foreclose his security instrument under power of sale or otherwise, and extinguish junior liens of private parties without giving junior lienholders actual notice, and when a junior lien on real estate is to be taken as security for the loan, the prior lienholder must agree in writing to give the Government advance notice of foreclosure or assignment of the mortgage. A State Instruction will be issued, with the advice of the OGC, to indicate whether such agreements will be necessary in each particular State and, if so, to set forth the procedure and requirements for obtaining and recording such agreements.

(k) If there are essential insurable buildings located on the property, or if new buildings are to be erected or major improvements are to be made to existing buildings, the applicant will provide adequate property insurance coverage at the time of the loan closing or as of the date materials are delivered to the property, whichever is appropriate. However, when the real estate appraisal report shows that the present market value of the land after deducting the value of buildings shown on the report that the owner has equity equal to or that exceeds the amount of the debt including the loan, real property insurance will not be required. However, the applicant will be encouraged to obtain such insurance if he does not already have it to protect his interest. When real property insurance is required it will be obtained and serviced in accordance with Subpart A of Part 1806 of this chapter (FmHA Instruction 426.1).

(l) If insurance claims for loss or damage to buildings to be replaced or repaired with loan funds are outstanding at the time the loan is approved, the applicant will be required to agree in writing when settlement is made that the proceeds of such claims will be used for replacement or repair of buildings; application on debts secured by prior liens; or application on the EM loan.

(m) Liens will not be taken to secure loan amounts borrowed for repair or replacement of personal possessions and home equipment or furnishings. Instead, the amount loaned for this purpose will be reasonably secured by a lien(s) on crops, livestock, farm machinery, essential trucks or automobiles, and/or farm real estate.

(n) Loan approval officials may require Federal Crop Insurance, with an assignment to FmHA, during the repayment period of the EM loan if such insurance is available in the county. This determination is a judgment factor, and the decision should be based on the amount and type of security, other than crops, that the applicant can provide. However, when only a crop lien is taken as security for EM loans, the borrower will be required to carry Federal Crop Insurance during the repayment period of such loan(s) if such insurance is available in the county.

(o) EM loans to Indians which are secured by trust or restricted land will be handled as follows. The USDA and the Department of the Interior have mutually agreed that FmHA loans which are to be secured by real estate liens may be made to Indians holding land in severalty under trust patents or deeds containing restrictions against alienation subject to statutes under which they may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, give mortgages on their land which are valid and enforceable. These statutes include, but may not be limited to, the Act of March 29, 1956 (70 Stat. 62.63).

(1) When a lien is to be taken on trust or restricted property in connection with a loan to be made or insured by FmHA, the local representatives of the Bureau of Indian Affairs will furnish requested advice and information with respect to the property and each applicant.

(2) The FmHA State Director should arrange with the Area Director or other appropriate local official of the Bureau of Indian Affairs as to the manner in which the information will be requested and furnished. A State Instruction will be issued to prescribe the actions to be taken by FmHA personnel to implement the making of loans under such conditions.

(p) EM loans secured by real estate on Reclamation Projects in certain counties in Arizona and Washington will be made, serviced, and liquidated in accordance with Part 1890c of this Chapter (FmHA Administration Letter 843(440)).

§ 1832.23 Nondiscrimination in construction financed with a FmHA loan or grant.

The policies and regulations contained in Part 1890p of this Chapter (FmHA Administration Letter 50(400)) applies to all EM loans made under this Subpart A of Part 1832.

§ 1832.24 Certification by County Committee.

Before an EM loan is approved, the County Committee will certify on Form

FmHA 440-2, "County Committee Certification or Recommendation," that the applicant is eligible for a loan in accordance with § 1832.15. In addition, the County Committee will establish the maximum amount of credit which may be extended under the certification. Before an EM loan is made to a partnership or corporation, the County Committee will certify on Form FmHA 440-2 that the partnership or corporation is eligible, and will recommend that a loan be made not to exceed the certified amount.

(a) The total amount of the EM loan will be inserted in the appropriate spaces of item 2 for applicants who are individuals, and item 6 for corporations and partnerships. Also, at the bottom of the Form the County Committee will establish the maximum EM loan entitlement for production and physical losses based on the applicant's certification of disaster losses and the County Supervisor's calculations and verification of losses; also the amount of annual operating expenses, and other authorized EM loan purposes.

(b) The County Committee will indicate the Disaster Designation Number under which the loan is being made in the blank space on Form FmHA 440-2.

(c) If it is found, after an applicant has been certified as eligible, that there was a change in the amount of actual losses, or needs for other authorized purposes, it will be necessary for the County Committee to again certify the applicant as eligible on the basis of the changed circumstances if a larger loan is to be made. When the County Committee has agreed to certify an increase over the original amount certified, a new Form FmHA 440-2 will be prepared and executed. A notation will be made in the blank space on Form FmHA 440-2 that the County Committee has again reviewed the applicant's situation and certified for an additional amount rather than $----- shown on Form FmHA 440-2 dated-----. The Form FmHA 440-2 previously executed will be retained in the case files.

§ 1832.25 Planning The Farming Operation.

Form FmHA 431-2, "Farm and Home Plan," and Form FmHA 431-4, "Business Analysis—Nonagriculture Enterprise," if applicable, will be prepared in accordance with Subpart B of Part 1802 of this Chapter (FmHA Instruction 431.1). This planning process with the applicant is essential to making sound loans and, therefore, must receive careful attention in development of the loan docket. However, when the EM loan will not be for more than $10,000, Tables A, B, C, D, and E of Form FmHA 431-2, may be left blank provided Form FmHA 410-1 is completed and is believed to accurately reflect the applicant's circumstances.

§ 1832.26 Tenure Agreement.

Generally, a copy of the lease agreement between tenant applicants and their landlords will be obtained and made a part of the loan docket. When that is not obtainable a statement setting forth the terms and conditions of the agreement which are not clearly reflected in Form FmHA 431-2 will be uled for payment in unequal annual installments.

the agreement which are not clearly reflected in Form FmHA 431-2 will be prepared and made a part of the loan docket.

§ 1832.27 Environmental impact requirements.

Compliance must be made with all applicable environmental impact requirements. Federal requirements that may be applicable are those contained in the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. 1251), the Federal Water Pollution Control Act (33 U.S.C. 1251), Executive Order 11738 (38 FR 25161), and State and local laws. Regulations with respect to the Clean Air Act, issued by the Environmental Protection Agency, are published at 38 FR 35310, December 27, 1973. Effluent guidelines and standards with respect to feedlots, issued by the Environmental Protection Agency, are published in the Federal Register for February 14, 1974 (39 FR 5704, 40 CFR, Part 412).

(a) Environmental impact assessment. For any reasonably large scale animal, fish, or poultry feedlots or holding facilities which are likely to have an effect on the environment for which an EM loan is being developed, the County Supervisor will complete Form FmHA 440-46, "Environmental Impact Assessment." Additionally, Form FmHA 440-46 will need to be completed on a smaller scale operation involving feedlots and holding facilities in a densely populated area.

(b) Submission to State Director. The completed Form FmHA 440-46, a copy of the application, and any additional comments the County Supervisor believes relevant to environmental consideration, will be forwarded by the County Supervisor to the State Director. Based on this submittal and any additional material the State Director may have concerning the proposed operations, the State Director will determine whether an environmental impact statement should be prepared. In making this determination and proceeding with subsequent steps, the State Director will follow the provisions of Part 1824 of this Chapter (FmHA Instruction 442.10) to the extent applicable to loans being made under this Regulation.

§ 1832.28 National historic preservation.

The policies and regulations contained in Part 1890 of this Chapter (FmHA Instruction 440.10) apply to loans made under this Part 1832.

§ 1832.29 [Reserved]

§ 1832.30 Loan docket forms.

(a) Promissory Note(s). One or more notes will be prepared for the full amount of the loan, rounded to the nearest $10. Each scheduled installment will include interest in addition to principal unless deferment of principal is authorized in accordance with § 1832.21(c). The first installment may not be less than the amount equal to interest on the loan from the estimated date or actual date of closing to installment due date.

(1) Form FmHA 441-1, "Promissory Note," will be used when a loan is scheduled for payment in unequal annual installments.

(2) Form FmHA 440-16, "Promissory Note," will be used when a loan is scheduled for payment in equal annual installments of two years or more. "EM" will be inserted in the appropriate box.

(3) When the applicant is a partnership, the promissory note(s) will be executed so as to evidence the liability of the partnership as well as each partner as an individual. This will be accomplished by typing the name of the partnership above the space provided for signatures and having the note executed by each member of the partnership both as a partner and as an individual. To evidence the liability of the partnership, the words "As Partners" will be typed immediately beneath the name of the partnership and each partner will sign thereunder. To evidence the partners' liability as individuals, the words "As Individuals" will be typed at the top of the blank space to the left of the lines for signatures, and each partner will sign thereunder, along with his spouse if required by State Instructions or loan closing instructions.

(4) When the applicant is a corporation, the promissory note(s) will be executed by the corporation acting through its appropriate officials and, in order to evidence their personal liability for the debt, by the principal stockholders as individuals, except in unusual circumstances including legal disability, absence from the country, or legal justification. The name of the corporation will be typed above the space provided for signatures, and the name and title of each official to sign for the corporation will be typed below his signature. To evidence the principal stockholders' liability as individuals, the words "As Individuals" will be typed at the top of the blank space to the left of the lines for signatures, and each principal stockholder will sign thereunder, along with his spouse if required by State Instructions or loan closing instructions.

(b) Form FmHA, 440-1, "Payment Authorization."

(1) Separate Forms FmHA 440-1 will be prepared for each promissory note.

(2) In the "Type of Assistance" block insert "EM" and the disaster designation number under which the loan is approved. Example: EM-M421.

(3) EM loans approved for borrowers presently indebted for an EM loan, but having NEW qualifying losses from a subsequent major or natural disaster for which a MDDN, PEDN, SDDN, or SDAN has been assigned, will show the new appropriate disaster designation number. This number will be used for all subsequent EM loans approved unless the borrower has new qualifying losses from a different disaster for which another disaster designation number has been assigned.

(4) The Finance Office will not process EM loan dockets that are not coded with a disaster designation number.

(c) Form FmHA 441-5, "Subordination Agreement." When a subordination agreement is required on crops, livestock, farm equipment, and other chattel property, including items which have become personal property through execution of a severance agreement, Form FmHA 441-5, or other form approved by the State Director with the advice of the OGC, where Form FmHA 441-5 is not legally sufficient, will be used. Subordinations will be for a specified amount of money rather than for a specific period of time.

(d) Form FmHA 440-6, "Severance Agreement." This form will be used when required by State Instructions.

(e) Form FmHA 440-26, "Consent and Subordination Agreement." Unless otherwise provided by a State Instruction this form, rather than a severance agreement, will be used in Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) States when a security interest is taken in property after it has become a fixture.

(f) Form FmHA 441-13, "Division of Income and Nondisturbance Agreement." Form FmHA 441-13 will be used when it is necessary to obtain a division of income and nondisturbance agreement from prior lienholders.

(g) Form FmHA 441-10, "Nondisturbance Agreement." Form FmHA 441-10 will be used when it is necessary to obtain a nondisturbance agreement from creditors of an applicant who are in a position to interfere with the applicant's operations. Generally, nondisturbance agreements will be for the first full operating year after the EM loan is made. However, agreements may be for longer periods with the consent of the other creditor or creditors.

<sup>5</sup> Original and 1 copy to borrower; 2 copies to each person who has right to rescind; copy retained by FmHA.

(a) The documents to be submitted will be examined thoroughly by the County Office Clerk to make sure that they are complete as to dates, signatures, and mechanical accuracy. For loans requiring approval other than in the County Office, the loan submission will consist of the required documents enumerated above and all of the applicant's County Office case folders.

(b) After the documents have been assembled, the loan approval official will make the determinations required in § 1832.32.

§ 1832.32 Loan Approval or Rejection.

Loans will be approved in accordance with the authorities and provisions contained in this Part 1832 and the loan approval conditions and authorities contained in Subpart B of Part 1810 of this Chapter (FmHA Instruction 440.2).

(a) Approval After Termination Date for Receiving Applications. Applications for EM loans may be approved after expiration of the period for receiving such applications under a designation provided they were filed in the County Office before the termination date for receiving applications had expired except for subsequent loans.

(b) Administrative Determination and Responsibilities. When the County Committee certification has been made the loan approval official will determine administratively whether:

(1) The applicant is eligible and likely to be successful in the proposed operations and to achieve the objectives of the loan.

(2) The applicant has satisfactory tenure arrangements on the farm to be operated.

(3) The proposed farm and home operations of the applicant are reasonably sound.

(4) The loan is proper and can be repaid from farm or other income as scheduled.

(5) The security requirements can be met.

(6) The certification required of the applicant and County Committee have been made and are a part of the loan docket.

(7) The loan meets all other FmHA requirements.

(c) Approval of loan. If the loan is to be approved the loan approval official will date and sign Form FmHA 440-1. The loan approval official also will set forth any special conditions of approval, including any special security requirements, in the running record or by letter. The original and an unsigned copy will be forwarded to the Finance Office with a copy of the letter from the National Office authorizing approval of the loan when such authorization is required. The other copy of Form FmHA 440-1 will be dated and signed by the loan approval official and mailed to the applicant on the date of approval along with a letter advising the applicant of any condition the approval is subject to.

(d) Rejection of loans. If a loan is rejected, the loan approval official will indicate the reasons for the rejection in the running case record. The County Supervisor will notify the applicant by letter of the reason(s) for rejection.

§ 1832.33 Taking Security Instruments.

a Chattels and crops.

(1) Forms To Be Used. Form FmHA 440A25, "Financing Statement," or Form FmHA 440-25 and Form FmHA 440-4, "Security Agreement (Chattels and Crops)," or Form FmHA 440-4A, "Security Agreement (Crops)," as appropriate will be used to obtain security interest in personal property in UCC States unless State Instructions provide for the use of other forms. State Instructions also will provide information as to whether Form FmHA 440A25 or Form FmHA 440-25 will be used. Although only the Financing Statement is required to be filed or recorded, it is necessary to also take a Security Agreement in order to have a complete security instrument. Form FmHA 440-4 LA, "Chat-tel Mortgage and Crop Pledge (Louisiana)," or Form FmHA 440-4A LA, "Crop Pledge (Louisiana)," as appropriate, will be used in the State of Louisiana.

(2) Describing Security Property on Security Instruments. The printed forms of the FmHA Financing Statement describe certain types of collateral. If items of collateral not covered under those types are to serve as security, they should be described by types or individual items in the space provided in the Financing Statement for that purpose. Unless otherwise provided by State Instructions, animals, birds, fish, and so forth should be described by groups on the Security Agreement. The serial or motor number should be shown for only major items of equipment. If a security interest is to be taken in property such as inventory, supplies, recreation, or other nonfarm equipment or fixtures which cannot be readily described under the column headings of items 2 or 3, as appropriate, of the Security Agreement, an appropriate description of such property will be inserted in item 2 or 3 below the other property described in the item of the security agreement without regard to the column headings. The advice of the OGC will be obtained in individual cases as to how to describe in the Financing Statement and Security Agreement items such as grazing permits, milk bases, and membership or stock in cooperative associations, unless the subject is covered by a State Instruction. The property to be described on security instruments should be reconciled with any existing security instruments and Form FmHA 462-1, "Record of the Disposition of Security Property."

(3) When To Take Security Instruments.

(i) Initial loans. The Financing Statement will be filed and the Security Agreement executed no later than the date of execution of the promissory note. When the initial Security Agreement does not describe individually or by groups all of the collateral that is to serve as security, an all inclusive Security Agreement will be taken as soon as all the security property has been purchased. Form FmHA 440-4 LA and FmHA 440-4A LA will be taken in Louisiana in initial loan cases in accordance with State Instructions.

(ii) Subsequent loans.

(A) Financing statements. A filed FmHA Financing Statement is effective for a period of five years from the date of filing and as long thereafter as it is continued as provided in Subpart A of Part 1871 of this chapter (FmHA Instruction 462.1). If the filed Financing Statement is still effective and covers all types of collateral that are to serve as security for the subsequent loan and describes the land on which crops or fixtures are or are to be located, a new Financing Statement will not be required. However, when a new Financing Statement is needed, it will be filed no later than the date of execution of the subsequent promissory note. Form FmHA 440-4A LA will be taken in Louisiana in subsequent loan cases in accordance with State Instructions.

(B) Security Agreements. An additional Security Agreement will not be taken in connection with a subsequent loan if the existing Security Agreement covers all types of collateral that are to serve as security for the subsequent loan; describes the land on which the crops or fixtures are or are to be located; and was taken within one year before the crops become growing crops, unless otherwise provided by a State Instruction.

(C) Subsequent loan. If a subsequent loan is being made and the EM loan indebtedness is being secured for the first time under the UCC, the procedure in paragraph (a) (3) (i) of this section with respect to securing initial loans will be followed.

(4) Executing Security Instruments. County Office employees authorized to receive collections are authorized to execute any legal instruments necessary (listed in Exhibit C of FmHA Instruction 451.2) are authorized to execute any legal instruments necessary to obtain or preserve security for loans. This includes Financing Statements, chattel mortgages and similar lien instruments, and severance agreements, consent and subordination agreements, affidavits, acknowledgments, and other instruments.

(5) Filing or Recording Security Instruments. Ordinarily, in UCC States Financing Statements will be delivered or mailed to the filing officer(s) for filing or recording, whichever is appropriate, when the loan is approved. However, when this is not practical, the Financing Statement may be filed at a later date, but not later than the first withdrawal of loan funds from the supervised bank account or delivery of the check to the borrower. If crops or other property of the borrower are or are to be located in a State other than that of a borrower's residence, the County Supervisor servicing the loan will contact the County Supervisor in the other State for information as to the security instruments to be used and the place(s) of filing or recording in the other State. The Financing Statement will be filed as required by State Instructions. Security Agreements will not be filed or recorded unless otherwise provided in State Instructions because of special State law requirements. Form FmHA 440-4 LA or Form FmHA 440-4A LA will be filed or recorded in Louisiana as provided by State Instruction.

(6) State Instructions. The taking and filing or recording of security instruments for EM loans to aquaculture operations will be in accordance with this Subpart A unless it is determined, with the assistance of OGC that a State Instruction is needed for certain aquatic organisms.

(7) Perfecting a Purchase Money Security Interest in Inventory. In order to perfect a purchase money security interest in inventory, it is necessary, on or before the time the debtor receives possession of the inventory, to obtain a Security Agreement and file a Financing Statement as required by this Subpart A and notify in writing any parties who are known to have a security interest in such inventory or who have filed a Financing Statement covering the inventory. The notice must describe the inventory by item or type.

(8) Fees. Statutory fees for filing or recording Financing Statements, mortgages, or other legal instruments and notary and lien search fees incident to loan transactions in all cases will be paid by the borrower from personal funds or from the proceeds of the loan. Whenever cash is accepted by FmHA personnel to be used to pay the filing or recording fees for security instruments (including Fi-ancing Statements), or the cost of making lien searches, Form FmHA 440-12, "Acknowledgment of Payment for Recording, Lien Search, and Releasing Fees," will be executed. FmHA personnel who accept custody of such fees will make it clear to the borrower that the amount accepted is not received by the Government as credit on the borrower's indebtedness, but is accepted only for the purpose of paying the recording, filing, or lien search fees on behalf of the borrower.

(9) Retention and Use of Security Agreements.

(i) Originals. Original executed Security Agreements will not be altered, and will not be disposed of when new Security Agreements are taken.

(ii) Work copy. Information with respect to changes in security property will be noted only on the work copy. When an additional Security Agreement covering all collateral for the indebtedness is taken, the work copy used in preparing the additional Security Agreement may be destroyed.

(10) Future Advance and After-Acquired Property Clauses and Special State Statutes. The after-acquired property and future advance provision of Security Agreements in UCC States will be considered valid in all respects unless otherwise provided in a State Instruction.

(i) Future advance provision. A properly prepared, executed, and filed or recorded FmHA Financing Statement and a properly prepared and executed FmHA Security Agreement give FmHA a security interest in the property described thereon to secure any operating or EM loan indebtedness owed by the debtor, including any such future loans, advances, or expenditures and any other FmHA debts evidenced by notes and any advances or expenditures made in connection with the debts evidenced by such notes.

(ii) After-acquired property provisions. Any after-acquired property, except fixtures, of the same type as described individually, by groups, specifically, or generally on the Financing Statement and Security Agreement will serve as security for the debt covered thereby. The after-acquired property clause in the Security Agreement will encumber crops grown on the land described in the Security Agreement and Financing Statement provided they are planted or otherwise become growing crops within one year after the execution date of the Security Agreement, or such other period as provided by State Instructions. Except as set forth in § 1871.33(a) (4) of this chapter (paragraph XIII A 4 in FmHA Instruction 455.1), such FmHA after-acquired security interests take priority over other security interests perfected after the FmHA Financing Statement was filed.

(11) State Instructions. In addition to the State Instructions referred to in paragraph (a) (1) through (10) of this Section, State Instructions will be issued, as necessary, to provide additional procedure for taking liens on motor vehicles and motor boats or any special type of security. The State Instructions will also supplement paragraph (a) (10) of this section with respect to the "future advance" and "after-acquired property" clauses of security instruments. The State Instruction will set forth the requirements with respect to filing or recording of security instruments if the borrower is not a resident of the State, but is conducting some operation in the State. This is for use when County Supervisors in other States request such information in accordance with paragraph (a) (6) of this section.

(b) Taking real estate security.

(1) Use of Form FmHA 427-1 (State). This form will be used in taking liens on real estate. It will be prepared, executed, and filed or recorded in accordance with State Instructions and any additional instructions received from the escrow agent or the OGC as appropriate.

(2) Title Clearance. Title clearance and the closing of EM loans which are to be secured by real estate liens will be in accordance with the requirements of Part 1807 of this chapter (FmHA Instruction 427.1) as modified by § 1832.22 (g) and (h).

§§ 1832.34-1832.35 [Reserved]

§ 1832.36 Loan Closing.

(a) Check delivery. County Office employees authorized to receive collections (listed in Exhibit C of FmHA Instruction 451.2) will receive and deliver loan checks. Upon receipt of a loan check, the County Supervisor will notify the applicant promptly on Form FmHA 440-8, "Notice of Check Delivery." Following loan closing, when a supervised bank account is required and the depository bank does not require the borrower's endorsement for deposit, the County Supervisor may deposit the loan check in the supervised bank account and furnish the borrower a copy of the deposit slip. Loan funds for the payment of interest-only installment(s) will be collected when the loan is closed. The notation "For deferred installment interest" will be entered on Form FmHA 451-2, "Schedule of Remittances."

(b) Form FmHA 440-13, "Report of Lien Search." Form FmHA 440-13 or other form providing substantially the same information will be prepared.

(1) Lien searches will be obtained at a time which will assure that the security instruments give the Government the required security. Under this policy the lien search normally will be obtained at the time the Financing Statement (mortgage or crop pledge in Louisiana) is filed or recorded. Lien searches may be obtained after that date, but not later than the first withdrawal of any loan funds from the supervised bank account or delivery of the check to the borrower. When necessary in individual cases, initial lien searches may be obtained in connection with processing applications provided continuation searches are obtained not later than the times prescribed in this paragraph (b) (1). Under the UCC, lien searches need be obtained for subsequent loans only when an additional Financing Statement is required. That is, when crops or fixtures to be taken as security are or are to be located on land not described on the existing Financing Statement or property not otherwise covered by the Financing Statement is to be taken as security for the EM loan debt.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) (2) (i) and (ii) of this section, applicants are required to obtain and pay the cost of lien searches. County Supervisors will make inquiries locally concerning the available sources through which satisfactory lien searches can be obtained at nominal cost to the applicants. However, applicants should select the sources through which lien searches are made. The cost of lien searches may be paid from the proceeds of loan checks when necessary.

(i) County Office employees may make continuation lien searches.

(ii) State Directors may authorize the employees of a particular County Office unit to make lien searches without cost to applicants when the cost of lien searches is exorbitant; such service is not available; or experience has shown that the service available will cause undue delay in closing loans or make it difficult to comply with the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) of this section.

(3) State Directors, with the advice of the OGC, will issue State Instructions as necessary setting forth the minimum requirements for lien searches, including the records to be searched and the respective periods to be covered.

(c) Supervised bank accounts. EM loan funds will be handled as provided in Part 1803 of this chapter (FmHA Instruction 402.1). When a loan is made to reimburse an applicant for expenditures he has already made, the loan check may be turned over directly to him after such prior expenditures have been reasonably verified by the County Supervisor and he documents this verification in the borrower's county case file.

§ 1832.37 Cancellation of Loan Checks and Advances.

(a) When a loan check cannot be delivered or is lost or destroyed, the County Supervisor will notify the Finance Office by telegram, telephone, or memorandum giving name, case number, and address of the borrower, the amount of the check and whether the loss occurred prior or subsequent to release of the check to the borrower in accordance with established FmHA procedure (FmHA Instruction 102.1).

(b) If a loan check is to be canceled, the County Supervisor will return the check with Form FmHA 440-10, "Cancellation of Loan or Grant Check and/or Obligation," to the Disbursing Center, United States Treasury Department, Post Office Box 3329, Kansas City, Kansas 66103. Copies of Form FmHA 440-10 will be furnished to the Finance Office and the State Office.

(c) When an advance is to be canceled, the following actions must be taken:

(1) Complete Form FmHA 440-10 in accordance with instructions available in all FmHA Offices (FMI).

(2) When necessary prepare and execute a substitute promissory note reflecting the revised total of the loan and the revised schedule. When it is not possible to obtain a substitute promissory note, the County Supervisor will show on Form FmHA 440-10 the revised amount of the loan and the revised repayment schedule.

(3) Transmit to the Finance Office Form FmHA 440-10 and a copy of the promissory note as prepared in accordance with paragraph (c) (1) and (2) of this section.

§ 1832.38 Revision of the Use of EM Loan Funds.

(a) Loan approval officials are authorized to approve changes in the purposes for which loan funds are to be used provided:

(1) The loan was within the respective loan approval official's authority.

(2) Such a change is for an authorized purpose and within applicable limitations.

(3) Such a change will not adversely affect the feasibility of the operation or the Government's interest.

(4) Such a change is consistent with authorities, policies, and limitations for making EM loans.

(b) The State Director may delegate additional authority to approval officials to approve certain kinds of changes in the use of loan funds by issuing a State Instruction describing such changes, provided prior approval is obtained from the National Office.

(c) When changes are made in the use of loan funds, no revision will be made in the repayment schedule on the promissory note. Appropriate changes with respect to the repayments will be made in Table K of Form FmHA 431-2 and they will be initialed by the borrower. The County Supervisor will also make appropriate notations in the "Supervisory and Servicing Actions" section of the Management System Card-Individual for followup.

The case number should be the applicant's Social Security or Internal Revenue Service (IRS) tax number, whichever is appropriate. If such party is an individual, his or her Social Security number should be used. If such party is husband and wife, the husband's Social Security number will be used. If such party objects to the use of the Social Security number, a case number will be assigned. If such party is a legal entity, its IRS tax number will be used. The applicant's Social Security or IRS tax number preceded by State and County code numbers will constitute the entire case number to be used on all FmHA forms.

§ 1832.40 Reporting EM Loan Disaster Lending Activity.

Reports will be made in accordance with applicable FmHA regulations (FmHA Instruction 492.7).

§ 1832.43 Additional EM Loans.

Additional EM loans may be made for the same purposes and under the same conditions as an initial EM loan under the following conditions.

(a) When the applicant did not obtain a loan for the full amount of the actual loss authorized as reflected by the loss statement he filed, the applicant may within one year after the statement is filed be considered for an additional loan, based on his initial application, for all or a portion of the loss balance not requested initially.

(b) Additional loans for reorganization of the farming operation made under § 1832.20(c) of this section must be made within one full-crop year after the designation date.

(c) New appraisal reports of real estate will not be required if the appraisal report in the file is not over two years old unless the approval official requests a new appraisal report. Any changes in the value of real or chattel security will be recorded, dated and initialed by the authorized appraiser on the appropriate appraisal reports in the file.

APPENDIX I

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN FARMERS HOME ADMINISTRATION (FmHA) AND THE FEDERAL DISASTER ASSISTANCE ADMINISTRATION (FDAA)

I. When a major disaster or emergency declaration is made by the President, the FDAA is the agency charged with the responsibility for seeing that disaster assistance is made available to disaster victims. Also, that agency is responsible for coordinating the actions of other Federal agencies who have programs to provide disaster assistance. A Federal Coordinating Officer (FCO) is appointed for each major disaster or emergency to coordinate Federal assistance in the disaster area.

II. After a request for a major disaster or emergency declaration is made by the Governor of a State, FDAA through its Regional Director is responsible for obtaining necessary information on losses and damages to respond to the request.

III. Over the years FDAA and FmHA have had a very good working relationship. However, we have never formalized an agreement. Such an agreement is in the process of being developed and will be issued when completed. Until such time as the agreement is completed the following policy will be followed by State Directors in working with FDAA. Any exception to these guidelines must be approved by the National Office.

A. When a request is made by FDAA for information on losses and damages caused by a natural disaster, FDAA will be advised to contact the State Emergency Board (SEB) Chairman. USDA State Emergency Memorandum No. 54 provides that the SEB and County Emergency Board (CEB) will prepare the Department's "Damage Assessment Report." State Directors and County Supervisors should cooperate with SEB and CEB Chairmen in preparing the reports.

B. When an FmHA State Director is advised by FDAA that a major disaster or emergency has been declared, he will authorize the receiving of Emergency (EM) Loan applications in the counties given him by FDAA. However, no EM loan can be approved until the National Office makes such authorization in accordance with § 1832.10(a). Also, the State Director or his authorized representative will attend any meeting called by FDAA to discuss Federal assistance under the disaster declaration. The State Director will advise the SEB Chairman of any meeting called by FDAA.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

C. If a request is made by FDAA for FmHA employees to man FDAA's "Disaster Assistance Centers," it will be advised to contact the SEB Chairman. USDA State Emergency Memorandum No. 54 provides that the SEB Chairman shall select qualified U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) personnel to represent USDA at each Center. State Directors should cooperate with the SEB Chairman in providing personnel for these Centers.

D. If FDAA requests State Directors for disaster lending activity reports, it will be advised that reports cannot be made more often than monthly as established by applicable FmHA regulations (FmHA Instruction 492.7). However, State Directors, as authorized by applicable FmHA regulations paragraph III B 4 of FmHA Instruction 492.7, "Report of EM Loan Applications," more frequently than monthly, but not more often than weekly, if they need the information in administering the EM loan program.

APPENDIX II

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (SBA) AND THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE-FARMERS HOME ADMINISTRATION (FmHA) PERTAINING TO DISASTER TYPE LOAN ASSISTANCE FOR AGRIBUSINESS AND FARMING ENTERPRISES

I. General: While recognizing that the determination of eligibility of an agribusiness activity for disaster type loan assistance from SBA or FmHA is solely within the jurisdiction and responsibility of each respective agency, this Memorandum of Understanding is herewith set forth as a means for further clarifying which agency will assume the responsibility of handling disaster loan applications from various types of agribusinesses. The objectives of this Memorandum are to (a) assure that intended recipients of Federal disaster assistance are served, (b) define the areas of responsibility for each of the two agencies, and (c) enable both agencies to serve the victims of natural disasters more expeditiously with personnel having greater expertise in a particular type enterprise.

II. Definitions:

Agribusiness is defined as farming and the businesses associated with the productions, handling, processing, storing and marketing of agricultural commodities.

Farming is defined as the business of producing crops, livestock and livestock products through the management of land, labor, capital and basic raw materials, e.g., seed, feed, fertilizer and fuel.

III. Guidelines: An applicant (individual, partnership, or corporation) for SBA or FmHA disaster type loan assistance must have had one or more of the following type enterprises in operation at the time of the designated disaster.

A. Types of enterprises eligible to apply for SBA Disaster Loan Assistance.

1. Purchase for resale of commodities such as fruits, vegetables, flowers, ornamental shrubbery, etc.

2. Purchase of livestock and poultry for immediate or short-term resale, e.g., by livestock dealers or brokers.

3. Feeding of livestock in specialized facilities as a service to others or as an entity which operates independent of a producing farm enterprise.

4. Packaging, freezing, canning or processing, of any nature, of meats, fish, fruits, and vegetables acquired solely for that purpose from others, or as a service to others.

5. Slaughter and/or dressing of livestock and poultry acquired solely for that purpose from others, or as a service to others.

6. Operation of hatcheries for the production of baby chicks or turkey poulters primarily for resale where the hatchery does not maintain its own breeding flocks in its own facilities.

7. Purchase and operation of harvesting combines or other machinery, warehouses, cold storage plants, feed mills, etc., primarily as a service to others or on a rental or "for hire" basis.

8. Extension of landscaping, farm management or any advisory assistance to others for a fee.

9. Trapping of lobsters, crabs, wild animals and other game.

10. Catching of fin fish or shell fish (including oysters) from public waters.

B. Types of enterprises eligible to apply for FmHA Emergency Loan Assistance.

1. Production of crops including:

(a) Field crops—feed, fiber and tobacco.

(b) Fruits, vegetables, nuts, greenhouse crops and mushrooms.

(c) Flowers, ornamental plants, shrubs and trees, and sod.

(d) Nursery stock for fruits and nuts.

(e) Vegetables and small fruit plants for transplanting.

2. Production and/or feeding of livestock or poultry including milk and egg production in the applicants own facilities. This would not include feeding operations which functioned primarily as a service to others.

3. Operation of hatcheries for the production of baby chicks or turkey poulters where the hatchery maintains its own breeding flocks in its own facilities, regardless of whether the hatchery raises those chicks or poulters, or sells them.

4. Operation of hydroponic farms.

5. Production of fur bearing animals, game animals or game birds.

6. Production of fish under controlled conditions for human consumption, e.g., catfish and trout.

7. Production of oysters under controlled conditions—oyster planters.

IV. Handling applications from victims having both farm and other agribusiness enterprises:

A. It is recognized by both agencies that a disaster victim may suffer losses in both farm and other agribusiness enterprises which would make him eligible for assistance from both agencies; and recognizing further that FmHA has the legislative authority to make disaster type loans to assist nonfarming agribusiness enterprises, it is hereby agreed that each agency will handle disaster loan applications in accordance with the following:

1. FmHA

(a) Applications pertaining to farm enterprises, regardless of the significance of that farming enterprise(s) to the applicant's total operation, when the applicant is an individual. When the applicant is a partnership or a corporation, it must be engaged primarily in farming, or

(b) Applications pertaining to operators whose primary enterprise(s), based on gross income, is farming, and who are also engaged in other agribusinesses to an incidental degree.

2. SBA

(a) Applications pertaining to operations which consist solely of agribusiness(es) other than farming enterprises, or

(b) Applications pertaining to agribusiness enterprises(s), other than farming, when farming enterprises do not constitute the primary portion of the total operation. Losses sustained to any farming enterprise(s) may still be eligible for assistance from FmHA as described in IV A 1 a.

B. It is further recognized by both agencies that FmHA Emergency loan security requirements are more stringent and more limiting and, therefore, it is further agreed that in those cases where it becomes necessary for both agencies to make separate loans to the same applicant, the following understandings will prevail:

1. Appropriate field representatives of both agencies, in consultation with the applicant, will arrive at a mutual understanding regarding:

(a) The loans to be made.

(b) The purposes for which loan funds will be utilized.

(c) The security required and to be taken by each agency.

(d) The distribution of income in repayment of the loans.

2. FmHA security requirements will take precedence.

3. All parties concerned will make the determination there will be sufficient repayment ability to adequately assure that the scheduled repayment installments can be met.

V. Referring Applicants: When referral of applicants between agencies is necessary, neither agency will inform the applicant that he is eligible for a loan from the other agency, nor will they inform the applicant that another agency is responsible for making him a loan. Such statements are misleading and result in confusion and poor public relations for the Federal Government. Therefore, referrals will be made with a statement that "the applicant may wish to contact the other agency as that agency can make loans for enterprises such as he is conducting."

It is recognized that not every applicant will meet the eligibility requirements for a disaster type loan. However, an agency's inability to make a loan to any applicant to finance an enterprise within the field of service of that agency will not be a basis for referring the applicant to the other agency for that part of his financing.

It is the intent of this Memorandum of Understanding that SBA will serve natural disaster victims who sustained losses to enterprises as defined in III A, and FmHA will serve those defined in III B of this Memorandum of Understanding.

This Memorandum of Understanding may be revised from time to time by written mutual consent of the agencies involved.

Administrator,
Farmers Home Administration.

Administrator,
Small Business Administration.

APPENDIX III

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING AND COORDINATION BETWEEN THE AGRICULTURAL STABILIZATION AND CONSERVATION SERVICE (ASCS) AND THE FARMERS HOME ADMINISTRATION (FmHA) PERTAINING TO DISASTER TYPE ASSISTANCE

I. GENERAL: Federal Agencies that provide financial assistance to farmers suffering losses as a result of natural disasters are required to ensure that there is no duplication of benefits under other programs. Also, the USDA through the State and County Emergency Boards and the member agencies is responsible for providing leadership to insure that the Department's emergency programs are implemented as needed in the field.

II. USDA STATE (SEB) AND COUNTY (CEB) EMERGENCY BOARDS:

A. Membership on Emergency Boards:

1. SEB.—There has been established in every state a SEB. The Board is composed of representatives of the seven USDA agencies having emergency responsibilities in the field.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

The Chairman of the SEB is the ASCS State Executive Director. FmHA State Directors are members of the SEB's. In an emergency, SEB's and member agencies provide leadership for USDA emergency programs at the state level.

2. CEB.—There has been established in nearly every county a CEB. Membership consists of representatives of each USDA agency having available personnel at the county level. The Chairman, in most cases, of the CEB is the ASCS County Executive Director. FmHA County Supervisors are members of the CEB's. In an emergency, CEB's and member agencies provide leadership for USDA emergency programs at the county level.

B. Responsibility for Reporting Disasters: USDA SEB's and CEB's and their member agencies are best qualified to accomplish assessment of rural and agricultural damages. Therefore, in accordance with "USDA State Emergency Memorandum No. 54," they are given the responsibility for reporting the occurrence of disasters. SEB and CEB chairmen shall call a meeting of their respective boards to prepare necessary reports as soon as possible after a disaster occurs which has significantly affected rural areas in their state or county. The FmHA State Director and County Supervisors shall cooperate with the chairmen of SEB's and CEB's.

C. Federal Disaster Assistance Administration (FDAA) Natural Disaster Assistance Centers: Where a major disaster has been declared by the President and the FDAA establishes such center or centers in the local disaster areas, the SEB chairman is responsible for the following:

1. Selecting a qualified USDA person to represent USDA at each center. He will consult with other board members in making the selection. FmHA State Directors will cooperate with the SEB chairmen in seeing that the centers are properly manned.

2. Orienting the selected person(s) on all current USDA disaster programs. FmHA State Directors will cooperate in this orientation to insure that the USDA representative at the center is familiar with FmHA Emergency loans and other loans of FmHA that could be of assistance to the disaster victims.

3. Informing FDAA that a USDA representative is available to help at each of the assistance centers.

D. ASCS and FmHA Coordination on Emergency Activities to Farmers and Ranchers:

1. AFFECTED ASCS PROGRAMS: FmHA Instruction 441.2 provides that ASCS disaster type program benefits are to be considered in determining a farmer's eligibility and the maximum amount of his Emergency (EM) loan. Therefore, the amount of any benefits received from ASCS disaster type programs, disaster payments (prevented planting and low yield) for wheat, feed grain, and upland cotton, cost-sharing payments under Emergency Conservation Measures (ECM), sugar abandonment or deficiency payments, and livestock feed programs (LFP) will be considered as compensation for losses.

2. FmHA ACTION: In counties where Emergency loans are authorized and ASCS disaster type programs are available, FmHA County Supervisors will:

a. Furnish the ASCS county offices with a listing of names and addresses of farmers and ranchers who have had an EM loan approved.

b. Request from the ASCS county offices, by name and address of each EM loan applicant, the following information: payments or benefits (disaster, ECM, sugar abandonment or deficiency payments, and LFP) made or to be made by ASCS to such applicant, ASCS records of acreages on the applicant's farm or farms, and established yields on crops used by ASCS. FmHA Form 441-29, "ASCS Verification of Farm Production History and Payments," will be used for this purpose.

3. ASCS ACTION: The ASCS county offices will:

a. Furnish the County Supervisor with the requested information.

b. In counties where EM borrowers have received EM loans and have:

(1) Received Disaster Payments or ECM Assistance Concerning the Same Loss. Issue such sight drafts to show the borrower and FmHA as joint payees and the drafts will be forwarded to the FmHA County Office.

(2) Applied for LFP Benefits Because of the Same Loss. Limit LFP benefits to the difference, if any, in the amount a producer actually borrowed from FmHA and the maximum amount he could have borrowed. In cases where a producer has obtained the maximum loan, he must first repay FmHA to the extent of any benefits he may wish to obtain under the LFP (the difference between the LFP sales price and the market price).

(3) Received Sugar Abandonment or Deficiency Payments. Will advise the FmHA County Office of the date and amount of such payment.

This memorandum of Understanding and Coordination may be revised from time to time by written mutual consent of the agencies involved.

Title 9—Animals and Animal Products

CHAPTER III—ANIMAL AND PLANT HEALTH INSPECTION SERVICE (MEAT AND POULTRY PRODUCTS INSPECTION), DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

PART 381—POULTRY PRODUCTS INSPECTION REGULATIONS

Deletion of Provisions for Dressed Poultry

● Purpose: The purpose of this document is to delete from the poultry products inspection regulations the present allowance for handling, marking, or importing dressed poultry. ●

Pursuant to the authority contained in section 14 of the Poultry Products Inspection Act, as amended (21 U.S.C. 451 et seq.), the poultry products inspection regulations are amended to delete certain provisions allowing the production, labeling, and movement between official establishments, and importation of dressed poultry.

Statement of Considerations. On September 7, 1973, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (38 FR 24374) in accordance with the administrative procedure provisions in 5 U.S.C. 553, a notice of proposed rule-making under the Poultry Products Inspection Act to delete from the poultry products inspection regulations (9 CFR Part 381) those provisions sions allowing the production, labeling, and movement between official establishments or importation of dressed poultry. The proposed deletions contemplated no change with respect to the exemptions from certain restrictions of the Act and the regulations which are granted by the Administrator when necessary to avoid conflict with religious dietary requirements.

A total of three comments were received, all of which favored the proposal. Two of the comments were received from poultry industry groups, and one was received from a State agency responsible for the inspection of poultry in that State. In support of the proposal, all three respondents expressed the view that dressed poultry constitutes a health hazard because of the fact that a complete post-mortem inspection cannot be performed when the viscera remain in the carcass. The industry groups commenting on the proposal further pointed out that to their knowledge dressed poultry is no longer produced.

Therefore, after considering all information available to the Department, including the comments received pursuant to the notice, the poultry products inspection regulations (9 CFR Part 381) are amended as follows:

§ 381.97 [Reserved]

1. Section 381.97 is revoked and reserved.

§ 381.1 [Amended]

2. In § 381.1(b), the text of subparagraphs (14) and (15) are revoked and the subparagraph numbers are reserved; and in subparagraph (44) "dressed poultry" is deleted and "slaughtered poultry" is substituted therefor.

§ 381.65 [Amended]

3. In § 381.65, paragraphs (d), (e), (f), (g), and (h) (2) are revoked and in paragraph (n), the words "dressed poultry and other" are deleted.

4. In § 381.66, the words "dressed and" are deleted from the first sentences of paragraph (a) and paragraph (f) (3); in paragraph (f) (1), the term "Dressed and ready-to-cook" is deleted and "Ready-to-cook" is substituted therefor; the first sentence in § 381.66(e) is revoked; and paragraph (f) (2) is amended to read as follows:

§ 381.66 Temperatures and chilling and freezing procedures.

(f) . . .

(2) ready-to-cook poultry shall be frozen in a manner so as to bring the internal temperature of the birds at the center of the package to 0°F. or below within 72 hours from the time of entering the freezer.

§ 381.76 [Amended]

5. In § 381.76, paragraph (b) is revoked, and "(a)" in paragraph (a) is deleted.

§ 381.190 [Amended]

6. In § 381.190(a), the clause "except that dressed poultry may be transported from one official establishment to another" other official establishment for further processing," is deleted, and the comma following the word "regulations" is changed to a period.

§ 381.195 [Amended]

7. In § 381.195(b), the words "or dressed" are deleted in the second sentence; and the third sentence is revoked.

8. Under § 381.197, in paragraph (b) the term "(Except for unviscerated poultry)" is deleted from the inspection certificate heading; paragraph (c) is revoked and paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 381.197 Imported products; foreign inspection certificates required.

(a) Except as provided in §§ 381.207 and 381.209, each consignment containing any slaughtered poultry or other poultry product consigned to the United States from a foreign country shall be accompanied with a foreign inspection certificate substantially in the form illustrated in paragraph (b) of this section.

The regulatory provisions dealing with exemptions based on religious dietary laws are unchanged.

(Sec. 14, 71 Stat. 441, as amended, 21 U.S.C. 463; 37 F.R. 28464-28477)

It does not appear that further public rule-making procedure on these amendments would make additional relevant information available to the Department which would alter the decision. Therefore, under the administrative procedure provisions in 5 U.S.C. 553, it is found upon good cause that further rule-making procedures are impractical and unnecessary.

These amendments shall become effective October 13, 1975.

Done at Washington, D.C. on: September 8, 1975.

F. J. MULHERN,
Administrator, Animal and Plant
Health Inspection Service.

Title 10—Energy

CHAPTER II—FEDERAL ENERGY ADMINISTRATION

PART 204—RECORDS OF ORAL COMMUNICATIONS WITH PERSONS OUTSIDE FEA

Miscellaneous Amendments

Part 204 of the Federal Energy Administration's regulations was established to provide internal FEA procedures for preparing and maintaining records of communications and contacts between certain FEA employees and persons from outside the agency. The purpose of the Part 204 requirements is to maintain the integrity of FEA's decisionmaking process and to insure that agency programs and policies are developed and implemented in an open manner, thereby promoting public confidence in the agency.

Part 204 now contains three separate requirements relating to recording of "outside" contacts.

First, § 204.3 requires FEA employees in grade GS-15 or above to prepare written records of oral communications from "non-involved" persons expressing an opinion or viewpoint on a specific application, interpretation request, appeal, petition for special redress, investigation, or enforcement proceeding pending before FEA.

Second, § 204.4 requires certain senior FEA officials to keep "logs" or summaries of meetings concerning FEA policy questions conducted with persons from outside the agency. These summaries are required to contain the date and place of each meeting, the name of each participant at the meeting, the entities represented and a "brief summary of the subject matter or matters discussed".

Finally, § 204.5 requires certain FEA senior officials to prepare lists of all meetings that have occurred between such officials and persons from outside the agency during the preceding two-week period. All of the officials subject to this requirement are also required to keep meeting summaries under § 204.4.

The lists required under § 204.5 differ from the summaries required by § 204.4 in three material respects. First, the lists are to cover all meetings with individuals from outside FEA, irrespective of whether they are conducted to discuss policy questions. Second, the lists are routinely disclosed to the public through the Office of Public Affairs on a semi-monthly basis, whereas the summaries prepared under § 204.4 are maintained as part of the agency's internal files. Third, instead of the "brief summary" of matters discussed, the lists need only identify the general subject discussed.

The regulations were drafted with the goal of balancing the need for openness in agency transactions with the administrative burden which results from requiring such records to be maintained. Based upon the experience gained in the implementation of Part 204, certain amendments are deemed appropriate to further the goal of openness in the FEA decisionmaking process and at the same time to lessen the administrative burdens upon FEA's senior personnel. Accordingly, FEA is hereby amending §§ 204.3 and 204.5 and revoking § 204.4.

Section 204.3, as revised, would require all FEA employees in grade GS-11 and above to maintain written records of oral communications from "non-involved" persons expressing an opinion or viewpoint on specific matters pending before FEA. The purpose of this section when originally adopted was to insure that sources of influence that would not otherwise be readily apparent, such as "non-involved" parties to applications or proceedings before FEA, be identified and recorded in the appropriate case files.

Experience has indicated that there are few instances in which FEA personnel receive such oral communications, and accordingly the requirement of § 204.3 has not proven burdensome. In order to further the purpose of this section, it has been deemed appropriate to extend its coverage from persons in grade GS-15 and above to include all FEA employees in grade GS-11 and above. This amendment will effectively cover all FEA professional personnel whose responsibilities would include the types of matters specified in Section 204.3. The effect of this change is to increase the likelihood that all oral communications from "non-involved" persons will be recorded in the files of the regulatory matters to which § 204.3 pertains.

Our experience with §§ 204.4 and 204.5 has led us to conclude that it would be beneficial, both to the goal of public disclosure and administrative efficiency, to revoke § 204.4 and to consolidate certain of its requirements in § 204.5.

As amended, § 204.5, requiring that certain officials prepare lists of all meetings with persons from outside FEA, is expanded so that this requirement applies to all Office Directors, Deputy Assistant Administrators, Deputy Office Directors, and Deputy General Counsel, as well as to those officials previously covered. The scope of personnel required to comply with § 204.5 was increased in order to include other FEA officials who frequently participate in meetings of significance, including policy matters, with people from outside the agency.

In addition to the officials delineated in Section 204.5 there are a number of other officials, such as Associate Assistant Administrators, about whom it is not possible to make a categorical judgment as to the appropriateness of inclusion under § 204.5. In order to provide the flexibility necessary to assure inclusion of appropriate members of this latter group without unnecessarily burdening others, provision is made to authorize each Assistant Administrator, Office Director, and the General Counsel to determine which members of this group on his staff should be included under the meeting list requirement of § 204.5.

Section 204.5 is also amended to expressly require that the meeting lists identify the place of each meeting.

The meeting lists prepared under § 204.5 will not contain a summary of the discussion of the meeting with persons from outside the agency. They will, however, identify the subject matter discussed as well as include the date and place of each meeting, the name of each participant, and the entities represented. The summaries previously required under § 204.4 have proved administratively burdensome to prepare due to the demands placed upon those officials who were required to make them. In addition, the summaries were often sketchy and of little practical value. FEA has therefore concluded that a simple identification of subject matter as required under § 204.5 is a sufficient means of informing interested members of the public of the matters being discussed with individuals from outside the agency. This change represents a more efficient balancing of the requirement of public disclosure with management demands.

The meeting list requirements of § 204.5 also provide for greater public access to this information than previously given under § 204.4. As previously noted, public disclosure was not required under § 204.4. In contrast, § 204.5 provides for routine availability and easy accessibility. All meeting lists prepared pursuant to § 204.5 are to be transmitted to the Public Affairs Office on a semi-monthly basis and will be routinely available for public distribution.

As this amendment to Part 204 pertains to a matter relating to agency management or personnel, it is exempted from the rulemaking requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act, section 553 (a) (2) of title 5, United States Code. Formal notice and public hearings are, accordingly, not required, and this amendment is made effective immediately.

This amendment has been reviewed in accordance with Executive Order 11821, issued November 27, 1974, and has been determined not to be of a nature that requires an evaluation of its inflationary impact pursuant to Executive Order 11821. (Federal Energy Administration Act 1974, Pub. L. 93-275; E.O. 11790, 39 FR 23185).

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 204 of Chapter II, Title 10 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended as set forth below.

Issued in Washington, D.C., September 9, 1975.

ROBERT E. MONTGOMERY, JR.,
General Counsel.

1. Section 204.1 is amended by revising the first two sentences thereof to read as follows:

§ 204.1 Purpose and scope.

This part establishes regulations for the preparation and maintenance, by specified FEA employees, of written reports regarding certain types of oral communications received from and meetings held with persons from outside the agency. Procedures are also established for the preparation and distribution to the public of a list of all meetings that have occurred between the Administrator, a Deputy Administrator, an Assistant Administrator, a Deputy Assistant Administrator, an Office Director, a Deputy Office Director, the General Counsel, a Deputy General Counsel or other senior FEA official who may be identified pursuant to § 204.5(a) (2) of this part and persons from outside the agency during the preceding half-month period. . . .

§ 204.3 [Amended]

2. Section 204.3(a) is amended by deleting the words "GS-15" and inserting in lieu thereof "GS-11".

§ 204.4 [Removed]

3. Section 204.4 is revoked.

4. Section 204.5 is amended by revising paragraph (a) and designating it (a) (1), and by adding paragraph (a) (2), to read as follows:

§ 204.5 Public record of meetings.

(a) (1) Within one week after the 15th and the end of each month, the Administrator, each Deputy Administrator, each Assistant Administrator, each Deputy Assistant Administrator, each Office Director, each Deputy Office Director, the General Counsel, each Deputy General Counsel and every FEA official who has received a notice duly issued and effective pursuant to paragraph (a) (2) of this section shall submit to the Office of Public Affairs a list of all meetings that have occurred between such person and persons from outside the agency during the preceding half-month period. The list shall contain the date and place of each meeting, the names of all participants, the entities represented, and the general subject discussed.

(2) Any Assistant Administrator or Office Director or the General Counsel may, if he determines that the purpose of this part would be served thereby, require any Associate Assistant Administrator, Assistant Office Director or Assistant General Counsel under his respective supervision to submit a list of all meetings that have occurred between such person and persons from outside the agency, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) (1) of this section. Such requirement shall be made by sending written notice to the affected FEA official and by filing a copy thereof with the Office of Public Affairs. Such requirement shall be effective for the period specified in the notice and may be revoked by the issuing official or his successor at any time.

[Docket No. 75-NW-17-AD; Amendment 39-2366]

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Boeing Model 747 Series Airplanes

A proposal to amend Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations to include an airworthiness directive requiring removal of the capacitor assembly from the toilet flush motor and capping of exposed wires in accordance with prescribed Boeing Service Bulletin instructions on all 747 airplanes was published in 40 FR 24364.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the amendment. Due consideration has been given to all comments received in response to the above notice. Although not objecting to removal of the capacitors, the ATA recommended extending the proposed compliance time for those airplanes on which AD 74-21-03 had been accomplished to 120 days and 90 days for all other airplanes. It was considered that this would permit modification of most airplanes at regular maintenance periods when the toilet shrouds are removed for routine cleaning. Under all the circumstances and after considering the additional information developed since issuance of the Notice, the FAA has determined that the simplicity of the proposal and consequences preclude extending the proposed compliance time.

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, ROUTES, AND PORTS OF CALL

In § 71.171 (40 FR 354), the Oklahoma City, Okla. (Tinker AFB), control zone is amended to read:

In § 71.181 (40 FR 441), the Huntsville, Ala., transition area is amended as follows:

quences preclude extending the proposed compliance time.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (31 FR 13697), § 39.13 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

BOEING: Applies to all Boeing Model 747 series aircraft certificated in all categories. Compliance required as indicated unless already accomplished.

To prevent possible lavatory fire, accomplish the following:

Within 300 hours time in service from the effective date of this AD, unless already accomplished, remove capacitor assembly from toilet flush motor and cap exposed wires in accordance with Boeing Service Bulletin 747-38-2021, or later FAA approved revisions, or in a manner approved by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, FAA Northwest Region.

The manufacturer's specifications and procedures identified and described in this directive are incorporated herein and made a part hereof pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(1).

All persons affected by this directive who have not already received these documents from the manufacturer may obtain copies upon request to Boeing Commercial Airplane Company, P.O. Box 3707, Seattle, Washington 98124. The documents may also be examined at FAA Northwest Region, 9010 East Marginal Way South, Seattle, Washington.

This amendment becomes effective September 19, 1975.

This amendment is made under the authority of sections 313(a), 601, and 603 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, and 1423) and of section 6(c) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)).

The incorporation by reference provisions in the document were approved by the Director of the Federal Register on June 19, 1967.

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, AREA LOW ROUTES, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Alteration of Control Zone

• The purpose of this amendment to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is to alter the Atlanta, Ga., control zone.

The Atlanta control zone is described in § 71.171 (40 FR 354). It is necessary to alter the description by correcting the coordinates of the airport; by deleting an extension predicated on the Atlanta ILS Runway 33 localizer southeast course; and by changing an extension predicated on Atlanta ILS Runway 9L localizer west course to Runway 9R. Since this amendment is minor in nature, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended, effective 0901 GMT, December 4, 1975, as hereinafter set forth.

In § 71.171 (40 FR 354), the Atlanta, Ga., control zone is amended to read as follows:

Within a 5-mile radius of The William B. Hartsfield Atlanta International Airport (Lat. 33°38'31" N., Long. 84°25'34" W.); within 2 miles each side of Rex VORTAC 264° and 271° radials, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 1 mile west of the VORTAC; within 2 miles each side of Atlanta ILS Runway 9R localizer west course, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the LOM; within 2 miles each side of Atlanta ILS Runway 8 localizer west course, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the LOM.

This amendment is made under the authority of sec. 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1348(a)) and of sec. 6(c) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)).

Issued in East Point, Ga., on September 5, 1975.

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, AREA LOW ROUTES, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Alteration of Control Zone

• The purpose of this amendment to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is to alter the Atlanta, Ga., (Dobbins AFB/NAS Atlanta) control zone.

The Atlanta (Dobbins AFB/NAS Atlanta) control zone is described in § 71.171 (40 FR 354). It is necessary to alter the description by correcting the coordinates of the airport and by changing a reference from Fulton County Airport to Charley Brown County Airport. Since this amendment is minor in nature, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended, effective 0901 GMT, December 4, 1975, as hereinafter set forth.

In § 71.171 (40 FR 354), the Atlanta, Ga., (Dobbins AFB/NAS Atlanta) control zone is amended as follows:

"... latitude 33°54'40" N., longitude 84°31'00" W. ... and ... (Fulton County Airport) ... is deleted and " ... (Lat. 33°54'54" N., Long. 84°30'59" W.) ... and ... (Charley Brown County Airport) ... are substituted therefor.

This amendment is made under the authority of sec. 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1348(a)) and of sec. 6(c) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)).

Issued in East Point, Ga., on September 4, 1975.

[Airspace Docket No. 75-SO-109]

PART 71—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS, AREA LOW ROUTES, CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, AND REPORTING POINTS

Alteration of Control Zone

• The purpose of this amendment to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is to alter the Atlanta, Ga., (Fulton County Airport) control zone.

The Atlanta (Fulton County Airport) control zone is described in § 71.171 (40 FR 354). The official name of the airport has been changed from Fulton County Airport to Charley Brown County Airport. It is necessary to alter the description by changing the airport name. Since this amendment is editorial in nature, and public procedure hereon are unnecessary.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended, effective 0901 G.m.t., December 4, 1975, as hereinafter set forth.
